BRITAIN SENDS STRONG NOTE TO RUSSIAN SOVIETS

London—The rioting rile of British feeling against Communistic propaganda and the unsatisfactory relations between the British Govern ment and the Russian Soviets have culminated in a stern warning ser warded by Sir Austen Chamberlain to the Soviet Government against the "continuous breach of solemn engage ments" between the two Govern ments and also the wide-spread Bol shevist propaganda.

The warning was in the form of diplomatic note, declaring in the strongest terms that the Anglo-Russian trade agreement would be abrogated, if the present diplomatic relations completely severed, unless "the flagrant viola tions of the solemn agreement be ceased by the two countries resp."

The note, addressed to M. Rosen gol, Soviet representative in London, is the strongest of the numerous pro tests sent to Russia since the trade agreement was signed in May, 1921, and is one of the most out spoken dip lomatic documents ever issued from Downing Street.

The note briefly dwells on the Anglo-Russian torious from 1924 with the famous Zinoviev letter which led to the main causes of the subsequent denial of the Martlonald Labor Government.

Morrow gold—a milling sterling of it—contributed to add the British Empire Games to the world's list. The London Government considered a shilling fighting fees in the Tower Inlon Club of Kiev, and the best quarters of a navigation company. It is stated by the police that they deliberately set the buildings ablaze for excitement.

MANY BRANCH LINES PROJECTED FOR THE WEST

Ottawa.—Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Railways and Canals, has given notice of his intention of submitting to Parliament for consideration at the present session, a program of general betterment and construction of the railways owned by the Canadian National Railways and the boards of directors. Parliament is to be asked to authorize the Canadian National Railways to proceed with the construction, during the next three years, of 478.2 miles of railway. The projects are divided into three groups:

1.—Lines which either economic and will serve better as branches.

2.—Branches for the purposes of general betterment and construction of the country which will connect rate feeders to the system.

3.—A branch which will link the Hudson's Bay Railway with the South Shore of the Canadian National Railways system.

The cost of these new lines, which are to be completed by August 31, 1929, will be $19,129,000 and the program has been submitted to the municipal states, after exhaustive consideration of the requirements of the National system.

About 50 per cent. of this railway building program will be in Saskatchewan, an analysis of these figures show. This is entirely apart from the extension proposed by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Prior railway management since that it may be found desirable to ask for some time during the next three years for one or two extensions, as a result of developments not fully foreseen at this time.

The railway committee also have under consideration the new lines which Parliament sanctioned in 1924

Western Growers Have no Preference as to Ports

Halifax—M Howe, member of the Dominion Grain Commission, and another Commissioner for the Eastern grain men who inspected the elevator facilities in Halifax port, states that no grain movement of grain through Halifax can be anticipated pending additional facilities for handling.

Mr. Howe contended western grain growers had no preference as to the route so to ports. They were put mainly interested in economy and facilities. Both John and Portland looked all the same to them.

Mr. Howe said before the cheapest route and by way of Hudsonian be points out that United States grain shipments through Canada is a trend when that port offered the best and most profitable.

The W.I. rooms were occupied for the meeting of February 25th as the debate "Resolved that modern dress needs reform" was to be the main feature and the size of the audience was ample proof that dress is a very important item in a woman's social life. Mrs. Baptiste and Mrs. Seale took the affirmative side of the argument and Mrs. Peter Lee and Mrs. J. H. Ingram the negative.

The judges were Mrs. Fincott, Mr. Allen and Mrs. Hawley. Both sides had some excellent material and considering the fact that the debaters have had very little experience along these lines, this was well presented. The judges gave the decision to the negative side by just a few points.

After the meeting three new members joined our ranks, but there is room for more.

The next meeting will be on entire Mr. March 12th at 2.30 p.m. in the Men and Hall. The roll call is to be answered by "Irish Stories." Mrs. J. Cranston will give a paper on the Origin of St. Patrick's Day. Come and laugh with us at the stories and learn how the "Irish of Ireland" celebrated.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS BUILD NEW EDIFICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist of Calgary, held its first service in its newly erected edifice on Sunday, February 6th.

The growth of the Cause of Christian Science in Calgary has been coincident with the growth of the Province of Alberta. During the early days, both before and since the Province was organized, the formative work was going on which later found expression in First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Calgary. Public interest in Christian Science in this city began about 1906, and this branch Church in its present form in 1911

Here and There

At a meeting of the fox breeders of the Acreage Association at Middleton, it was stated that a silver black fetus in captivity in the province was now worth approximately $10,000 which at a low estimate of $200 each made a total value of $2,000,000. The annual revenue to the ranchers is placed at $500,000

What is practically the first short cut passenger train to be run in Canada is soon at Regina to go on the road of the new Canadian Pacific Hotel tiger. As at Regina and at Banff, where magnificent new hotels are being erected by that Company, Canadian materials will be used on the building of the new Toronto hotel.

The population of the Prairie Provinces in 1926 was 2,947,582, according to the census taken on June 1st. This compares with 1,956,177 in 1916 and 1,836,648 in 1906. In the twenty year period Manitoba has increased its inhabitants from 365,688 to 620,706; Saskatchewan from 257,763 to 921,917, and Alberta from 185,153 to 607,504.

In view of pressure on the transportation facilities of the Canadian Pacific Railway when the fall rush of immigration and harvest travel is felt in the coming summer and fall months, the railway has already taken steps to cope with this by sending 200 colonist cars for repair and overhauling to the Angus Shops, the work to be finished upon them not later than April 1st.

Professor W. L. Carlyle, manager of the Province of Wales ranch, near High River, is en route to England where he will consult his royal employer regarding business matters pertaining to the ranch, purchase cattle and arrange for the annual spring or fall trip of the Prince's commercial division to Alberta.

The presentation of 12 foxs and seals to members of the Montreal Zoological Society by Capt. Sweeny, superintendent in charge of C.P.R. telegraphs, recently, brings the total number of animals owned by the several employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway in the past year up to 70. The number of employees passing the necessary steps to secure animals now stands at 30 and the Angus shops alone now collect on the list.

Indians Are Good Farmers

Indians at Prairie Provinces Produce One Million Bushels of Grain Last Year

The Indians of the three Prairie Provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—last season produced in grain, of which about half, or between 500,000 and 600,000 bushels, was wheat, according to a report of Government experts. There are 27,000 Indians in the area to which the report refers, and the total production was considered one of the most remarkable ever made by any race of people in the Prairie Provinces. It is pointed out that the Indians have had only a few years' training in agriculture, and that they have been handicapped in a large measure by the fact that they are allowed to cultivate only 160 acres of land, while white farmers are permitted to cultivate as much as they can handle.

Anti-Semitic Wave Sweeps the Soviet Union

Latest evidence of the Communist Party's fight on the Jewish Church is found in Moscow, where a boy of 13 years was tortured by Communists because he refused to eat ham. Ham is considered to be unclean by Jews, and Russian Communists are said to be using it as a means of forcing Jews to abandon their religion.

The case has created a sensation and widespread indignation throughout the Soviet Union.

To Increase Egg Production

Hens Lay More Eggs With the Use of Light

Those who have to do with the laying hens knows the kicker and yonth are problems that Fall laying can be kept up by artificial light from September 1 to November 1. It is possible by artificial light to carry the early hatched pullets through their first production period with much less mortality than if they were left to shift for themselves. Such extensive pulle's will materially increase the profits. Properly handled pullets will increase in the fall income from the birds for the year.

MARCH WEATHER DANGEROUS TO BABY

On Account of the Very Sudden Changes in Temperature

The month of March brings to many mothers anxious days and sleepless nights. Not only is the mortality high on account of the sudden changes in temperature, but the many colds and coughs which prevail at this season are very severe on the little ones. Then are often colds that settle on the lungs and develop into pneumonia, and as a result many little lives are lost.

Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine in the world for the little ones at this season. They break up colds, relieve coughs and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels. Mrs. Joseph Gaudet, Lac Bouchette, Que., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my little girl when she was troubled with colds and coughs and found them very good indeed. I can recommend them to any mother who has a sick baby." You can get these Tablets from any druggist or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Naval Base at Port Royal

Building of Naval Base Will Commence by the Caribbean Sea in Under Consideration

Public announcement was made at Port Royal and the residents of Kingston and vicinity of the site of the proposed naval base.

The announcement of the Admiralty that the Caribbean Sea is under consideration as the site of a naval base has caused a sensation in the minds of the people of Jamaica. Many of them are of the opinion that the selection of Port Royal will mean a great deal to the island, and have become quite excited over the matter.

Port Royal is a small place on the south coast of the island, and has been the scene of many historical events. It was at one time a famous pirate rendezvous, and was the scene of the capture of Panama by Sir Henry Morgan, the buccaneer. Port Royal also has an important harbor, and is the headquarters of the British naval station in the West Indies.

Farm of the Future

Nuts and Beans Only Crop Predicted by Dr. Kellogg

The farm of the future, without animals, except possibly a home for rabbits and guinea pigs, and without fields, except for "decorative purposes," is the prediction of by Dr. J. H. Kellogg, Battle Creek, Michigan, health specialist and food expert.

For the products of farm animals and fields he would substitute nuts and beans, which are richer nut trees in the United States than in any other country. Dr. Kellogg declares that the farm of the future will be a place for many years "with immense profit."

Farm animals, with the exception of horses, he classed as "filthy brutes," and feared to the future. He would raise all the vegetables he needed in his family on a small piece of land, and would raise his own fruit. Grain products and pulses he would eat in food products only a small part of what they comprise.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Noiseless Construction

Buildings May Soon be Erected Silently With Electric Hoist

The steel frame of a 20-storey factory has just been completed in Rhinelander, Pa., without arousing the entire town from its morning slumber or testing its nerves. There were no maddening blows of metallic rivets delivered with the noise and rap ity of a machine gun. No perilous and picturesquely dangerous tossing of red-hot rivets from a stubbily manipulated bucket to their final resting place. There was not a single, gaudily clothed lusty young human and clothes to rather with the intense heat of the glowing rivets.

It will be recalled that the Rhinelander was applied with brilliant success by the electric welding arc in making the disabled merchantry of interlocking steel ship during the war. At Rhinelander the electric arc welded for the first time in erecting the frame of a large building.

The Rhinelander structure must be seen to be appreciated and to comprehend its interesting and building feature which it displays. Indeed, before we may herald it as the last word in steel construction, we must add that the entire frame of the building is electrically welded, and that it has a structural steel weight less than that which would be required if riveted construction had been employed.

Stamp Laundry in Italy

War Baby Big Business—Washing and Re-Gumming Used Stamps for Collectors

The French postal services has found a great deal of trouble in dealing with the large number of forgeries that come from Many lots for goods have been paid for by means of stolen stamps, and in consequence it has been necessary to establish a department whose duty it is to detect forgeries and to prevent fraud.

Italy, in particular, is a happy hunting ground for forgers, and the Italian Government is now trying to take them. When a bill of any consequence is paid in stamps the amount is immediately telegraphed to the police, who are thus enabled to take them. When a bill of any consequence is paid in a Paris shop the stamps are sent to the Bureau de Recherches, and there they are carefully examined.

The Investigation disclosed that while the stamps were not counterfeit, they had been washed after cancellation marks obliterated and then regummed. The same laundry was discovered in Italy, doing a large business.

GREAT BRITAIN TO GIVE RUSSIA ANOTHER CHANCE

London.—Announcement in the House of Commons that Great Britain will not break off diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia, Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, unmarked a policy of giving Russia another chance.

This policy was endorsed by the House when the Liberals raised a discussion calling into question the recent British note to Russia, charging the Soviet with disseminating anti-British propaganda.

Mr. Asquin, replying in behalf of the Government, said it was desirable that world peace should be assisted by the elimination of distrust and suspicion which remained from the struggle of a few years ago. He said a breach with Russia was bound to have a reaction in other countries. It made suddenly before the world realized what was the precipitation and could only result in the loss of the right standpoint.

Whatever the provocation, he continued, a sudden breach could not occur without leaving a repercussion on the whole European situation. He was not retracting anything in the Soviet note or withdrawing what the conduct of Soviet Russia, the British Government's view was that Russia should be given another opportunity to conform its conduct to the ordinary rules of international life.

At the same time the Foreign Secretary assured the House that no British troops would be sent to Russia, and I am under pressure to establish several new detachments among the aboriginal tribes. As the result of the northward drift which is in progress, the force will have to go to the far North has been now extended.

He recommends strongly that a Commissioner has written him up to Ma. Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the police officers. He says that the Commissioner has been collected by the force in pursuance for various Government departments.

New British Embassy

Washington Mansion Purchased to have a million dollar embassy in Washington.

Designs for the building, drawn by Sir Edwin Lutyens, co-creator of the magnificent Indian capital at Delhi, have been approved by the United States Commission of Fine Arts, the site land has been acquired, and work will begin during the latter part of this year.

The entire structure will be un-fireproof throughout, and constructed substantially in the English manner. It will be of red brick with white stone trimmings. There will be surrounded by gardens, with tennis courts and similar amusements facilities, while in front a tall stone wall will be built, and a high iron fence, rustic and many-pointed. Although the embassy will be in Washington proper, it will be situated in the Rock Creek Park section, one of the most beautiful residential districts in the city.

Governor-General and Viscountess Willingdon Will Visit West

Ottawa.—The Governor-General and Viscountess Willingdon are to leave Ottawa on Saturday, March 17 on an extended tour of Western Canada. It is expected to be away about six weeks. The itinerary is not yet complete, but it is known that they will visit Victoria, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, Port Arthur and Fort William.

Three-Year Program Planned

Minister of Railways Will Introduce Plans for C.N. Railway

Ottawa.—Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Railways, will introduce plans in the House of Commons of the Canadian National Railways for the next three years.

Mr. Dunning will state briefly the measures to provide for the payment of Canadian National Railway bonds, and to provide for the issue of new securities to the amount of $30,000,000 for the purpose.

Attempted to Introduce Bait

Lobster Fishermen Object to Method Used in Nova Scotia

Lobster fishermen of Nova Scotia are up in arms against the practice of using bait in the lobster traps, and have petitioned the Government to prohibit the practice. They claim that the use of bait is destructive to the lobster industry and British preparations

Reindeer Investigation

Government Would Provide Food Supply for Natives of North Country

Ottawa.—A wireless message has been received by the Northern Territories branch of the interior department from the Parallel brothers at Point Barrow, Alaska, reporting on the success of their work on the reindeer investigation. These two Danish brothers are now on a 2,500 mile patrol across Alaska and the extreme North coast of Canada making an investigation into the possibility of moving reindeer from Alaska into Canadian territory to maintain the food supply for the native Eskimo, that section of the Canadian North is in need of intervention and the arrival of the Eskimo is imperative.

The two Parallel men will leave Nome country late June and will be on the trail the spring of 1924 when they will make their report to the department. Besides carrying on all phases of the reindeer question in studying the commercial possibilities of the industry, the brothers will in weeks the little two-man expedition will range the delta of the Mackenzie River. The men are trained hunter whilst and botanists and are one of the greatest explorers.

Department of Revenue

New Name Is Proposed for Department of Excise and Customs

A bill was introduced in the House of Commons by Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, which will make certain changes in the organization of his department. The principal change is that the department had three principal duties. One to collect customs, another excise, and the third income taxes. The bill provides that the name of these divisions would be under the charge of a commissioner who would have practically the same powers and duties as the present deputy ministers. The name of the department would be changed to Department of Revenue. The change was made, Mr. Fielding said, not because the present name was objectionable, but because it was thought the new name more precisely describes its functions.

Britain Remains Neutral

Taking No Sides in Struggle at Shanghai Says Chamberlain

London.—Britain will remain neutral in the struggle at Shanghai between Chinese factions, Austen Chamberlain said in the House of Commons. Asked if the British Government would co-operate with Japan in the defense of the International Settlement at Shanghai, the secretary of foreign affairs said that Britain was acting entirely independently in defense of its own interests.

Mr. Chamberlain said the British Government had no intention of taking part in any international police.

Mecca For Champions

Another title has become the rallying place not only for skiing tourists but for champions in every line of winter sports. The Canadian Pacific Railway has arranged for four first class provincial championships to be held at Banff during the Winter Carnival. Each event will be open to competitors from all parts of Canada and the United States.

The above photograph was taken on the Canmore Provincial and other championships of last year. It shows practically all Canada's champion speed skaters from every part of Canada and the United States.

Bobs Ruth's Contract

New York.—Babe Ruth home run king of baseball, has come to an agreement with the New York Yankees on which he will receive a new three-year contract at an annual salary of $70,000.

U. S. VESSELS SEIZE RUM SHIP ON THE HIGH SEAS

San Francisco.—That the Government is prepared to use force against its rum merchants in the high seas with but regard for the 12 mile limit in case where the ships involved are known rum runners, became apparent at the Treasury Department when it was announced that the Coast Guard cutter Seminole, commanded by Commander Frank Shoemaker, had seized the British rum ship I'm Alone, 20 miles off San Francisco, with upwards of 30,000 cases of liquor aboard.

The seizure was conducted under the direction of Lieutenant Frank Shoemaker, who transferred from the Seminole to Captain P. G. Hodge, district prohibition enforcement officer.

W. H. Hamilton, collector of customs here, although disavowing any participation with the seizure, approved. It was made as the result of information received from Canadian sources that the I'm Alone was engaged in rum running between St. Pierre and Miquelon and the Atlantic coast of the United States.

A New Rate of Initial Payments to be Made by Manitoba Pool

Winnipeg.—A new rate of initial payments to be made by the Manitoba Wheat Producers, Ltd., on all pool grain was announced here by H. M. Vahoney, manager. The period rate became effective on March 3, the announcement said.

Payments and durum advances, where pools are established, are 75 cents per cwt., 12 cents for 2c cents.

The Manitoba pool has both fixed and variable

Involve Questions of International Law

Rum Running Case Taken to Canadian Legation at Washington

Washington.—Rum running case is still involving Canadian citizens and ships, and the end is not in sight.

Hardly a day goes by that the Canadian legation here is not asked to appear in court of the case has been before the Pass-Rum Injunction, which was handed down by Federal Judge Dooling in New York city, prohibiting the purchase of Canadian whiskey principally for delivery in the United States at rum running points.

Between the lines, 50 per cent. of the Hooligan people were hostile to the Soviet. He expressed the opinion, however, that more pond had come to the surface in Russia since the United war, than could ever have come out of the Czarist regime.

Alberta Coal Mines Closed

Four Posted by Recent R.C.A.F. Squadron Inspection Survey

Two more of the Alberta coal mines have been posted by the special Royal Canadian Air Force squadron which the Minister of Defence, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, will fly into the Dominion this week. The survey of the Alberta coal fields by the Royal Canadian Air Force squadron, under Squadron Leader J. H. Ludlow, M.C., subject commanding the Vancouver unit, has been delayed by bad weather, but when completed will be the most extensive aerial survey ever undertaken in Canada.

The Alberta mines posted by the squadron inspection are the Drumheller, Lethbridge and Canmore collieries. The Drumheller mine is the largest in the province, and has been posted by the Department of Mines as a first class mine. The Lethbridge mine is also a first class mine, and has been posted by the Department of Mines as a first class mine. The Canmore mine is also a first class mine, and has been posted by the Department of Mines as a first class mine.

PROPOSED TAX ON FURS FROM NORTH COUNTRY

Ottawa.—For the first time in 20 years a tax is to be placed upon furs from the Northwest Territories. Within a few days Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, will introduce a bill into the House of Commons to empower the Dominion Parks Commissioner to impose a tax per pelt on furs from the Territories, to be paid by the trapper.

At the present time about 12,000 to 15,000 skins of furs are taken from the Territories each year by trappers, principally Indians and half-breeds. The proposed tax is expected to yield about $100,000 annually.

When this proposal was submitted to the conference of Eastern Interprovincial Trade Commissioners held in Montreal some time ago, it was opposed by the representatives of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, who claimed that the tax would place the Canadian fur trade at a disadvantage with the United States, but they did not oppose the tax.

Under the present law, however, the Dominion Parks Commissioner has no authority to collect the tax, but the bill now before the House of Commons will give him the necessary authority.

Proposal of Western Livestock Men Opposed

Eastern Producers Against Changes Advocated at Regina Conference

Regina.—English livestock people and representatives of the live stock exchanges in this part of the country met the minister of agriculture and other officials in the department of agriculture on Thursday afternoon and discussed the matter of the proposed changes in the regulations governing the handling of cattle for export. The meeting was held in the committee room of the provincial government.

The proposed changes in the regulations governing the handling of cattle for export, which were discussed at the meeting, are as follows:

1. That cattle for export be shipped direct to the port of shipment without stopping at any intermediate point for feeding or watering.

RUBBERS

With the rapid approach of spring and the warmer weather, rubbers will be greatly in demand.

Money spent for rubbers is wisely spent as allowing the feet to become cold and damp is opening the door to a myriad of ills. By all means protect your children's feet and your own feet from cold and dampness—and the simple expedient of wearing rubbers will do this.

Our stock of rubbers includes sizes and styles for everybody. Men's heavy rubbers, white and black, for farm and mine use; high rubber boots for use where the walking is extra wet. The lighter and more dressy rubbers for town wear. Ladies' rubbers and children rubbers and rubber boots.

These are all of excellent quality, bought with the experience of years to guide us, while the prices, due to a new system in buying are as low as good rubbers can be bought anywhere.

Buy your season's requirements early and get the full benefit of them. There are few things that cost so little and do so much.

Mrs. Watt is spending a few days in the city.

Geo. McLaughlin was a visitor to the city last Tuesday.

Miss Audrey Jobb spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Tofield spent the week end in Edmonton with Mrs. Simmons.

Mr. L. J. Smith is now acting operator at the Canadian National Depot. Mr. Simmons having been transferred to Fort Saskatchewan.

Mr. J. L. Gray returned last week after spending three months visiting relatives and friends in Yorkshire, England.

Miss Loret Ross was a visitor to the city last week.

Miss Jean Secord spent the week end at home.

Mr. D. M. McCarthy returned home Friday morning.

Mrs. Easton of Camrose, was a visitor to Tofield this week and attended the party given in honor of her daughter on Tuesday evening.

Neil McLeod was in Tofield on Wednesday. He is contemplating starting a threshing shop.

The annual meeting of the United Ladies' Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. McCauley on Friday, March 25th, at 3 p.m. The election of officers will take place at this meeting and all members are urgently requested to attend.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Highland on Wednesday, March 9th, a daughter.

Mrs. A. M. Johnson of Edmonton and little son, Bradford, came down for the farewell party given by her sister, Mrs. Pigott, returning Saturday evening.

The evening was devoted to dancing and games and everyone present had a most enjoyable time.

About mid-night lunch was served and during the period, W. A. Webb, on behalf of her friends, presented Miss Pigott with a beautiful club bag. Amid applause, Miss Easton suitably responded. She left on Wednesday morning's train for Wainright.

As we go to press we realize we have not reported the debate held by the U.F.A. on Saturday last. This was left out by accident and will be reported in our next issue. We will also make some comment on the subjects under discussion.

W.I. BANQUET

About 35 ladies sat down to the annual W.I. banquet on Tuesday night, which proved the usual success it has in years past. The banquet opened by singing "Oh, Canada," after which everybody did full justice to the well laden tables. Several "get together" songs were sung, and several toasts given.

Mrs. Baptist gave an outline of Institute work for the benefit of the six new members present, as well as the others, and Mrs. Pincott gave a short talk and on behalf of the Institute presented Mrs. Bairnes and Mrs. Bain with a farewell gift. A book was also given to each of the four retiring officers and Miss Kallal gave an interesting account of the work done in Ellis.

Mr. Worton was also tended a vote of thanks for his kindness in giving us newspaper space and announcing our various activities in the past. We were glad to welcome Mrs. Worton to the banquet and alike not a member, she accepted our invitation and was one of us for the time being. The tables were tastefully decorated with candlesticks and while the candles were burning, the gas lights were extinguished, giving the true banquet effect. At the closeberald THE TOFIELD

At the close all joined in singing "God Save the King," and everyone went home, feeling well satisfied with the evening's fun.

FROM A FRIEND IN CALIFORNIA

The following piece of poetry was sent to Mr. Olson by a friend who resides in California. It very aptly illustrates some Californian's idea of conditions in the "Golden State."

Where every business is over done:
Where teh stores charge $ninety$ on the goods made here,
Ash them the reason and they think you queer,
They serve you climate with all the meals,
It's no blamed hot, your back just peels.
The "Ananias Club" includes all the State,
From San Diego to the Golden Gate.
The movie stars marry twice a year:
Would marry again if the court was clear.
The grapefruit here is something fine,
Cross between lemons and pumpkin rind.
Where the cows eat barley instead of hay,
And the cream get lost in the milky way.
They tell you lots that are made by hand,
And make you believe it is really land.
The view of the ocean is very nice,
That is included in the price.
They weigh the sack and then the load,
Then weigh it again and their fingers hold.
They claim it is wet if it rains twice a year,
The grasswood fries in the sultry breeze,
The sunderems blow and the oranges freeze.
We shovel sand, you shovel snow,
Just about a stand off as far as I know.
So tune up your diver and start for the west,
Who, John are scarce and the wages less.
Bring all your cash and plenty of clothes,
When you'll get any more, the Lord only knows.
I'm telling this story, which I know is true,
As seen by one through eyes of blue
If the "Rooster Club" ever goin this back.
They will change my eyes from blue to black,
The "Times" says, please write the truth to a friend:
Now I have done so, and this is the end.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. R. W. Pincott was in tear at a party given in her honor on Friday afternoon for Mrs. A. E. Bairnes who is leaving soon for California. Thirty-five ladies were present and the afternoon was spent socially playing bridge, eight table- partying. The invitations were in the form of verse form, and most of the answers came back in verse, as well as the cards, Mrs. Pincott receiving the prize, which caused much laughter and merriment. One verse read as follows:

Mrs. Bairnes that
"The" she was going to a country
warm and nice,
Our thoughts sort of do fred toward cyclones and mice."

Mrs. Bairnes wasn't backward in saying she liked their verse best of all. At the close of these notes, the hostess said a few words in regard to losing such a good neighbor and friend, and suggested they all join in the good old and ever new song, "For she's a Jolly Good Fellow," which was heartily joined in, after which the party broke up. The prize for highest bridge score was won by Mrs. Russell, the lowest by Mrs. Chrisler. Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Johnson assisted Mrs. Pincott in serving.

W.I. NOTES

The March meeting was held last Wednesday, instead of Tuesday, owing to the severe storm. About thirty of the members were present, several of whom came visiting, and the meeting was started as per the slogan "the more the merrier."

The roll call was answered by each member giving her place of birth, maiden name and marriage name. This proved very interesting, some of the ladies hailing from all over the globe, five countries being represented as follows: eight from England, three from Scotland, one from Germany, seven from the United States, divided as follows: one each, Minnesota, North Dakota and New York; four from Ontario and seventeen were born in Canada as follows: Ontario 2; Nova Scotia 2; Quebec 1; Manitoba 2; Saskatchewan 3; Alberta 7. Full arrangements were made for the banquet which was held on Tuesday night. Mrs. Hyde Hall and Mrs. Hern served a fine lunch after which the meeting adjourned.

Unfortunately, his friend was already "down under" (the bed clothes) and had the 'phone muffled so didn't get the pleasure. The pleasure, the first mentioned, was Mr. R. Crevening, the second night out like I know that he was asleep at 4 a.m. so we leave you guessing.

SPORTS NIGHT LOTAFUN

The sports held at the school on Monday night attracted a fair sized crowd who had many a hearty laugh.

The evening was chiefly taken up with broomball, the various organizations in town even to the city fathers.

Hockey was represented by two events a game between the Doe Buds and a picked team and a game between Tofield United and Bards. The latter game was originally arranged to take place between Ketchamont and Bards seniors. Bardo turned up but Ketchamont were unable to come and Tofield United were at the last minute called to fill in. They won and we never saw much elated as Bardo boys were much older and bigger and had Archie Pruden, the [illegible] for Tofield forward [illegible] It is probably a [illegible] he never has rushed so [illegible] he will be be getting [illegible] head.

Had Terrible Headaches and Was Unable to Sleep

Saskatchewan Man Used Dodd's Kidney Pills With Great Success

Mr. N. Zilm Was Relieved of His Troubles After Taking Short Course of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Lavenham, Sask. (special) — "I want to tell you just what your Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for me," writes Mr. N. Zilm, a resident of this place. "I had terrible headaches and could not sleep for after taking two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I can now rest to feel fine. I cannot praise your kidney medicine enough and would not be without it in my home."

Disturbed headaches and sleepless nights are usually be attributed to run down and exhausted condition. Other symptoms such as irritability, tired languid feelings, depression and loss of energy are also the supreme sign of this condition. It is therefore necessary that you take a few weeks treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills to restore vitality and so really tone up the nervous system.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MARCH 20

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOPE

Golden Text: In my father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.—John 14:2.

Lesson: John 14:1-7; 2 Corinthians 5:1-8; John 5:2-9.

Devotional Reading: Revelation 21:1-7.

Explanations and Comments

The Perfect Guide.—Christ, John 14:1. Let not your heart trouble, believe in God, believe also in Me.

"Trust the Master himself who said it

To the sorrow-full little band,
Parting an hour of darkness
Could not end but under Stand."

"In my Father's house are many mansions," time Jesus comforted them in their sorrow. "mansion" meant originally merely a place or shelter, and immediately the margin of the Revised Version has the word "abiding place."

The greatest of his own death, Jesus said, "I go away." Then He added, "I go to prepare a place for you." The time of his departure is at hand. He is going to Jerusalem, settling forth on a journey to a better country. So Christ would say to us today, that we are going to die, but that we are going in the path to a country that ends at our Father's home.

"If it were not so I would have told you." In the minds of all people there is a belief in a future life. This belief, Jesus's words tell us, is true, for otherwise he would have disillusioned the minds of his followers.

"I am the way." Father, there is no other way to the mansions of heaven but by the narrow path of death.—George Matheson.

Might Have Been Worse

During a recent election campaign a candidate in a notorious ecclesiastical area was waxed wroth over statements that had appeared in the local paper, and went to the office to see the editor. "What do you mean by printing all that stuff about me?" he demanded. "Why, what's the matter with it?" demanded the perturbed editor, with an alarming sign of perturbation. "Why, the matter with it?" roared the perturbed politician. "Why, it's all lies, and you know it." "Well, then, what are you complaining about?" asked the editor with a smile. "How would you like it if we had told the truth about you?"

Women of Canada Pay Striking Tribute to Aluminum ——the Modern Metal

FROM Windsor, Ontario, to Hudson's Bay, from Halifax to the Rockies, RED ROSE TEA within the last few weeks has scored an extraordinary increase in sales.

It is because we have stopped using paper packages, and are again packing this finest of teas in the old, familiar Aluminum package of years go.

The reception it has been given demonstrates beyond all doubt that housewives of Canada recognize Aluminum as the perfect container.

For more than thirty years we have been experimenting with packages — trying lead, paper and Aluminum — seeking always a material that would protect and be worthy of Red Rose quality.

But it was only after Red Rose has been offered to the public in all these packages—first lead, then Aluminum, then paper—that the great advantages of Aluminum were proven.

Aluminum keeps out moisture, preserves the flavor and protects the quality. Paper packages, on the contrary, absorb moisture which occasionally impairs the quality.

So now and in the future RED ROSE TEA will be packed in the Aluminum package, as it was in years gone by.

Something New in Russia

Have Just Discovered a New Range

The Geological Society of Russia announced that a new and hitherto chain of mountains has been discovered in the Yakutsk expeditions headed by Professor Obrutchev, a geologist.

The mountains are located about the Indigirka River. The new range is described as more than 1,000 miles in length, 200 miles wide, and most of the peaks 11,000 feet high.

The range probably will be named after Lenine, the late premier.

Soviets Have Sent Expedition to Siberia

Will Seek Meteorite Which Fell Twenty Years Ago

The Soviet Government have dispatched an expedition into Siberia to conduct a search for a great, almost mythological meteorite, which is reported to have fallen almost 20 years ago.

Scientists, basing their estimates of the meteorite on the descriptions of natives, believe it must weigh at least 200,000 tons. By reason of its great size, it is believed, it still remains in the Central Siberian forest. In June, 1908, reading, the natives say, a terrific convulsion and shattering and burning trees over an area of 800 miles.

Government seismographs in Siberia support the natives' story to the extent that they recorded a violent shock on the day fixed by the natives.

Scientists believe that if the meteorite can be found it will yield valuable nickel, iron, silver and platinum. The inaccessibility of the region and the sparseness of the population, however, will make it exceedingly difficult to trace.

Canada still leads the world in asbestos production. In the year 1926 the Dominion's output was 360,000 tons of a world total of 500,000 tons, according to the latest computations Rhodesia furnished 35,000 tons and Russia and Cyprus 25,000.

WHEAT POOL ADVOCATES CLEAN SEED

THE WHEAT POOL is strongly advocating that members sow only good clean seed in order that the high quality of Canadian grain may be maintained. Wheat grown on the Canadian prairies has the reputation of being the best wheat in the world. The Pool is obtaining substantial premiums for its members' wheat over the prevailing price of wheat grown in other lands. This high standard should be maintained.

Of late there has been a tendency for Canadian wheat to be a mixture of many varieties, some of which are very much inferior to marquis. This is a dangerous drift and should be discouraged. The Pool is concerned in maintaining the high milling and baking quality which has made Canadian wheat very popular in importing countries.

The use of good seed means higher yields, better grades, through maturing evenly and freedom from weeds and diseases, or other grain. Good seed germinates vigorously and uniformly and gives a higher percentage of seedlings favorable to resisting unfavorable climatic and soil conditions.

George Sievor, Western sales manager for the Wheat Pool says: "From the standpoint of the wheat salesman I would desire nothing better than that all our wheat in the province of Alberta be of the highest grade. It is my opinion that the European miller will always desire to purchase reasonable quantities of high grade Canadian wheat. He must purchase this wheat to give the necessary strength to his flour. There is no question but what the world at large appreciates the quality of our high grade wheat. In my opinion anything that the growers of this province might do in the way of purchasing pure seed will be a decided aid to the Pool in the sale of its wheat to the world's market.

MINNESOTA EDITOR GIVES US A WALLOP

(From January Edition of the "Western Retailer.")

Winnipeg played host last week to a party of Minnesota editors, one of whom upon his return to his home town had the following remarks to make in his paper:—

"On Saturday morning the party was taken through a big departmental store and mail order house.

"This is an immense institution but it has been built up at the expense of the rural communities. While Minnesota has hundreds of thriving villages, with fine schools, good churches and plenty of amusement centres, you and I may search in that part of Canada we had just left, west to Winnipeg. Everyone who trade at home built up a home institution instead of building up great industrial centres here and there.

"When Mayor Webb was deploring the fact that Manitoba did not have the population it should have, the reason was very plain to be seen. Canada has been losing population, no doubt, because community life has not been developed. It is thriving villages that form community centres and make the people more contented to remain on the farm. Villages are the community centres, but villages can not and do not exist where establishments like these large mail order concerns are pulling money to the cities. Villages of from 400 to 2000 population use up considerable food in a year and create a home market for a part, at least, of the home product. Besides they make possible good schools, churches, and enlarged social life.

"If Canada is to develop, she must develop her villages, have her local newspapers, and good home stores, and then they can afford good schools, churches and entertainment centres.

"Railroad sidings will not build up an agricultural community."

Notice that last remark: "Railroad sidings will not build up a community."

While there may be wisdom in these remarks, it is unfortunate that an outsider has to point it out to us.

A Modern Private Electric Plant

To build a plant which would supply 110 volt "city" electricity, in the "city" way—automatically by merely turning it on and off, without using large storage batteries— that is the task which Kohler engineers accomplished.

A remarkable starting switch, patented and used only on the Kohler automatic, and a small starting battery made large storage batteries unnecessary. The Kohler Automatic sends its current direct to the appliance to be operated, just as the city power plant does.

By eliminating storage batteries, practically all loss of current between the generator and the electrical devices is overcome, and the expense of buying costly new sets periodically is avoided.

The Kohler Automatic generates "city" current 110 volts and thus makes it possible for you to use standard electric appliances carried in stock by your electrical dealer, and lighter, less expensive wire,—special low voltage equipment and heavy expensive wire are not required.

In convenience, too, it equals city electric service. When you turn on an electric light bulb or appliance, the Kohler Automatic starts automatically to supply as much or as little current as you need. It stops automatically when the last light or appliance is turned off.

The Kohler Automatic is, in short, a plant based ... and better principle, embodying the same ... of operation which makes city electric plant... efficient, built according to the most advanced principles of gas engine and electric generator design, a plant that represents the highest accomplishment in the field of private electric plant manufacture.

Today the Kohler Automatic Electric Plant is in operation on thousands of farms and ranches, in summer homes and resorts, in country stores, garages, and filling stations; aboard ships sailing the Lakes and the Oceans; in country schools and churches; in hospitals and sanitariums; and on dredges, excavators, ditchers, pavers, and other construction and excavating machinery, lighting villages; lighting aeroplane beacons, lighthouses, and by hundreds of other places where electricity can be used to advantage.

NEW BULLETIN OF GARNET WHEAT

The manuscript for a bulletin on Garnet wheat has been prepared by the cereal division of the experimental farm, Ottawa, and is now in the hands of the printer. This bulletin may be had when off the press on application to the publications branch, department of agriculture, Ottawa. In this bulletin an attempt has been made to present an unbiased statement regarding the merit as well as the demerits of this new variety as grown in widely scattered districts.

As it will probably be some time before the above publication will be available for distribution, and as many western wheat growers are anxious to know how garnet should be rated, a summary of our findings to date is submitted at this time. This summary is based on the behavior of each garnet in comparison with certain other varieties on western experimental farms over a period of years. The results obtained in local variety tests conducted by farmers throughout the three prairie provinces in 1925 and 1926, as well as those reported by approximately one thousand farmers in 1926, are also included. Milling and baking tests of products made both by the cereal division at Ottawa and by leading Canadian millers, are carried out in detail, as are also the results obtained from large tests made by the state testing mill of Minneapolis, and by the Pillsbury Farm Mills Company at the same place. In the case of the latter tests, there were used one hundred bushels of garnet and one hundred bushels of marquis obtained from the experimental station at Rosthern, Sask.

A paper is also submitted of the result of a commercial baking test of Garnet and Marquis made by the Standard Bread Co. of Ottawa.

In view of the importance of growing wheat that can be milled and baked together if necessary, the results of experiments co-determine whether Garnet can be blended with Marquis satisfactorily are given. The results of experiments in bleaching the flour ... [illegible] and 30 ppm are also included.

Yield

On the average of all tests conducted ... [illegible] ... Garnet ... [illegible] ... and ... [illegible] ... cereal farms, Garnet out yields Ruby quite definitely, but there does not appear to be a significant difference in yielding ability between the former variety and Marquis. This statement would seem to apply pretty generally to tests conducted by farmers as well. On the other hand Garnet appears capable of outyielding Marquis by a substantial margin in specific districts, notably those in which an early variety has a distinct advantage.

Earliness

Garnet matures from five to ten ... earlier than Marquis and about a day ahead of Ruby. Under certain conditions, the difference in maturity between Garnet and Marquis may be considerably greater than the above

Strength of Straw

In strength of straw Garnet appears to ... [illegible] between Marquis and Ruby, being slightly stronger than Ruby, but not quite so strong as Marquis. Under some conditions, however, Marquis shows distinctly greater strength.

Rust Resistance

In tests, conducted at the rust research laboratory Winnipeg, Garnet did not display any resistance to any of the seven physiologic forms of stem rust used. Although this variety may not possess rust resistance it may prove of value in rust areas by partly escaping this disease, owing to its ability to mature early.

Milling Values

Weight per bushel.—In the case of samples obtained from the dominion experimental farms and station in the prairie provinces in 1924 and 1925 Garnet weighed slightly less per measured bushel than did Marquis. On the other hand, records at the dominion farms at Brandon, Indian Head, Rosthern, Scott and Lacombe, over a period of six to eight years, show that Garnet and Marquis averaged 63 pounds and 62.8 pounds per bushel. Thus, over a twelve year period at Ottawa, Garnet averaged 64.1 pounds and Marquis 63.7 pounds per bushel.

Size of Kernel.—The kernel in the case of Garnet is normally smaller and more linear in shape than is that of Marquis and where conditions are not favorable for full development of the kernel this is inclined to be "lean" and not quite so desirable for milling purposes.

Hardness of Grain

Garnet produces a more ... cereal than Marquis and appears to ... [illegible] ... somewhat softer under moist conditions. This difference is particularly ... in districts where Marquis produces ... starchy or "pink-heid" kernels.

Flour Yield and Ash Content.—Gar...

... [illegible] ... Marquis in flour yield where the weight per bushel is equal to or even slightly less than Marquis.

In one experimental mill tests the ... content of Garnet was appreciably ... than Marquis, but in the commercial test, at Minneapolis, this was found to be the same for the two varieties.

Flour Color.—The color of flour of Garnet is more yellow or dark than is that of Marquis. The unbleached flour of Garnet when freshly milled may be described as light yellow or creamy yellow, while that of Marquis may be described as creamy white.

Garnet has been satisfactorily bleached by two plots of commercial bleaching and maturing agents.

Crude Protein.—The crude protein of Garnet grain is usually somewhat lower than that of Marquis, although the appearance of the grain might lead one to think otherwise.

Baking Qualities

Water Absorption and Bread Yields.—Generally speaking the flour of Marquis absorbs a little more water than does that of Garnet and, consequently, is inclined to produce a little higher bread yield.

Dough Consistency and Stability.—Garnet flour produces a dough of less resilience and elasticity than Marquis. The Garnet, however, is considered more pliable in consistency than Marquis. In experimental and commercial test bakes, the Garnet dough resisted fermentation slightly better than Marquis. When subjected to modern, large production baking machinery and methods, Garnet proved very satisfactory in stability.

Loaf Volume.—In the majority of tests Garnet produced a loaf of slightly greater volume than Marquis. This possibly is explained by the greater mechanogenic fermentability of the Garnet flour as particularly evidenced by a browner crust when baked and by studies of "diastatic power."

Crumb Color.—In color of crumb, Garnet ranks appreciably lower than the Marquis. On the other hand there is considerable evidence available to indicate that the crumb color of Garnet is entitled to rank higher than such varieties of Kota or Kitchener.

Crumb Texture.—In texture of crumb, Garnet is nearly equal to Marquis. On the other hand Garnet appears to be superior to Early Red Fife, Early Triumph and Kitchener in this respect. Good texture, combined with high volume, is commonly regarded as an indication of high baking strength or "baker's results."

General Conclusions

From the data now available, we may conclude that Garnet is a variety which merits consideration especially in those districts where the conditions are inferior to the proper development of Marquis. It is generally agreed that it is preferable to produce a uniform lot of Garnet sample than a ... [illegible] ... of ... [illegible] ... Marquis. ... [illegible] ... however, ... [illegible] ... not as a substitute for Marquis in districts where the latter variety ... [illegible] ... although ... [illegible] ... Garnet ... [illegible] ... allow the former variety to occupy part of the area devoted to wheat production is regarded by many ... [illegible] ... Garnet ... [illegible] ... baking qualities, and ... [illegible] ... does not rank as high as Marquis, all things considered, although it seems to be entitled to a place among the good milling wheats. The chief point regarding which Garnet ... [illegible] ... is the colour of its flour. This ... [illegible] ... is darker ... [illegible] ... than Marquis. Some ... [illegible] ... generally ... [illegible] ... section is the color of Garnet ... [illegible] ... apparently not as ... [illegible] ... commonly practised, the ... [illegible] ...

TWELVE FOOT SNOW DRIFTS IN SASKATOON COMPLETELY TIES UP STREET RAILWAY

Saskatoon, March 10th.—Most of a wheel's turning in Saskatoon to-day, and business is left practically to the worst snow and wind storm in 26 years. Drifts 12 feet high line city streets and country highways. Passenger trains are marooned in many sections, unable to cut their way through the great banks of drifting snow.

For 24 hours the blizzard has been at its height, and at nine o'clock this morning snow was still falling, driven by a howling wind.

Street cars are unable to move, trains are blocked on main lines, automobiles are buried where they were left standing before the storm began.

Early morning workers were forced to trudge their way through the great banks of snow—some of them having to cut lanes through snow that came up to their ears.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS T. R. HENDERSON'S SALE

Quite a large number attended the auction sale of T. R. Henderson's live-stock, implements, farm machinery, etc., which was held on Wednesday of this week. J. D. Hannan, assisted by an Edmonton auctioneer sold until darkness fell.

On the whole prices were good, but as usual, with a large sale of this kind, there were quite a few bargains. The condition of the livestock was favorably commented upon.

The selling was not completed when darkness fell and a considerable amount of goods will be brought to town and sold on Saturday at Carver and Hannan's warehouse.

RUBBERS

With the rapid approach of spring and the warmer weather, rubbers will be greatly in demand.

Money spent for rubbers is wisely spent as allowing the feet to become cold and damp is opening the door to a myriad of ills. By all means protect your children's feet and your own feet from cold and dampness—and the simple expedient of wearing rubbers will do this.

Our stock of rubbers includes sizes and styles for everybody. Men's heavy rubbers, white and black, for farm and mine use; high rubber boots for use where the walking is extra wet. The lighter and more dressy rubbers for town wear. Ladies' rubbers and children rubbers and rubber boots.

These are all of excellent quality, bought with the experience of years to guide us, while the prices, due to a new system in buying are as low as good rubbers can be bought anywhere.

Buy your season's requirements early and get the full benefit of them. There are few things that cost so little and do so much.

W. J. JACKMAN TO VISIT TOFIELD

Tofield will have the opportunity on April 2nd of hearing one of the best authorities on wheat marketing in teh province Mr. W. J. Jackman is vice chairman of the Alberta Wheat Pool elected, 1924, and has been the director for this district since the Pool's inception. He has just lately returned from an extended trip to the Argentine. He went there as a representative of the Canadian Wheat Producers Ltd to study and make a report of the marketing conditions of that country.

Tofield is fortunate in having a man of Mr. Jackman's ability and experience to speak here and it is hoped a good number will turn out to hear him.

TUXIS ANNUAL CONCERT TO BE HELD ON APRIL 1st (No Foolin')

The annual concert staged by the Tuxis Boys and the Trail Rangers is to be held at the Variety Theatre on Friday evening, April 1st. In the heading it says "no foolin" but this does not mean that there will not be any fun. There will be oils of it. It is an all round evening entertainment to be the first that the boys have ever produced.

Included among the numbers is a bright and snappy minstrel show complete with songs and jokes (new ones.) Another interesting feature is a camp fire scene and "The Importer of Hiawatha." This is well known by those attending camp from coast to coast and is well worth seeing and hearing. There are many other features, songs, dialogues, etc., and those attending are assured of a good evenings entertainment.

TOWN COUNCIL DISCUSS GAS RATES

The meeting of the Tofield Council held on Monday night was mostly taken up with routine affairs, passing accountants.

The Court of Revision will be held on May 2nd on which date any protested assessment will be considered.

The matter of gas rates for the town was discussed. The secretary read a reply from the Northwestern Utilities to a letter of his in which he asked the company, if in the event of a reduction of rates in Edmonton, the company would reduce the rates in Tofield. The reply stated that the company's manager was in the east and that a definite statement could not be given. If the company would agree to do this, it would save the town the trouble of making a formal application to the commissioners for a reduction of rates. So far the Edmonton rates have not been reduced.

Drainage of water due to the spring thaw was also discussed and T. Walker was engaged on Tuesday to open up culverts where it was possible to allow the water to escape.

GOOD CROWD ATTENDS THE DEBATE

A crowd that comfortably filled the church was present to hear the debate on Socialism vs. Co-operation which was held on Saturday, March 12th. J. Fletcher, better known as "Jim" and Mr. Thomas of Kingman upheld the socialistic side and Mr. Dilworth and Mr. Russell the cause of co-operation. Mr. Fletcher led off and spoke for 25 minutes outlining the basis of socialism and producing what it would do for the country were it put into force. At times Jim grew very eloquent, at other times the "old boss" was hard put to it to "fan on all six." He made out a good case for his side and was accorded the usuable applause when he finished.

R. W. Lovett, spoke for 25 minutes, practically starting many of the previous speakers statements and putting forth plenty of material to prove that Co-operation was the best system of the two. He relied more on plain solid statement than upon forceful speaking and in the course of his address gave a list of facts that were opposition found hard to refute.

Mr. Thomas for Kingman took the floor with the air of the professional orator and from beginning to the end of his speech was piling up points for himself. He attacked and methodically broke down the argument of the previous speaker and then proceeded to build up his own case. He was still speaking when the bell rang.

Mr. Russell argued that socialism was impossible in the nature of a people dream, that even the socialists themselves never had arrived upon but a really sound west on to prove that co-operation was much more preferable. He made out a splendid case for his side.

The judges, Mrs. Baptist, Rev. Watt and W. Warren, rendered a decision in favor of the negative (75-50), but in a vote taken from the audience, the affirmative (Kingman) was awarded the decision, so that both sides were in the happy position of having won the debate.

Geo. Abernethy, as president of the meet occupied the chair.

KINGMAN

Mr. P. Rodonsky of Edmonton was a business visitor in Kingman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce from Innisfree arrived in Kingman on Friday and will take up farm ing in the Hardisty district.

On Friday evening, March 11th, about 20 young people spent the evening at the Sears home to celebrate Alberta's 19th birthday; also after midnight Mr. Sear's 4-ben birthday. Five tables of whist were played and when the game was finished, contests, music and singing was enjoyed. Mildred Lawson and Hazel Sears, Martin Lawson and Leslie McGinnis gave violin music and radio music was also received. Lunch was served by the hostess and Mr. C. A. Ingram and after another two hours of fun, the guests departed home with pleasant memories of the evening.

The most successful event of the season was the St. Patrick" social held at the Shultz home on Friday night under the auspices of the M.A.S. One hundred or more people were present and after all had arrived, a "Tea" guessing contest was started. Mrs. Peter Lee and Boy Lee took the first prize having the most correct answers, which was a nice cup and saucer. One little lad not lassie, Irene Silbritz and Oliver Shultz took the booby which was just as acceptable, a chocola's bar. Also a singing contest was staged causing much laughter and merriment. Mr. John Brown sang several Irish songs. Miss Hazel Sears played the accompaniment. Also Arthur Moen of Bardo favored with a solo. The dumplings of the Irish stew sold like hot cakes, after which a delicious lunch was served of sandwiches, potato salad, cake, Jello, whipped cream and coffee. $27.45 was realized for the evening.

SOCIALISM

THE DEBATE held at the United Church on Saturday, March 12th, sponsored by the local U.F.A. was very well attended and those present showed keen interest in the subject, viz: Socialism vs. Co-operation. We suspect that a considerable portion of the interest was created by the always interesting subject, socialism.

Owing to the profusion of ideas and opinions as to ways and means to be employed to bring about a socialistic era, there is a wide spread belief that, socialism itself is indefinable, but there are probably no more divergent opinions regarding socialism than any other matter of universal interest. The importance of economic conditions will, and diversion views are objectives magnified, where a quiet and complete understanding is desired. Briefly, socialism can be described as a condition of affairs where the ownership of the instruments of production (land and capital), are vested in the state for the common good.

This is of course, directly opposed to the present system of capitalism, which according to Marx, the father of scientific socialism, the poor become poorer and the rich become richer. In considering socialism, one western farmer must take into consideration that it is a product of a "world" that is foreign to his. It is a product of crowded cities, poor industrial conditions, and where an all paid job was the only hope for many, and even then a hope that did not always materialize.

There are more socialists in the world than is generally supposed, the German socialist party, polling over a million votes in 1912, France over a million and there are also a large number of socialists in Britain. The growth of socialism and its endorsement by the masses of all nations is a marked feature of the early years of this century. What effect the great war had on socialism, both as regards membership and belief, we do not know.

Among socialists themselves, there are two distinct schools of thought, evolutionary and revolutionary. The first is generally preferred by the British and German socialists and the second, by the Russians.

The capitalistic system has, since the era of mass production and distribution, been the means of building up huge fortunes for a comparatively few individuals, and on the other hand has condemned to a life of drudgery millions of people in all countries. In spite of the few model industrial villages in the world and the forming and passing of numerous factory acts, one still meets with nothing more than a pool. Poverty and the suffering of discontent amongst both town and present problem of all countries. Unemployment only a short time since we read lines of men appearing in Edmonton, and Edmonton is comparatively a new city.

State ownership in Australia and New Zealand, in addition, to other countries, has been responsible for some of the best results. What socialism would mean on production is another thing—to what position it would put one nation in, compared to another nation that did not endorse socialism has to be considered. With war and conquest in its usually understood terms, and industrially, still vital factors on this planet; with national consciousness still strong in millions of hearts, it takes a brave man to deliberately chose a weaker, even though a more idealic social structure for his country. There are grounds for argument that a state owned industry would be more powerful than privately owned industry could ever be. But this opens up another question, viz: whether it is desire to achieve or desire to possess that drives men forward.

In some minds the term socialism means something impossible. To many it means nothing, more than an equal distribution of wealth; actually socialism is a social system devoid of many of the evils of capitalism, and it is not unreasonable to suppose that it is the next step in the seemingly inevitable evolution of mankind.

VARIETY THEATRE CHANGES HANDS

A deal of local interest took place on Monday of this week when Frank O. Ball became the new proprietor of the Variety Theatre and the dwelling house occupied by Dr. McClury and owned by W. Bellamy. F. O. Ball will also take over the machine agencies of W. Bellamy. In turn W. Bellamy will take over F. O Ball's farm.

The Variety Theatre has been under W Bellamy's managership for a good many years, he having taken it over from Bowbar and Elliott about about 1913—6. During that time Walter has enjoyed steady patronage and has been popular among theatre goers and the young folk who attend the dances.

About 1919 the theatre was much enlarged. Recently, a new sd better projecting machine was installed.

F. O. Ball has been in the district since 1914, and he farmed most of the time. For a time he was in partnership with his brother, Donald.

He will take over the actual management of the theatre on April 1st.

GIRLS' CONCERT

GREAT SUCCESS

The local girls club held their annual concert at the Variety Theatre on Friday night last. There was a good crowd present and the girls fully lived up to their reputation as entertainers. The concert consisted of plays, dialogues, songs and recitations. A particularly pleasing feature was the Sir Roger de Coverly minuet which brought forth hearty applause and an encore.

Financially, too, the event was a success, netting the club's funds a substantial amount.

THE PARTY SYSTEM

IF HISTORY teaches us anything, it is that there will always be men opposed to party government—or any other system of government. Party government may be either good or bad—according to the way one looks at it, but it is safe to say that it will always have its opponents and its defenders.

Like many another institution or thing, party politics was the outcome of accident, the division into Whigs and Tories in the Stuart period in England; and long after the original difference was forgotten, this developed into a real divergence of political outlook. The original names, Tories and Whigs mean little to-day in view of the fact that in the ever changing viewpoint of public opinion, and political fortunes, there has been many a turnover of opinion and belief. To-day the Conservatives are understood to stand for the protection of vested interests while the Liberals are more progressive and closer in line with the common people. Actually this division is much more apparent than real.

In considering the party system of government, it is wise to remember that it is a democratic form of government, viz: flatly opposed to government by kings, lords, or barons. Also that in one form or another, party government prevails in most civilized countries. Briefly, some of its advantages seem to be: stability of government; the orderly conduct of business and the passing of laws; unanimity after an opposition to criticize and thoroughly debate any proposed legislation; and in the event of the ministers bringing in a particularly obnoxious bill, the opportunity of passing a vote of confidence.

Some of the advantages of party government would seem to be: the aligning of private members' views to party expediency; the opportunity for one party representing one section, for a time at least, to control the affairs of all the people, not necessarily a majority of the people.

There is little cause for wonder that Mr. Luchkovich, from the West, and suddenly placed among party politics in its most highly organized form, would have a revulsion of feeling against the system. But if he will analyze as keenly as he writes, he will discover it is not so much the system as the circumstances that causes his despondency. No matter whether parliament is composed of groups or one grand council, there will always be division of thought and action, with consequent elation for the victors and despondency for the vanquished.

His remarks regarding lobbyists are well worth noting. This is an outrageous practice and members of the House should devise some protection for themselves. It would seem to us, that considering members of parliament are generally intelligent people, the efforts of the lobbyists is mostly wasted, but even so, they constitute a nuisance that should, for the members own good be done away with.

The chief evil of party politics is in the way the parties are supposedly financed. For large companies to admit that they donated large amounts of money to both parties, is a disgrace. Money is not donated unless there is some expectation of future reward and for party leaders to have these donations in mind when planning legislation is anything but a healthy condition of affairs. But it is not so much the system that is at fault. It is more than likely that with any system of government there would be some abuses.

Mr. Luchkovich in condemning party government, evidently forgets that as long as there are constituted parties opposed to the U.F.A., the U.F.A. itself constitutes a party; it must, or refrain from parliamentary procedure. It is only when the U.F.A. is one hundred per cent strong in parliament can they drop the designation of party; one party automatically creates another one out of its opponents, and the only way to discard the word party, is to use another word which means the same thing. Probably occupational group.

We are both pleased to read and publish Mr. Luchkovich's letter. It is gratifying to note that he at least remembers his constituents. Frequently the only thing one hears from a member after being elected comes four years later and is a plea for re-election. While the letter has all the signs, politically at least, of "green timber" the "timber" nevertheless is sound. The memory of the banquet will pass; quite likely he himself before another four years have passed will have sat at banquet tables. At anyrate there is nothing much wrong with a banquet and little advantage to be gained by purposely avoiding one. As to his fears regarding the future of the country, no doubt political life could be improved, but we utter no such prayer as he. We have faith in the few million workers of the country. If as time goes on he finds the idealic condition of affairs he desires fail to materialize, he might get some consolation from the fact that inasmuch as human nature is imperfect, governments composed of humans are likely to be imperfect too It is hard to make a perfect whole from imperfect parts.

PARTYISM WORRIES M. LUCHKOVICH, M.P.

The following letter from Mr. Luchkovich is published by the "Vegreville Observer." As the writer is also a member for this district, we are taking the liberty of copying it.

Ottawa, March 18th, 1927

Editor Observer,

Dear Sir,

It is Saturday night, and I am trying very hard to concentrate on the subject matter of my letter. My efforts, however, are futile; for in the Parliamentary dining room, immediately opposite my window, a brilliant social affair is in full swing. Gaudily attired women and sprucely dressed men sit around banquet tables and fill the air with thunderous applause and boisterous laughter. Some witty orator has the floor. Who is it that evokes such merriment? As I look through my window I am reminded to see Mr. Brown of Lisgar, addressing an enthusiastic audience. I am interspersed here and there with recently converted Conservatives. What a reversion of sentiment. The audience is now laughing with, and not at him, as it was once wont to do in the House. Blushing profusely, the speaker resumes his place and the next item (probably inserted by some thoughtful Liberal) is a very jazzy version of Hiawatha's "I love you."

This surely was not conducive to a proper meditative atmosphere, so I decided to seek the seclusion of my quiet rooming house and thus leave the participants of the banquet hall to cement their newly acquired friendship in further gayety and festivity.

The kaleidoscopic incident above related is only one of the many transient phases of political life. What a world of doubt it creates in one's mind. Is life after all only an absurd and groundless fancy? Can it be that idealism exists only in the realms of imagination and has no place in this hard world of materialism? And what of my ethical ideals? Are they after all only defiesse spherical creatures that must give way to the political bird of prey called EXPEDIENCY? Have they no place in our varicose walks of life to enlighten an orthodox and reactionary world; or are they merely evanescent, like the hues of sunset, beautiful while they last, but vanishing even as we gaze upon them, before the swiftly falling shades of approaching night?

To the vacillating would be skeptic an affirmative answer suggests itself; but the enthusiastic smile, pulsing cloud unabashed, stands firm in the belief that every step taken forward is an advance in the march of progress. Great indeed is the man who does not succumb to the blandishments, the intrigues, the cajoleries and the corruption of the sordid party politician, but who, notwithstanding finds his way, thorny though it may be, in pursuit of his ideal.

If, therefore there is no such thing as an ideal in politics then God help this poor politician ridden country; but if such a thing exists it can only be attained and realized through the medium of a mind at once courageous, independent, and unsullied by Party-ism and Party methods. The fight is rendered harder because of powerful outside interests that have a strangle hold on Parliament—the unseen hands that holds the reigns of government.

Evidence of this anterior influence is found in the House itself; in the committee rooms where streams of lobbyists can be found busily plying their trade; and in the Senate, that august body that is said to resist the clamor and caprice of the mob," and also much valuable legislation.

The Georgian Bay Canal project seems to have the whole-hearted support of the Liberal side of the House. But why should it not when Sir Clifford Sifton is behind the public enterprise; the ruins of the mighty might have been very shaky if they acted otherwise.

It is over 32 years since the Conservative party which now seeks a renewal, first applied for a charter to construct the said enterprise. Within that time the charter has been renewed 18 times.

A Modern Private Electric Plant

To build a plant which would supply 110 volt "city" electricity, in the "city" way—automatically by merely turning it on and off, without using large storage batteries— that is the task which Kohler engineers accomplished.

A dependable starting switch, patented and used only on the Kohler Automatic, and a small starting battery made large storage batteries unnecessary. The Kohler Automatic sends its current direct to the appliance to be operated, just as the city power plant does.

By eliminating storage batteries, practically all loss of current between the generator and the electrical devices is overcome, and the expense of buying costly new sets periodically is avoided.

The Kohler Automatic generates "city" current—110 volts and thus makes it possible for you to use the standard electric appliances carried in stock by your electrical dealer, and lighter, less expensive wire, —special low voltage equipment and heavy expensive wire are not required.

In convenience, too, it equals city electric service. When you turn on an electric light bulb or appliance, the Kohler Automatic starts automatically to supply as much or as little current as you need. It stops automatically when the last light or appliance is turned off.

The Kohler Automatic is, in short, a plant based on a new and better principle, embodying the same methods of generation which makes city electric plants efficient, built according to the most advanced principles of gas engine and electric generator design, a plant that represents the highest accomplishment in the field of private electric plant manufacture.

Today the Kohler Automatic Electric Plant is in operation on thousands of farms and ranches, in summer homes and resorts, in country stores, garages, and filling stations; aboard ships sailing the Great Lakes and the Oceans; in country schools and churches; in hospitals and sanitariums; and on dredges, excavators, ditchers, pavers, and other construction and excavating machinery, lighting villages; lighting aeroplane beacons, lighthouses, and in hundreds of other places where electricity can be used to advantage.

Advertising Is The Motive Power Behind Business

Bill tooth and nail as they do not wish to hand over to a private company what is virtually a cash gift of millions of dollars for the exploitation of our great natural resources, which ought to be developed only by and in the interests of the public as a public utility.

Naturally this Bill is heavy to the lobbyists whose insidious influence is causing itself felt in the House. A lobbyist is a sort of sandwich man in the employ of a company interested in a Bill, who must not to it by hook or crook that said Bill gets through the Committee stage without fail. His duty, therefore, consists in preying upon members and inducing them to support the schemes of his company. These buzzards hum in and buzz out of Parliament in a continual stream; but after all, they are only an incident of Parliam which must dole out the spoils of office to its adherents.

And now about the Senate—that most respectable and dignified House of Parliament! "It is intolerable," says Mr. Woodsworth, "that an irresponsible body should be able to nullify the acts of the elected representatives of the people." And such action on the part of the Senate is not strange when it is remembered that it is really the champion of the big interests. One needs only to read the biographies of each senator to learn that this is a fact. Senator Currie for example, is president of twelve companies and a director of 20. So what chance there, here has a poor commoner against such odds? Senator Lougheed, with his old age pensions and rural credits must succumb to chloroform when such bills come before him! The mortgage companies might be prejudiced if the latter act was allowed to pass. Secure themselves as to a $4000 yearly pension, why they should they worry if suffering humanity is ground? The chill penury of old age does not bother them. Why should it under the circumstances.

And now we must let William Duff born in on the discussion. With a gusto of a conquering hero he hoisted an electrician across the House the other day, that will go down in history with a pork barrel label attached to it. It is rather queer why this Duff person should bring up so many memories of childhood; but I can clearly recall how 35 years ago I saw the political ward boss enter the ward saloon with a gang of henchmen to plan in a private room the next days' election campaign. This meant the purchase of whiskey and cigars to catch votes with, or, if need be, the introduction of repeaters to cast additional ballots. Both were used next day. Now, what Mr. Duff's personal bit for mess remark: "I have got the patronage" what did he mean? He was beaten by Mr. E. J. Queen-Leonard in the last election, and it was only by the accident he was another tenant in a recent bye-election. It was a drubbing in the House by Mr. Ernst that inspired the above new memorial remark: "I have got the patronage," that is, the power to dole out discovery jobs to his faithful backers. A worthy descendant, indeed, of the Tregloydite salesman chasing a belated vote and using him down, with his superior strength and speed and then breaking and the second is expected to bring him with his club. Today Mr. Duff $220,000 in.

uses another kind of club which he is not at all sensitive of hearing with the facile boast: "I have got the patronage."

Well, if this is the type of idealism that is to dominate Canadian politics, then I think it is high time to do some house cleaning. We might as well get our brooms ready now for the next general election.

In conclusion, I might quote the remarks made by the Hon. Mr. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, in his reply to a question asked by Dr. Manion from Fort William, re the abandonment of the bull scheme. "I think," said the Honourable Minister, "my hon. friend is unnecessarily alarmed. I may say that I intend to make a statement in the course of a day or two which I hope will allay the fears, not only of my hon. friend, but also the animals in question."

I have said that the Minister's remarks have been in reference to the bull scheme, but as to the Minister's remarks themselves, I think the animal he is referring to is an imported fresh bull which means nothing at all. He absolutely makes no promise of helping the farmers of the West in their efforts to improve the live stock industry of the districts. It is strange that a Minister, who himself is a Western member, should make no hesitation about granting $25,000 a year for a period of 20 years to help the Toronto fair, but who, when it comes to helping the type of man who have sent him to parliament and who contributed to the country's basic industry, is very reticent and reluctant to aid them in improving that industry. But this is all a part and parcel of the political system.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

Issued by Publicity Commissioner, Government of Alberta, Edmonton,

March 26th, 1927

Provincial Finances

The annual review of Alberta's finances was presented to the legislature in session at Edmonton last week, by Hon. R. G. Reid, Minister of Finance. In view of the fact that the financial year of the government is to be changed to end March 31st of each year, Mr. Reid presented estimates covering the 15 months to March 31st of 1928.

For the calendar year of 1927 he estimates that there will be a surplus in the Provincial Treasury of more than $20,000 with another $20,000 for the first three months of 1928, making a total surplus of more than $40,000.

The total estimated revenue for 1927 is $20,000,000 more over the actual revenue for 1926 of $20,000,000 and the estimated expenditures for the present year show an increase over the actual expenditure of 1926 of $20,000.

Two new taxes were announced, the first being a 5 per cent tax on the transfer of all per-sonal property in the province, and the second being an additional tax of one cent a gallon on gasoline. The first is expected to bring $100,000 into the treasury and the second is expected to bring $1,000,000.

Personal Supervision Counts

Many people who were hesitant about buying the product of a small town bakery, as against the product of the large city bakeries, now know that personal supervision is an important factor in the making of bread.

Millions of People are now becoming pacquainted with ALBERTA BUTTER. On the butter markets of the world —London, New York and also in the Orient, Alberta butter is now making a name for itself. We are doing our utmost in upholding the quality of the Alberta product, and in procuring the highest possible price for the product, not solely for our own benefit, but so that the seller of cream should do his best to maintain a high standard, procure a good price, and increase the volume.

PONTIAC Six introduced a totally new and revolutionary standard of values when the first Pontiac Six was announced a little over a year ago.

Now, Pontiac Six is increasing its lead—sweeping still further in advance of its field. For, in the New and Finer Pontiac Six, General Motors has achieved a combination of fine, six-cylinder performance, strikingly beautiful appearance and low price unequalled in all the automobile world.

Again Pontiac leads in value—and by a wider margin than ever. Small wonder that the records established by Pontiac's first year sales are already being surpassed by the enthusiastic public reception of the New and Finer Pontiac Six.

Come in and see the car, and the reasons for Pontiac leadership become at once apparent.

Mrs. C. M. Simmons spent the week end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murray and family returned to Mirror on Thursday morning.

At a meeting of chautauqua guarantors held at the municipal hall on Saturday night, it was decided to hold an old time dance at the Variety Theatre on Thursday, April 14th, the night before Good Friday. Good music will be provided and a pleasant time is assured all those who attend.

DR. LAW MOVES HIS OFFICE

Dr. Frank Law has moved his office to the rear of the drug store. Mr. Hershey has remodelled an office and waiting room that will serve both the doctor, and his patients splendidly.

In addition to the usual conveniences to be found in a doctors office, there is a sliding panel which communicates with the dispensary. Thus anything that the doctor may need in the way of drugs can be up and delivered to the patient in the shortest possible time.

There is a side entrance and also an entrance from the drug store and patients are at liberty to use which ever they wish.

WEDDING

A wedding of local interest took place in Edgerton last week when Mr. Herman Lewis and Miss Blanche Bowick were united in marriage.

Both the bride and groom are well known locally having, while at home with their parents, residents of Tofield. Along with their many friends here the Mercury wishes to extend congratulations.

AUCTION SALES

There are three auction sales to be held in the immediate future, P. O. Hall holding a sale of his farm stock and implements on Monday, April 11th. Posters are out and the full list appeared in last week's Mercury. On Saturday, April 16th, two community sales will be held, one by F. C. Ball and the other by H. Hansen. Posters for these will be out this week and parties desiring to have goods sold at either one of these sales should notify the auctioneer commencing.

The Chairman, Mr. F. Scale, then announced that the meeting would be thrown open to questions, and Mr. McCall would endeavor to answer them as far as he could. A number of questions were asked and answered, the question of special interest to Tofield was how much seed grain is needed to be shipped from a certain point before a car is chargeable as an elevator. Mr. McCall said 10,000 bushels, though in cases of special grain, 20,000 would be required. Tofield has about 60,000 bushels of seed grain.

A vote of thanks was then accorded the speaker, which met with hearty application.

W.I. NOTES

Wheat Pool Meeting

A very good attendance of farmers and others were present at the Variety Theatre on Saturday afternoon and heard Mr. McCall give a very interesting address upon the wheat pool.

Mr. Jackman, was to have addressed the meeting, but owing to illness was unable to be present.

Mr. McCall spoke interestingly as [illegible] organization, many methods of organization to grain growers. He said that there was no intention of the wheat pool to attempt to form a world pool. About 65 per cent of Canadian wheat is controlled by the pool and while this is a large quantity of wheat it is a long way from being sufficient to control the world's supply. Speaking of the effect of the wheat pool upon other lines of business, he quoted a Calgary merchant, who, when urged by customers to join the pool stated that the wheat pool was responsible for 25 per cent increase in business to him. Mr. McCall explained in detail many technical matters familiar with the marketing of wheat, such as percentage to be allowed for shrinkage; need for [illegible] at different points; [illegible] to follow in the event of [illegible] factors at any local elevator; the difference between standard grades and commercial grades; government testing system and other matters.

Will the pool make money for the farmers? The speaker claimed it did. After a close checking of the amount paid by the trade and the amount paid by the pool, it was found that the pool four cents per bushel more than the trade, for the same grade of wheat. The speaker quoted as an [illegible] agent who handled 90,000 bushels of pool wheat and 2,000 bushels of wheat outside the pool. This agent had stated that there was a loss to [illegible] in pool [illegible] explained the [illegible] and [illegible] the farmers [illegible] in getting 5c. or 2 cents per bushel on the private [illegible]. Which was the best system? 800 farmers cooperating or a closed [illegible]. The speaker claimed co-operation. He had met a number of farmer who said the pool was not a good thing.

Touching on the campaign being waged by the Northwestern Grain Trade, he stated it was his opinion the trade was worried because the pool was going ahead.

While they were of the opinion there was little hope of the pool becoming a success, they had little fear. The first four years of the pool had been a success and now when the beginning of contracts is nearly at hand, the grain trade is doing all in its power to discredit the work of the pool. Its strongly urged his audience to stick, for if the pool was a success it was to their [illegible] to endeavor to [illegible] Co-Appleace.

Mr. J. Brown, sr., who has been very poorly for some time, is not improving but has been slightly worse the past two weeks.

Mr. A. [illegible] Williams spent several days at the [illegible] of the week.

Mr. Hansen, resident of Woodlawn district gave a dance at the Woodlawn school house on Friday night.

Mrs. T. D. Ferguson who was visiting friends in Vancouver was compelled to return home owing to the death of her brother-in-law, Lloyd Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGinitie visited at the Brown home on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Easton came from Wainwright Saturday evening, spending Sunday at the Owen home returning to her duties Monday morning.

A surprise party was held at the Mitchell home on Monday evening, when quite a large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered to wish Mrs. Dora Mitchell and Mrs. Sam Nomeland many happy returns of the day, it being both ladies birthdays. A pleasant social time was spent and some nice gifts given.

Mr. F. Fawcett, Mr. A. F. Skaltz and family, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mitchell.

Town girls met at the Carlisle home for a meeting of their Lenten club on Tuesday evening. The next meeting will be held monthly on Saturday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. Brown. NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

KETCHAMOOT

We were glad to hear one of our own Tofielders talking over the radio last week, viz: Mr. John Cookson, whose voice came in as quite clearly from C.J.C.A.

The warm weather of the past few days has caused the snow to disappear rapidly causing the roads to be almost impassable. These conditions however are not arousing any hopes for an early spring as farmers do not expect to commence work on the land until the middle of April at the earliest.

Mr. Tom Shultz drilled a well for Dick Turner, Maurice and Leslie McGinitie, going down from 60 to 69 ft., but all have a good flow of water.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the Ferguson family in the loss of their son and brother.

Miss Mabel Jevning of Bardo is assisting Mrs. Sam Sibbrot with her housework.

Willie Ingram accompanied the Messrs. Fergusons' to Camrose on Wednesday. Also spent several days at their home returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Rasbaugh visited with Mrs. Rasbaugh's parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Noland of Lahaskeag on Sunday.

Mr. Jos Batton returned home on Wednesday after attending a few days in a bible school in Edmonton.

Messrs. C. Williams and two children spent Sunday afternoon at the W. A. C. Lell home

The monthly meeting of the M.A.S. will be held next Wednesday, April 13th at the home of Mrs. Maurice McGinitie at two p.m., a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Ketchamoot school will again open for the term this year with the Tofield school for.

Mr. Chas. Nashman, our Syrian friend and neighbor left on Thursday for Regina where he will join a party of his fellow countrymen. They will then embark on a journey in their old home in Syria via Halifax, Liverpool, Portland and Damascus. We wish Mr. Nashman a pleasant journey and a safe return. He expects to be gone about two months.

KINGMAN

Mr. Chas. Nashman left on Monday for a visit to the old country.

Edmonton visitors last week were: Frank Johnson, Frank Nashman, Lasso Orsbon and Andrew Kostacl.

Mrs. O. P. Thomas was a visitor to Edmonton for a few days.

Lloyd Ferguson Passes Away at Camrose

The community was greatly shocked on Wednesday last when the news was received from Camrose that Lloyd Ferguson had passed away.

Lloyd was unfortunate in contracting the disease some ago and nevertheless, our trouble developed in an other effect. He went to Edmonton some three weeks ago and was operated upon. The operation seemed to afford relief he returned home and was only home a short time when the trouble returned, so he was taken to Camrose for treatment where he on a week he made a valiant fight for recovery but on Wednesday, March 30, he passed away. He was 25 years of age.

Much Sch and had grown to manhood in this community, having come to Alberta with his parents when only a small child from near Grandy, Quebec.

Although of a quiet retiring nature he possessed many qualities and sterling character won for him the liking and respect of young and old alike.

He leaves to mourn his loss, father, mother, five brothers and five sisters, besides other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was held on Friday, a very number of people attending, in spite of the very bad roads.

Beautiful floral tributes were very lavish.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of a son and brother.

Mrs. Bethel went to Edmonton over the week end to visit Mr. Bethel. Mr. Bethel is recovering splendidly and expect to be home in a short time.

Orville Myers has been quite ill but is up now at present.

Mrs. Shaw and two daughters took Sunday dinner with the Phillips family.

Mr. Scott of Edmonton attended the funeral of the late Lloyd Ferguson. Mr. Scott is an old friend of the family having come out about the same time from the same place in Quebec.

Mr. McLean, recently of Sedgwick, has accepted a position in the Farmers' Supply Co. Store.

CHEVROLET DEALERS HOLD UNIQUE CONVENTIONS

Proving that drama can be used for purposes other than mere entertainment, one of the largest Canadian motor car manufacturers has just concluded a series of conventions from coast to coast that were unique in the history of Canada. Speeches were noticeably lacking at these conventions. The delegates met in the leading theatre in each of the ten cities in which gatherings were held. Instead of hearing addresses they formed an audience which was both entertained and instructed by a series of four plays and two moving pictures.

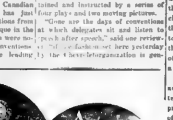
"Gone are the days of conventions at which delegates sit and listen to speech after speech," said one reticent dealer-delegate we met here yesterday. "The old-fashioned way of doing things was all right in its day, but it was generally followed." The dealers and salesmen who attended the meetings now not only presentations of new ideas and sales methods; they saw their own weaknesses reflected in the characters on the stage. They left the theatres laughing at the sage touches of humor but vowing that they would overcome the possible cause of complaint. And what more could a convention accomplish.

Behind the series of acts, which ran as smoothly as any professional entertainment, is a unique story of the preparation which made this newest of conventions possible. More than a carload of scenery and lighting effects accompanied the "Pontiac Players", as the group of executives who presented the show were called. Long months before the players went on the road, men were were writing, revising, and rehearsing the plays at the company's head office in Oshawa, Ontario. It is a fulsome tribute to the way they did their job that copies of these all-Canadian sales dramas have now been requested in the New York presentation to audiences in the United States.

To the man who imagined that there was but much more to selling automobiles than giving your prospect a ride and, if you were lucky, accepting his order, the show was a revelation. Perhaps the most interesting playlet and one illustrative of the graphic methods introduced in the new system, was one entitled "Two Sides to the Question." It dealt with the every present problem of selling used cars. A most unusual vehicle was one of the "props" of this scene; it was an automobile of which one side was dirty, dented and disreputable. The other side was smart and newly painted.

An unprogressive and careless dealer tried to sell the car, with the shabby side only in sight, to a prospect. After receiving a town from the factory representative he found out how much more satisfactory it was to dress up his used cars—and sold the same car, this time viewed from the more attractive angle, to a satisfied purchaser.

It is claimed by Ross Mackinnon, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company and sponsor of this new type of convention, that never before has the drama been used in Canada for sales promotion on such an extensive scale. The Chevrolet players "troupes" from St. John to Vancouver. In the forty-six days of their trip they enabled the general sales manager to contact personally with more than ninety per cent of the dealer organization in every village, town and city from coast to coast—an interesting example of how one of the greatest corporations in the world keep in touch with its far flung sales and service employees.



PONTIAC Six introduced a totally new and revolutionary standard of values when the first Pontiac Six was announced a little over a year ago.

Now, Pontiac Six is increasing its lead—sweeping still further in advance of its field. For, in the New and Finer Pontiac Six, General Motors has achieved a combination of fine, steady-hinder performance, strikingly beautiful appearance and low price unequalled in all the automobile world.

Again Pontiac leads in value—and by a wider margin than ever. Small wonder that the records established by Pontiac's first year sales are already being surpassed by the enthusiastic public reception of the New and Finer Pontiac Six.

Come in and see the car, and the reasons for Pontiac leadership become at once apparent.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EUROPEAN TOURS

A maximum of travel through particularly interesting countries at a minimum of expense is provided in the Canadian National Educational Tours this summer through Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy.

Two tours have been arranged and sailing will be made from Montreal July 8th, on the S.S. "Andania" direct to Glasgow. Very careful attention has been given to itineries involved.

Tour No. 1 is a 37 day trip on sea and land, visiting important cities in Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland. All expenses. $372.50, Montreal to Great Britain and the Continent and return to Montreal.

Tour No. 2 is a 51-day trip on sea and land, visiting in Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy. All expenses, $501.00, Montreal to Great Britain and the Continent and return to Montreal.

There will be low excursion fares to the weekend from points in the Prairie Provinces.

These tours will be personally conducted from Western Canada, and while overseas will be under the direct care and supervision of thoroughly responsible and reliable organization, fully qualified in every particular to successfully look after the interests of our patrons.

The sight-seeing program is very complete and generous. Motor coaches and automobiles are freely used. All sight-seeing is arranged to save time and unnecessary fatigue and to use the most suitable hours for the time at our disposal. Competent lecturers will travel to our patrons the outstanding features, literary, historic, artistic or scenic of the Old World centres visited.

A. B. Sinclair, local agent for the Canadian National Railways, will be glad to discuss these tours and arrange all details.

COMMUNICATION RE PRESENT TRAIN SERVICE

The Editor,
Tofield Mercury, Town.
Dear Sir

For sometime past our local U.F.A. have been active in an endeavor to have our present train service changed or added to so as to make it possible to reach Edmonton, and return, in reasonable time there in which to do business, and return the same day. Resolutions have been sent out to other locals along the line for endorsement, and these now have almost all been returned endorsed very enthusiastically.

I recently wrote the Editor of the Edmonton Journal asking for support, and am told that my letter appeared in the issue of that paper of yesterday (30th ultimo.)

We are all too well aware of the present unsatisfactory service, so that it is not necessary to comment upon it more than to say that with the city 46 miles from us it is ludicrous to think that two nights must be spent in Edmonton the poor business may only be a matter of the minutes and that hours consumed between leaving and returning are more than those required for the journey to Winnipeg.

I sent a copy of my letter to the Journal to the The Retail Merchants Association at Edmonton, asking for their support also, and have received a reply in which they state in part that a questionnaire is being sent to the retailers between the City and Wainwright asking for an expression of opinion.

In making myself active in this matter I am necessarily bound to realize that a certain amount of loss, not only to myself, but more particularly to retailers may be had by the proposed change, if effected, but it is unreasonable for us to expect that the interests of the majority should be sacrificed for those of the minority.

I join with many others, Mr. Editor in asking for your support.

Yours truly,
RAYMOND W. PINCOTT.

TENDERS FOR SCHOOL HOUSE

Sealed tenders will be received by the Board of Trustees of Rose Creek School District, No. 821 at the office of the Secretary-Treasurer up to noon of April 16th, 1927 for the erection of a one room frame school building after Plan number C-16 appended. Plans and specifications may be obtained from Secretary-Treasurer on payment of a deposit of $5.00. Plans must be returned within 24 hours, and deposit will then be refunded. A marked cheque for five per cent of the amount of tender should be enclosed with each tender as a guarantee that same is bona-fide. The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

THE TOFIELD MERCURY

Published Every Wednesday at Tofield, Alberta.

W. Worton, Publisher

Wednesday, April 6th, 1927

WELCOME

DURING THE past week or so quite a number of newcomers have come into this district from Norway. Practically all of them will be located in the Bardo district among Canadians of Norwegian birth and descent. The Mercury is very pleased indeed to see them come and wish them success amid their new surroundings. Norwegians as a race, are particularly attractive as Canadian settlers and both Canada and the newcomers should profit by their coming. Coming from a northern European country, the climate of Western Canada will not present such a sharp contrast to their homeland as it might to some of the peoples of southern Europe. Most of them agriculturalists before they came, they will fit into the life in Alberta splendidly.

THE TRAIN SERVICE

THE LOCAL U.F.A. have gone on record that they desire a better train service from Tofield to Edmonton and return. The present service which necessitates stopping over in Edmonton two nights is not nearly so convenient as a service which would take passengers in and out the same day.

The U.F.A. are to be commended for interesting themselves in this or any other matter that they feel needs adjusting. It is much better than merely doing nothing and we hope that this request to the railroad will be met.

It has been brought to our notice that should the railroad authorities arrange the service so that passengers may go in and out the same day, a certain amount of trade will be lost to Tofield. This probably is correct, but just how much is problematical. We believe the amount lost would be very small, but however small, Tofield, or any other small town can ill afford to lose it. During the coming summer months most of the farmers desiring to go to Edmonton will get into their cars and go. Those who have no cars will perforce take the train whether the service is changed or not. The additional number that will take the train because of the daily service would be small and the loss of business actually due to the change would be correspondingly small.

Even so, the Mercury, partly because its bread and butter lies in that direction but mainly because its publisher believes it to be to Alberta's advantage as a whole to build up many good villages in preference to one or two large cities, strongly urge residents of the district as far as possible to trade at home. It is not necessary that people should adopt a shiver like attitude and buy at home without thought or reason, but it would be wise to buy with judgement, remembering that the home town has a claim that the larger cities have not. As a matter of fact many of our people are doing this very thing. And it was only today, (Wednesday) that a local merchant, totally unaware that this editorial was written requested us as an instance where a buyer of a fairly large article was just ready to send away when to make sure, they called on him for a price. They were both surprised and pleased that the price was lower than the city price. They promptly gave the local man the order. The building up of a northern country is a slow process, but the years have a habit of rolling round that sometimes make many of us wonder what we did with them. And should some of us at some future date find our sons and daughters enamored of the city and holding down mediocre positions in large establishments, mere cogs in a machine, where they might have been farming their own farm or managing their own business, even though it be small, there is a possibility that the cause could be traced to the glorification of the city by parents when the children's brains were in the receptive stage.

However, there generally comes a time in the affairs of a family when the facilities afforded by the home town are inadequate and a journey to the city becomes a necessity. Consequently we endorse the U.F.A. request for a daily service. We realize that Edmonton contains our nearest hospital and also that at all times some person or other from this district is a patient there. For this reason alone a daily service is desireable, so that patients may be visited by their friends.

Personal Supervision Counts

Many people who were hesitant about buying the product of a small town bakery, as against the product of the large city bakeries, now know that personal supervision is an important factor in the making of bread.

MEMBERS OF ALBERTA LEGISLATURE PLEASED SESSION IS FINISHED

Sighs of relief and such like were in evidence around the parliament buildings Monday morning, by reason of the fact that the legislature is done and over with. A number of the country members are still in the city but they all say today are going back home as soon as they can get away. In general, they seem to have had enough of the session, enough of talking, and enough of the city. John P. Bachley, U.F.A. whip, says it's everything as do soft collar for him now.

Premier Brownlee got away to Ottawa on the early train Monday morning. He will follow up the action in the Semmler house in respect to the Peace River railways and while at the capital will look into a number of other important matters in which the province is concerned.

Passed 13 Bills

The session proved to be somewhat more fruitful of legislation than was at first expected. The total list of bills introduced numbered 101, but some were withdrawn; 33 were passed, of these 21 were new, the rest being amendments to existing acts.

John D. Hunt's annual summary of the sessional legislation is in course of preparation and will be issued, it is expected, by the end of this week. The clerk of the executive council is aiming at breaking his own record for quick work on this handy little pocket volume and already has most of the summaries done.

Some of the Big Things

The most important of the legislation includes acts or amendments providing for the following:

Public utilities controlling passengers for hire to be licensed and controlled by the public.

Gasoline tax increased from 2 to 3 cents per gallon, effective May 1st.

Billboards to be prohibited along public highways and within a quarter mile.

No fire insurance agents to insure any property, law simply beyond its fair value, subject to penalty.

Return of wolf bounty.

Change in the definition of local option areas, doing away with electoral divisions as the unit.

Simplified wording of the local option ballot, now to read, "For" or "Against Local Option."

More stringent laws in respect to the destruction of weed-infested crops.

Grants for field grain and rink and competitions held by any society or of individuals.

AMUSEMENTS

For the coming Saturday the Variety management is presenting "The Bat." This is a return engagement of this famous picture and will no doubt command the same good house as it did upon its previous presentation here. For Wednesday there is a rollicking sea picture of life in the navy, backed by a plot with a strong moral tone. "Shore Leave," has been classed among the really good productions. A good family picture.

On Thursday next there is a dance to be held at the Variety the proceeds of which will go towards the chautauqua fund. This will be an old time affair with good music

BARDO

Considering the bad condition of the roads a very good crowd was out to the U.F.A. meeting at P. S. Anderson's on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Williams and Joyce visited in the Hills home on Sunday.

Mr. Jacobson has been moving wood for several people during the past two weeks.

Clarence Rude moved his granary to higher ground last week. From the amount of snow still on the ground in this section. It looks as though Alnick Creek might be quite a stream this spring.

Emil Rude has rented the farm known as the Sam Stauffer place and has moved from the house on his farm to the larger house on the Stauffer farm as the farms join.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Moon and children. Mrs. Rude, Nora and Irene, were guests in the Emil Rude home. The infant son was christened by Mr. Gordon. He was named Charles Arnold.

Perhaps some of the old-timers will remember Albert Riley who visited here several years ago. He was a cousin of Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Stine, Mr. Myers, Mr. Jerving and the Pickseth boys. Word was received here on Sunday, he had been killed in a lumber camp in Washington, U.S.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moon were out to Bardo on Sunday

AMUSEMENTS

For Saturday the management of the Variety have procured "Winging Wires," a mystery picture. This picture ranks among the foremost mystery productions, the scenic parts being exceptionally good. It is said that if you want to retire with your sleep, don't go and see "Whispering Wires," the plot is so thrilling and the comedy part so funny, that a fellow has no chance for a nap at all. On Wednesday we have "The Auction Block" will be presented. This is adapted from the well known book of the same name by Rex Beach. Those who have read the book are assured that the picture is just as absorbing. Those who have not read the book will be assured of an exceptional story plot well produced.

WHEAT POOL NOTES

Under the terms of a lease recently agreed upon between the Pool and the Vancouver Harbor board, No. 2 for one year, at a yearly rental of $1[illegible]

Terminal Elevator at Vancouver, owned by the Canadian Government, will pass to the control of the Alberta Wheat Pool on August 1st, 1927.

$300,000. This terminal has a capacity of 1,500,000 bushels and cost in excess of $2,000,000.

No. 1 terminal was leased to a private grain man at an annual rental of $15,000 a year. It has a capacity of 2,100,000 bushels.

With 142 line elevators in Alberta and two big terminals at the coast, the Alberta Wheat Pool will be in a better position to more advantageously handle its members grain.

A. M. Hall, General Manager of Alberta Pool Elevators Ltd. and W. J. Jackman and Lew Hutchison, directors of the Pool, are on Winnipeg this week negotiating with private storage companies who offered for sale country elevators at certain points in the province, where the Pool wishes to serve its members with Pool elevators.

The Alberta Wheat Pool has an advance money fund standing [illegible] $15,000,000 and a commercial reserve fund of $[illegible]. The total amount collected in reserves is $[illegible].

The elevator reserve is being expended in building or acquiring elevators. Locations for country elevators are elected on the basis of delivery of Pool wheat, covering a period of three years, and the acreage signed up in the district served by the shipping point. Naturally those places with a large signup will get Pool elevators before localities with a small sign-up.

During the month of the organization every member is credited with his share of the reserves. On the 4th of each year interest at the rate of five per cent per annum is credited each member. Every member gets a statement yearly showing the amount to his credit in the reserve funds.

The question of how or when this money will be paid back is left entirely to the back of the board of directors. The board has not yet decided how or when this will be done, but the probability is that it will be done on a revolving fund basis.

All members will be treated alike. A member will not get his share in the reserve any sooner by not signing a new contract. Neither will a member get his share any sooner by signing a new contract.

Read this over carefully and give serious consideration.

Multiple Disc Clutch

The Ford multiple disc clutch, running in oil, is positive in action, and is the smoothest and most easily operated type of clutch known.

So smooth and silent is the action that you are scarcely aware the car has a clutch. There is no jerking; nothing to overhaul or get out of order, even under inexpert driving.

The oil bath assures constant and thorough lubrication—with films of oil between the plates which soften the engagement and prevent wear. So slight is the wear that replacements of clutch parts are rarely required.

While more expensive to manufacture, this type provides a connecting link between the crankshaft and drive shaft, giving the highly efficient, trouble-free operation that Ford standards of reliability demand.

BALLOON TIRE TREAD
Another Reason why Firestone Tires are Better

WHEN Firestone engineers were developing the Balloon Tire they found it necessary to design a tread altogether different from that which is required by High Pressure Tires.

The projections of the cross-and-square tread are small and the raker strips narrow to permit the tread to cling to the road, giving the greatest non-skid value with the least possible tread loss. Our Master Mind is the only non-resisting question that gives thousands of extra miles of service.

This flexible tread must be placed on a flexible carcass. To provide for the extra flexing strains Firestone dips the cords of the carcass in a rubber solution. By this process every cord of every cord is saturated and insulated with rubber, eliminating friction and wear.

If you want economy, comfort and safety of Gum-Dipped Tires see the nearest Firestone Dealer.

He ignored her chatter and, as he had not seen his father since the night after the last election, he plunged right into the subject of Wheeler.

"Dad, I've had a talk with Wheeler and he's willing to withdraw from the race if you'll withdraw. He's willing to do that because he knows he can't win. He's willing to do it because he knows that you have a big following in this district and that you can win. He's willing to do it because he knows that you have been a good friend to the people of this district and that you have been a good friend to him

COMMUNICATION RE RURAL

MISSILE

Mr. Editor: You may not be directly interested in rural schools but if you will insert this letter in your paper it may be the cause of doing away with deplorable conditions now existing owing to the way those schools are located in this vicinity at least, and likely throughout the whole province. The school act reads that a district must not exceed four miles in length or breadth or words to that effect, but apparently this has been changed to some extent with the approval of the Department of Education

For instance those two districts joining the Tofield district and running west are four and a half miles on their eastern to their western boundary. This leaves them log and end and ranges overlapping on the short side. I will call this overlapping No. 3, by which I mean that children may be travelling the same road attending different schools Why not make those quarters six miles from east to west, balance them, and at the same time do away with this overlapping, and by doing so the distance that any of the children would have to travel could not possibly be increased over eleven yards more than if the district was four miles from east to west as called for by the school act. Take four miles square and put the school in the centre and this overlapping cannot be avoided, it occurs on every side The schools as far as I know are built on quarter sections, which are divided by blind lines.

By blind lines I mean the lines run song east and west dividing the sections, but not road allowances With the school built on these lines there are eight quarter sections within a half mile of the school and each quarter section we must consider as the home of children of school age some time, if not at present.

East and west of these schools where the blind line crosses each road allowance there are four quarter sections. Fourteen in each district all told, and the children going to school from these are compelled, as we now have compulsion here, to travel half a mile in the opposite direction before they gain a single yard in the direction of the school, or a full mile, often through mud or snow each day that they attend school. This I will call overlapping No. 2. and the grievous thing is, this punishment is inflicted without cause, or at least it is not the children who should get it.

I think I have sufficiently explained a serious objective which is being imposed upon the rising generation who are to be the life of the country in a few years, in every profession and occupation. Now, as I have stated that the thing is wrong, naturally I will be expected to give a remedy. This I will do in the following seven words: Put the school on the cross roads. Had those seven words been printed in the school act of the beginning, this much-gasping No. 2 would be impossible and indeed would be extinguished, at any rate, in that part of Canada that I have seen.

Put the school on the cross roads and you have twelve quarter sections within half a mile of it instead of eight which you have on the blind line or any other place

Locate anything at the cross roads if you desire to serve the surrounding territory with the most convenience, it always has been done elsewhere. I am not asking districts to move their schools, but whenever a school is to be moved as I understand is being arranged in one district in the vicinity, I would say to those in authority, consider carefully before you act. I would like to see a good example shown.

This four by four mile plan of specification is one of the items that surely will be taken out of the school act before long. It is possible to take in one hundred quarter sections without any great distance being to be travelled by any of them, or take no 9 quarter sections and have it very convenient.

I know that if people do their own planning and consider the best interests of all that the department will sanction their plans.

There has been a lot of the school sites chosen or proposed by the ratepayers and by the department since their approval in every case, but it was all done before Alberta went dry, and all that can be done now is each party take their blame and do better for all time to come. I do not think that people should spend money repairing or improving school buildings on unsuitable locations. When expenditure is to be made, do it somewhere that real convenience can be served although it may cost considerable at the time.

Yours truly,
STEPHEN SULLIVAN.

NEW WHEAT POOL CONTRACTS

The Alberta Wheat Pool has not issued any new contracts. A report that these new contracts had been issued is erroneous. Members of the Wheat Pool will receive these in due course, but in the meantime are advised not to pay any attention to rumors regarding this matter. The new contracts will be for a period of five years from the date of the signature of the present contract. Present pool members will not be charged any fee for signing the new contracts if signed before August 1928.

Here and There

Toronto capital will develop the only known blue tale deposits in Canada, it has been stated seven ten miles southwest of Banff. A private company, adequately financed, has been organized and it is said that development operations will begin as soon as the snow disappears. Spence's Bridge, according to M. B. Jackson, chairman of the Provincial Game Conservation Board

In order to establish a model settlement just outside Winnipeg, a party of Catholic colonists sailed on the Canadian Pacific liner "Marloch" for Saint John and were met in Winnipeg in charge of Father Kerdorff, of the German Catholic Immigration Association. The party consisted of about 30 families and came under the direction of the Canada Colonization Association.

Included in the programme of new construction in the Manitoba district of the Canadian Pacific Railway is the building of new standard station houses to be located at Upsala, Teulon, Petersfield, Kenway, Alameda, Pettapiece and Dominion City. New section houses will be built at sixteen points in the Manitoba district while a merchandising operated coaling plant with a capacity of 100 tons will be built at Poplar Point.

Saint John Nelson Christenanda, describing himself as a Christian Apostolic Preacher, and originating from Southern India, arrived in Canada recently on the Canadian Pacific liner "Montrose" from England. He is a "Sadhu" which translated signifies a Saint and is rendering a short mission of about two months in Canada. Mr. Christenanda stated that he had been preaching through Europe and had visited about twenty countries on that continent. His record, he asserted, associated with all Christian churches without being denominated by any dogmas. He said he was welcomed by all religious organizations.

A consignment of Canadian manufactured ice cream shipped from Saint John about the middle of last month featured the menu of a banquet tendered to over 600 British buyers by the Canadian Pacific and Canadian High Commissioner in London. On account of the high Canadian representation at the banquet the Commissioner ordered the cream through the Empire Dairy Co. in Montreal and on the day of the banquet a 20-pound package was sent by the Canadian Pacific express company. A special refrigerator was prepared for the "Minnedosa" to insure its arriving in perfect condition.

Details of the British Government's exhibit at the World's Poultry Congress to be held at Ottawa July 25th to August 6th next, have been received by the Congress committee Heading the list of exhibitors from Great Britain is His Majesty the King who has signified his intention of exhibiting pigeons while H.R.H. the Prince of Wales is sending along some choice fowl from his famous farm in Cornwall. The British exhibit will consist of models of the poultry farms of Lord Decies and Tom Barron, two of the best known poultry breeders in England Hon. Mrs. Florence Amherst and St. Dunstan's Hostel for the Blind, are also participating The British representatives will include many leaders in the poultry industry, and the Minister of Agriculture, Poultry Commissioner and Ministry of Agriculture.

CURLERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Tofield Curling Club was held at the town hall on Monday evening of last week. A majority of the members were present and a satisfactory report was given by the retiring secretary, A. B. Chisholm. The Club closed the season with a balance of twenty dollars in the general fund.

The treasurer of the trust fund, in which money stands for the purpose of building a new rink is held, advised the meeting that there was a cash balance on hand of over fifteen hundred dollars. This money had been raised by the joint efforts of the lady and men curlers during the past year or so.

MARKET DAY

MOST PEOPLE were impressed with the number of people in town on Saturday. The fine day, passable roads, the nearness of field operations and two community sales, all no doubt, had something to do with the large number in town.

The appearance of Carver & Hannan's and F. O. Balla's corner on Saturday, reminded one very much of market day in some of the older portions of Canada and Europe. In these older market places, sometimes every week, sometimes every month, regular market days are held and are age honored institutions. The advantages of a market are many. It provides a convenient outlet for goods that may not be greatly needed by one person and yet needed by another. Grouped together, various articles make a fair sized auction sale which frequently result in profitable transactions all round. One of the advantages of a market day is that it brings people to town to see "what there is on the market," and a large number of people in town, generally means a good business day in all lines.

There are few towns in Alberta that hold regular market days. The reason, perhaps is simply because they have not commenced, or it may be there are not enough surplus used goods and other things, to make a regular market day a worthwhile feature. Some 16 years ago there was an attempt to establish a market day in a country town just west of Edmonton, but while the first day was good enough, it soon ceased either through lack of support, or goods to be offered for sale.

The idea is well worth consideration by "the powers that be," and if favorably considered, the necessary steps could be taken to have several market days in Tofield during the summer and fall months.

SERVICE

IF UTTERANCES from the east indicate that, for the present at least, Mr. Kennedy is fighting for a forlorn cause, one cannot but admire his tenacity. The member from the Peace River district is fighting tooth and nail for a western outlet for Peace River grain and in this fight he will have the moral support of most western farmers, whether actual residents of Peace River or not. There are few western farmers, who in some degree or other, are not affected by being located hundreds of miles from terminal elevators and who are not compelled, year after year to pay freight charges on their product. To most of them, however, there is the compensating thought that as far as the west is concerned, things could not be any better; miles between the farm and terminal elevators must be bridged, and if the railway follows the shortest route, that is all that can be expected. The farmers of Peace River, however, have no such compensating thoughts. With the Pacific coast a relatively short distance away, they are compelled each year to ship their grain hundreds of unnecessary miles to get it to the Pacific coast terminals. No doubt, some time in the future engineers will find a suitable pass, if they have not already done so, through which a coast outlet for the Peace River country will be made. In the meantime, great inconvenience, if not actual hardship is destined to be the lot of those settlers who have already braved hardship and privation in order to provide themselves with homes and assist in building up a country. The Peace River farmers and the member for Peace River have our best wishes for an early success to their efforts.

In fighting for a western outlet for the Peace River country, Mr. Kennedy is doing more than following the course laid down by the particular group of voters who were responsible for him going to parliament. It is quite likely that had either of Mr. Kennedy's opponents been elected they would have been just as energetic in the cause. There sometimes comes a time when a measure become larger than a party. In fighting the Peace River country cause for a western outlet, Mr. Kennedy is following in the footsteps of other westerners who, in and out of season, advocated Western needs in Eastern halls.

Greer Industry Flourishes in Quebec

1 new Lett.: Sap on way being poured into sacks — a very prevalent 4 horse 2 gang Ripper. Fine winter supplying a team of the delivery Lower Left: Gathering sap from the tree pails Lower Right: Tapping the trees in mid-winter

One of the true signs of a thing about that Canadian Pacific Express lands in Montreal is the appearance of large consignments of maple sugar coming through their hands for local distribution and for outside shipment. Some of the shipments are destined to points out west in the main there are the former residents of Quebec who become accustomed to this Canadian delicacy and send an order through their friends in the east

The maple sugar industry is one that has been carried on in Quebec for many years. The sugar and sugar made in this province have established a reputation for purity delivering the syrup with the same sugar is a province that is strictly guarded against

Old-time maple sugar bees are still held all over the province with the melting of the snow in the first spring of the sap in the trees at around the end of March and the first to middle of April, while the product is one of the most eagerly anticipated by the city dwellers who look forward to the arrival every year of a time when they customarily journey to the sugar bush.

A good example of a typical French Canadian maple syrup farm is the one owned by Ernest Foster, at Knowlton, Quebec In this case the trees, which number 1,600, are tapped in mid winter by men who travel the woods on snowshoes and remove the sap. The sap is brought into a central shack where which is about three or four feet from the ground. Large trees take two cans and small trees one can, while the trees are rated taps to the [illegible]

The maple woods in the Eastern Township section of the province are a beautiful sight at maple sugaring time. Citizens of Montreal take the opportunity yearly to go out into the woods and eat the fresh maple sugar. One can imagine parties surrounded by trees with fresh snow On top of the snow they place the boiling maple sugar When the sugar cools they have a most exquisite delicacy.

The industry is still in its infant stage When the Canadian power unit finally makes it a penal fifteen all over the Dominion to administer maple syrup, then protecting the farmer, thousands of acres will be brought into profitable exploitation and millions of dollars will accrue to the farmer Once anyone has tasted the pure sugar, and especially on the ground Large trees take two cans and small trees one can, while the trees are rated taps to the [illegible] a unlikely ever to be broken.

Where Canada Leads the World

Canada exports more wheat than any other country in the world. It produces more of the world's supply of nickel. Within the last few years it has passed the United States in the production of newsprint and become the greatest exporter to the world. Ranked fifth among the countries in the value of their foreign trade, Canada has leaped into fourth place in the past few years. Only a half century ago a province like Ontario was thought lucky to export a few million bushels of wheat. Today Canada's wheat exports alone are valued at more than $200,000,000 annually.

Canada's opportunities are bewildering to those from the home countries. They realize that the people of Canada as a whole will not stand for prosperity for a few individuals, so that all they see possibilities, and that the tendency is in the direction of better rather than bigger profits. They know they do not have to put up with conditions more than a generation ago in the United States, and make profits. As a result they have accepted such obsolete machinery, they have adopted improved manufacturing methods, have not only estimated the losses of market by short-sighted methods of price and service, but they have appreciated the advanced foreign markets, and have built up a worth while export trade. All these signs are no longer in the basket.

They are befriending to appreciate the wisdom and strength of Canada's policy of protecting her trade treaties with other countries and to reverence and accept the fact that international commerce cannot be allowed that, in a word, prosperity cannot be self-largely by isolation or other measures. Canada's commercial treaties are not to be thrown by the British Empire, but they are designed to give the fullest possible encouragement and financial assistance to the development of the natural resources of the Dominion as a whole, and to the natural and legitimate progress of the various industries, as they exist from time to time, in the several parts of the Dominion.

It is because of a growing recognition of these principles that Canada is today heading the world in its great and rich prosperity as a commercial nation.

ODDFELLOWS TO ATTEND CHURCH ON SUNDAY

The annual church service of the local lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows will be held at the United Church on Sunday next at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Watt, a brother of the order will occupy the pulpit. Brothers are requested to meet at the hall at 6:45 from which place they will proceed to the church as a unit.

C.P.W.A. NOTES

The meeting of April 6th was poorly attended owing to bad roads and inclement weather. However, there was one visitor present whom we are hoping will join our ranks next time. The roll call was answered with favorite cooking recipes and the few members present responded nobly which is not always the case.

The next item on the program was a discussion concerning the tea and sale of home cooking to be held on Saturday April 16th at the W.A. rooms. Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Phillips are the committee in charge The next regular meeting will be held on Saturday, April 23rd at 8:30 p.m. (kindly note time). The roll call will be answered by "Some particular thing our mothers taught us to do."

Mrs. McClintic will give a paper on "How to keep the young people interested in the farm," and Mrs Booth, a reader on "Mother's day."

Our membership now totals 32 but there are still many farm women in the vicinity whom we are hoping will join us sooner or later. Let us welcome you at any of our meetings.

Ford Lubrication

The Ford lubricating system is the simplest used on any automobile. The oil in the flywheel chamber is splashed over the clutch and all transmission gears by the movement of the flywheel. Some of this oil finds its way through a tube to the timing gears at the front of the motor and thoroughly lubricates them. Returning along the base of the crankcase to the flywheel chamber, it is picked up by the connecting rods which turn this oil into a spray that lubricates the camshaft, pistons and all other moving parts. The quality of simplicity, so important in all mechanisms, is well exemplified in the effectiveness of this lubricating system.

Bladder Weakness Remedied by Gin Pills

Buffalo man recommends them for kidney and bladder trouble

Gin Pills bring you quick relief from urinary and bladder troubles. They soothe the kidneys and flush out and get rid of that burning sensation; the frequent desire to urinate is overcome; back and side pains disappear. You can again enjoy sound, restful and sound sleep by night. Thousands of people are relieved of bladder and kidney troubles every year. Read what George L. Smith, Buffalo, N. Y., says of Gin Pills:

"I suffered from bladder weakness and kidney irregularities. I had constant backache and pains in my sides. I was nervous and irritable and often taking half a box of pills at a time. Gin Pills have completely overcome these pains and irregularities and I am feeling fine. I recommend Gin Pills to my friends."

If you have headaches, backache, sour acid, pain in the kidneys, dizziness, frequent urination or nervousness, Gin Pills will correct them. Get a box at all druggists. The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto, Canada.

Woodstock Lady — "I found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription excellent as a back and kidney tonic. I had a terrible pain in my back, and suffered from nervous spells. I could not sleep and had a very unpleasant look in my face. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription relieved me entirely. I recommend it to any suffering woman." Mrs. Ida Belle Jones, 1421 Dundas St., Woodstock, Ont.

Any druggist can sell you Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in tablet or liquid, or send 50c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of tablets.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success"

Here we are again! at the threshold of another "cream season." Already many cows have freshened and the cream receipts are beginning to increase. In a short time the flow of cream will be at the flood.

There is truth in the axiom that "Nothing succeeds like success," and we would urge you to milk all the cows you can this summer. An extra cow means many extra dollars for the summer milking.

We will do our part by giving you the Highest Price for Your Cream, Correct Weight and Test, Prompt Service and Courteous Treatment.

Canadian Teachers Tour Canada

1. Parliament Buildings, Victoria. 2. C.P.R. Grand Lake's steamer looking through at Sault Ste. Marie. 3. Upon the observation seat feature the journey through the Rockies. 4. View of the city of Calgary.

That a thorough personal knowledge of every section of the Dominion is a necessary part of the education of the Canadian teacher, is the opinion of Dean Laird, of Manitoba College, who is journeying across Canada on the Canadian Pacific liner this summer, heeded by Professor Mendel, of Manitoba College, School for Teachers, Manitoba College.

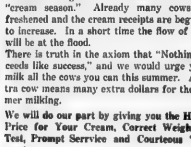
Dean Laird's tours have become widely popular during the four years they have been conducted. In a statement issued by him in connection with the coming 21-day trip to the west, Dean Laird said: "With the 60th Anniversary of Confederation occurring in July, it seems very fitting that this event should be celebrated by as many Canadians as possible, visiting the country from east to west over the pioneer railway which has spanned the west, and which stood was one of the public works undertaken to bring British Columbia into Confederation.

"The Canadian Pacific Railway has opened to settlement vast stretches of territory which previously had been considered inaccessible and unexplored to travel. Canadians will find additional inspiration in travelling over our pioneer railway and noting the progress of the western provinces that have [illegible] have become prosperous as a result of the progress made in the last sixty years. It is a real revelation."

The tour will begin from Toronto July 25, leaving at noon, the first day's journey being through the beautiful lake regions of Muskoka and on to Sudbury. From here the journey continues through the big game areas of northern Ontario to the north shore of the Great Lakes. The north shore of Lake Superior offers something unique in Canadian scenery, as the boats is so arranged that the journey [illegible] scenic country is made during the day [illegible] grain ports of Fort William and Port Arthur, the special train speeds west to [illegible] stopping nothing but comfort and a half a day at Regina and then on to Calgary, one of the finest cities in Canada. Only here within sight of the Rocky Mountains. The train then heads into the Rockies through the Gap and arrives in Banff July 29, where several days are spent. Motor rides instead of the beauty spots in the vicinity, especially along the Banff-Windermere highway, feature this part of the trip. Banff is the best known of the Rocky Mountain Parks. It is a reserve of 2,211 square miles, where mountain game may be seen at close quarters on all sides. Banff's sanitarium, sulphur swimming pools, its golf course are known to visitors from all parts of the world. The journey then leads to Lake Louise. Landing in Nelson is made by steamer, where the city is left behind again till Vancouver is reached. Vancouver, Victoria, are great shipping ports of the Pacific that afford hours of interest for the visitor.

The return through the Rockies is made over entirely new ground, one of the most important upon being Lake Louise, claimed by world travellers as the most beautiful bit of scenery in the world. The scenery from here to Banff is so perfect that to avoid missing any the train does not travel at night but continues its journey in the morning. Edmonton is reached July 31, an outstanding interest and, from here the journey to Winnipeg is made over a different stretch of the prairies. At Port Arthur the party leaves the train for a boat trip down the Great Lakes on one of the Canadian Pacific fine lake steamers, which arrives at Port Colborne August 15. This lake journey has been voted by other parties of tours of Dean Laird's, as a wonderful conclusion to a glorious journey across the continent. Toronto is reached four hours after leaving Port Mcdonald and the journey is over.

The all-expense arrangements of the tour is a popular feature for every bit of worry in connection with tickets, meals, motor rides and hotel accommodation is obviated, meaning nothing but comfort and a full day of interest to spend at Winnipeg, [illegible] for evenings in the party.



The Men Who Know McLaughlin-Buick Best

It is from the man behind the wheel of the McLaughlin-Buick that the most sincere expressions of appreciation come. It is upon the McLaughlin-Buick that this car has become the standard by which all other cars are measured—the literal basis of comparison of automobile values.

Year after year, by dint of constant improvement in detail, yet upon the unchanging principles of McLaughlin-Buick construction and quality, McLaughlin-Buick maintains and increases its undisputed leadership among quality cars and adds to the numbers of those who respect McLaughlin-Buick because they have knowledge and experience of McLaughlin-Buick comfort, beauty, performance and endurance.

Upon the verdict of the McLaughlin-Buick owner, McLaughlinBuick confidently rests its case.

CO-OPERATION

AT TWO annual meetings of the Cornhill Municipal District, a resolution was passed asking the council to vote the sum of fifty dollars for the purpose of having the minutes of each council meeting published in the Mercury. On both occasions at the first meeting of the council for that particular year, a motion was put that this be done and both motions were lost, we believe by a tie vote.

The custom of rural councils apportioning a sum of money so that their minutes be published in the country weekly circulating in their municipality, is a fairly common one, but the motions passed at the annual meeting did not originate with the Mercury or its publisher. Our attitude towards this custom has been and still is, that if the councillors desire an exact copy of the minutes in the newspaper, fifty dollars a year is a nominal sum to expend for that purpose. On the other hand we feel that it is a newspaper's duty as far as it is possible, to publish council proceedings. Reports of council meetings are real news and should be presented to the public as soon after the meeting as possible. From time to time the Mercury publishes the minutes of the Cornhill Municipal District Council, quite often it does not. The reason for the intermittent appearance of council reports is that they are not easily procured. When the meetings are held on Wednesday it is next to impossible for the editor to attend, when they are held on Saturday, he occasionally does. We are not wealthy enough to have a professional reporter. Practically all newspapers desire to give the maximum amount of local news to their readers. A complete newspaper reflects a complete town and district, and a newsy sheet does just that.

Here is a splendid chance for secretary-treasurers of rural and town councils, school districts, various sporting organizations, etc., to "tell the world," what they are doing. Even in the larger newspaper offices, much council and association news is sent direct, where it is edited and most of it published.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EUROPEAN TOURS

A maximum of travel through particularly interesting countries at a minimum of expense is provided in the Canadian National Educational Tours this summer through Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy.

Two tours have been arranged and sailings will be made from Montreal July 8th, on the S.S. "Andania" direct [illegible] Very careful attention [illegible] Great Britain and the Continent and return to Montreal.

[illegible] 2 is a 51-day trip on sea and land, visiting in Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy. Allexpenses, $621.00. Montreal or Great Britain and the Continent and return to Montreal.

There will be low excursion fares to Montreal from points in the Prairie Provinces.

These tours will be personally conducted from Western Canada, and while overseas will be under the direct care and supervision of thoroughly [illegible] reliable organization, fully qualified in every particular to successfully look after the interests of our patrons.

The sight-seeing program is very complete and generous. Motor coaches and [illegible] are freely used. All sight-seeing is well planned to save unnecessary fatigue and to see the most worth-while places within the time at your disposal. Competent lecturers will reveal to our patrons the outstanding features, literary, historic, artistic or scenic of the Old World centres visited.

A. B. Sinclair, local agent for the Canadian National Railways, will be glad to discuss these tours and arrange all details.

WHEAT POOL NOTES

Hanna townspeople and Hanna farmers are planning on a united drive to put over an one hundred per cent sign-up of the new wheat pool contracts, according to information received at the Pool head office. The Hanna Agricultural Society and the Kiwanis Club of that town are planning on putting their combined strength behind a drive to make the Hanna district solid for the Wheat Pool. In scores of other centres in Alberta the same feeling is manifested [illegible] by the townspeople and [illegible] by farmers in the [illegible] co-operation to handle next year's [illegible] wheat.

Alberta Wheat Pool Directors have decided that the 6 per cent. Interest [illegible] on The Wheat Reserve Accounts, should be paid out to the Members in all cases where it amounts to $1.00 or over.

Payment of this interest from the final [illegible] 1926 [illegible] on deductions made farm the 1925 crop will, therefore, be made about the end of May, and mean a total distribution of approximately $30,000.

Amounts under $1.00 will simply be added to the Members' accounts and carried forward to the following year.

The lease of Vancouver Terminal Elevator No. 2 by the Alberta Wheat Pool has been finally signed and the Pool takes over this terminal on August 1st. The rental for the first year is $100,000 and will be slightly higher for succeeding years.

Speakers from Alberta will occupy places of honor and importance at the International Wheat Pool conference to be held at Kansas City, Missouri, on May 5,6 and 7. H. W. Wood, chairman of the board of directors of the Alberta Pool, will deliver a public address on the afternoon of the first day, and Premier J. E. Brownlee will deliver an address at the banquet that evening.

FATTENING THE SURPLUS CHICKERELS

(Experimental Farms Note)

An improved quality article of diet increases economizes. If all table poultry were conditioned properly conditioned before killing it would quickly result in greatly increased consumption.

It is a short sighted policy on the part of any poultry raiser to sell table poultry in a poor condition; he is not only losing the profit which he might secure through an increased weight and an improved quality of flesh, but he is actually discouraging the use of poultry by the poor quality he is supplying.

In experiments conducted at the Central Experimental Farm it has repeatedly been shown that the crate feeding of poultry pays. It has also been demonstrated that a wide ration, that is one rich in carbohydrates, gave better results than a narrow ration—one rich in protein. It also has been demonstrated that for the greatest gains in both quantity and quality of flesh, milk in some form is essential. This is especially emphasized in a series of feeding experiments carried out at the Kapuskasing Experimental Farm, where in every instance where milk was fed as part of the ration the gains were much better in both quantity and quality than where the ration contained no milk. This series of experiments also brought out strongly that in parts of the country where corn can be grown that home grown feeds, wheat, oats and barley, may be used with good results, but that the ration is made more efficient by the addition of corn, especially where it is fed in conjunction with milk.

HOW TO GROW ALFALFA

Select a field that is reasonably free from weeds for your alfalfa seeding. Fields grown seed and avoid the use of seeding your crop by using [illegible] Common and Ontario Variegated are hardy varieties and seed of this is available commercially. Grimm alfalfa are also hardy, but seed is not available in large quantities.

Land should be as free [illegible] from weeds for your [illegible] have established, alfalfa can [illegible] have been [illegible] of the seedling stage. Alfalfa therefore follow a hoed crop, or seeded on land otherwise [illegible] free from weeds.

Where alfalfa has not been grown before, inoculation of the soil is necessary. Inoculating material sufficient for one bushel of seed with complete instructions for its use may be obtained free of charge from the [illegible]

[illegible] spread evenly on the surface of the field, but even a poor application of manure is far better than none at all. Manure should not be applied in the fall or winter when there is danger of it being washed off the land by the spring rains.

Alfalfa should be sown with a nurse crop. If a nurse crop is used it should not be sown at more than one third to one half of the usual rate of seed, and if it is likely to lodge it should be cut for green-feed. Stooks or cells of the harvested nurse crop should not be allowed to remain one place more than two or three days.

Best results are usually obtained by seeding when the soil has become well warmed up, but before the hot and frequently rather dry periods of late July and the month of August.

Under most circumstances a new stand of alfalfa should not be pastured the first year. Late fall pasturing the year of seeding is usually accompanied by severe winter-killing, as best results are obtained when alfalfa goes into the winter with from eight inches to [illegible] feet of growth above ground. In the spring of the next year cuttings per cent are usually all that can be profitably secured.

Consider a both yield and palatability, the most advantageous time to cut alfalfa appears to be when the plants are about one tenth in bloom or when the new growth has become well started from the base. If too high an cut is [illegible] the harvesting operations.

In cutting alfalfa hay it is highly desirable [illegible] as much as possible of the crop's leaf growth, color, and palatability. [illegible] the more humid sections of Canada the practice of partial drying in the swaths, continued drying in the windrow, and the final curing in medium sized cocks seems to give the best quality of hay. The time required for curing will depend on the weather and the thickness of the stand. In the drier sections of the prairie provinces alfalfa has to be [illegible] stacked directly from the mower.

New Bodies New Colors New Refinements

AT NEW LOW PRICES

THE art and skill of Fisher craftsmen are strikingly exemplified in the long, low lines of the New and Finer Pontiac Six bodies, in their smart belted effects and in their luxurious comfort.

Rich Duco finish, in the Latest and most appealing colors, adds to the striking beauty of the New and Finer Pontiac Six. New refinements such as sweeping, full-crown fenders, new, higher radiator, tilting beam headlights, place this car in a class far above that into which its phenomenally low prices brings it.

And, back of all these evident improvements and advances stand the established Pontiac qualities of power, speed, stamina and economy—the qualities which won for Pontiac Six the most outstanding success ever accorded any new car during its first year.

Only by seeing the New and Finer Pontiac Six, by driving it and by learning its new, lower prices, can you realize how great a thing has General Motors done in the field of the low-priced six.

Husbands Desert Wives

Pitiable Suffering Caused to Many Cases by Those Deserters

The Montreal Star says editorially: "Pitiable suffering is caused in the tragedy of husbands deserting their wives and children. There has been a marked increase of this crime recently for some years past. Statistics compiled from court records, if one can rely, demonstrate the not startling fact that fully 22 per cent of the children placed in institutions or in homes and who are practically supported by the state, are there because their fathers have been deserted by their mothers. The other 78 per cent of these deserters are the mother has left them. How we have found cruelty on the part of husband and father."

Through this fact many diseases and ailments, all due to poor blood, disappear when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are used. Mrs. Wm. Hooper, of Bedford, N.S., is one of the many people gratefully testifying to the benefit derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I was one of those people who had to give up work because I was so weak and run down. I had no appetite, and could not sleep well. I was very nervous, and the least thing upset me. I was under the doctor's care for a long time, but got no better. I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and before I had taken a half dozen boxes I felt much better. I continued taking the pills for some time longer, and am now strong and well. I am sure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I strongly recommend them to all weak people." A Sensitive Camera

Distant objects invisible to the human eye now can be photographed by a camera perfected by the Army Air Service.

The secret lies in the special film, which is sensitive to light rays that do not register on the eye. It is pointed out that in time of war, a plane equipped with this camera could take perfect pictures of enemy positions while the plane itself would be far out of range and sight of anti-aircraft batteries.

An enemy fleet could be photographed 200 miles off shore by this means, it is said, without the knowledge of the fleet, for the position and name of each ship could be caught in a single picture, taking in 200 square miles. It also has been suggested for fast photography of the night sky for the study of stars.

Invention of English Chemist Brought Him Modest Income

The centenary of the invention of the friction match, and the anniversary of the death of its inventor, John Walker, a chemist of stockton-on-Tees, will be observed in England next year.

It is recorded in Walker's ledger that he sold a box of friction matches to John Hixon for one penny. Although what had been called "matches" were in use before Walker's invention, they had a little sand pasted on the lower end of the splint. To use them a piece of sand paper had to be drawn across the head.

Britain's Air Defence

Dangerous for Her to Fall Too Far Behind Other Nations

Public interest in aviation in this country is at a comparatively low ebb. It simply does not begin to compare with the interest taken in France and in Germany, and in the latter country especially civil aviation has developed to an extent which is far ahead. In part this may be accounted for by the fact that Germany's colonies and the greater facility for commercial flying. But it is manifestly dangerous for Great Britain to fall too far behind, for on the air supremacy of the future will depend our national safety. We are no longer the undisputed mistress of the seas. Other nations have more than was the Navy in the days of Nelson.

Not Getting Fair Deal

Rural Schools Entitled to Experienced Teachers Opinion of Dr. Barnardo

Education Rural and children are not being given a fair deal under the present system, declared Dr. Barnardo, principal of Mount Royal College, Calgary, in an address to the Alberta Teachers' Alliance convention in Edmonton. Dr. Barnardo is in favor of paying better salaries to teachers for hard jobs. He advised the teaching of agriculture in rural schools and urged teachers to gain experience before they ask for positions in the cities.

The Canadian rural school teacher looks at the country school as a job, the building where a little teaches a little little things to little children, not a little while at a little salary," declared Dr. Barnardo. "There is need to consider the whole question of rural education, which is greater than the school house or laundry urban problems."

Sir Arthur Curry Would Like to See Preparations Hurried Up

Montreal — The apathy with which the Canadian militia has been prosecuting the Canadian state of Confederation was deplored by Sir Arthur Currie, commander-in-chief of the Canadian troops during the war and principal of McGill University. He spoke before the Electrical Club of Montreal.

Public committees have been appointed in all cities and towns in the province to arrange for the celebration, it is said. It is understood that there will be a big time in Ottawa on July 1, the day when the Dominion will be sixty years old. It is expected that the Prince of Wales will be present.

Chinese Communists Executed

Shanghai—Six prisoners described as communists and including the wife of the Chinese communist leader were executed today at the Nanking gaol. The executions were carried out by firing squad. Two of the prisoners were women. Their bodies were handed over to their friends. The bodies of the other four were claimed by relatives.

Canada Olympic Chief

Ottawa—Major-General A. C. Mac Donnell, chief of the Canadian Olympic team, which will leave for Amsterdam on May 1, has been appointed by the Canadian Olympic Committee as chief of the Canadian team to the 1928 Olympic games. Officials anticipate that a record number of athletes will make the trip.

Another Canadian Record

Montreal—Another Canadian record was established when the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Scotland, now on her Mediterranean cruise, docked at Liverpool. The ship made the trip from Montreal in 5 days, 19 hours and 30 minutes, beating the record of the run from Montreal to Liverpool. Former Labor Prime Minister at Washington

Washington A sentimental visit of the down-and familiar roads was made when Hon. J. Ramsay MacDonald, former British Labor premier, and Mrs. MacDonald, motored to Mount Vernon, Virginia, to visit the tomb of George Washington. Mr. MacDonald said he had never been so deeply impressed by the architectural lines of the famous home. He was particularly impressed with the simplicity of the tomb of the first president of the United States.

Mr. MacDonald stated that the United States and Canada were setting a fine example for the rest of the world, and he was unable to reach Canada on his trip as governors of boundaries. He compared the boundaries between the United States and Canada as the finest in the world.

Asked if British Labor had reduced its interest in the disarmament question, Mr. MacDonald said that he had never been so deeply interested in the question as he is now. He said that he was not a pacifist, but that he was opposed to war as an instrument of national policy. He declared that the United States and Canada were setting a fine example for the rest of the world, and he was unable to reach Canada on his trip as governors of boundaries. He compared the boundaries between the United States and Canada as the finest in the world.

I. O. O. F. SERVICE

TOFIELD Tofield Lodge No. 43, I.O.O.F. celebrated the anniversary of the founding of the order in America by attending the United Church here on Sunday evening. An address appropriate to the occasion was delivered by Bro. Brother R. C. Watt, B.D. The parade was one of the largest lodge parades seen here for some years past. After the service, a meeting of the members of the Lodge was held, and a motion of appreciation for the excellent address given by Mr. Watt was unanimously passed. Secret was also expressed at the fact that Mr. Watt, who has been pastor of the United Church here for five years, has seen fit to tender his resignation and will be leaving the community.

GREENFIELD IS WORKING HARD FOR ALBERTA

Increased and growing interest in western Canada, on the part both of British capital, is reported by Hon. Robert Greenfield in his weekly bulletin to Premier Brownlee from Ottawa. Mr. Greenfield discovered in all the annual interests in England favorable investment in the country, industries, and Mr. Greenfield was hopeful of considerable amounts of additional capital coming this way during the year. The cause is true of land values, as large numbers of likely [illegible] keep now among the [illegible] information at the new Alberta office.

Mr. Greenfield recently appeared before the agricultural committee of the British house of commons and gave evidence on the question of Canadian farming and marketing. He has been doing a good deal of preliminary publicity work from the London headquarters, before beginning a series of visits to the country, and an addition to interesting likely settlers, has been looking into ways and means of promoting trade relations between Great Britain and Canada.

LINDBROOK

[illegible] sympathy of the district goes out to the Ingram family of Wood[illegible] in their and bereavement by the death of their Mother, Mrs. Mary Ingram. Mrs. Ingram was one of [illegible] settlers, having been widowed early in her married life, she came [illegible] Lester with her family of [illegible] sons and homesteaded the farm which she owned at the time of her death. Mrs. Ingram was well known and liked by all that came in contact with her, and her loss will be a shock to the whole community. All her children were present when she died.

The first bridge west of Lindbrook caught fire this week from risers dropped from a train. Mr. W. Glenn who happened to be walking up the track to visit her sister Mrs. Whibley, saw it first and told Mr. Whibley who went to Mr. Sexsta and phoned to the force to telephone the section foreman Thos. Bessaro Scott and Whibley proceeded to the bridge armed with pails [illegible] the water tube on to it, [illegible] were full. W. Hobbs, the section foreman's son, made a record spread three miles to fetch his father and crew. They arrived and the fire was soon subdued. Rather a roundabout way of getting in touch, but there is no R.R. phone system here and the Company is dependent on the courtesy of the farmers alongside the track.

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD

Golden Text: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."—I Peter 1:3.

Lesson: John 20:1-10; 21:1-22.

Explanations and Comments

I. Mary Magdalene's Discovery (1) The Tomb of Christ, John 20:1, 2 —A stone had been placed over the entrance of the tomb in which the body of the crucified Saviour had been laid (Mark 15:46), and the stone had been sealed (Matthew 27:66). There was probably a rolling disk of stone which could be rolled back and forth in grooves at the foot of the tomb. (2) Mary Magdalene's visit to the tomb with the others, as the first day of the week began to dawn. (3) Her hasty report of the empty tomb to Peter and John (also always a prime favorite of the disciples as "the disciple whom Jesus loved"). "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him," she said.

The beloved disciple cannot find the grave in the new Easter days to have the stone rolled back whether it be in the garden, grief or pleasure, that keeps him from it. He is not to be denied. His message to all who are [illegible]

TWO LINERS BRING 1,358 FOR CANADA

Majority of Newcomers Arriving at Quebec Are for the West

Quebec, May 2nd.—Another large increase was made in the ranks of Canada's agricultural population over the week end when 2,500 immigrants, all of them British or Northern Europeans, were landed from the Empress Mountain and Manitou. The majority of them were consigned for the west but there was a party of 41 boys, ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, who came out to this country under the auspices of the British Immigration and Colonization association, all of them destined for farms throughout the country.

Miss McLaughlin, connected with Dr. Guthrie's Girls' school of Edinburgh, is also out in Canada, having reached here Saturday on board the Montcalm. She is interested in the immigration to Canada of domestic servants and will travel throughout the country in order to ascertain just what the demand is for this type of labor.

With the arrival of two liners over the week-end, the Canadian Pacific steamships have established an early season record that will stand for some time, for from the time the first steamer arrived on April 2nd up to Saturday night they have landed a total of 8,535 immigrants so far at Quebec in 1927. The majority of the immigrants on the Montcalm are British, there being 1,330 on board, while on board the Metagama were 914 northern Europeans, all of them settlers of the most desirable type that Canada is looking for. Following medical inspection they were placed aboard special trains and dispatched to their various destinations, the greater number of them being scheduled for the west.

MANA-CAR WITH SECTION GANG WAS WRECKED

Wade Hillier Died in Viking Hospital Following Accident

Injured on April 19th near Viking, when he was struck by pieces of a wrecked hand-car, Wade Hillier, a section man, died in the Viking hospital Saturday night, as a result of his injuries.

Hillier had a fractured thigh and many minor wounds, but his condition was not considered grave. Internal complications, it is thought, were responsible for his death.

Coroner Dr. Hetson of Viking opened an inquest on Hillier Monday.

The accident in which Hillier was injured occurred on a windy day, when an engine and caboose, coming west through Viking, suddenly found itself confronting the hand-car, with a team of section men.

The car had been pushed up a steep grade from a side track on to the main line, and owing to the wind, few of the linemen noticed the train dashing down upon them. Nor did they hear the engine whistle.

Belated called to the crew to jump, and all got away from the danger, but Hillier, who was struck by flying wreckage of the hand-car as the engine drove into it, was hurled into the ditch.

36 BLOCKS IN BRANDON ARE UNDER WATER

Assiniboine Flood Waters Menace Many Temporary Dykes

WATER SURROUNDS 400 CITY HOUSES

River Volume Increases and Higher Water Reported to Be on Way

WINNIPEG, May 3.—Temporary dykes have been swept away by flood waters from the Assiniboine river at Brandon, Man., 100 miles west of Winnipeg, and last night 36 city blocks in the district known as the "Flats" are inundated, 400 houses surrounded by water, and scores of residents heeding the warning of civic officials have abandoned their homes, seeking safety from the swirling waters which continue to rise hourly.

Timber and brushwood in floats down on the swollen stream, intercepting that higher water is on its way, and a steady increase in the volume was reported during the afternoon. During the past 24 hours a foot and a half rise was recorded.

Give Aid for Victims

Throughout yesterday all manner of craft was in use in the flooded area, with residents bringing their household furniture and goods to higher ground. Motor boats, rowboats and rafts were in prove use. The water from the flood district was supervised by police and civic officials, while food and had been given the victims forced from their homes, and last night many families were housed in public buildings.

Rain yesterday added to the misery and sufferings of residents forced to desert their homes. The rain was the main thoughfares became ing into the city from the north sides are being constructed.

Will Reach Record Mark

It is feared that the flood will reach record breaking proportions. If the estimates the First and Eighteenth street thoroughfares leading north out of the city will be flooded. Hopes that were entertained that the agricultural lands in this district would be saved were shattered yesterday afternoon when the waters covered hundreds of acres east and west of Brandon. Many farmers will have to give up the idea of seeding this season.

Many residents north of Stickney Avenue have now removed to safer flood-free areas. The immigrants hall has been placed at the disposal of temporary homeless flood sufferers. Orders to get out of their homes were to be prepared to do so at any moment. Removal of furniture and whole rooms of livestock from the new submerged area was accomplished with many rescue lives.

HERE AND THERE

Moose Jaw—One thousand head of Western Canadian logic horses purchased for the Soviet government were assembled here. The horses, which are 4-H logic, are being bought for the Russian government with Russian funds placed in Canadian banks for that purpose. A similar purchase was made last year when 2,000 horses were bought. This indicates satisfaction with the Canadian stock.

The increase in the net profits of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the first eight months of the year ending August 31st is $8,211,452.52, according to a financial statement issued at the headquarters of the Canadian Pacific at Montreal. This is the increase in profits as compared with the profits for the same period in 1925. The increase in the gross earnings over the same period in 1926 is stated at $12,801,304.13.

"Hell-Roaring Canyon," the scene of a dramatic incident in John Murray Gibbon's new novel "Eyes of a Gypsy" is the actual name of a remote valley in the Canadian Pacific Rockies as known to the guides and hunters, although the Geographic Board of the Canadian Government has just changed it to a less romantic name, "Young Creek." The reason for the change in name is that there is no other Hell Roaring Canyon in the Rockies which claims a prior right to the name.

One of Canada's Assets

Every citizen is or should be interested in all things pertaining to the development and prosperity of Canada. Whether he owns a farm or a factory, a mine or a mercantile establishment, he is vitally interested in the welfare of the country as a whole. Anything and everything that has to do with the national industries and progress is distinctive to be reported on.

It is certainly encouraging to find that in the Province of Alberta, the largest province in the Dominion, there is a public spirit abroad that is willing to help the industries that are struggling for existence. Take, for example, the Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, which has been formed for the purpose of building and operating a line of grain elevators in the province. The company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000, and the shares are being offered to the public. The company has been formed by a number of prominent business men of Edmonton, and the directors are all men of high standing in the community. There is, however, more to this than the mere fact that the company is a local one. It is a company that is going to help the farmers of the province to get their grain to market. It is a company that is going to help the farmers of the province to get their grain to market. It is a company that is going to help the farmers of the province to get their grain to market.

The Londoner Was

A traveller was talking of the way in which the Americans had adopted the London habit of afternoon tea. "I remember," he said, "when I was in Paris I was invited to a tea party by a lady who had married a Frenchman. The lady was a Londoner, and she had invited a number of her friends to meet me. When I arrived I found that every one of the ladies had drawn-out chairs, and was sitting with her feet on the fender. I was the only man present, and I felt very much out of it. I was sitting there, feeling very uncomfortable, when the lady of the house turned to me and said, 'Do you like tea?' I replied that I did. 'Then,' she said, 'you will be the first Englishman who has ever been invited to a tea party in Paris.'"

Diamond Cutters Who Come to London

London to-day pours forth its wealth in many directions, but the flow is most copious when it is directed to the diamond cutters. Of these there are about 1,000 in the London area, and they are all busy. Their wages are high, and they are all well-to-do. Their work is very delicate, and requires great skill and patience. The diamonds are first cut into rough shapes, and then they are polished. The polishing is done on a wheel, and the diamond is held in a clamp. The wheel is turned by a handle, and the diamond is moved about on the wheel by the hand. The polishing is done with a fine powder, and the diamond is finished with a soft cloth. The diamonds are then sold to jewellers, who set them in rings, brooches, and other ornaments.

Americans Use Radiophone

Calls Increasing With Advent of U.S. Visitors to London

Radiophone talks with Americans from London are rapidly increasing. With the advent of United States visitors it has been found that a large proportion of the calls from this end of the London were made by American business men staying there. Twenty-six calls to New York and elsewhere in the United States were made in one day last week from one London hotel and all by American business men. An American staying at a London hotel had for his telephone talks to Chicago four and one-half minutes and as much as his hotel bill. The conversation alone cost him $75.

"The Confederation"

Name Given to New Canadian National Train Commemorates Canada's Diamond Jubilee

An important extension of Canadian National Railways passenger train service between Eastern Canada and the Pacific Coast, to be known as the "Confederation," was announced by H. H. Melanson, general passenger traffic manager of the railway, to-day. The schedule, which becomes effective on June 28th, from Toronto, and June 27th, from Vancouver trains No. 3 and No. 6, now operating between Winnipeg and Toronto only, under the name of "The National" will operate between Toronto and Vancouver on a 32 hour schedule westbound and 31 hours and 30 minutes eastbound. It is understood that the train will also run in honor of the Canadian diamond jubilee, the year 1927. The new train will be known as the "Confederation."

The train will consist of the latest all-steel equipment, including standard and tourist sleeping cars, dining car, and observation-compartment-library car. The train will be operated over the Canadian National Railways from Toronto to Winnipeg, and from Winnipeg to Vancouver, and will thus provide passengers with an opportunity of seeing the whole of the famous Fraser River canyon by daylight.

The departure of the train from Toronto will be at 10.00 a.m. daily, and from Vancouver at 10.00 a.m. daily. Connections will be made at Toronto with the Canadian National Limited for Montreal and the Maritime Provinces, and at Winnipeg with the Canadian Limited for Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and Prince Rupert. Connections will also be made at Winnipeg with the Manitoba Limited for Brandon, Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and Prince Rupert. Connections will also be made at Winnipeg with the Manitoba Limited for Brandon, Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and Prince Rupert.

Painful Sprains, Bruises, Restored By Nervilene

Thanks to rumbling pumps in Nervilene that has made it famous for nearly fifty years past. It takes to drive away pain from a sprain or bruise's aches and pains. Nervilene is always there. If your joints are stiff and you are out of condition, Nervilene will limber you up. Nervilene soothes you now and keeps you well. Nervilene is the liniment that kept me in bed for six months. "My case got to be so chronic that the lobe ran the limit. I was practically helpless. Even my wrists and hands looked large. Finally I couldn't move my name. I decided to leave, but I got no rest, for there in my ear, waiting for morning. Nervilene prescribed. It was new and I would try all other like it. I couldn't get much sleep for my head had been so long in bed. My weight was 185 lbs. when I left.

"After seven days I doubled in size. Taste is good trial, for nothing else had helped me. I could scarcely believe such results were possible as Nervilene showed. The relief stopped my appetite came back and I did not be long. My weight increased to 200 lbs., two and a half pounds. I gained 10 pounds while I was in bed, and I now look healthier—observations too laborious to describe. Fairest how to echo, By Jove! I should if I like a word to know what Nervilene did, tell them to write to Lord Nelson, 96 Oxford Street, London, W.1. Seeds Greetings to Canada

President of Cuba Pleased With Evening Greeting Received

Expressing his satisfaction with the financial and economic relations between Canada and Cuba President Machado has sent cordial greetings to the Canadian people. The message was sent to Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister to Cuba, who presented the following cable from the President:

"I am pleased to know that the financial and economic relations between Canada and Cuba are so happily enhanced by the cordial sentiments of friendship and mutual consideration of which you speak in your message. I am sure that the people of Cuba will be glad to know that the people of Canada are so friendly to them, and they have no doubt that the people of Canada will be glad to know that the people of Cuba are so friendly to them."

RHEUMATIC MISERY

Relief Can Only Come Through Better Blood—Liniments of No Use

It is of little use to show the blood to use skin as quickly as in rheumatism. Rheumatism is caused by the blood, but it is loaded with impurities—rheumatic poisons. Without the proper treatment these poisons increase, and the disease becomes chronic. Then the pain is becomes a regular. Most local remedies are of little or no help. Even the most powerful liniments afford only temporary relief. Rheumatism is a blood disease. It can only be driven out of the system by purifying the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is noted for its success in rheumatism, and the statement of Mr. Harold Lewis, Bridgetown, N.S., is typical of many. He says: "For years I was troubled with rheumatism, but the attacks became more frequent and severe. I suffered terribly, and was unable to get relief. I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon found that every trace of the trouble had disappeared. I have had a great improvement in my general health since taking them, and I recommend them to all who have suffered from rheumatism." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Canadian Alfalfa Seed

The superior quality of the Canadian grown seed is another item, one that is known to the entire world. Canadian alfalfa seed is the best. For a long time it was considered safe to grow alfalfa successfully in many parts of Canada, but the discovery of an enormous supply of hardy strains of seed has, to a certain extent, changed the position. Now many states in the United States are importing Canadian grown seed because it is known to be hardy. Can it be long until Canada becomes a seed growing country? Can it be long until Canada becomes a seed growing country? Can it be long until Canada becomes a seed growing country?

Elevator Construction

Grain elevator construction in Canada is at present very active, and the total number of elevators now being altered or constructed is 1,679. Of these 1,679 elevators, 1,000 are being altered or constructed in the province of Alberta.

Canadian Farmer Tells His Experience

"Lee" Booth, widely known Ontario farmer, and a sick man for 20 years, suffered daily, only half alive. Now strong, robust, vigorous, credits new found health to Tanlac

Though popularly known as "Lee" Mr. Booth's correct first name is George Mackenzie at 274 Perth St., Brockville, Ont. For the past three years he enjoyed vigorous health but what he endured before then is best told in his own words. "For twenty years my arms, shoulders, back and legs, ached with rheumatism," said Mr. Booth. "When I had to get up in the morning I was so stiff and sore that I got out of bed backwards. After I was dressed I could scarcely walk. The pain would go to my head and make me dizzy. I suffered from indigestion so badly that I could not eat anything. My nerves were all shot to pieces. Destroy Machine-Carved Glass

Craftsmen Fear Machinery Will Ruin Hand Cutting Trade

Dolomite's famous glass cutting industry is greatly subdued over the assertion of modern machinery to produce glass which, to the eye, is as well cut as the hand-cut article. Many of the skilled craftsmen have left the city to find work elsewhere. The glass cutters' guild of craftsmen, founded a half century ago, and numerically decimated by the machine-cut glass. Intervention by the guild has failed to stop the machine-cut glass. The disturbance are spreading to other cities.

Production of a carload of machine-cut glassware requires, but is the work of a few days, and the saving to cutting glass cutters declares. They claim the London workers will demand hundred wages and consequently their extermination to halt further inroads by machine-cut glass. They have called to destroy their profession.

Many Americans Live in London

Number Increases Fifty Per Cent in Ten Years

Although a fewer population is recorded in the census of allied countries in the latest British, the number of Americans living there increased by 50 per cent. in ten years. This is followed by several reports of the 1921 census, which have been published for the first time. The latest report of Americans and Wales numbered 32,865, of whom there were 17,625 males and 13,241 females. In Scotland there was 643 persons to the square mile, as against 710 per square mile in England. It is that of any other country in the United Kingdom, and more than twice as great as Ireland. Nearly seventy per cent. of the population in urban areas.

The largest county recorded from the census is London, with 4,483,000 persons. The Welsh county of Glamorgan has 1,256,000.

"Moto-Balloon" New Invention

Observation Post Can Be Quickly Transformed Into Semi-Dirigible

A "moto-balloon," capable of remaining tethered in the air to an observation post, though unattended by a crew, is the invention of a Belgian engineer, M. Jean Piraux. It is a cross between a dirigible within a half hour was launched at Milan, Italy, recently. It was tethered to the "P" after its inventor, Colonel Accola, and he ascended. Piraux.

It consists of a special type of captive balloon with the body replaced by a metallic cylinder, open-equipped with a 100-horse power motor and control room for a crew of several men. It is capable of rising four hours at a time between the ground and an altitude of 6,500 feet.

PROSPERITY OF THE WEST IS NOW ON A SOLID BASIS

Montreal.—A picture of Western Canada steadily climbing to prosperity on a solid stable basis was publicly set forth by members of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association by W. B. Buttery, chairman, the annual report of the organization, at their monthly luncheon today.

Booms and other artificial trade stimulis had been left behind. Mr. Buttery declared. He described how mixed farming was playing its important part in the development and prosperity of the prairies and said that in his judgment just one more good crop is needed to put the country over the top."

He was confident this could be a good year for the West and that eastern business interest at the end of the year would see some reforms in this increased activity for him profit they had no offer for sale in Western Canada.

Declares Border Law Menace to Friendship

Toronto Banker Urges Compromise in U.S. Passport Regulations for Canadian Citizens

Buffalo, N.Y.—Members of one Buffalo Rotary Club and a number of invited United Canadian luncheon were warned by George Wilson, Toronto banker and lawyer, speaking on the new passport regulations are for Canadians visiting the United States, that the country are to be underregarded."

"The next month of this year are celebrating this anniversary of the Ruhr Lower treaty which practically ended what is known as the 'Ruhr battle along the border,' said Mr. Wilson, "and year by year the relations between the people have become more friendly. Yet, in the midst of all this, and at the same time, thousands of Canadians and Americans, are every month, are being turned back at the borders by petty officials who have no power at all to pass on the bona fides of the would-be visitors."

"The Canadian people do not like to be classified with the Chinese, Japanese or Hindus, and they resent the implication that they are in the same category as the Mexicans, Negroes and Mongolians."

Mr. Wilson said he knew when passports were first required, and that they were not in use. Mr. Wilson said he knew when passports were first required, and that they were not in use.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success"

Here we are again! at the threshold of another "cream season." Already many cows have freshened and the cream receipts are beginning to increase. In a short time the flow of cream will be the flood.

There is truth in the axiom that "Nothing succeeds like success," and we would urge you to milk all the cows you can this summer. An extra cow means many extra dollars for the summer milking.

We will do our part by giving you the Highest Price for Your Cream, Correct Weight and Test, Prompt Service and Courteous Treatment.

but in a VALUE Class

McLAUGHLIN-BUICK stands alone—not in its price, which it shares with others—but in its VALUE, which it shares with none.

During the past nine years the public of this community has invested more of its automobile dollars in McLaughlin-Buick than in any other make of motor car.

And McLaughlin Buick, true to its purpose and promise, has continually strived to improve its quality—to better its value. The economies effected through McLaughlin-Buick's volume of sales have been ploughed back to enrich still further the quality of the car by such improvements as the Sealed Chassis, the Torque Tube Drive, Mechanical Four-Wheel Brakes, an Engine Vibrationless Beyond Belief and the increased luxury and refinement of McLaughlin-Buick Fisher Bodies.

CARBON MONOXIDE

Carbon Monoxide is a gas formed during combustion when the excess of oxygen is not sufficiently large. It is found in chimney gases, in the gases of blast furnaces and in the vapors arising from volcanoes. It is a colorless, odorless gas slightly lighter than air. It burns with a pale blue flame which can sometimes be observed near the top of a coal fire when there is incomplete combustion in the lower part of the grate. It is very poisonous.

Carbon Monoxide is frequently formed in the explosion chambers of automobiles and by the force of the explosion blown out of the exhaust pipe. One frequently reads of cases where men have been overcome and met their death through letting their engines run in a closed garage, or even in a garage with but one door or window open. Only last week Mr. T. E. Davidson of Sedgewick, met his death in this manner. Automobile owners should never run their engines inside a building, bearing in mind that it is not the blue smoke that one sees that does the harm (though that is harmful enough) but a gas that can neither be smelled or seen, and which with an engine running idle is more than likely to be present.

COUNCIL TAKES HOLD

While the meeting held on Monday night was not as well attended as it might have been, the arrangements decided upon could hardly have been improved had there been a crowded hall. The celebration this year is more than an ordinary July 1st celebration, it is commemorating the 60th year of confederation. Patriotic Canadianism will be the dominant factor throughout the day and as each town or village will be holding a celebration it will be strictly local in character, that is, the townspeople and every one within the usual trading area will be asked to come to town and help celebrate the day. Parades, speeches, children's programme, etc., etc. will mark the day everywhere, and the big bonfire at night will be a link in the chain of bonfire across Canada.

As representatives of local government the council are the proper body to take hold and bring to a successful conclusion the best day Tofield has ever seen. The rural council too, or as many of those members as reside in the territory tributary to Tofield, should be appointed to the committee so as to make it a complete civic controlled affair.

ROAD BUILDING

The building of roads have always been a mark of civilization. Some of the road work of the Romans in England still stands today. Good roads means easy transit, easy transit means increased business and increased business means better conditions all around. There is quite a demand for good motor roads to encourage tourist traffic. This is laudable enough; there is also a demand for good motor roads to and from surrounding towns for the benefit of our own motorists, who in a way pay handsomely for them through the automobile license system, and this demand too is laudable enough. But to our mind the road question as it effects small towns is "closer home" than either tourist or inter-town roads. The town that has a net work of really good roads around it has something worth many thousands of dollars yearly; while the farm that is situated on a good road leading to its market town is worth several dollars an acre more than a farm that is not. In order to withstand the onslaughts of city and mail order competition the small towns of Alberta must become real centres of activity and one of the best ways to bring this about is to make it easy for all residents to reach town as comfortably as possible.

BARDO

The children in the Ears Jodar and Will Stauffer families have the measles.

The Lutheran Young People had a very nice Mother's day program at the Church at 2:30 on Sunday. It was opened by song by the congregation devotions. Mrs. Bernie Anderson, Edna Steen and Gladys Nees presented bouquets of flowers from the President, Miss Brochers, and presented one to each Mother present. The flower were passed on by Betty Nees and Berthold Forshang. A quartette consisting of Monrad Fulseth, Nora Rude, Betty Nees and Bernie Anderson then sang a song in the Norwegian language, "Mother O' Mother". Rev. Bjelde gave an interesting talk, followed by a duet "Mother Dearest" by Herbert Parker and Betsy Nees. Loraine Moen and Myrtle Rude each gave an appropriate recitation. The quartette then sang "Tell Mother I'll be There". Song by congregation, after which the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moen was christened Arlene Ade, sponsored by Mrs. W. E. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Haugen.

The church was filled. Several from Ryley and Amish Creek being present.

Mrs. Parker entertained Mr. and Mrs. Pete Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moen, Mr. A Moen and Bernice Ahlin Glenn, Ole Bartness and the Misses Carrie Brecher, Myrtle Rude and Marguerite Nees at supper Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Finseth have moved from the John Anderson home to Ryley.

CANADIAN NATIONAL SIXTH ANNUAL TOUR TO THE PACIFIC COAST

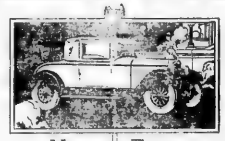
In pursuance of a time honored practice of affording its patrons every facility and convenience tending toward more vacation enjoyment, the Canadian National is operating its sixth annual tour confidently believe this will again prove of the greatest and convenience to a host of teachers, as well as professional men and business men and women, vacation-bent.

The tour will commence at Winnipeg, from which point a special train of modern sleeping car equipment en route. This is all done in advance by experts, leaving the passenger free to enjoy to his full the scenery ad attractions attendant to such a tour.

The local agent of the Canadian National Railways will be pleased to interest, the train will arrive at Prince Rupert on July 9th. At this latter point the party will embark on a palatial steamship for a cruise of 550 miles through the famous "Inside Passage" to Vancouver. While the tour terminates at Vancouver, those who desire to make a trip to Victoria may have their tickets read "Victoria" as their destination without any additional cost.

The mode of travel has many advantages. In the first place, it is planned with a view to including in the itinerary the most interesting points, which, with the other arrangements that are made, obviates the necessity of the passenger worrying about connections, sleeping car accommodation, meals, and entertainment en route. This is all done in advance by experts, leaving the passenger free to enjoy to his full the scenery ad attractions attendant to such a tour.

The local agent of the Canadian National Railways will be pleased to give you full particulars of this tour.



Now an Even Greater Car Scoring an even Greater Success

YOU know how all the resources of General Motors were used to make the original Pontiac Six the finest car ever introduced into the field of low-priced cars. You know the wildfire success that resulted.

But do you know that the present day Pontiac—at its new low prices, is a new and finer six—an even greater car that is having an even greater success?

It offers the style appeal of new Fisher bodies—low-swung lines, new paint and color harmonies, luxurious appointments and conveniences.

It embodies a sporty six that delivers more flashing power, responds and [illegible] and smoothness.

It provides in full measure those [illegible] qualities that took all America by storm—those qualities of stamina, economy and [illegible] which were developed by more than three years' [illegible] on the great General Motors Proving Ground!

Small wonder that the tide of public preference is turning to the Pontiac Six—as never before to another six in the low-priced field!

THE NECESSITY OF PROVIDING FRESH SOIL FOR CHICKS

(Experimental Farm Notes)

Poultry production in Canada has been in the past almost entirely a general farm proposition.

Under such conditions little attention was paid to the changing of the rearing ground for the chicks, as was also the case with the young stock generally.

Even under the old order of things [illegible] was known and referred to, and backyard poultry raising at times [illegible] epidemics of chicken [illegible] at times, so that [illegible] on their yards by the young garden crop.

It was not however until specialization in farming became general that the necessity for the yearly change of the rearing ground became generally recognized.

It is now being known that chicks placed on new land, that is land which poultry had not previously used, will outgrow those raised on old used land.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

BARDO

John R. Stauffer is building a new house.

Sunday being a pleasant day, everybody enjoyed getting out of doors after a hard week's work on the farm and in the house. A large congregation was out to both churches.

Mr. Sorokina was able to be out to church although still being far from strong.

Our John Jevzenog family from Lyley visited in the Strom home, others go to were the Jacobson family, Emma Anderson, Matilda Roseth, Maude Jevzenog, Olof Anderson and Esben Eide.

Mrs. Rude entertained the Emil Rude and Finseth families, Sigrod Fryan, Selmar Johnson, Raymond Norlie and Ingvald Brenden.

Carrie Bracken spent the week-end with the Rude girls.

Margot Ness and Edna Yoder were for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hendrickson [illegible] in the P. H. Strom home. The Council Fruit [illegible]

[illegible] and Mrs. P. O. Lerbekmo and and Mrs. Hills spent Sunday in [illegible] H. E. Brenneman's home.

[illegible] entertained the Social Club on Monday the 23rd inst. Beds, I. F. Stauffer, A. A. King and Jake king families, also Mrs. Nina Stauffer and Mrs. Brehm.

Mrs. I. D. Yoder visited with [illegible] Emil J. S. Yoder.

[illegible] and Mrs. Fred Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hobson and Mr. [illegible] Calgary were Sunday visitors at the Hobson home.

KITCHENER

[illegible] Sabbath service was not very well attended, but we appreciate Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] coming out from Tofield. Mr. [illegible] played organ for the service. Mr. Watt preached an interesting sermon on Mother's day, and Mrs. Gussie Brown favored with a solo, "Home, Mother, Home and Heaven are the Best", accompanied by Mrs. Hall Ware.

Miss Dorothy Hay of town spent the week-end visiting her friend M. [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown of Tofield visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Brown are Mother's parents.

Could Not Sleep Heart and Nerves Were So Bad

Mr. Geo. Mark, Windsor, Ont., writes: "I suffered with my heart and nerves and could not sleep at night for I was in my head. I managed to keep at my work somehow, until I got to the stage where I could not work and I could not get a wink of sleep. I was advised to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, but very often I would exaggerate my feet, I was so nervous. I got a box and before I had taken half of it I was able to go back to my work. I have taken in all six boxes and I can say I feel as well as ever I did in my life. I cannot say too much in favor of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

If You Need Money

As The A's Did

THE A'S NEEDED MONEY—AS ALL THE A'S, B'S, THE C'S, AND MOST OF THE REST OF US AT TIMES DO.

"LET'S SELL OUR NORTHWESTERN UTILITIES," MR. A SUGGESTED.

"HOW CAN WE DO IT?" ASKED MRS. A.

"WE CAN TAKE OUR CERTIFICATE TO THE OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. THEIR RE-SALE DEPARTMENT IS ALWAYS READY TO HELP US IF WE NEED TO GET OUR MONEY OUT. I'LL PHONE THEM."

THEY TELEPHONED THE COMPANY AND FOUND THAT THE RE-SALE DEPARTMENT WOULD SERVE THEM. THEY ALSO FOUND THAT THE PRICE OF THE STOCK WAS HIGHER THAN WHEN THEY BOUGHT IT.

"THEN WE WON'T SELL," DECLARED MRS. A. "I BELIEVE IT WILL GO STILL HIGHER AND IT'S TOO GOOD AN INVESTMENT TO HAND OVER TO SOMEONE ELSE. I DON'T WANT TO SEE THOSE DIVIDEND CHEQUES STOP, ANYWAY."

"WE CAN BORROW MONEY ON IT AT THE BANK," SUGGESTED MR. A. "I'LL TAKE IT DOWN AND SEE."

"YES, SIR," SAID THE BANKER, "THAT'S MIGHTY GOOD COLLATERAL. HOW MUCH DO YOU NEED?"

SO THE A'S TIDED THEMSELVES OVER WITH A LOAN AND KEPT THEIR NORTHWESTERN UTILITIES PREFERRED SHARES.

WHEN YOU OWN THIS SAFE, CONVENIENT SECURITY YOU ALWAYS HAVE THE KNOWLEDGE THAT YOU CAN GET YOUR MONEY OUT—OR CAN BORROW MONEY ON IT AT THE BANK.

Big Time Planned For July 1st

A general meeting of committees was held on Friday night last to make preliminary arrangements for the Diamond Jubilee Celebration to be held here on July 1st. It was planned to commence the day with a parade in the morning from the C.N.R. station at 11.00 a.m. Various school districts in the country will be asked to come in and join the parade and carry a banner. A prize will be given by the U. F. A. Hall for the best decorated school children's car. Mr. Hobson will give a prize for the best oldtimers outfit, and Swift & Emery will give a prize for the best school singing. Arriving at the grounds community singing will take place, and following this school singing.

From 12:30 to 1:30 will be lunch hour after which there will be more community singing and the main speaker of the day will give his address. Then will come the fall line of sporting events.

Several committees have been formed and it is expected that the day will go down into history as one of the big days that we ever had. Some prizes are being prepared for the community singing.

Another meeting is called for Friday evening, May 27th.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

The Prince of Wales and Premier Mackenzie King, who will sail for Canada June 17 aboard the R.M.S. Empress of Australia to be understood that the Premier expects to return August 17. The Prince will be two or three weeks longer.

A number of British troops on Fanning Island, a coral island in the Pacific ocean, 1,000 miles south of Honolulu, have been stricken with influenza, according to a message received here from Suva, Fiji Islands.

The Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, premier of Great Britain, will be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given by the Canadian Society of Canada, an appeal that aroused the interest of thoughtful men. Some years later steps were taken to save this handsome tree at Ottawa but it was all in vain, as may be seen today in the picture.

In June the number of 1925 the experiment was tried of transferring a herd of the buffalo to the Wood Buffalo Park, and this year the herd was increased by the addition of several hundred more buffalo. The experiment worked remarkably well, for last year no less than 300 young buffalo were born, and the herd in the Park, and this year the same number will be taken up to join the herd there. In addition about two hundred Plains buffalo are to be transferred from time to time, and disposed of in the park. Thus in a few years the numbers of the herd have the problem of the future.

In other words, the Canadian Wood Buffalo Park will be one of the few districts that were first brought to the park have been increased to ten thousand. That is surely a most satisfactory and a more valuable sight than a few specimens of the buffalo bone that once dotted the prairies of the West.

Settlers Have Capital

Thirty-four months' delayed capital of $1,111,124, have come to British Columbia from United Britain already this year, as part of a new and constant flow of people of independent means, who by speed and facility of communication with the mother country are now settling in that province.

Student Gains Distinction

Saskatchewan Medical Student Wins Honors in United States

A Saskatchewan student has won the distinction of coming out on top of the first part of the examinations conducted by the United States board of medical examiners.

Malvern B. Towle, 26 years, Assiniboia, writing in the examination with students from medical schools throughout the United States and Canada gained first place and the only Canadian in the first ten places. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Towle, Assiniboia. His father is in charge of the Assiniboia Experimental Farm, and he is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan.

Confederation and After

Sixty Years of Progress

The Renaissance of the Buffalo in the West

One of the most creditable incidents in the early history of the west, after the coming of the white man, was the near extinction of the buffalo, and of the more creditable was the effective steps taken at the last moment to save the buffalo from utter extermination and bring him back, not to anything approaching his one-time number, but to a position that ensured the survival of this interesting and valuable animal.

At one time the buffalo ranged over the greater part of North America, and we know from the narratives of many of the early travellers and fur traders that a hundred years or more ago they travelled in such incredible numbers over the plains of the west in search of pasture that they were practically black with them. So far as the writer could learn, Hearne at the time of Confederation there were practically a score in the North Saskatchewan country, and in the Western States, although it is estimated that they were reduced to 25,000 from the more extensive area he lost a ten to ten-fold.

One of the most picturesque links between the present and the past so far as the buffalo is concerned was the veteran Canadian poet Charles Mair still living in Victoria and apparently his old-time vigor. Mair knew the west when the buffalo might still be seen occasionally in the Canadian plain, and was so impressing with the necessity of their extinction that he took a resolution to the Royal Society of Canada, an appeal that aroused the interest of thoughtful men. Some years later steps were taken to save this handsome tree at Ottawa but it was all in vain, as may be seen today in the picture.

It is hoped that, almost next month, a buffalo herd will be turned when the rest of the race disappeared. A man named Michael Pablo finally set up a herd of buffalo in Montana. Customs Union in Europe

Movement Started for an Identical Tariff System in European Countries

A move toward an European customs union was endorsed by many delegates from a resolution which was given preliminary approval by the economic conference in Geneva.

Under this resolution the League of Nations would be requested to propose measures to be published to a conference on identical tariff systems among European countries, or to establish bases for the elaboration of such tariffs.

Both communications previously had flaring conflicts with protectionist and laid down the doctrine that customs should remove or at least diminish their barriers. They also were against dumping trade by beginning with more horrible, suggesting measures the effects of the great war.

The granting of unconditional most favored nation treatment was declared to be essential to a free and healthy development of commerce.

Grain Carrying Fleet

Big Shipment of Grain From Head of the Lakes Establishes a Record

The other day a fleet carrying a little over a million bushels, of wheat left Fort William and Port Arthur, the "Lakehead" ports of the Winnipeg Grain Trade. Duluth, this is the largest shipment of wheat in any one day from any port in the world. There was much to be said for the statement to feed the great city at Lake Superior, but it was by no means more than all the seven ports of North America, Montreal included, have shipped in any whole week during the past month, more than Australia ever shipped in a week, and more than Argentina has shipped in any week this season. All this wheat was not loaded within 24 hours, the greater part consisting of winter storage grain, but the fertilizer at Port William Port Arthur are such that a big proportion of this quantity can be loaded in one day and very much more than can be loaded in any other port in any other country.

Mount Macleay

Mount Macleay, 8,000 feet high, is situated to the west of Grant Pass on the Alberta-British Columbia boundary. According to the Geographic Board of Canada, it commemorates the late Hon. Robert Macleay, Anglican Archbishop of Dagwin Land and Primate of Canada. Archbishop Macleay frequent by spent his period of recreation in this district.

COULD NOT REST OR SLEEP

Rash on Arms, Neck and Face. Cuticura Heals.

"I was troubled with an itching rash which broke out in blotches on my arms, neck and face. It itched and burned causing me to scratch, and scratching caused eruptions. My face was disfigured and I had to bandage my arms. I could not rest or sleep on account of the irritation.

"A friend advised Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. I got relief at once so purchased more, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Vera E. Carter, Jarvis Hill, Springhill, N. S., Aug. 20, 1926.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 30

PETER UNDAUNTED BY PERSECUTION

Golden Text: "We must obey God rather than men."—Acts 5:29.

Lesson. Acts 5:17-42.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 27:1-6.

Explanations and Comments

I. Peter and John Again Imprisoned (Acts 5:17-32).

Verses 17-25.—"We cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard," had been the bold declaration of Peter when he and John were brought before the Sanhedrin four days before. Upon their release they continued their preaching, and the people flocked in large numbers. The jealousy and enmity of the priests and Sadducees were aroused, and they had the apostles again imprisoned.

"From bitterness preserve me Lord;
From jealousy, malice, pride and hate;
Again the stroke of envy's sword
Help me to hold my way.
And grant me staff and fellow grace,
To gladden at another's prize,
With sympathetic eyes."

—Henry Hallam Tuttle.

Early the next morning the Sanhedrin, learned that their prisoners had escaped, although the prison was found properly locked and the guards at the doors. They learned also that the prisoners were preaching in the temple, threat was their countenance. What could be done with such defiant men who had so unknown ally to help them get at prison?

Diamond Jubilee Celebration

Some Suggestions for Guidance of Committees

The mayor or reeve should call a meeting to form a jubilee committee. The municipal council, clergy, boards of churches, representatives of church societies and other organizations should be included. The function having been formally organized, the committee should arrange a meeting to decide on the jubilee programme and elect a chairman, secretary and treasurer and other committees to deal with such matters as finance, celebration, sports, parade, the Public Building and street decorations, and to appoint sub-

The Best of Music, Song, Lectures, Plays, and General Platform Entertainment

PROGRAMME

FIRST DAY

AFTERNOON—No Program for the first afternoon.

EVENING—Play: "Give and Take," a screaming farce comedy by Aaron Hoffman, on modern business and economic life—a laugh in nearly every line, and back of it all a moral—presented by the talented Martin Erwin Players.

SECOND DAY

AFTERNOON—Schubert Male Quartette from Toronto: Song pictures of epochal events in the life of Franz Schubert.

EVENING—Prelude: Schubert Male Quartette.
Travelogue: "British Policy in China and Through Britain with a Camera," by Julian B. Arnold, distinguished traveller and author, in fascinating lecture, magnificently illustrated with colored slides.

THIRD DAY

AFTERNOON—Prelude: Maupin's Singing Band, plenty of real band music; harmony, melody and heart satisfying music that will surprise and delight you.
Demonstrated Lecture: "The Potter and The Clay," by J. Smith Dearon, the Potter Craftsman. The only entertainer of his kind.

EVENING—Maupin's Singing Band: A band concert that is a regular sensation in the line of musical programs, comprising a band, a glee club and minstrels, all in one.

FOURTH DAY

AFTERNOON—Prelude: The John Ross Reed Company—A novel musical and histronic program. A remarkable combination of beautiful voices and dramatic ability.
Lecture: "Catching up with Our Heads," by Walter J. Millard. Practical science applied to our social and political institutions by an authority on civic government.

EVENING—Prelude: The Ross Reed Company—Artists of individual achievement who leave nothing to be desired in wholesome entertainment and delightful music.
Lecture: "The Pictures in Our Heads," by Walter J. Millard. A thought provoking talk by a dynamic speaker. He punctures constructively the most indifferent community.

FIFTH DAY

Herbert A. Taylor; Prince of Magic—Clown—Juggler and Ventriloquist—a treat for the children.

EVENING—Play: "Stella: Then," a charming play of unprecedented popularity, by Allen Langdon. Presented by the Martin Erwin Players.

SIXTH DAY

AFTERNOON—Prelude: The Plantation Singers—Highly trained Jubilee Singers presenting the rollicking and melodious songs and folk lore of the Southland.
Lecture: "The Way Out," by Dr. Franklin Bash—Dramatic orator in inspiring address.

EVENING—Grand Closing Day Night Concert by the Plantation Jubilee Singers.

Posters are out for our plant sale. If you have not got in your order, do so now to insure it's fulfillment. Phone your order to Mrs. Law or Mrs. Bissett.

Mrs. Pinsett is spending the week in Edmonton as local delegate to the Annual Convention of Alberta Women's Institutes.

Mrs. Pinsett entertained Dr. Detwiler last week, who gave a very interesting talk on Travellers' Aid work, and young girls and women travelling alone. She stressed the point that girls should under no circumstances accept the attentions of strange men, no matter under what guise they offer it. In these days of indiscriminate motoring, she also spoke to the combined senior and junior girls' choirs on Wednesday evening, after addressing the women and mothers in the afternoon.

MR. JOSH NOLAND HURT ON GRADER

On Tuesday while operating a road grader being pulled by Bewick and Ferguson's large steam outfit, Josh Noland met with an accident that almost cost him his life. One of the levers of the grader sprung back and hitting Mr. Noland, knocked him unconscious. He fell off and the wheels of the grader were passing over his body and almost ere he had shut off the steam Lockey took him from and immediately stopped the tractor. After a few seconds more and he undoubtedly would have been killed. Medical assistance was called and it was found he had some ribs broken as well as being badly bruised up all over

CHAUTAUQUA HERE NEXT THURSDAY

Another year has passed and once again the big brown tent will be put up at Tofield, and for six days there will be a steady stream of people from the country attending the high grade programs provided by the Chautauqua talent.

The programs this year are equally as good, it appears to be better than previous years, and the we that attend are going to be delighted with them. With two plays, a number of lectures, singing and orchestral programs, the price of a ticket viz: $2.00 is a very nominal sum for the full seats of programs.

As in previous years the Chautauqua has been sponsored by a number of local ladies and gentlemen, and we urge the rank and file to support the local guarantors by buying ticks. The value is there, the program will do you good and you will be pleased with your purchase.

JULY 1st CELEBRATION MEETING.

There was a good attendance of committeemen at the Town Hall Monday evening last, when the plans for the July 1st celebration assumed more definite shape.

The secretary announced that Mr. Dyde of Edmonton, would be the speaker of the day. Mr. Dyde's [illegible] scholar, and a brilliant and eloquent, and Tofield is fortunate to get him come down for the day.

Most of the evening was spent further discussion of matters previously reported.

Another meeting is called for Monday next when the day's program will be drafted in detail and this will be published in next week's Mercury.

W. I. NOTES

Regular monthly meeting will be held Tuesday, June 7th, at 2 o'clock. The roll-call will be answered by a interesting hint or story. Members are respectfully requested to answer the roll call, and help to make the meeting interesting. Mrs. Perth will give a paper on "The Youth of [illegible] day". Report of the Convention held last week in Edmonton will be given by the president. Arrangements will be made for the "Grandmother's Day" picnic at Mrs. McCarthy's the last of this month. Mrs. Constance and Mrs. McLaughlin will act as hostesses.

We wish to thank all those who sent our plant sale list back, helped to make it a success, although we were sorry not to have had sufficient plants to fill every order, did not know of this in time to remedy it. We did, however, refer those whom we could not supply to [illegible] in the country and trust their need were filled.

SUITABLE HOG PASTURES FOR SPRING AND FALL

(Experimental Farms Note)

For the past four years a considerable amount of work has been carried on at the Indian Head Experimental Farm in testing suitable pastures for hogs. Pastures provide an abundance of the green feed and extraordinarily reduce the cost of pork production. The choice of pastures, however, depends largely on the soil and climatic conditions.

A variety of pastures is essential in order to provide an abundance of succulent feed throughout the season. For the purpose, fall rye sown in late August or early September will supply succulent feed for the early spring litter. Oats, peas and barley sown in good moist soil, or, with irrigation will permit, will provide mid summer pasture. Rape has proved to be one of the best pastures under test, from the standpoint of economical gains. Rape may be used to follow the pastures previously mentioned and thus furnish pasture for the late summer and fall months. Rape sown in June will be ready in August and September and may be used to finish the early spring pigs or give the fall litter a fair start before the cold weather sets in.

A mixture of oats and fall rye sown in early June is to be recommended. This mixture provides succulent pasture through the late summer. When the oat pasture becomes exhausted, the fall rye will gradually take the place and will generally succeed in fall. Fall rye sown about the middle of August provides excellent pasture for fall litters.

Pastures are essential for the health and vigor of young, growing pigs and brood sows. Plan to supply your pigs with succulent pasture during the entire growing season.

Dominion Experimental Farm,
Indian Head, Sask.

PONTIAC NEWS BRIEF

A new mark for the automobile industry is about at was set when the 100,000th Pontiac six rolled off the assembly line less than fifteen months from the time car No. 1 was built in January 1926. Pontiac factories at Oshawa, Ontario, and Pontiac, Michigan, are working at high speed, and it is expected that the record month will see this unique record followed by the greatest production of any month in Pontiac's history.

"Completion of the hundred thousandth Pontiac six was hastened by the heavy influx of orders for Spring delivery," said George P. Alexander, general sales manager of the Pontiac division, General Motors Products of Canada, in referring to the event. "There is a close relation between the recent announcement of the New and Finer Pontiac six at new low prices and the volume of Pontiac cars built during the car's very brief history.

"The Pontiac six met with an instantaneous acceptance by the public, which had long been waiting for a quality six cylinder car at such prices. The unprecedented demand for the new car necessitated tremendous and expensive expansion of Pontiac manufacturing facilities, and these in turn are enabling the manufacturer to divert the savings of mass back to the public, in the form of numerous refinements and recent substantial reduction in prices."

CHEVROLET

A constantly increasing demand for the Chevrolet car, continent-wide in its insistence, has enabled the Chevrolet Motor Company to break all production records for two months in succession in Canada and the United States.

Output in March reached a total of 75,000 automobiles, an average daily production of 4,116 cars. A new daily record for production was also established on March 31, when 5,063 Chevrolets were run off the assembly lines in all factories. Records show that Chevrolet production in Canada during March of this year 2.6 per cent ahead of March 1926, and exceeded by larger than any previous month. The United States output topped all previous months—a gain of 42,711 cars, or 65.6 per cent, over March 1926, and an increase of 61,061 cars, or 148.1 per cent, over March 1925.

Retail deliveries for the first quarter have been keeping pace with production, according to statistics now available. In the province of Ontario, for instance, registrations of new Chevrolet automobiles for the month of January, February and March show an increase of 166 per cent, over the same period of 1926. Chevrolet registrations of new cars for March in the Province of Ontario, where records were available, exceeded those of any other car.

Meanwhile figures coming in from points throughout the United States show the same demand for Chevrolets on the other side of the border. The magnitude of the increase in sales is indicated in reports from thirty-two of the most important trading areas in the United States which show an average increase of 97.4 per cent. in these centres for the first two months of 1927 as compared with 1926.

Prospects Bright in Lethbridge Northern

Highly encouraging prospects for the 1927 season in the Lethbridge Northern irrigation area are reported by Premier Brownlee and Hon. V. W. Smith on their return from a conference with members of the advisory board in Lethbridge on May 16. It is expected that the acreage under cultivation in this part of the province will be considerably increased this year.

Members Plan Northern Tour

Preparations are being made for a tour of the Peace River country during the latter part of June by members of the legislature from all parts of the province. The trip will be made by special train over the E. D. & B. C. and Central Canada Railways and it is expected that a large proportion of the members will take advantage of this opportunity to visit the northland.

More Attractions for Tourists

The 1927 program of development in connection with Canada's National Parks includes the opening of the new motor highway from Lake Louise to Golden, the building of an exceptionally attractive hotel in Waterton Lakes Park and the inauguration of a through motor bus service between Glacier Park in Montana and Waterton Lakes, Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise and Field. These improvements will undoubtedly attract many more tourists to the scenic spots of the province the coming season.

The More Money We Pay—The Better We Like It

We would much rather pay you top price than any of the lower grade prices—and you, we know, desire to obtain the most from your cows. If all the money lost to dairymen through off grades were totalled the amount would surprise many—yet this amount, though large, could be almost eliminated. THE RAINY SEASON

The weather of the past few days have dispelled all doubts as to whether the Tofield district was in the dry belt or rather whether the dry area had enveloped Tofield. A few years ago when the seasons were particulary dry and when there seemed to be no such thing as heavy rains, we remember someone saying to us, "and it used to rain so easy". The times when it rained "easy" has apparently come back again, and the wonderful oats and gardens of pre-dry years bid fair to become a reality again.

About two years ago long distance weather forecasters were predicating that the summer of 1927 would be akin to the year of a hundred or so years back known as the summerless year. They based their prediction on the number of "spots" on the sun which they claimed robbed the earth of considerable of its heat. Judging by the 1926-27 winter and the spring weather we have experienced, those long distance weather forecasters have some marks to their credit. But as to it being a "summerless year" we still believe that nature, to use present day parlance, "will do her stuff". The grass is green now, the trees are in leaf, considerable of the wheat is above ground, and as the season rolls on, these and other things will grow and ripen as usual. That we will get more rain than we have been getting in recent years is most likely, in fact old timers have been predicting a return of the old time "rainy season" for some years past. It apparently has arrived.

A NATIONAL BIRD

Considerable interest has been created by the desire in some quarters to have a national bird for Canada. Quite a number of suggestions have been made, the most interesting of which is that made by Jack Miner of bird sanctuary fame. Mr. Miner's preference goes to the Canadian goose. An American newspaper, having noted the defeat of prohibition laws in this country suggests the bird popularly, though erroneously known as the "whisky-jack". It was suggested to us a week or so ago that the prairie chicken or short-tailed grouse would be a good selection for a bird emblematic of Canada. This bird is with us the year round, while most of the other birds are here for the summer season only. It has tided many a Canadian settler over to better times, and though this is a practical viewpoint on an artistic subject, it is not without its appeal. The sharp-tailed grouse, too, is far from being unbeautiful and in our opinion is a better choice than the Canadian goose.

JULY 1st CELEBRATION

The enthusiastic energy which the council and associate committees are applying to the July 1st Diamond Jubilee celebration is ample proof that the success of the day lies solely in the hands of the weather man. It will, if the day be fine, be the greatest single purpose local and district celebration that Tofield has seen for many years.

WHEAT POOL NOTES

The board of directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool have decided to commence an active campaign for the signing of the Second Series of Wheat Pool contracts. The drive is to start on June 20th.

In preparation for this campaign a conference of the seventy Wheat Pool delegates has been called for Monday, June 6th, in Calgary. This conference will last two days.

On Wednesday, June 8th, a Co-operative Rally "will be held which will be addressed by notable speakers. The premiers of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be invited to attend and address the gathering. Others invited are: the federal members for Alberta constituencies, the members of the provincial legislature, the presidents of the various community clubs in the cities, towns and villages of Alberta, the officers of the United Farmers of Alberta and the United Farm Women of Alberta.

At the meeting of the delegates the campaign will be planned. Every wheat producer in Alberta will be canvassed to sign a contract. The Wheat Pool heads, some 200 in number, will be called upon to undertake the work of covering the province. Each of the seven directors will be responsible for the organization of their districts and sub-committee meetings will be held throughout the rural districts of the province.

The addresses to be delivered at the Co-operative Rally on Wednesday, June 8th, will be broadcasted by the Pool.

FIRST FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

Edmonton, May 11th, 1927

The opening of the 1927 crop season in Alberta, although spring work in common with that all over the prairies has been retarded by intermittent falls of snow and rain, finds rapid progress being made with seeding and the soil in a better than average condition for the production of a crop. A heavy snowfall during the winter months which melted with very little run-off has provided an ample supply of moisture to carry the crop well into the growing season. Work on low-lying lands has been delayed in some instances by the presence of water, but this condition has been somewhat improved under the influence of sun and wind during the past two weeks.

Seeding of wheat is well advanced in the southern part of the province and fully 50 per cent. of oats and barley are in the ground. Early sown grain is already making a good showing. The acreage seeded to wheat, oats, barley and corn in this area, it is expected, will show little difference from that of 1926. Losses of winter wheat due to winter killing are estimated at from 30 to 40 per cent. in southern and south-eastern districts. Owing to the abundance of moisture, soil drifting has been lighter than usual except in small seat reed areas where re-seeding has been found necessary.

Throughout the central part of the province, seeding of wheat is from 75 to 80 per cent. completed, and the land is rapidly being put into shape for the coarse grain crops. The large amount of new land brought into production last year will mean an increased acreage in many districts for the 1927 crop in spite of the reduced area of spring and fall plowed land ready for the drill.

In the northern section of the province conditions are reported as very promising with seeding well advanced in many districts, although in certain lower areas work has been delayed to some extent. No reduction in the acreage seeded to wheat is anticipated for the season in the Grande Prairie and Peace River districts, and in this belt as well as over the rest of the province, the outlook is considered promising if warm growing weather continues.

Reports from many districts in the eastern half of the province forecast a considerably increased acreage of sweet clover, alfalfa, corn and other fodder crops following the visits of the forage crop cars which toured this area during the winter months. Livestock in many cases has come through the long winter in rather thin condition but pastures generally are making rapid growth.

No difficulty is reported in securing an adequate supply of farm labor to fee t in the Hart-Green wall located opposite spring work throughout the two miles south of the International boundary in the Kevin Dunmore field.

Our Canadian Climate

Nothing to Complain About When Compared With Other Countries

Prow and Alert and late greeting in the West, with cool showers in the East have set the pessimists to croaking about "Canada's late spring." But in the meantime these headings were uppermost in the press

Heart Palpitation Dizzy, Kidney Spells

Mrs. M. A. Gagnon, Iroquoisville, Alta., writes: "About three years ago I was very nervous, could not sleep at night, often had dizzy, sinking spells and palpitation of the heart, and was so run down I could not do my housework, but just knew everything and sat down.

I spent a lot of money using medicine from the doctor but it did not do me any good.

At last a friend paid me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. After using a couple of boxes I was not the same woman. I began to feel much better, and after a few more boxes I was in perfect health. I always recommend them to all those I know who are suffering from heart trouble."

Work of Lumbermen Is Slow

Heart Palpitation Dizzy, Kidney Spells

Mrs. M. A. Gagnon, Iroquoisville, Alta., writes: "About three years ago I was very nervous, could not sleep at night, often had dizzy, sinking spells and palpitation of the heart, and was so run down I could not do my housework, but just knew everything and sat down.

I spent a lot of money using medicine from the doctor but it did not do me any good.

At last a friend paid me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. After using a couple of boxes I was not the same woman. I began to feel much better, and after a few more boxes I was in perfect health. I always recommend them to all those I know who are suffering from heart trouble."

Regulations for Fur Farms

Alberta was represented by Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture and Benjamin Lawton, Game Commissioner at a meeting of officials from all the western provinces and Ontario, held at Winnipeg on May 20 and 21. As a result of this meeting uniform regulations will be drafted governing the operation of fur farms throughout the west. Some 200 applications have already been received from fur farmers who intend to breed muskrats and beaver on land adjacent to lakes in various parts of Alberta.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

Canada } Declaration of Province of Alberta } Dissolution of
To Wit: } Partnership

I, Peter Haugen, formerly a member of the firm of Peter M. Haugen and Ole Hartnes carrying on a general garage business at Tofield, in the Province of Alberta, under the name and style of the Tofield Garage, Do Hereby certify that the said partnership was, on the thirty-first day of May, A.D. 1927, dissolved.

All accounts against the said firm should be presented to me for settlement, and all moneys due to the firm should be paid to me.

Witness my hand at Tofield, Alberta, this thirty-first day of May, A.D. 1927.

P. M. Haugen.

Witness: Raymond W. Pinsent.

Free Transportation Cancelled

Free movement of farmers and their effects from the drier areas in southeastern Alberta to new locations elsewhere in the province will stop at the end of May when the agreement between the government and the railways will expire. During the past season to the end of April a total of 568 families with 985 cars of stock and effects have been moved under this arrangement. The majority of settlers then changing their locations have gone to the farming country along the foothills from the Lethbridge district to as far north as Grande Prairie.

The John Deere Tractor

THE MOST POWER FOR THE LEAST COST

The John Deere tractor has in the past two years made a reputation for itself that is sufficiently good to result, amid keen competition, in increased sales. This is the acid test.

With the breaking season now upon us, the farmer with breaking to do can make no better investment than a John Deere tractor. Light enough to be easily handled, yet it has plenty of power for the heaviest soil.

We will be pleased to take you out to a number of farmers in the Tofield district where there are John Deere tractors doing satisfactory and profitable work for men you know.

CHIPMAN CLEANS UP ON THE LOCAL TEAM

Tuesday was a pleasant evening for those supporters of the Chipman baseball team who, journeying from the northern town, saw their team romp home to victory to the tune of 5-3. It was not such a one-sided game either, in fact Chipman worked hard for every run they scored, but at the beginning of the game they secured a tally which seemed to upset the equilibrium of the local side and Tofield did their best to score they only succeeded in holding down their opponents.

avoid the seventh

when starting with a run lead secured by a man on third taking advantage of attempted base stealing at second Chipman set a chain of events in motion that resulted in four runs being scored for them. Tofield made desperate efforts to score in the next two innings, but old man luck was against them. It was a good game—for Chipman—but the season is young, and then what a lot of fun we had.

COME TO TOFIELD ON JULY 1st

Another meeting of the July 1st Celebration Committee was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening last. When further and more definite plans were made to make this coming July 1st the best in the history of Tofield. As announced previously there will be a parade commencing from the C.N.R. Station at 11:00 a.m. In this parade there will be children from twenty or more schools marching as units, a company of war veterans, decorative cars, etc., etc. The parade will go to the grounds where for a brief period community singing will be held from song sheets now being prepared. This will be followed by the school singing contest which in turn will be followed by lunch hour. Free coffee will be supplied by the committee to all desiring same.

Following lunch there will be some more community singing which will act as a prelude to the main speaker of the day, Hr. H. A. Dyde of Edmonton. He will render a suitable patriotic address. Mr. Dyde is a well-known barrister of Edmonton, a Rhodes Scholar, and a brilliant and able orator.

Then the program of sports including baseball and basketball games and races for the old and young. A special sport item is a tug-of-war between the Tofield Tar & Cannelli and the Rural Municipal Council. In the evening there will be a display of fireworks. A picture show and dance will be held at the Variety Theatre to wind up the Diamond Jubilee Celebration.

A detailed program showing the various events and the hour at which they are to take place will be issued by the Tofield Mercury and distributed a day or so previous to the first of July or as soon as the matter in hand has obtained from the committee.

PETER DELIVERED FROM PRISON

Golden Text: Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Psalm 34:19.

Lesson Acts 12:1-17.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

I. Peter Imprisoned, verse 1-4. Peter, James and John were the three men who were most among His apostles, and He took them into the mountain of transfiguration (Matt. 17:1) and into the garden of Gethsemane (Matt. 26:37). The death penalty (v. 2) was one of the severest forms of punishment. Herod had all this imprisonment and trial [illegible]

CHAPTER I

It all began with the battle of silks.

When Helmi's Aunt Lill came back to Finland for a visit after 30 years of the crowded ways of life in America, the elder women of the family regarded her with mingled fondness of awe, envy and research. Her elder sister, Helmi's mother, said it was foolishness for a child who had no mama but Aunt Lill to wear silk drays, to put it all on her back and wear clothes that each square should be wearing. While Aunt Lill laughed, shaking her head tenderly, and said it is a sorrow indeed for a man to spend her money on, and that no one could steal it from her. Helmi was the one member of the family who gave the silken frills [illegible]

FEATURES OF THIS YEAR'S CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

The Chautauqua movement is a non-partisan, non-sectarian system of education, entertainment and recreation for adults with special features for children.

A group of citizens in each community arrange with the Chautauqua Association for a week's program of lectures, music, plays, entertainment and children's work.

By furnishing the same program to hundreds of communities the Chautauqua can and does maintain a high standard of excellence at a minimum cost.

The speakers on the Chautauqua platform are powerful molders of public opinion, reaching as they do some 2,000,000 people in Canada annually. Some authorities have ranked Chautauqua as Canada's fourth great institution, the others being the home, the church, and the school.

The Canadian Chautauqua Association, through which we get our Chautauqua program, is a strictly Canadian institution. It is not related in financial way to the American, Australian or British movements. The Associations in each country stand on their own feet. There is a yearly interchange of artists, thus giving to all the best in lecture, music and entertainment.

The following are some of the features that will appear on our Chautauqua program this season.

THE SCHUBERT QUARTET
Canada's Foremost Singing Four

Mr. George O. Moser brings from Toronto four artists with voices that blend in a perfect male ensemble. This male quartet presents a varied program not usually associated with male quartets. They feature numbers in period costume, and their programs include opera, classics of the great masters, sacred, secular and novelty numbers as well as musical comedy and popular selections.

THE JOHN ROSS REED COY

Have you ever heard that beautiful musical creation, Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata?" If so, you will be present at Chautauqua to hear it again as reproduced in a beautiful series by the John Ross Reed Company.

JULIAN B. ARNOLD

The distinguished Britisher, Mr. Julian B. Arnold, son of Sir Edwin Arnold, the well-known poet and statesman, presents a vital and gripping talk on the present British policy in China and a fascinating story of a tour through England magnificently illustrated with colored slides.

"SMILIN' THRU"

A Play of unprecedented popularity, "Smilin' Thru" has that indefinable quality which makes the difference between an attraction merely pleasing and one which is a credit of the Chautauqua and appealing and human to that it has proved to be one of the most delightful plays yet presented on the Chautauqua platform.

HERBERT A. TAYLOR
A Special Children's Program

After seeing him you will be in doubt whether it is as a Juggler [illegible] a Magician that Herbert A. Taylor excels. As a Prestidigitateur or Master of Hand Performance he stands in the world of Magic almost unequaled. In animate objects seem to have life and respond to his every command.

These remarkable combinations of the distinctive combination that have been made in the last fifty years to fellowship made here, and have been the one contribution of America in that direction.

MAUPIN'S SINGING BAND

Maupin's Singing Band is an organization of splendid instrumental and vocal artists. They give a very distinctive program, not only in the quality of the numbers rendered but also in the variety offered.

THE PLANTATION SINGERS

Through the medium of Chautauqua, Walter J. Millard, Lecturer, will present a strong, thought-provoking message. In his lectures "Catching Up with Our Hands," and "The Pictures in Our Heads," he applies practical science to our social and political institutions, and explains the birth of inventions as the result of thinking more over a century ago, showing their later developments to perfection by the betterment of the economic and social welfare of the human race.

DR. J. FRANKLIN BABB

Do not fail to hear Dr. Babb in his brilliant, genuinely human and practical lecture, "The Way Out," the twin-foil of fun. He is a great speaker, a great interpreter, a great humorist—and, greater than all these, a great believer in ordinary men and women, who desires most to be an Apostle of Sunshine to humanity in the age, when a fine appreciation for life is somtime lost in the toil and struggle for existence.

"GIVE AND TAKE"

Once in a great many years, the stage fulfils its mission because some one man, woman or company by producing the kind of play that meets all requirements, brings clean and wholesome, inspiring entertainment with an offending our sense of propriety and good taste, and yet giving amusement of a healthful kind. This can truthfully be said of the play "Give and Take," a delightful comedy of modern day business problems, which is being presented on the Chautauqua by the well-known Marlin Irwin Players.

NATIVE ORNAMENTALS
(Experimental Farms Note)

Two little thought is given to the unfortunate varieties of shrubs growing on the neighboring vacant lot, or in the back pasture, which are of known hardiness and can be procured with little labor. Such shrubs will grow without any doubt as to whether they will stand the winter, or whether they will be dried out in transit.

For the purpose of classifying the ornamentals, they are divided into trees, shrubs and climbers.

In looking over the list of trees, there are native plums, pin cherry, saskatoon and chokecherry, which in the spring give a profusion of bloom, followed later in the season by the fruits, which are at once ornamental and which may be used also when ripe to replenish the larder with jam and jellies. There are also the hawthorn and the mountaineery, which have characteristic bloom, the first of which is inedible but decorative.

The shrubs afford much pleasure and joy to the eye. Pembina, often given the unfortunate name of high bush cranberry, blooms very freely and the scarlet berries are decorative and a real jam, preserve or jelly-like fruit serves in quality, but makes good vinegar. Clayseed and roses are very ornamental and bloom very abundantly. Silverberry and sumach are more appreciated for their fall color. Silverberry makes a fine appearance on the lawn, with its silver, silvery leaves, and fills the air with fragrance, when in bloom. The [illegible] of cornus is unsurpassed in shades of red and scarlet, which make it very attractive. Red osier dogwood is very conspicuous since it has clusters of white bloom, followed by white berries, but makes its most pleasing effect in winter, when its bright red branches contrast with the white snow.

The climbers vary the effect and may be used on the fence and back porch. The honeysuckle is the only one to produce showy flowers. The broad flat leaves of native grape and the clusters of fruit make the grape desirable as a climber. Climbing bittersweet is seen to advantage in the fall, when its orange-colored berries are the most visible after the leaves have dropped. Hops are useful for climbing over the trellis or walls.

The above list outlines a few of the native ornamentals that are at the Morden Station under cultivation. They can easily be propagated from seed, cuttings or cuttings, which makes it possible for anyone to become a successful and interested horticulturist.

The More Money We Pay—The Better We Like It

We would much rather pay you top price than any of the lower grade prices—and you, we know, desire to obtain the most from your cows. If all the money lost to dairymen through off grades were totalled the amount would surprise many—yet this amount, though large, could be almost eliminated. From the time bossie gives the milk into the pail—a little extra care means a little extra money.

The Red Cross
appeals to YOU for support

SINCE the War, the Red Cross has disbursed over Seven Million Dollars for the Soldiers, Women, Children and Frontier Families of Canada.

About half of this has been spent for disabled soldiers —half in the other services of the Society about which you have been told. The Treasury is almost empty.

$1,000,000 Needed Now for Red Cross Work

The Red Cross brings cheer to our disabled warriors and their families. It stimulates the children of Canada on healthy living and good citizenship. It relieves suffering, and brings skilled attention to Canada's frontier districts remote from other aid. Its work is indispensable.

It now appeals to YOU, as a patriotic and humane Canadian citizen, to contribute generously to its need for funds.

Law and Order, or Chaos?

The action of the British and Canadian governments in declaring martial law and trial by crime with the Russian Soviet Government is the culmination of a long series of misunderstandings on the part of the British people as to the real character of the Russian Soviet Government. For a decade, more or less, the Russian Soviet Government has been in control of the country. It has established a system of government and dealings on the British model, and has been recognized by the British Government as the de facto government of Russia. In other words, all nations, and especially Great Britain, have been dealing for many years with the Soviet Government of Russia, and have been treating with its officials in the same manner as they would treat with officials of any other civilized country.

On the one hand, there is the unmistakable fact presented by the history of the Soviet Government, that it is a Government established by force, and that it has been maintained by force. On the other hand, there is the fact that the Soviet Government has been recognized by all the nations of the world as the de facto government of Russia, and has been dealing with them in the same manner as they would deal with any other civilized country.

The British people have been misled by their press and by their politicians into the belief that the Soviet Government is a Government of the people, by the people and for the people, and that it is a Government which is entitled to the respect and confidence of the British people. The British people have been misled into the belief that the Soviet Government is a Government which is entitled to the respect and confidence of the British people. The British people have been misled into the belief that the Soviet Government is a Government which is entitled to the respect and confidence of the British people.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS NOW ON

Readers of the Mercury will find this week an advertisement appealing for funds for the Red Cross. Posters calling attention to the work that this splendid organization is doing are also displayed around town. The annual appeal for funds from this district is now on. The Women's Institute are handling this event and those wishing to contribute may send contributions to either Mrs. Pincott, Mrs. Blewett, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. (Dr.) Law, Mrs. W. Roberge or Mrs. Harold Hicks.

The work of the Red Cross Society is more than worthy of support. In war time it is surrounded by the glamour of the battlefield, but no less a penny than in war the Red Cross Society continue their ministrations to the sick and suffering. There is a great deal of work to do and the amount of aid given is only limited by the amount of subscriptions received. A dollar from all would do a great deal of good to those urgently needing it. In the cause of humanity your dollar could not be put to a better use.

Local and Personal

Miss Genevive Hutson, who has been attending the Camrose Normal School this past season, returned home last week-end.

Mrs. Allen Lewis and sons, of Innisfail are visiting relatives and friends in Tofield.

Mrs. Geo. McMahen and children are visiting relatives in Edmonton.

Among visitors to the city during the last week were Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. Galbraith, R. Wallis, Gordon Jobb, Mr. Evanson, Mr. Hay and Dorothy.

Miss M. Carter visited friends in town on Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstron spent the weekend at Pigeon Lake visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

Mr. Justin Sr., son and daughter, and Mrs. Hills and daughter, of Lavoy, visited at the Noland home on Sunday.

Mr. Noland was taken to one of the Edmonton hospitals on Tuesday last.

Miss McGregor of Viking spent Monday evening in Tofield.

Miss Margaret Gold, of Edmonton, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Swift.

Mr. and Mrs. McClymont and W. Webb motored to the city on Wednesday.

Mrs. F. M. Webb is again in a position to accept pupils for the pianoforte, and those desiring lessons should communicate with her either personally or by calling telephone number 62.

Friends of the Cole Twins, who with their parents lived at Tofield some years ago, will be pleased to learn that they recently successfully graduated from Huntington Park High School, Ioeil, Washington. We wish "Curly" and "Straight" every success in life.

COYOTE PUPS A PLENTY

Mr. A. Haugen undertook to dig out a coyote den last week and was successful in procuring eight live coyote pups. The entrance to the den was formed so that the mother coyote had full view of the house and at the same time was cunningly hidden. A turkey hen or two had wandered off into the brush and never returned and no doubt had fallen a prey to mistrous coyotes. The mother is still at large, but the eight young ones are unlikely to receive such same tuous fare as turkey meat.

U.F.W.A. NOTES

The regular meeting was held on June 6th at the home of Mrs. J. H. Warner. There were eighteen members present also a number of visitors.

The roll call was answered with original Bogles. Subject: U.F.W.A. We were quite surprised to find so many "rents in glorious Milton" on our midst.

Each member told of some journey or travelling experience they had had, which proved very interesting.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, June 25th, at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Hall.

The roll call will be answered with new ways of cooking common vegetables, followed by a round table on house economics.

There will also be a fish pond of articles made of flour sacks.

BASEBALL

The local baseball nine tangled twice with Camrose during the past week and on the two games the honors were split, Tofield having a margin of four runs to the good.

The first game held at Tofield on Friday last, was won by Camrose by a score of 9-5. Ambrose Vahsholz and Glenn Woods pitched and Frank Ball caught.

The second game held at Camrose on Monday was won by Tofield by a score of 11-3. Martin Lawson pitched this game and Laurie Scott caught.

CELEBRATE CANADA'S SIXTEETH ANNIVERSARY OF CONFEDERATION AT TOFIELD

Plans are moving along smoothly for the big community gathering to be held at Tofield on Friday, July 1st. Commencing with a big parade starting from the C.N.R. Station at 10:30, there will be something of interest doing all the time.

School singing contests, community singing, patriotic addresses, sports, fireworks, bonfire, picture show and dance will all tend to keep the crowd interested throughout the day and well on into the night.

The parade will include a company of war veterans, school children from twenty or more nearby schools grouped and marshlings under their own banners, decorated cars and bicycles, etc. There will be a prize awarded the best marching parade appearance. Upon reaching the grounds the singing contests will be held, this being followed by community singing from song sheets to be distributed. This will be followed by lunch hour during which time free coffee will be given to those desiring it.

In the early afternoon Mr. Dyde of Edmonton will render an address especially suitable for the occasion. This will be followed by sports of various kinds for old and young. In the evening there will be more sports and a grand display of fireworks and a huge bonfire. There will also be a picture shown and dance in the Variety Theatre.

A NOVEL FOUNDATION

Something new in the way of laying foundations for machinery was put in at the Mercury office this week. Last fall the basement was full of water, and frame solid. As soon as it commenced to thaw on the spring dumping was started and water was drawn from above and below the surface. In the last few days of May there was still ice there, in some places nearly three feet thick. This was dug up and hauled out. Digging to below the old water line was then done and upon getting a level bottom over the area needed, holes were cut in the floor above and heavy joist dropped through and driven in. A perpendicular chute at the top of which was attached a pulley through which a rope carrying a 150 pound hammer was used to drive the piles. Two or three men worked the hammer up and let it fall on the pile. The hammer was an old engine block filled with melted type metal. There were twenty-seven piles driven in over an area 7 by 14 feet. Hooper and Holland did the work assisted by J. F. Summers and T. Wallington.

THE CHAUTAUQUA STILL POPULAR

This year's Chautauqua has been a great a success as ever and we hear that sufficient number of guarantors have already signed for 1928.

The programs were full; up to the former high standard and the week-end being good, were exceptionally well attended.

Mr. J. Chapman, president of this year's Chautauqua Association, and assisted by others was successful in obtaining sufficient guarantors to bring the Chautauqua back to us in 1928.

As in previous years there has been considerable discussion regarding the signing of the contract, but two outstanding facts are evident viz: that a large number of the country people desire it and that the quality of the programs are sanctioned.

CAMROSE TO HAVE A BIG CELEBRATION

Camrose is stepping right out on July 1st and staging one of the "biggest" days the town has ever seen. There will be a grand parade featuring bicycles, ponies, etc., etc. Patriotic addresses, concert, community singing, baseball tournament, sports, huge bonfire and fireworks are only a few of the attractions that are offered. Those celebrating the 60th Anniversary of Confederation at Camrose can be assured of a full day.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

BARDO

A very pretty wedding took place at 3 p.m., June 9th at the Lutheran Church, when Emma, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Anderson was united in marriage to Rubert, son of Martin Eide, all of Bardo. The church was tastefully decorated in green and white, with every seat filled. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Geo. Hendrickson. The sermon was in English, Rev. Rydelius officiating. The brides gown was of ivory flat crepe trimmed with satin and veil and orange. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and bridal roses. They were attended by Angus Mitchell, brother of the bride, and Carrey Brookes, also Ingolf Brekken and Mable Javening. The brides' maids were dresses of silk green crepe de chine trimmed all over with white lace. After the ceremony Palmer Anderson sang "O, Perfect Love." Upon reaching the grounds the singing contests will be held, this being followed by community singing from song sheets to be distributed. This will be followed by lunch hour during which time free coffee will be given to those desiring it.

In the early afternoon Mr. Dyde of Edmonton will render an address especially suitable for the occasion. This will be followed by sports of various kinds for old and young. WIREWORM CONTROL MEASURES

Following reports from a number of dated districts in the province that wireworms have made their appearance in grain fields investigations have been made by Field Crops Commissioner W. J. Phipps. While the occurrence of these pests is not at all general the following article by Prof. F. H. Strickland, Entomologist at the Lacombe Experimental Station, will be of value to farmers in localities where their presence is suspected.

Cultural Methods for Reducing Wireworm Damage

Every spring we receive requests for information regarding the control of wireworms which are destroying newly seeded grain. The majority of farmers who are troubled with these pests are looking for some material with which they can treat their seed grain, either to make it distasteful to wireworms or else to poison them after the feed on it.

A great variety of materials have been tested from time to time for these purposes. Nothing has, however, been found that has an appreciable effect in either direction. Turpentine, coal oil, lime, Paris green, tar, copper carbonate and a host of other chemicals have all proved ineffective when tested out under experimental conditions. The solution of the problem, then, does not appear to be in the selection of seed treatment, therefore we must look elsewhere for methods of reducing wireworm damage. In order to do so, we must first have a general knowledge of our destructive wireworms.

The History and Habits of Grub-infesting Wireworms

The wireworm is the grub of a small black beetle. In April the beetles come above ground and wander around all early June when they work to a depth of about 8 inches and lay about 300 very small eggs. If conditions are satisfactory for these eggs, from each will hatch a minute wireworm about a month after they have been laid. These worms will take four or five years to become full grown, when they will be an inch long. During the first spring after a wireworm has hatched, it is too small to cause appreciable damage. Even when it is two years old, it is only 1/2 in. long and has not developed a very big appetite. A three year old wireworm is 1/2 in. long and it then begins to do damage really needful grain. We must never forget always, when we observe wireworm damage, that the wireworms this are causing the damage have been in the field for at least three years. Their presence in destructive numbers is not due to the crop that immediately preceded the one in which the damage occurs.

Worms are best early during the spring and fall. After about the end of June or the first week in June, on a normal season, they harden rather deeply in the soil and remain inactive until about the end of April. When fall, the wireworms in fall grown crops seem to within about 4 inches of the surface of the soil and there it burrows into a very delicate white cell like "chrysalis" stage. All the adults wireworms are in the pupal state during the last half of July, Early in August the pupa turns into a beetle which remains below ground until the following April when it comes to the surface, to wander till dusk when it once more burrows into the soil in order to lay its eggs.

Every wireworm in an infested field lives for from an egg that was laid two or more years previously by a beetle and every one, if it survives, will ultimately turn into a beetle. At what stages in their development have we the best opportunity of destroying them?

THE BEETLE—There appears to be no practical method for destroying these. Late fall plowing does not damage them and they cannot be trapped in the spring.

THE EGGS—If these are not laid at sufficient depth than about 2 inches below the surface of the soil they are almost certain to be dried out and destroyed. That is the reason why the beetle burrows to 5 inches, if she can, before laying her eggs.

THE LARVA—Here, the beetle cannot burrow out easily for a season and that when the soil is too hard for her, she will lay her eggs just beneath the surface. In normal years all of these small soft, legless grubs are perish.

Our experiments indicate that in most of the types of soil that occur in Alberta, bottle cannot burrow any of that has not been disturbed since the previous fall. Deep plowing in May and early June allows the beetle to burrow readily to fill a cavity deep enough for eggs and all the beetles will are certain to hatch.

To determine in which a specific acreage is advantageous, it would therefore recommend a small field method of summer-fallowing, which we will explain later.

THE WIREWORMS—We have seen that poisoning wireworms does not appear to be practical. We find, also, that half-grown wireworms cannot be starved. They can live for at least two years in damp soil in which nothing is growing.

We only method we know for reducing their numbers is by constant cultivation in order to expose them to birds.

THE PUPA—As we have already stated the pupa is very delicate and is rarely more than four inches in depth in the soil. All fall grown wireworms turn into pupa in the last half of July, and the pupae that is not been by early in August. Pupae are very easily killed by plowing or deep cultivation.

Method of Summerfallowing

From this it is seen that to most satisfactorily control the pests destroying wireworms are when they are in the egg and in the pupal stage. Since wireworm damage is increasing, we would recommend that the following cultural measures be tried out for their destruction. They are based most often in the time-day and fields.

1. Avoid deep spring plowing as much as is possible. Where this is necessary, pack after plowing.

2. Summerfallow. Field the middle of July, cultivate the surface of the soil to a depth of not more than 2 to 2½ inches as often as is necessary in order to destroy weed growth. The beetles will thus be forced to lay their eggs in shallowly worked soil and most of them will perish.

During the latter half of July, plow to a depth of six inches to destroy all of the pupae and that the bulk of the beetles that would have laid their eggs in it during the following year.

3. When seeding wheat, in field, which has been summerfallowed, add other more hardy than at others.

4. Do not seed wheat any more heavily than is necessary to secure good germination.

5. Seed oats or flax in preference to wheat in heavily infested fields.

6. Pack at right angles to the drill rows with a heavy weighted packer immediately after seeding.

HINTS ON REARING CHICKS

(Experimental Farm, Scott)

How may be too much description regarding the proper methods of feeding and rearing. Given warm, dry, well-ventilated quarters, healthy parents and almost any kind of feeding, where ordinary common sense is used, good results should be obtained. In many [illegible] the chicks are fed about 48 hours after they are hatched. This is a long fasting time of six times per day, to start off. Do not overfeed with too much food, or chicks will not eat their feed with a relish.

Feeding, when on the Central Experimental Farm have indicated that equally good results can be obtained when a good mash is kept before the chicks are a month to six weeks of age the chick must be replaced by a strong mash and when at about two months of age, a hopper of rolled oats in addition to the growing mash.

Keep before them at all times. This system has been found, by the writer of attendance.

Note that the chicks have softer feet to walk on than when they are put in the brooder. Also when they feel like it fast grass to the brooder, shovel some fresh grass every day. Allow the chicks out on range as soon as weather permits.

Prevent crowding in the brooder houses by stretching pieces of wire across the corners and diagonally in the roosts and encourage the chicks to use them as early as possible. Separate the extra and disposed of, ordered, that are not to be kept for breeders as soon as they can be satisfactorily marketed.

Feed chicks to start with, grain, good feed, kept in clean, well screened hoppers and overcrowded houses on clean [illegible] range, save straw, supplemented with pullets in the fall which are the best for layers, and that will satisfy the [illegible] successful poultry keeper.

W. I. NOTES

The regular meeting June 7th, was well attended and proved a very interesting time. Mrs. Firth gave an excellent paper on "The Youth of Today" and Mrs. Pincott gave a report of the Annual W. I. Convention. The roll call was answered by an interesting hint or story. It was decided to hold our Grandmother's Day Picnic on Tuesday, June 28th, and we will meet at the home at 2 o'clock and be taken by cars to Mr. McCarthy's picnic grounds. All members are especially asked to attend and each member has the privilege of inviting a grandmother. Each member is asked to take her lunch basket, with enough lunch for two, also two cups and two spoons. Tea will be provided. There will be community singing and games, and Mr. Fraser, constituency reeve, is also expected to be present. If the day is rainy, the picnic will be held on the next nice day.

There will be no meetings during July and August, and the library will also be closed during these two months, closing Saturday, the 25th of June. All members of the library please bring all books in on or before this date. This must be complied with, or a charge of 5¢ a book per week will be made. We have a number of new books for the September opening.

POOL TO BUILD ELEVATOR

The Alberta Wheat Pool will build a terminal elevator at Vancouver this summer with a capacity of 2,400,000 bushels. This will be the largest terminal on the coast. The cost will be $2,000, 000.

Plans for the structure are now being prepared and a start on construction will be made in July. The terminal will be completed in time to handle the crop of 1928.

With the completion of this structure the Pool will have control of over five and a quarter million bushels of terminal space on the Pacific Coast. Four million bushels of this elevator space will be in Vancouver.

The site for the new elevator was recently acquired in Vancouver Harbor, and is considered to be one of the best elevator sites there.

The Vancouver Sun says, in this connection, "This two million dollar elevator is Alberta's positive endorsation of Vancouver as a world port and the logical outlet for Western grain."

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY

The drive for the sign-up of the Second Series of Wheat Pool Contracts in order to pave the way for a splendid response. A Wheat Pool Rally was held in Calgary previous to the commencement of the campaign. The meeting was addressed by members of parliament, representatives of urban centres, and others, attended this gathering. Addresses were delivered by Premier Gardiner, of Saskatchewan, Premier Brownlee, of Alberta, Hon. R. B. Bennett, K. C., M. P., Senator Dennis, of Calgary, Mayor Bury of Edmonton, Mayor Costello of Calgary and C. O. Smith, editor of the Calgary Herald. In a series of splendid speeches these men urged that the Wheat Pool movement be given generous support, in the best interests of all Alberta.

Premier Brownlee predicted success in the drive because of the great improvement in Alberta's prosperity following the formation of the Wheat Pool. Premier Gardiner predicted that those who looked for the Saskatchewan Pool to fail were in for a serious disappointment. Hon. R. B. Bennett said that the failure of the Alberta Pool to obtain a large sign up would put agriculture back fifty years in this province.

RED CROSS CARRIES SCIENCE INTO CANADIAN HOME

HOW HOME NURSING SAVED A LIFE

Down in New Brunswick the other day, in one of the country districts where a Red Cross Home Nursing Class had been recently formed and the course finished, a tiny child, in a busy farm home spied an attractive looking blue bottle on a shelf. Her mother and grandmother were both occupied with household tasks. They did not see that the child was about until she had climbed to the shelf and was drinking the bottle labeled "Carbolic Acid". There both ran, and the mother frantically seized the toddler, but already she had swallowed some of the poison. The mother was helpless, but the grandmother who had taken the Home Nursing instructions, went into action at once. She saw that an emetic was administered, and then as rapidly as possible poured the white of several eggs into the now screaming child. When the doctor arrived, he told her she had saved the child's life. His answer was "I could have done nothing but stand and cry if I had not learned from those Home Nursing classes what to do in such emergencies. They taught me to think instead of cry, and so we have our little girl alive instead of dead. I think that every woman ought to learn what we did, and I wish they could."

So does the Canadian Red Cross which in the past year has conducted 305 Home Nursing Classes in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

VACATION (PLUS)

By R. J. Cruickshank, M.D., Field Secretary

Issued by the Department of Public Health, Edmonton.

The purpose of vacation is to promote health. Change of interest, scene and habits of living all tend to this end. Vacations are frequently known as health. From the day when we send for descriptive circulars and time-tables and discuss the various routes, places and hotels to the day when we turn our faces homeward, the exhilarating expectancy and the thrilling adventure into new and unknown corners of our vacation world should mean renewed strength of body and refreshment of mind and spirit.

But our vacation plans should be so carefully prepared that we may reasonably avoid the unhappy results of a vacation plus, and not the tragedy of sickness which occasionally befalls the unwary and unprepared, and which would end in a vacation minus.

Typhoid Fever, perhaps more often than any other disease, follows in the train of the vacationist, especially the motorcar travellers. Therefore, if means have been devised to avoid the hazard of typhoid fever they should be consciously known and applied as guiding principles in our vacation plans. The germs that cause typhoid fever are usually conveyed through contaminated water, milk or food. This gives us our clue as to the care we need to exercise in order to be sure we are not unnecessarily exposing ourselves to dangerous infection. A safe rule to follow relating to water is to drink water only from known safe supplies. Most city supplies are safe, for chlorination of public water supplies is now almost universal. If you are out of reach of known safe water you should boil the water and make it safe.

The only safe milk is pasteurized milk. If then you use only milk that has been effectively pasteurized you may be reasonably assured of safety from this source.

Foods are often contaminated by house flies carrying infectious material on their legs. At camp you need to make sure your camp is not located near an open vault or latrine, as danger from such source is very great. Also the medium of the ubiquitous house fly.

In addition to these safe guards that should surround the milk, the water and the food, every vacationist, especially the camping vacationist, should be immunized against typhoid fever by typhoid vaccine inoculation. Your physician will give this and will tell you that this first line of defense together with precautions relating to water, milk and food will protect you from the chief vacation hazard, typhoid fever. You may then be reasonably assured of a vacation plus!

The attitude of British industry and capital towards further investment in Western Canada and the possibility of establishing closer relations between Great Britain and this province will be one of the matters investigated by Premier Brownlee in the course of a trip to the Old Country on which he expects to leave late in June. In addition to looking into the British emigration policy as it effects the province, the Premier will make extensive inquiries into the possibility of enlarging the market for Alberta products in the Old Land.

Emergency Home Helper's Training

For the last few years the Departments of Health and Agriculture have been considering the need and desirability of preparing a scheme of training for Emergency Home Helpers. The Advisory Board of the Women's Institutes sent a resolution to the Minister of Health and Agriculture asking him to make arrangements for a course of training. In reply to this resolution, the Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Health and Agriculture had a tentative scheme outlined and he sent this out for line to the Board. The Board submitted the scheme to the delegates attending the Provincial Convention of the Women's Institutes, and they passed a motion unanimously approving of the schemes and asking that the first course be started in April of 1928.

The Second Series Of Wheat Pool Contracts

SAFETY because it is a farmer-owned and controlled co-operative Association which markets over fifty per cent. of Canada's wheat crop.

SAFETY because it guarantees to the farmers every cent paid by the consumer minus only the minimum costs of marketing.

SAFETY because of low handling costs. The total annual expenses of operating the Alberta Wheat Pool in 1923, 1924 and 1925 was less than one-half a cent per bushel. The total expense of the Central Selling Agency in 1926 was one-fifth of a cent per bushel.

SAFETY because the Pool employs experts to handle and sell its grain.

SAFETY because the Pool merchandises wheat as the demand arises and thus avoids depressing values by offering more than the consumer will take at fair prices.

SAFETY because the sole aim of Pool salesmen is to get the true value of wheat for its members.

Canada's Diamond Jubilee

Only once in the history of any nation does the opportunity come to a people to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of its existence. Canadians will grasp this opportunity on July 1st next, and it is gratifying to note that the Dominion Government, as well as every municipality, the length and breadth of the country, will participate in the celebration. Hitherto the Dominion Day celebrations have been confined to a single day, but this year it is intended to make it a week of festivity, and to make this a time such as the world has never witnessed before. Canada's Diamond Jubilee will be a week long festival of rejoicing, and it is hoped that every man, woman and child in the Dominion will participate in the celebrations.

Canadians have every reason to be proud of their country. Its vast extent, its boundless resources, its great industrial development, its progressive cities, its splendid railway systems, its fine educational institutions, its healthful climate, its virile people, its democratic institutions—all these and many other things that might be mentioned, make Canada pre-eminently the country in which to live, and the Canadian who does not love his country and glory in its institutions is unworthy of the name of citizen. Canada has a glorious past, a prosperous present, and a magnificent future, and the Diamond Jubilee celebrations should be made the occasion for a great demonstration of loyalty to the Empire and of love for Canada.

Let us make the Diamond Jubilee celebrations memorable in the history of the Dominion. Let us make them a time of rejoicing, of thanksgiving, of patriotism, of love for the Empire and for Canada. Let us make them a time of general holiday, when all work is suspended, and when the people, forgetful of all else, will devote themselves to the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Dominion of Canada.

Three Season's Use. No Repairs Yet!

Dear Sirs:

Your letter of Nov. 19th at hand. Am glad to let you know how I got along with your tractor. I am well pleased with it. I used it three seasons. I plowed 600 acres, also harrowed it at the same time. It handled three bottom plow and a harrow good. I have threshed 120,000 bushels of grain with it, have also used it for filling silo. As regards repairs, I have not yet needed any, and the bearings have never been touched. The engine seems as good as new. As to type of engine I think it is hard to beat. Perhaps a large engine of similar type would prove satisfactory and be a good seller.

I think the prospects of a few sales in my neighbors in the Spring are good. Trusting this is of some use to you,

Yours truly,

(Sgd.) Bellhorn, Rose P. Wetaskiwin

LARGE FIRE AT KINGMAN

A large fire occurred at Kingman on Saturday at nine o'clock in the morning, when Ted Swanson's store burned. It was occupied at the time by the Kingman Farmers' Supply and with the fire department of the goods were saved. Great excitement occurred when the blaze in the fire caused the fire station from Irvine. Water was thrown on all four sides of the building and finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before the heat was great on the opposite side of the street. It is believed that the fire started from a defective flue.

JIM IS SAVED FOR HIS MOTHER AND THE STATE

In the door of a newly built shack in the prairie stands a mother, talking to a Nurse of the Red Cross who has heard of trouble in this family of "new Canadians."

With a sob in her voice, the mother tells of her story of the pitiful plight of fourteen-year-old Jim, who has developed a terrible growth on his back. An operation and weeks of hospital care are necessary if his life is to be saved, but the journey from Ireland has exhausted the funds of the family. Where can they get the money for the doctor and the hospital and how can the mother leave the other children to take the sick boy to the hospital? What friend is there to consult in this strange land?

"Will you let me help you?" asks the Nurse. "We have a Red Cross Children's Hospital in this Province where Jim could be taken care of for us and I will take him there myself. I will trust him to me."

The mother's eyes fill with tears of gratitude, but she hesitates to let her boy go from her. The lady is very kind, certainly, but still she is a stranger. She turns to her husband for advice. He answers her silent appeal without any hesitation. "Let him go with the lady, mother; he is safe in the Army that you can always trust the Red Cross."

Three months later, the Red Cross girls, calling at the Children's Hospital, asked for Jim, who was not expected to last place in the ward.

"Jim is out in the garden playing football," was the reply. "He's quite well and going home to-morrow."

A very simple story; and one that could be repeated many times in any of the large cities from every Province of the Dominion, but what greater justification can the Red Cross make for the upholding of Canada than the salvage of human life on her frontiers?

The More Money We Pay---The Better We Like It

We would much rather pay you top price than any of the lower grade prices—and you, we know, desire to obtain the most from your cows. If all the money lost to dairymen through off grades were totalled the amount would surprise many—yet this amount, though large, could be almost eliminated. From the time bossie gives the milk into the pail—a little extra care means a little extra money.

SUMMER PIG SHELTERS CHEAP

(Experimental Farms Note)

In 1917 a field was set aside for young birds and dry, dod nothing but pig pastures at the Experimental ning "Cheap Cheap." Station at Rosthern. Along the Cobmeteme "Ming gracious, hey, north side of this field were sown, feet all shot birds you can. I'll bid twelve rows of caragana seed four shou in dat front of der store and feet apart and this field was fenced let them holler about the guts against ahck. In 1919 the plants were thinned to one foot apart in the row and the thinnings used for transplanting. Cultivation should not be continued after July 20 and in 1.21 the fence was taken down and the pigs allowed to run among the poplar trees and the two rows of the hedge. Every summer after the pigs were removed they were overgrown with weeds and the trees and they had to be cleared from both sides and cut. It is a complete summer shelter for pigs and is quite inexpensive. Cattle, sheep and horses will damage caragana and if pasture is short they no doubt will damage it but pigs do it no harm.

BANK OF MONTREAL CROP REPORT

June 16, 1927.

GENERAL

Weather and soil conditions are favourable in the Prairie Provinces, and the growth of the grain crops satisfactory. In Alberta the wheat crop has almost overcome the handicap of late seeding and is now progressing rapidly, with ample moisture and no damage from hail or pests. Good headway is also being made by crops in the Peace River district. Now that the wheat seeding has been completed the estimate is that the acreage is less by from 10 to 15 per cent., as compared with last year, but there has been some increase in the acreage sown to coarse grains. In the Province of Quebec content raised and cool weather have retarded farm operations, and effort to some extend the early opening of work on the land afforded by prematurely warm weather in April and early May. In central and south western Ontario satisfactory conditions have prevailed during the past month, but in Eastern Ontario continued wet weather has seriously delayed farming operations and seeding is not yet completed. In the Maritime Provinces average conditions prevailed except in New Brunswick where rain and cold have made the season late. In British Columbia, where the season was late, ideal growing weather now prevails and crop prospects are very much improved.

PRAIRIE PROVINCES

ALBERTA—Western Area.—Conditions favourable, growth rapid, almost too much moisture. Improvement Eastern Area. Conditions ideal and growth pushing up to average with prospects excellent. South- Eastern Area: Prospects very fair.

SASKATCHEWAN — Northern Area: Wheat plants are well rooted and healthy; there is some decrease in acreage; seeding of coarse grains nearly completed. Good supply of moisture in soil. Southern Area: Wheat all in and reeling of coarse grains 75 per cent. completed. Decrease in wheat acreage larger than in the north. There will be increase in acreage sown to coarse grains. In general the wheat acreage is probably 10 per cent. below normal for the Province, but larger than the usual percentage has been sown on summerfallow.

MANITOBA—Wheat seeding completed; acreage about 20 per cent. below last year. Growth satisfactory. Weather and soil condition very favourable. Acreage of coarse grains increased and sowing nearing completion.

THIRD FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

Very satisfactory reports continue to come in to the Department of Agriculture as to the progress made by crops throughout the province during the past two weeks and as to excellent prospects as indicated by their condition at the present time. Wheat in many early-sown fields is from eight to ten inches high, covering the ground well and conserving to the best advantage the supply of moisture in the soil. Seeding of oats and barley has been practically completed during the past week, with the exception of some late grown feed, and these grains as well as wheat are making vigorous growth.

Here in some sections of the southern part of the province has recently interfered with the completion of late seeding and the soil in this area is in better condition as regards moisture than it has been at the season for a number of years. In the central and northern sections of the province winds have been more prevalent than usual, with the result that although crops are not yet urgently in need of moisture, occasional showers are proving very beneficial.

Reports from all sections of the province indicate that the total acreage in all grains this year far from showing the marked decrease anticipated during the late spring, will be practically on a par with that of 1926. Slight reductions are reported in a number of districts, but there are more than made up by the additional crop needed on new land in other localities, while in still other areas where seeding was decidedly delayed a smaller acreage in wheat is made up by and increase in the coarse grains seeded. The acreage of fall wheat in the south of the province is reported to be considerably greater than usual and this crop has survived the past winter better than is usually the case. Fall rye has made good growth and is headed out in a number of districts.

Sod land is in excellent condition for breaking; much new plowing is reported in the irrigation belt in the south, and indications are that the acreage of new land brought under cultivation throughout the province this season will be fully equal to that in 1926. Hay crops and native pastures have made rapid growth and livestock is in splendid condition. Sheep camps on the ranges in the south report heavier than usual losses in the lamb crop owing to the unfavorable weather at lambing time. Shearing is well under way among range flocks.

Crop prospects generally are regarded as very promising and given warm growing weather during July and August there is every cause for optimism as to the out come for the season.

EMERGENCY ROAD SERVICE OF A. M. A. LAUDED BY MEMBERS

In addition to its operations in the more spectacular field of highway encouragement and legislation the recently formed Alberta Motor Association has many functions of direct personal importance to members which would be widely appreciated if better known to motorists of the province.

Inauguration of a free emergency road service for members whose cars are disabled on highways already has been attended with beneficial results this season. With the extension of the A. M. A. membership this work alone will assume far-reaching proportions within the next couple of years. Official garages under contract with the A. M. A. respond to emergency calls and if unable to start a car in half an hour, tow the car to the garage free of all charge.

Throughout Alberta and in Eastern British Columbia a large number of first class hotels, garages and service stations have signed up with the Alberta Motor Association to give members prompt, courteous and efficient service at reasonable rates. This list is rapidly growing and is proving a boon to members motoring from point to point.

Travelling Clinic Still Busy

The travelling clinic of the Health Department has served six districts in the province since May 16th. Its progress having been hindered to some extent by unfavorable weather and bad roads. It will be of interest to the public to learn that during the 34 days covered in the recent report of those in charge of the clinic, a total of 520 examinations have been made, 180 operations for tonsils and adenoids have been performed and presumptions have been issued and treatment advised in 122 cases.

It is the purpose of the government to place this service within the reach of everyone in the districts visited, at the lowest possible cost, and it is interesting in this connection to note that the services of the clinic to date have been fully self supporting. Further reports of the progress of the clinic will be issued through this bulletin from week to week.

Short Course at O. S. A.

Some eighty boys and girls, each of who was the highest prize winner in their school fair district, throughout the central part of the province, will be in attendance at a scholarship short course to be held at Olds School of Agriculture, July 11 to16. The boy and girl attaining the highest proficiency in the subjects covered in the week's program will be given one term's training free in the regular winter courses at the School of Agriculture. These short courses during the past few years have proved to be a great stimulus in school fair work and a valuable introduction to the regular courses at the Schools.

Delegation to Study Co-operative Marketing

As a move towards developing an educational policy along co-operative lines in the province, a delegation of five Alberta men, in charge Dr. H. A. McGibbon, Director, Department of Economics, University of Alberta; J. R. Love, M.L.A., and A. Scott of the Provincial Dairy Dept.; A. B. Claypool of the Livestock Pool and B. M. Mallof the Egg and Poultry Pool, will attend an institute of co-operative economics at the Saskatchewan University, Claresy, during the first week of July.

The action was decided on at a meeting of the trustees of the wheat board surplus fund, who include Hon. George Hoadley ,Dr. McGibbon, Norman S. Clarke and Ben Plumer, as it was felt that profitable use of this unexpended fund might be made in paying the cost of sending this delegation which will bring back valuable information to be used in further solving Alberta's co-operative marketing problems. The information brought back by these men will be made available to those in the province who interested in securing further education along co-operative lines.

Edith Cavell Memorial Church

Plans will be undertaken this summer for the erection of a church in Jasper to be known as the Edith Cavell Memorial Church, at the foot of the Glacier of the Angel, Mount Edith Cavell, Jasper National Park, as a tangible tribute to the memory of the martyr nurse of the Great War.

Tree-planting Car Popular

A splendid attendance is reported at the various points in the southern part of the province recently visited by the tree-planting car, travelling under the direction of the Canadian Forestry Association. School children are keenly interested in the educational program provided, and large numbers of farmers who are improving and beautifying the home by the planting of hedge belts.

Indian Population Increasing

The Indian population of the three prairie provinces continued to increase during the past year, according to the report of the Honorable Department of Indian Affairs. The present Indian population on the reserves is distributed as follows: Alberta, 9,067; Saskatchewan, 14,500, and Manitoba, 11,778. There was a natural increase in this area during the year of 266. In addition there are a number of Indian bands in far northern areas which exist as yet under treaty. They, being the estimated Indian population of the three provinces up to some 36,000.

Sheep Shearing in Edmonton

Sheep shearing, after having been delayed by the wet weather, is now well under way among the flocks in the large areas in the south of the province. Owing to the unfavorable conditions losses of lambs have been greater than usual in cases where [illegible] was available for ewes at the [illegible] camps he lost [illegible] which is in others it is reported [illegible] as high as 50 per cent.

"THE GREATEST FORWARD STEP IN THREE THOUSAND YEARS"

The Wheat Pool

H. W. Wood, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool, says that in forming this marketing organization the farmers took the greatest step forward in three thousand years.

The Wheat Pool enables wheat producers to handle their wheat in their own way and sell it themselves in their own way. The entire force of this great organization is directed towards the desired end of bettering the conditions of the western grain grower.

Every grain grower who joins the Pool now adds that much strength to the Organization. The stronger the Wheat Pool is, the better for Western Canada.

The Mosquito Pest

The people of Canada are slowly awakening to the power of control of aggressive action to destroy the breeding places of mosquitoes. Like so many other things with which we unhappily have to live, the mosquito pest can be practically eliminated if we use the right way about it and devote fully concerted and persevering action to worthwhile. The mosquito is not only a source of irritation and pain, but is in an actual manner one of the most serious pests but to disease animals as well.

The United States government in connection with the Panama Canal where the French had failed largely because the American engineers tackled the problem of first destroying the mosquitoes and the anopheles mosquito in particular in the Panama zone and among the people, which, of course, followed to look after themselves. Having had her to be made a fit place to live in, the second work to be done could be dealt with and the yellow fever and malaria conditions have been following almost as a matter of course.

Apart altogether from the discomfort to humans, and the nuisance and disease for which the mosquito is responsible, the fact is that the country spending an enormous sum as a result of the further endowed by losses of cattle, and other animals in the open where mosquitoes thrive unmolested and those cattle are more by means of protecting themselves. The sum that has to be paid, here can mainly be saved by the use of simple, well-known work and production, paid normal conditions can supply. Effect that will eliminate the mosquito and free from the pest. Canada has the first also which I have tested and do would be repeated many times.

Mosquitoes breed in practically any town in practically any locality in Manitoba, and in the Prairie River Valley and in the Swan River district. Any form this pest would be well advised to follow the example that has been set by the largest cities in the United States and Canada. Let the people of each district or town or village form themselves into an association to take the lead in the work. Local Government to take the lead in the work.

The division of the mosquito into the egg, larva, pupa and the perfect insect, and the previous stages in this kaleidoscopic change in appearance and habits, is well known to you for a number of years.

Ponds, old ruts, hoof-prints, etc. Water containing vessels lying in the open are also the only breeding places. Rivers or running streams do not breed mosquitoes, for flood waters and storm rivers have cleaned out the pest. Lawns and golf courses, open grass and shrubberies do not breed mosquitoes. The eggs are laid in stagnant water or where there will be stagnant water for a sufficient length of time.

Pools that dry up in two or three weeks are of no importance. The eggs are not affected in the least degree by frost, but hatch out about April 15th, sometimes earlier, into wigglers, or larvae, as scientists call them. These wigglers swim and feed in the stagnant pools, rising every few minutes to the surface, tail first to the tail in a line air tube, which is the largest joint above it. After ten or three weeks of this existence the wigglers change into semi-pupae, which in from two to seven days come to the surface, split and liberate the complete mosquito.

Thus, in the life-cycle of the mosquito it is most readily destroyed in the larvae and pupa stages. The larvae are killed by a small dose of crude oil or coal-tar creosote, which evolves or poisons the fire. It rises at the end of the wriggler's tail. This is applied either by mechanical means or by kerosene sprayers. Small areas may be successfully handled by hand-pumps with hand oil or crude coal-tar waste oil from automobiles. Rains, washed in here with engines, may be watched with caution and interest from time to time.

In the case of ponds or on the farm and in places with real loss of water possible, the pools are still small-sized, about thirty waste oil after cleaning out automobile crank cases and parts of tractors and other machinery, and if these waste substances, instead of being turned, were thrown into rain water pools of water and other breeding places of the mosquito, a great deal would be beneficial. The general adoption by people of the policy of spraying oil into stagnant pools in the vicinity of their houses would in a few years greatly reduce the mosquito pest in this country, adding to the comfort of life in the summer months, according to much the spread of fevers, and to their economic gain, as well as to the living and death animals of the suffering from the pest, now unknown.

Should Select Immigrants

More Care Should be Taken in Admitting Undesirables

Dr. Oliver A. Stillman of a banquet tendered to the Canadian Authors' Association at Toronto, Sir William Mulock, chancellor of Toronto University, declared he did not share the longing of some people for increased population in Canada.

"I don't think," said Sir William, "that our friends in the south have been vastly enriched by their increased population. A large portion of their population must now be called a source of weakness."

Sir William said Canada should admit none that are not of "good foundation stock."

In his opinion, an empty home was better than a bad tenant.

Carry Out Death Sentences

Seventeen Persons in Canada Sentenced to Death and Nine Executed in One Year

Canadian courts pronounced the sentence of death upon a total of 47 persons charged with murder during the fiscal year ended March 31 last. Nine of these convicted murderers were executed, according to official records available here. In five cases some extension of sentence to life imprisonment was granted, while new trials were ordered in the remaining three instances.

Approximately 125 persons became criminal in connection with the enforcement throughout the country for various crimes, were released on bribes of liquor. Appeals, mainly six applications for release from prison were refused during the period.

Oppose Granting Subsidy

Objection to Proposal That Federal Government Should Subsidize Seed Growers

At the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, at Victoria, President Stratton objected to proposals that the federal government should subsidize seed growers. He preferred, he said, some system whereby the product of the experts growers would be sold for a cashing such growers to benefit from public demand for output of quality.

"There is no questioning that the high quality of Canadian field crops has allowed in due in no small degree to the fact that the producer has had, for many years, need of superior pedigree. Those have aligned the Canadian farmer to compete in world markets despite the higher Canadian scale of living and production costs," said Mr. Stratton, in paying a tribute to the splendid work of past presidents and officials of the association.

The directors' report presented by Peter Sinclair, Ottawa, secretary-treasurer, gave the following data as to the seed crop and seed inspections during the year:

Fields inspected, 2,393; registration certificates issued, 1,600; wheat, 19,311 acres yielding 472,949 bushels; oats, 1,000 acres inspected and sealed 45,791 bushels.

Barley, 2,000 acres yielding 227,581 bushels; potatoes, 1,000 acres inspected and sealed 24,282 bushels; barley, 2,231 acres yielding 94,126 bushels; potatoes, 1,000 acres inspected and sealed, 12,355 bushels; corn 294 acres yielding 2,865 bushels; timothy, 1,000 acres inspected and sealed 120 bushels; alfalfa, 2,849 acres yielding 270,000 pounds, sweet clover inspected and sealed 242,922 pounds, the latter a record product of this year.

The association has been a member of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association since 1919, and has been represented by Dr. Edward Island 11; Nova Scotia 9; New Brunswick 12; Quebec 15; Ontario 30; Manitoba 25; Saskatchewan, 172; Alberta, 270; British Columbia, 10.

Airplanes Valuable In Exploiting Resources

Service More Important in Canada Than in Other Countries

Aeroplanes are more important as mail, freight and passengers is probably of more vital importance and Britain in the Dominion Canada than in any other country, except Russia, Persia, please, a prominent aviator of The Fairchild Aerial Survey, Limited, in The Financial Post. He has recently returned from a trip of inspection of northern Ontario, and said, in the course of an interview, that the possibilities of airplanes for the use of the building of railroads, and in any case lower development caused by the lack of transportation facilities.

The aeroplane offers a safe and speedy means of transport in the Northern Canada, while rapidity for cargoes for that of trains. It may be said, however, that the aeroplane is not a transport line has as yet made money; all the companies therefore, depend for their maintenance on the Government subsidies, and in the United States air mail contracts are being let in every direction. The cost of establishing and operating costs in the Dominion are not excessive, and services will develop. No fine can be stated unless there be some money, nor that there will be enough crew to pay for operating expenses.

Feldspar on Lake of the Woods

U.S. Syndicate Opening Crushing and Grinding Plant

An interesting mining development is taking place on the Northwestern Lake of the Woods. A mineral plant, Syndicate is opening up a feldspar deposit on the north shore of the lake. This is the first enterprise of the kind in the northwest. The feldspar will be shipped south for treatment at first, but it is the intention to erect a mill on the lake for crushing and grinding plant at the mine. If the quality of the rock proves satisfactory, a deposit of sufficient size to be exploited. A company is also developing a feldspar and mica claim on the Canadian side of the border if this claim is found to be suitable for commercial purposes, attention will be given to it in due time.

Reducing Canada's Debt

Forty-two Millions to Reduction in Last Fiscal Year

Canada's net debt was reduced by $42,000,000 during the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1927.

When he delivered his budget speech February 17 last, Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, could only estimate that the decrease would be, since the Government's financial year had still another six weeks to go. Mr. Robb covered on the side of caution, and placed the figure at $21,000,000. That he was well within the mark is indicated by the information that he made estimated the amount by eleven million dollars.

It is forced that in the last four years the national debt has been reduced by $100,000,000.

In November of this year there are bonds maturing of $37,000,000, the minister hopes to redeem one of them in cash and at least a portion of the other, while necessary refinancing will be accomplished at a reduced rate of interest.

Fruit Growing in British Columbia

43,500 Acres Now Devoted to This Industry

In British Columbia commercial fruit growing is of comparatively recent development, but the development of commercial orcharding has been very rapid, especially during the last few years. The first apple trees were planted about 1860, but until recent years have never possessed more than a few commercial orchards. The census of 1921 the census showed a total fruit acreage in British Columbia of 42,500 acres. The total mixed fruit district in the province is the Okanagan valley, where some of the finest orchards in the province and in the Dominion are to be found. The boxed apple from British Columbia are in favor on the Lancashire markets in the British Isles and European ports, and the Japanese apricots, cherries and small fruits are shipped in large semi-throughout British Columbia.

Find Huge Telescope Reflector

Made by Sir William Herschel Century and Half Ago

A telescope reflector weighing half a ton was made by the great Sir William Herschel at his observatory near Slough 150 years ago. Later a leather case was substituted and the old one was put away, but where it went nobody knew. Sir William's son died in 1871, and the secret died with him.

The reflector was supposed to have been put in a cottage owned by his son, but there was no trace of it.

Now the cottage has been in the hands of the builders and there, built into the wall behind the stairs, the reflector has been found in its long case. With a series of mirrors a ray of sunlight was sent on to a carefully polished surface, leaving no doubt as to its identity. The historic reflector has been removed from its strange hiding place.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

A Welland Lady Tells of the Value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in Her Home

"I have many reasons for praising Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," says Mrs. George L. Meek, R.R. No. 2, Welland, Ont. "I have used them myself, my children and my grandchildren have all had a severe attack of measles before we had the pills, and after the pills not half so much the trouble. The trouble I found I have also given the pills to my little girl who was nervous, and in their case it was the greatest benefit. Now, I always keep a supply in the house and would gladly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all I know or ever meet, for as soon the rheumatic pains and stiff joints disappeared and there is no return of the trouble. Sir, Mr. Meek, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been of great benefit to my children, one of my boys was Overheated with Scarlet Fever during the Epidemic of 1918, and I gave him Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after the fever had left him he was left in a very weak condition, and in this case I also gave the pills with the greatest benefit. I always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all my friends, for I know they are a family medicine."

Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale, weak people, for all blood troubles, such as rheumatism, neuralgia and other nervous troubles. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ELECTORS OF MANITOBA GO TO POLLS JUNE 28

Winnipeg—Electors of Manitoba will go to the polls June 28 to determine the composition of the eighteenth Legislature of the province and incidentally pass upon the record of the Bracken Progressive administration which has been in power for the past five years.

Invoked of any outstanding political issues the campaign has resolved itself into straight party appeals for the confidence of the electors with Government candidates asserting that defeat of the Bracken Government will bring about a group system of government of coalition of two or more minority parties.

At dissolution the government supporters numbered 28 in a House of 55 members, a majority of one over all. Progressive members of the Legislature, however, in at no time been released during the five years of the Government's tenure in office and on every important division the Progressive ranks have been sustained by substantial majorities.

The redistribution of electoral districts was also: Liberals, 7; Conservatives, 6; Labor, 1; Independent, 1. while two seats were vacant.

In all vital issues in the Legislature the leaders of the Liberal party have fallen in line with the Government's policies and the measures have alternated in securing progress of bills that encountered opposition. The most serious clash of the session almost against the discretion of war during which the Liberals, and the weaken when Liberals, Conservatives and Labor members combined in a series of adverse votes, which cost the Government, in a short-lived victory for the time.

In the Provincial election many from a strange appeal was made to the electors of Manitoba. Had the returns on its past record which was described as a "clean-up" and "open-election pledge given in 1923."

Strangler Is Arrested

Man Who Committed Two Murders in Winnipeg Is Apprehended

Winnipeg—The brutal slayer of Lois Cowan, 11-year-old school girl, and Mrs. Emily Paterson, 45-year-old choir leader and mother of two children attended by both boys, is confined in a cell at police headquarters, heavily guarded against possible lynching bees, it was announced by Chief Constable Newton, who described as "the strangler" killer of the Winnipeg victims, and the "prowler man," sought by United States police for two years for the slaying of 11 women and girls in Texas and the Pacific Coast to Detroit.

This is the man, he now positively declares, who has struck terror into the hearts of residents of Winnipeg and Brandon, who was known to police officers in the United States as "the strangler" and "prowler man," sought by United States police.

The following were added to the representatives of the Western provinces on the council: H. M. Murphy, Manitoba; Dr. Hall, Saskatchewan.

Dr. Robert D. Porter, Toronto was re-elected president of the Association for his third term and Dr. F. N. Parsons, Halifax, vice-president of the vice-presidents.

Penal Servitude for Life

Assassin of Soviet Minister to Warsaw Escapes Death Penalty

Warsaw—Boris Koverda, the 19 year-old youth who assassinated Peter Voikoff Soviet minister at Warsaw, on June 7, who remained on penal servitude for life and the loss of all civil rights. The courts decided not to recommend to the President of the Republic the pardon of the sentence to 15 years servitude.

Koverda admitted the killing at his brief trial, but declared he was not guilty of murder. He had merely taken an active part in the Bolshevist plot.

He says that he declared it was not a stunt flight and that he would be accompanied Mr. Black is accompanied by two pilots and his wife and has already flown with him some thousands of miles.

Agree on Tomato Prices

Kelowna, B.C.—Tomato growers have reached a satisfactory agreement with the canneries. The price to be paid to the growers will be $16.50 per ton for Flatlams, which is exactly will be grown at Kelowna, and $15.50 for John Bear, which will form the main crop in some of the outlying plantings. It is expected 1,000 tons will be planted in consequence and it is estimated that the crop will make 90 miles an hour with a heavy train.

Home Makers Discuss Immigration Question

Resolution Disapproving Government Relief Brought Before Convention

Saskatoon—Disapproval of the big scale immigration policy of the government was the keynote of the address of Mrs. Lucas at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan Federation of Home Makers' Clubs in annual session at Canterbury Hall.

This resolution with the report of discussion was read by Miss Ivy Lang of the Canadian Pacific Railway, secretary of the immigration committee. Much in fact many of the clubs and the project in many of the clubs and the province had been discussed on the subject, stimulated this interest in such an extent that a committee was appointed to investigate the matter.

The committee in its report declared that the interest in such an extent that a committee was appointed to investigate the matter.

Narrow Escape of Portuguese Aviators

Rescued by Fishing Boat When Plane Is Forced Down

Rio Janeiro, Brazil—Three hours after the Portuguese aviators, Sarmento Beires and Jorge de Castilho, had set out on the floating wreckage of their plane in the story of Major Barnum Belford, Portuguese aviator, and the three men who were with him in the attempted flight to Lisbon by way of the United States. They left Para, Brazil, for Georgetown, British Guiana, on April 2, and after flying only 20 miles, a mishap compelled a forced landing at sea. When about to resume the journey a huge wave capsized the plane, wrecking it.

The aviators held on desperately for three hours as a storm raged, great rain, washing over them repeated by waves.

When they had almost given up hope of being rescued they were sighted and rescued with difficulty and taken to Para. The plane which and sadly the lag of the flight was saved.

Major Belero, who flew across the Atlantic with Capt. Sacadura Cabral in 1922 to an island off the British Guiana and Dutch Guiana in April or March, now will return to Europe with his companion, by steamer.

Developing Proper Spirit

Canadians Should Think of Canada Ah the Time

Ottawa.—"I will we develop a spirit of nationalism in Canada, and will never become a great country," was the statement of Rupert Brooke-Hunt, trade commissioner of Alberta, speaking here. "The people of the United States always think in terms of the United States. Over there they have a saying, 'Buy in the United States—they don't have to, for the tendency to consume native products is inherent. That spirit should be encouraged in Canada, and until Canadians think of Canada all the time, Canada cannot become a great nation."

Canada's Newest Locomotive

The illustration below is the new "three" class locomotive, the latest production of the mechanical department of the Canadian National Railways at their shops at Point St. Charles. Many of these "Northern Type" engines have been manufactured in Canadian plants for use of main line fast passenger and manifest freight service. They are 92 feet 10½ inches over all. The tender has a capacity of 12,200 imperial gallons of water and 20 tons of coal. In working order the total weight of engine and tender is 420,000 pounds. Note the two position of the cab, which, located on the left hand of the smoke box near the stack. This is to save the driver's eyes. These engines are designed for power at speed and it is estimated that they can make 90 miles an hour with a heavy train.

Would Take Canadian Butter

Good Market in Britain for Saskatchewan Product

Regina, that Saskatchewan may should be exporting popular annual quantity of butter to the British market was stated by E. F. Jupp, dairy products instructor in London, England for the New Zealand and Merrinelle Armory Co., Ltd., during his visit here. Saskatchewan exports only have dairy creamery manufacturing plants and organizations, and viewed by imitation of an encouraging kind, should be able to ship much butter to the old land, Mr. Jupp declared. It was necessary, however, that the requirements of the British market be carefully studied.

Post-Graduate Course For Canadian Students

Plan Sought to Have British Examining Come to Dominion

In order to control the influx of graduates of Canadian medical colleges in the United States, where many of them go for post-graduate work, the Canadian Medical Association has now under consideration a scheme for the control of the British and Canadian Medical Association.

At present, out of going to Britain to take post-graduate work places a year, the doctor has to go to Britain and the examination of the British Medical Association in England. Primary examination are added to the fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons in England. Physicians and surgeons in England. Physicians and others will come out and examine candidates.

The primary examinations in pathology and anatomy will be conducted here, but the final examinations in clinical subjects will still be held in London. Candidates will be expected to result in large numbers of modern graduates taking up their post at home for the British examination.

Another activity in which the Canadian Medical Association is entering upon in the establishment in provincial units with the assistance of the Canadian Red Cross plan of hospitals. The best men in each province will be available to people in the Canadian Red Cross plan of hospitals. The best men in each province will be available to people in the Canadian Red Cross plan of hospitals. Cattle From Britain

Final Shipment to Arrive After Embargo Restrictions Removed

Ottawa—The first shipments of cattle and sheep to reach Canada from Great Britain since the embargo restrictions have been removed are expected to arrive at Montreal on the Canadian Pacific steamship of railway council chosen for Canada from the provincial delegates.

Dr. Parkhill in a reference to the Ontario situation said: "Inspection of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Dr. Hall, Dr. Hall, Dr. Nova Scotia representative authority either to increase the number like all the Provinces council beyond the present membership of 21, or to reduce the members of that body as plans for the formation of a local council, the provincial public health council.

Attack Oath of Allegiance

Objection Raised by Republicans of Irish Free State

Dublin, Irish Free State—The oath of allegiance which the Republican members are required to take before they can sit in the Irish Free State, is the chief obstacle to the reconciliation of the Irish Free State, as by his constitutional duties I shall be faithful to His Majesty King George V., his heirs and successors by law in virtue of the common citizenship of Ireland with Great Britain and her adherence to the association of the States of nations. Declaring the Irish Free State would "self-destruct."

Three Season's Use. No Repairs Yet!

Dear Sirs:

Your letter of Nov. 10th at hand. Am glad to let you know how I got along with your tractor. I am well pleased with it. I used it three seasons.

I plowed 600 acres, also harrowed it all the way thru. It pulled three bottom plow and a harrow good. I have threshed 120,000 bushels of grain with it, have also used it for filling silo. As regards repairs, I have not yet needed any, and the bearings have never been touched. The engine seems as good as new. As to type of engine I think it is hard to beat. Perhaps a large engine of similar type would prove satisfactory and be a good seller.

I think the prospects of a few sales to my neighbors in the Spring are good. Thinking this is of some use to you,

Yours truly,
Roy Sullivan, Bush & Wetaskiwin.

CONFEDERATION

Message From The Mayor

Today, July 1st, 1927, we celebrate the Sixtieth Anniversary of the Confederation of the Provinces of Canada.

What a change the Tofield District has witnessed during those sixty years! On the shores of our Beaver Hills Lake, in the year 1867, was heard the cries of millions of waterfowl, the thunderous tramp of buffalo and the wars whoop of the Indian. Today we see hundreds of happy citizens gathered here in the prairie and under in the fields, the hum of the automobile motor and trains carrying away the products of our land.

All this advancement and development has taken place under the freedom and liberty which we, as part of the Great British Empire, have enjoyed and owing to the foresight of the Fathers of Confederation.

Let us then show our appreciation of the work of our forefathers by celebrating dominion Day in the happiest and heartiest manner possible.

A. J. H. McCAULEY, Mayor.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

Mr. Editor:

If you could find space in your reliable paper to reprint a clipping taken from Edmonton Journal, I believe it would be appreciated by your readers. At the same time I would like to point out that all the big men of the day, products for the benefit, invested in such a way that the farmer gets the advantage. I will give you one example. Mr. Bennett has a right to oblige the privilege for the producer to designate the terminal he wished to ship his grain to. Next the Producers had the privilege for the past fifteen years to ship [illegible] through billing to the United States, now we find that the Packers are petitioning the railways to [illegible] know that [illegible] they did petition to have the premium values of the bacon hog and succeeded in having it cut in half. A great deal more could be said, but I am trying to make the letter as short as possible, but the point I want to bring out is the producer must organize to protect his own interests, or become a mere machine for corporations, and the [illegible] there is only two things for us to do if we let them get the best of us.

Signed,
Johnston Peggs.

SASK BOARD OF TRADE HEARING FARM PRICES

American Co-operators Would Abolish Chicago Trade Board

[illegible] demand for the abolishment of the Chicago Board of Trade, because it hinders the farmer from getting a fair price for grain, was made before the American Institute of Co-operation on June 23rd.

Judge L. Gough, picturesque president of the Texas Wheat Growers Association, made the demand in a speech [illegible]

"It is the height of [illegible] about farmers [illegible] Trade is the dominant [illegible] has absolute power to fix the price of every bushel of wheat. AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Mrs. Dayman Gives Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the Credit

Gillespie, Ontario.—"When I was first married I was very ill and had to have a doctor. The doctor said I was run down and would never be able to have a child, but I did, and from the time my baby came I suffered all the time and doctored and took medicine, life became a burden to me. I had no pains and no ache, but was sick all the time. I was advised by a friend to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what I had and I thought I would try it, for I might get some relief. I had not taken one bottle when I could feel it helping me. I took five bottles and had a fine health. Now I have three girls and a boy and have done my work up to confinement. I am now at the Change of Life and owe my good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I take a bottle when I think I need it, for it is a good tonic."—Mrs. A. E. Dayman, Gillespie, Ontario.

Mothers Should Use

When The Babies Are Cutting Teeth

During the baby's teething time, is the hot summer months, the bowels become loose and diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and other bowel complaints are frequent; the gums become swollen, red and painful, and the baby is cross; even the child seems to be a shadow, and very often the termination is fatal.

The time when the mother should use "Dr. Fowler's," and prevent these troubles is early in the season, before they appear. Then, if they do appear, you get quick relief. "Dr. Fowler's" is the best remedy for all bowel complaints.

Mrs. Jas. Thatcher, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry for my baby when she was teething, and I can highly recommend it as a splendid medicine for children."

Mrs. Thos. Hall, Bridgeburg, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry for my baby when she was teething, and I can highly recommend it as a splendid medicine for children."

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart and Mr. and Mrs. L. Radabaugh left for the coast Tuesday morning where they expect to make their home in the future.

Dr. and Mrs. Law returned from a few days holiday at Banff, Innisfail and Banff, on Sunday evening.

Mr. Oscar Young of Manville, is stationed here as Weed Inspector for he Carnhill district.

Mr. and Mrs. McCauley spent a few days in the city this week.

Mr. and T. B. Spenser of Halifax, N.S. spent a few days with Mrs. Firth last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin motored to the city on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Curling Club held a curling sclver tea at the home of Mrs. Cap. Lee last week.

Miss W. Worton visited Edmonton over the weekend as the guest of Miss F. Fr...

The W... held a lawn social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Kaital (formerly the Stutzman place) on Wednesday, August 6th. Come and have a good time.

AMISK CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olson and children visited the city last week. Mr. and Mrs. T. Anderson accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jameson who has been working for Ralph Olson seeding this spring left for the States last Wednesday.

Alice and Ruby Berg, Henry Anderson and Gunvald Flaaten motored to Vegreville last Sunday and visited with Alma Sund who has been attending school in Vegreville this year.

McCALLUM CUP STILL STAYS AT TOFIELD

Ryley motored over on Monday evening to get the McCallum Cup. Ryley settled down to business right ning was overs Alta..s at the start and in their half of the inening Ryley chalked up three runs. But Tofield in their half got two runs and this inning ended 3-3 for Ryley. The game was saved by and forth and at the end of the ninth inning Ryley were added by the score of 4-3. It had now grown too dark to play, and so a cup game has to be seven innings before the winning team can take the cup, therefore Ryley could not take the cup because they did not play seven innings.

The main hits were made by Frank Ball and Lance Humphrey making a three-bagger each.

Bert Calvert and Glenn Wood met with a nasty accident when they were toon running for a fly ball and collided. They were knocked unconscious but were soon able to play again although not feeling very well. Another bad accident was when a ball crashed through the windshield of a traveller's car and a piece of flying glass cut the his neck. He received medical attention from Dr. Law.

Frank Ball was also hit on the elbow by a bat, which raised quite a lump and was quite painful.

EDMONTON EXHIBITION SOON

In order that the Edmonton Exhibition, July 18 to 23, this year may be even better than that of 1926, the Exhibition Association are doing all in their power to stimulate the interest and enthusiasm of the people of Edmonton and the surrounding districts. Because of the large number of improvements new under way it is impossible to describe them other than in a very general way.

The monster Pageant, 1,000 people participating, will be something seldom seen outside the British Isles, where pageantry has reached the acme of perfection; gorgeous costumes, clever acting, wonderful lighting effects—everything in this pageant will be perfect.

The Australian National Band will be the outstanding musical attraction of the Edmonton Exhibition, and with the fireworks appropriation doubled this year, and the most spectacular platform acts available, visitors are assured of the most interesting program ever seen at the Edmonton Exhibition.

The Exhibition Association have arranged for FREE Camping Ground for auto parties of out-of-town Exhibition guests. This camp is situated in clean, pleasant surroundings, adjacent to the grounds with kitchen facilities and a plentiful supply of fresh water near at hand. The tent frames, boarded half way up and having wooden floors, are free of charge and tents and cots may be rented from the Exhibition Association at very low rates. It is an ideal camping site and is just the place to spend the week while attending the Exhibition.

Reduced rates on all railway lines from all points in Alberta and Saskatchewan will be in effect. It is hoped that a great many will take advantage of this and spend the week at Edmonton's Biggest Exhibition and Jubilee Pageant.

TOFIELD WINS AT COOKING LAKE PICNIC

The Tofield senior girls basketball team carried off a win 20-3 when they met the Deville girls on the Picnic Grounds at Cooking Lake, on Saturday, June 25th, at five o'clock. The girls won first prize of fifteen dollars.

Tofield line-up against Deville is as follows: Forwards — (captain) Dorothy Bowman and Emily McAllister, Centre, Nora Wood. Guards—Annie Swift and Florence Kendall. Sub. Gertrude Beatrice.

Mr. Hanushko referred to the satisfaction of both teams and the Tofield girls expect to have the same referee next Saturday.

NOTICE OF NOMINATION MEETING

Tofield School District No. 1923
School Election

Public Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the electors of the Tofield School District No. 1920 will be held in the Town Hall, Tofield, on Tuesday the 5th day of July, from seven o'clock in the forenoon until twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of school trustee to complete the unexpired term of Arthur A. Scriver who has become disqualified from the office by reason of residence.

Dated at Tofield, this 27th day of June, 1927.

J. W. CHAPMAN,
Returning Officer.

A report appeared in the daily papers this week that the body of Gordon Halsen had been found in the Saskatchewan river. It is believed that this is the Gordon Halsen that played hockey on the Tofield Silver Cup hockey team some fifteen years ago. When found his hands and feet were fastened with wire, and as he was an excellent swimmer, it is believed he himself did this and then committed suicide by drowning.

WORK PROGRESSING RAPIDLY ON H.B.R.

Much Bellating Has Been Done And 18 Miles New Steel Has Been Laid

WINNIPEG — More than eleven hundred workmen, with ten work trains and a full complement of equipment are being used this year in the rehabilitation and construction work on the Hudson Bay Railway, it is was announced by officials of the construction department of the Canadian National Railways which has the work in hand. The end of steel is now at the Limestone River, mile 350. In addition to reconditioning the track which was inordinance prior to the present work being started in the spring of 1926, eighteen miles of new track has also been laid. By the end of the present year it is expected steel will be finished on the Limestone River bridge and the line extended to a point some miles beyond this crossing.

When the work of reconditioning the Hudson Bay Railway was begun in 1926, the line was being operated as far as mile 214. Track was laid to mile 332, but before any work on the attension could be made, the part already built had to be repaired and brought into condition for the operation of trains. Most of the line originally used were rotted and useless and these needed replacement. In many sections the line had received seriously and this had to be rebuilt. In all 118 miles of line was relaid by trains.

During the season of 1926 as many as 900 men with eight work trains were employed. During the season of 1927 and to date the number of cars employed has exceeded 1100 and as many as 10 work trains with a proper complement of working equipment have been used.

Last winter the work of building the substructure over the Limestone River at mile 350 was proceeded with and by April 24th of this year the substructure and trestle approaches were completed. A steam shovel will cut into the pit in the near future to ballast the 18 miles of line between mile 332 (the former end of steel) and mile 350 to permit delivery of steel to the bridge site for the erection of the superstructure of the bridge over the Limestone.

An idea of the work involved in reconditioning the line is to be had from the fact that more than 400,000 new ties have been placed to date. Of this number 221,000 were renewed. An immense quantity of ballasting material was required to raise and widen the banks, a total of 276,178 cubic yards of gravel having been used for this. At the same time more than 80,00 yards of material were removed in widening cuts. To date nearly 175,000 yards of ballast have been delivered from the various pits and 180 miles of ballasting have been completed. These are between miels 0-14|14-19; 62-72; 95-104 and 127-286.

Progress on bridge work to date includes the approaches of the Fairhatchewan River bridges opening for filling and 4,840 cubic yards of masonry retail used in the fill.

Considerable work has been carried on at the terminals. At The Pas, the sand-house, coal-dock, storehouse building, bunk-house and ice-house are finished. Ninety-five per cent. of the main line through the yard has been relaid with 80-pound steel. The turn-table is fifty per cent. completed and workmen are now pouring concrete for the engine-house. Lifting and ballasting of yard tracks by train fill is sixty per cent. done.

At Bowden, the divisional point 137 miles beyond The Pas, coal-dock, sand-house, bunk-house and water tank are ready. The round-house roof is ninety-five per cent. finished and concrete for the turntable is being poured.

The widow was expatiating to the sympathetic visitor on her husband's patience during his last illness. "The only thing he fretted about was he wanted to go for a ride in a taxi with me before he died, for he'd never been in a motor. We never went; he were to ill when he thought about it—so I had a motor funeral for him."

BUILDING UP A NATION

WHILE THE exact length of time Canada has been growing into nationhood is more than sixty years, Friday next will mark the sixtieth anniversary of Confederation of the then existing provinces into one body.

To the memory of those men in Charlottetown and Quebec who "builded better than they knew", we offer all praise. They formed into one cohesive whole the northern portion of a continent that as regards progressive development bids fair to eclipse anything the world has ever seen. The binding process of confederation if unduly postponed could just as easily have developed into division as unity. With nations, as with men, there is a time in their affairs which taken at the flood leads on to fortune. The reference may be garbled, but the meaning is plain. If confederation had been longer delayed, small wedges of division could have easily crept in and widened into an unbreachable chasm. To the fathers of Confederation we owe a debt of lasting gratitude.

Leaving to future generations a vast domain of prairie, forest, lake and stream, the fathers of confederation also left a responsibility that is of great importance.

A nation is really a complex arrangement of humanity, plus the land in which they live. Historic associations, present grandeur and visions of future greatness also have something to do in the making of a nation. But the most important feature of nationhood is the family. Nations such as Canada may receive millions of immigrants and these millions of immigrants may give unlimited aid to the country of their adoption, but it is their children and their children's children that must carry out to the letter the spirit of confederation. Anything that would tend to bring about Canadian families raised amid Canadian standards of living, and imbued with the spirit of integrity and enterprise, is to be welcomed.

We have long held that climatic conditions have their effect upon the mentality of nations. People of northern climates the world over are of a more solid type than people of southern climes. There may not be the hurry and haste but they live just as long and seem to accomplish just as much.

With the vast stretches of country that is yet to be settled in this dominion there is no one who can foretell with accuracy what the future holds for Canada. Everyone can see, however, a glorious opportunity of living a full and active life within her borders, thus not only achieving individual prosperity but aiding to the general upbuilding of the nation as a whole.

July 1st, 1927, marking the sixtieth anniversary of confederation, becomes a day of celebration. Let us all enter into the spirit of the day, and following that, go about our individual affairs so that future generations will recognize us as builders too.

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL NEWS BULLETIN

The reports coming into The Alberta Pool head office from various parts of the province, and the consistant stream of Second Series contracts which every mail bring in, indicates that the drive for the sign-up is going over in fine shape. Canvassers who have covered their districts state that many non-Pool members are joining up, and the majority of old members are signing the new contracts.

* * * * * *

To date over 76 per cent. of the Saskatchewan Pool members have signed the new series contracts.

BROOMHALL ON THE WHEAT DOLE

George Broomhall, probably the best-posted authority in the world on international grain marketing, in an article in The London Times, says: "Competition is greatly curtailed and expenses reduced by centralized handling, while there is always a chance that a Pool dealing with millions of bushels may obtain very favorable rates of freight.

"The limitation of selling competition is an important matter and there is reason to think it has been a powerful influence in preventing a bad slump in prices in the current season.

"Before the Pools were in existence merchants were sometimes heard to say that wheat was being flung at them, but it is not so now. The Pool's aim is to feed the market."

19th BATTALION ASSOCIATION CHURCH PARADE

The 49th Battalion Association will hold its first annual church parade at Edmonton on Sunday the 24th of July, 1927, assembling at the Memorial Hall at 10 a.m.

Each man will "Fall in" in the platoon and company in which he formerly served in the old battalion Pool dealing with millions of bushels, in France Medals and decorations will be worn. The parade will be headed by the brass and pipe band of the battalion. The Regimental color will be paraded with an armed escort.

The Wheat Pool Is Vindicated By Experience

The fact that the Alberta Wheat Pool has increased its membership by some 14,000 farmers since it was formed, offers strong proof of the success of this farmers' marketing organization. The membership in 1923 was 25,000 (in round figures). Today it is approximately 39,000.

ACKNOWLEDGE THE POOL HAS HELPED

The stabilizing effect of the operations of the Canadian Wheat Pool in the Wheat Markets of the World is acknowledged by leading Old Country Importers, millers and bakers.

Practically all non-Pool farmers admit the Pool has helped and is helping them. There is no good reason why any farmer in Western Canada with grain to sell should not market it through the Pool. Every new Pool recruit adds to the influences of the organization. Businessmen, professional men and statesmen all testify to the beneficial effects of the operations of the Wheat Pool.

Outside the private dealers in grain, and kindred interests
The Wheat Pool has no enemies!

IS THE POOL NOT WORTHY OF YOUR SUPPORT?

No matter what anyone says to the contrary, the Wheat Pool has exerted an upward tendency on prices both in and out of Canada. The Pool has meant fairer dealing to the farmers and a more satisfied and contented countryside. It has meant "better living" for Alberta farmers.

Are these not worthy objects? Has not the achievement of the Wheat Pool been a notable one? Is it not worthy of your active and loyal support?

The Second Series Contracts are now ready.

Special trains will be made for the delegates to visit Niagara Falls, Winnipeg, Banff, Lake Louise, Vancouver and the Maritime provinces, as far east as Halifax, Nova Scotia. The special trains will leave Ottawa July 28, reaching Calgary, at a number of points in all by specials in the Rocky Mountains, at Vancouver and Victoria, and returning to Ottawa in the Maritime provinces.

Britain Must Guide Egypt

Empire's Highways Depend on Suez Canal Says Lord Lloyd

Lord Lloyd said in London, on June 17th, that Britain must be the guiding influence in Egypt for decades to come. He declared that Egypt's civil service, court system and police organization would be the responsibility of Britain for many years to come. Lord Lloyd, who is president of the Royal Society of Arts, made the statement in an address before the society on "Britain the Steel Guard in the Approach to our Australian Dominions and the Far East" applicant added, Ingersoll Prepay, "I think ways are also and hoping to our British We and we very mind Queen."

HINTS TO EXHIBITORS OF GARDEN CROPS

(Experimental Farms Note)

With the time of exhibitions and fairs fast approaching a few hints to intending exhibitors of garden crops will not be amiss. In the first place objects intended for the short must be well grown from the time of seeding or plant setting until the day of competition, for no end of manipulation, faking, or polishing will count on your specimens into good ones. Essential to this end are intelligent and well suitable varieties, well prepared soil; intelligent manipulation, watering, pruning and cultivating, protection from insects, diseases and unsuitable climatic conditions, proper harvesting; painstaking selection of the subjects to be shown and to field and effective display.

A moment of most novices at exhibition time is to have their crops at most bad at the right time. Proper care alone can solve this problem but by a careful study and selection of varieties this obstacle will readily be overcome. Remember also that the cause of maturity and lowering of many of the commonly grown and shown vegetables and flowers, respectively, may be hastened or retarded by making use of a heated or green house. The dates of most fairs are usually announced early enough to permit intending exhibitors to decide the growth if which crops will be hastened and which delayed.

In any given a variety of crops there should be little difficulty in taking a few prizes at the local or provincial fairs. Failure to become thoroughly acquainted with the rules of the exhibition has perhaps led to many a mistake in this field of endeavor. Judging for the various classes is now being conducted in accordance with the Report of the Committee on Horticultural Standards, Exhibitions, copies of which may be secured from The Canadian Horticultural Council, Ottawa, Canada, or through your local Horticultural Society.

By-laws and rules should be carefully understood and prepared for the show table. In many cases the best specimens handled the better, and the poorly kind should be avoided. Select those that will show to advantage on the show bench, one of the best attributes for an exhibit. Quality rather than size counts with most judges, especially concerning many vegetables.

When any great distance has to be travelled to the show, packing should be done carefully. Individual specimens of apples, tomatoes, potatoes, etc. should be wrapped in soft paper before packing, and for all of these individual cardboard containers should be provided. The need of placing heavy products such as cabbages on each side in the bottom of the crate will be apparent.

In collections of flowers, fruits and vegetables for which there is no other provision, a liberal amount of moss should be used. Where possible, they should be arranged neatly so that a man's portfolio can be seen and the right number exhibited. Let everything be clean and dry at the time of staging and give all exhibits a fashionable appearance by labelling each variety.

SUNSHINE TRAIL CONVENTION AT EDMONTON SOON

Reaching southward from Edmonton through Calgary, Lethbridge and the Montana border at Sweet Grass, extends the Canadian section of the Yellowstone Trail. Right now in its present stage the name has perhaps special significance to many Albertans but it will soon become one of the most famous highways in the west.

The Sunshine Trail continues to the south through Montana and eventually will develop into an international highway connecting with the Canadian to the Gulf motorway, a route paralleling for hundreds of miles the great mountains of the Rocky Mountain highway which is the busiest stream of tourist and settlement traffic into the American State.

Boosters of the Sunshine Trail who have now organized on the south have promised a development of a similar kind in Edmonton. Plans for the annual convention. At the conference it was reported that the Sunshine Trail from Edmonton to Pincher Creek. The convention was directed at [illegible] for 1928 but final decision [illegible] and the Calgary and Edmonton [illegible] year when an opportunity will be given to delegates to see the [illegible] country, to make representations for the extension.

LOWER ROSS CREEK

Wm. Rhebergen has completed a breaking contract for John Logan, and made a good job of it.

Sam Mickalyk has been pulling stumps on his farm with his stump-pulling power to loosen on a large scale. He has just about completed his new house also, and expects to occupy it at any time now.

The approaches to the bridge over the creek by Mr. Geo. Woodworth are graded up so that any vehicle from a baby carriage to a team loaded can cross in safety. New culverts and brush cutting will also help to make a better road of the "lane" for both summer and winter use.

Mr. Geo. Wood has been appointed agent for the Swan Feeds for Township 52, Range 18 and 19. The "welcome" sign is out for all wishing to sign up.

Someone died did their Bird bit at the Jubilee Celebration by way of a picnic on Thursday afternoon, June 30th. Showery weather prevented a large attendance. Public school held the picnic on the same day also.

Mrs. G. Erickson was a Camrose visitor on Monday.

A. H. Ford, the local U.F.O. elevator man is off duty for a two week's holiday. He will visit Edmonton.

Due to rainy weather on Thursday, the Sports Day was postponed until Friday, July 1. The day was begun with a parade of the school children and Kingman school, after which the boys of the Pretty Hill and Coal Hill districts engaged in a baseball game, the former winning by a score of 10-1. Lunch was then served by the ladies. The earlier part of the afternoon was spent in general sports, in which each school took its share of the prizes. Following this was another baseball game between Bluenut and Kingman, resulting in a win of 9-2 for Kingman. In a third game between defeated Pretty Hill, 12-3. The coconut shies and horse-shoe games greatly interested both old and young. In the evening the music and singing around a large bonfire entertained the crowd, while the kiddies had fun "ridy-reeks" and fire-crackers.

The committee in charge of the day were in which appreciation of Mr. Gordon's work as choir leader was expressed, and regret at the loss of both Mrs. Gordon and himself from the choir.

On behalf of the members of the choir, Mrs. J. P. Paul, presented Mr. Gordon with a handsome desk clock, and Mrs. Gordon with a pair of beautiful vases. A tempting lunch was then served, and the pleasant evening brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne.—Big Valley Journal, June 23rd.

UNITED CHURCH PEOPLE " HONOUR THEIR PASTOR

On Wednesday evening, June 22nd, the members of the United Church, Big Valley, gathered in the basement of the church to spend the evening with Rev. J. T. and Mrs. Gordon, previous to their departure for their new home at Tofield.

The basement was nicely decorated with wild roses and added a pleasing touch to the occasion.

After a pleasant social hour was spent, a short program was given. F. E. Murray acting as chairman. Enjoyable solos were sung by Mrs. H. McPadyen, Mrs. W. J. Wagner, Mrs. T. H. Gregory, Frank Dewar and A. Lamont. Several entertaining readings were given by Mrs. J. F. Paul, were very much appreciated by all.

At the conclusion of the program, Mr. Murray, in a few well chosen words expressed the regret felt over the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon from Big Valley. On behalf of the members of the church, John Armstrong read an address which expressed appreciation of the splendid work done by Mr. Gordon not only in the church but in the community as well, and as a token of the esteem in which they were held, F. E. Murray presented Mr. and Mrs. Gordon with a handsome silver tea service and a cut glass dish in a silver stand.

Mr. Gordon replied in a fitting manner for Mrs. Gordon and himself for the splendid gifts and also for the good wishes and feelings of friendship which accompanied them.

Refreshments were served by members of the Ladies' Aid and the evening brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.—Big Valley Journal, June 17th.

CHOIR APPRECIATE LEADER

The members of the choir of the United Church of Canada, Big Valley, met at the manse last Thursday evening as a surprise to their leader, Rev. J. T. Gordon and Mrs. Gordon. A social hour was spent in games, in which music, and later, in giving reluctant to Mrs. R. D. Stirling, Angus Lamont and Mr. Gordon.

An address was read by Frank Dewar, in which appreciation of Mr. Gordon's work as choir leader was expressed, and regret at the loss of

R. Macdougall, former Saskatoon aviator and now a leading stunt flier in Los Angeles, has written asking if the citizens of Saskatoon will provide a plane to be entered in the flight from the Pacific coast to Russell, which he will fly. He offers Saskatoon backers half the prize money and half any other money they can get for the contest. The proposition is for the loan of a machine and the flier is prepared to make a substantial contribution towards the $15,000 required. The offer would be named the "City of Saskatoon."

Here and There

Construction will be started shortly, it is announced, on the $,000,000 bushel elevator to be erected by the Alberta Wheat Pool at Vancouver, and it is expected that the big plant will be ready to handle grain from the 1927 crop.

Twenty-three members of the Olds Wesleyan Glee Club sailed recently on the Canadian Pacific steamship Montrose for England, where they will visit a short while before beginning a singing tour of the countries of central Europe to last about a month.

The Holy Land is to be officially represented at the World's Poultry Congress, it is announced. Dr. David Uri of the poultry experiment station in Palestine, will represent that country at the great international event to be held in Ottawa from July 27th to August 6th.

A new direct steamship service between Saint John and Havana, Cuba, will likely be inaugurated from the first of September, when the potato shipments start, if the New Brunswick Government and the shippers of the province back the project, said F. L. Hetherington, of Sackville, just returned from a trip of enquiries in Cuba.

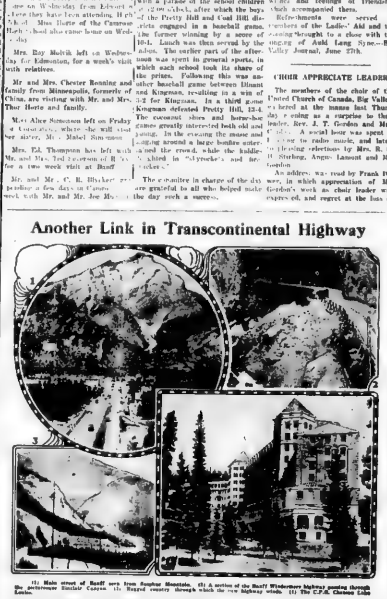
Another Link in Transcontinental Highway



(1) Main street of Banff seen from Sanitor Mountain. (2) A section of the Banff-Windermere highway passing through the picturesque Sinclair Canyon. (3) Heavy country through which the new highway winds. (4) The C.P.R. Chateau Lake Louise.

The opening of the Field-Golden Highway this summer will mark another great step in the completion of the all-Canadian highway from coast to coast. The continuation of the motor road, which last year was extended from Lake Louise to Field, has been carried on by the Canadian National Parks Department, and the present season will see further inroads made into the mountains to the western boundary of the National Park, across which it joins the new seventeen mile extension from Field to Golden.

The new road winds through one of the most picturesque sections of the Park, filled with associations of Pallisar, of Hector, of numerous explorers, builders and pioneers. Dark canyons, silvery falls, green-white rivers beckon.

Winding out of Field, the C.P.R. station for Emerald Lake, where the traveller turns his watch back an hour, and over the Kicking Horse river, the road follows the Emerald Lake trail for some miles while a wonderful view of the valley unrolls. It passes deserted cabins, Indian graves such as old German immigrants built for their dead, and then begins the Field climb. Clear leaving Otterfall on the Canadian Pacific line, the highway swings around the foot of Mount Vaux and finally reaches Wapta Lake. Here a branching road of a mile or so leads to the Kicking Horse Falls, a fishermen's paradise in a setting of beautiful jagged peaks. The road winds on through the deep Cañon pass of the Kicking Horse to Golden on the banks of the Columbia river.

The construction of the Field-Golden Highway presented some very difficult engineering problems on account of the steepness of the slopes of the side hills. A good deal of excavation had to be done in solid rock. The probable cost of the new highway on account of the difficult topography encountered is estimated at $24,000 per mile.

Three will be the number of days required by the circle tour from Banff and Lake Louise, covering the 180 miles by the most picturesque route. From Banff-Windermere road, the second, the section between Radium Hot Springs in Emerald Lake by way of Golden and Leanchoil, and returning the third day to Banff and Lake Louise.

It should only be a short time now before the whole of Canada's mountain wonderland will be open to the motorist. From Golden to Revelstoke only the last uncompleted link of the first great transcontinental motor road. The distance is all in ninety miles, but short perfect roads have already been built from town to town on the route. There is an old railway grade available for a distance of about ten miles. It is estimated that there is only fifty-seven miles of road remaining to complete direct connection [illegible]

The More Money We Pay—The Better We Like It

We would much rather pay you top price than any of the lower grade prices—and you, we know, desire to obtain the most from your cows. If all the money lost to dairymen through off grades were totalled the amount would surprise many—yet this amount, though large, could be almost eliminated. Wednesday, July 6th, 1927

OUR DAY

IN THE broadest possible sense Friday, July 1st, could be appropriately termed "our day." The term could as well be used with a national, local or individual interpretation. The Mercury's reference to the day at this time is purely of a local and district nature.

It would be perhaps fitting to comment on our good fortune as regards weather. With rain several days before and several days after, we were the fortunate indeed to have the one fine day sandwiched between rainy spells fall on July 1st. The days arrangements went off splendidly and we have yet to hear of a complaint worthy of the name. The parade, sports, school singing, speaking, fireworks and bonfire all went off splendidly and much credit is due the committees in charge of the events. The programs from Ottawa were well received over the radio, two loud speakers being installed by Mr. Pincott on the roof of the building opposite the grandstand.

Mr. Dyde of Edmonton, gave and excellent address—one that brought out many favorable comments from his hearers.

On the whole the day was well celebrated in a manner befitting the occasion.

"BACK YARD GOLF"

AN INTERESTING feature of Friday's celebration was the horseshoe tournament, which was we believe the first of its kind to be held in Tofield. There were quite a number of players surrounded by many spectators and it proved to be very popular. The game of "horseshoe" is no doubt an adaptation of quoits which has been played since the 15th century. In quoits the article thrown is a flat metal disc with a hole in the centre. As regards general rules of play the game of quoits follows the lines of bowling or curling and makes a splendid sport without unnecessary and violent exertion. In these days of automobile transport, tennis, golf, baseball and kindred summer diversions, to advocate quoits, may seem to be over doing the sporting spirit, but the pleasure derived from the horseshoe tournament on Friday would indicate that quoits would be a popular summer game here.

TUG-O-WAR

THE TUG'O-WAR between the town and rural councils also proved itself a popular number. These contests have seemingly, during the last twenty five years gone out of date. The contest on Friday brought to mind tug-'o-war contests seen in the writers boyhood days. At that time many large breweries in England employing any number up to 500 men, would have tug-'o-war teams. Challenges would go back and forth across country these being later pulled out at some sports gathering. The members of these teams were huge brawny men and when they lined up on each side of the line looked like giants. The pull would be accompanied by the frantic timing by the coaches and when the winner was announced, the small boy would take up the cry——'s beer is the strongest, they won the tug-'o-war.

Is It Coming Our Way?

Twice a year the Mercury endeavors to check up on subscriptions, those somewhat will-o-wisp dollar fifties, of which there are so many floating around and a number of which rarely lands home. Shortly we will be sending out the summer S.O.S. call for subscriptions by mailing notices showing date subscription expired and amount owing. Now, if these notices are just laid away for further attention, as appeals for finances they are the "bunk," as a good notice should command immediate attention. But if they make you dig down and say "by golly that editor must be paid," they are the pure thing as notices go. But then again there are some people who will say, any kind of a notice is the "bunk," I'm going to beat the editor to it and pay up before he has an opportunity to send me one. Is it coming our way?

Carver & Hannan

A WISE FARMER

Always tests his seed grain before sowing. Just because grain looks nice and plump is no reason to believe it is just as good as seed which has stood the test and will give quick and reliable returns. The poorest of seed may be purchased cheaper and look better before tested than good seed, but you do not get results. The same applies to Tractors.

The Wallis Tractor has stood for years and proven its lasting qualities. At Regina it tested 35.6 on brake and 26.2 on the drawbar. These tests were on a 15-27 Tractor. Price $1,425.00, and you can write your own guarantee.

TOFIELD ANNUAL SPORTS TO BE HELD JULY 25th

Baseball, Horse and Foot Races, General Sports—Parade

Monday, July 25th, is destined to be another gala day for the town and district, it having been definitely decided to make this Tofield's Annual Sports Day.

The day will be replete with action, something doing every minute kind of a day. The parade will commence from the C.N.R. depot at 10:30 a.m. and a special effort is being made by the committee to make this a real worthwhile parade. Baseball at 11:30 and sports of different kinds from then on throughout the entire day. These will include baseball, basket ball, horse races, foot races, etc., etc. There will be midway of a decent nature and refreshments will be obtainable on the grounds.

In the evening a picture show will be held in the Variety Theatre which will be followed by a dance.

The committee held a meeting on Monday night and several others were elected Mr. Craig as secretary. Mr. Agnew who was elected at the organization meeting being unable to act. Mr. Craig has had experience along these lines and should make an admirable secretary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Eva C. Adler of Portland, Oregon, U.S.A., is a guest of Mrs. Finerit.

Mrs. J.W. Robinson and daughters Isabel and Edith visited the city last Thursday.

A birthday party was held at the J. W. Robinson home last Friday, in honor of Isabel's 9th birthday. Those present included Margaret Whyte, Faye and Cleo Wilson, Helen and Elizabeth Hardy and Doreen Allen. All had an enjoyable time.

Visitors to the city Tuesday included Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Cap Lee, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Brace, Mrs. E. Rogers and Mrs. A. Innis.

U.F.W.A. NOTES

The meeting of July 9th, was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Bell. The attendance was small owing to the bad roads and unsettled weather conditions.

The delegates were appointed to the Vegreville Federal Constituency Association Convention, which is to be held in Vegreville on July 25th. They were Mrs. Rapkit, Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Gray with Mrs. Beamish and Mrs. Walker as alternates.

Mrs. Bell read a very interesting paper on "Bridal Showers." A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded her. After the meeting a dainty lunch was served by Mesdames Ferguson, Walker, Gray, Beamish, Seath and Booth.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Phillips on July 23rd, at 2:00 p.m. The roll call will be answered by current event. Mrs. Seale will give a paper on "Co-operation between the U.F.W.A. and the School Fair," and Mrs. Phillips a paper on "Co-operation between the Home and School."

Mesdames Abernethy, Ball, Hawley, Sharpe and McNeil will serve tea after the meeting.

GOLF NOTES

On Sunday the Tofield Golf Club entertained eight members of the Ryley Golf Club to a friendly match. The final result being very much in Ryley's favor, they having won five out of eight games and tieing another.

A heavy shower held up the game for a short time and during that period everyone repaired to The Institute Rooms where the Tofield ladies served a dainty lunch.

The day brought out the largest number of enthusiasts ever seen on the Tofield Links, resulting in quite a craps run at the first tee. Player having to wait their turn when driving off.

It is proposed that next Sunday morning and then Sunday will drive back home O.K. and all those teeing off afterwards hold a picnic on the course. Members and others are invited to accompany the players and it is hoped with good weather that a large number will be on hand.

THEATRE NOTES

"SILENT RIDER" STARRING HOOT GIBSON COMING

A courageous but inexperienced young wife, who would rather walk than ride—tough but kindly cowboys who object to the humiliation of a brutal husband—the plot of Hoot Gibson picture "The Silent Rider" a Universal-Jewel production coming to the Variety Theatre on Saturday.

The story is an adaptation of "The Red Headed Husband" a magazine story by Katherine Newlin Hoyt and deals with the issue of circumstances involving Gibson and his partner in a murder and payroll robbery and their subsequent vindication. The love theme is particularly appealing in that it shows that love of a mother for her child knows no bounds.

"HILLS OF KENTUCKY" IS FINE DRAMA

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Those having money through this office have given us plainly to understand that they will expect this fall to collect their notes in full all past due obligations, and while there may be isolated cases shown in certain areas where certain adverse conditions have been experienced, they will not look favorably upon any request for extension of the cause of inability to pay in FULL, against which protection can be given through insurance.

By this we do not wish it understood that this office is asking for your hail insurance, if you have not already insured, for, while we are ready to serve you, we respect your privilege of insuring wherever you wish, so long as the Company selected is on a sound financial basis. DO IT NOW.

RAYMOND W. PINCOTT.

To day, (Wednesday) a big purse race for cowboys will be staged and fans are that there will be a large number present, quite a number of horses people having expressed their intention of attending.

TOFIELD'S NEW SKATING RINK COMMENCED

On Friday last the first work was done toward the new skating rink for Tofield. The rink will be up-to-date, a full description of which will appear in our next issue.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHORS

LINDBROOK

The sympathies of the district are extended to Mr. John Pradow of this district and other members of the Pradow family on the death of their mother, who passed away at Calgary. Interment was held at Tofield Cemetery last week.

Cattle shipments are starting from here now. Mr. W. C. Lancaster shipping last week and Mr. F. Kortzman is shipping some this week.

Several wood shipments have also come from here lately.

Mr. Norman Ellis has got his car back home O.K. and all those teeing off Elk Island Park where it was abandoned because of engine trouble had stormy weather.

Mr. R. Pashine of Edmonton, visited his brothers, Mr. W. Pashine of Lindbrook & Mr. Pashine returned to Edmonton with him this week.

In spite the storm all around no hail damage or damage by lightning either has been reported from this district as yet.

Quite a treble block was caused on the Tofield road about 1½ miles south of Lindbrook last Sunday by cars skidding off the road on account of the storm in the afternoon. It seems that the crown on these roads here are too pronounced to be safe during wet slippery weather.

KINGMAN

Mr. H. B. Harding left last week for an indefinite stay in Edmonton before going to his home in Olds.

The Misses Cora, Alma, and Gladys Simonson of Wisconsin, have been visiting a week with relatives in Kingman.

LAKESHORE

A very enjoyable barn dance was held at the Point Farm on Friday evening, and a good crowd participated in spite of the severe storm. The Tofield Orchestra supplied the music.

Quite a number of people from Lakeshore attended the picnic at Kelchemont last Friday. They "say" reported a splendid time.

During the severe storm on Friday night, the house of T. W. Ferguson was struck with lightning. Although the family were all in the house at the time, luckily no one was hurt. Considerable damage was done the house.

Mrs. Myrtle Seale, who has not been in good health for some time, went to Edmonton to the University Hospital on Monday of last week.

Mrs. T. E. Seale is caring for Marvin in her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Phillips spent Sunday visiting friends at Lindbrook. They were accompanied home by Donald.

The Logan Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England and the Lakeshore Ladies' Aid Society are planning a joint picnic for August 3rd. The W.A. is putting on a dance in the evening. Mrs. Trout has charge of the music for the evening.

Wm. Seale went to Edmonton on Sunday morning's train to fetch his car which he was compelled to leave in the city a week ago [illegible] on account of the muddy roads. He returned in the evening and reports the road in very bad condition in places.

Neil Phillips [illegible] with his father.

Mrs. C. W. [illegible] with home folks.

MENNON[illegible]

Last week the [illegible] Saskatchewan Men[illegible] day School and [illegible] was held at the [illegible] Church near Tofield, also. The conference opened on Friday at 2 p.m. with a song service, conducted by Bro. [illegible] sermonal and address of welcome given by E. E. Reh. All day Thursday was devoted to the Sunday School, various topics being taken up and discussed. In the evening there was a song service, workers meeting and sermon.

Wednesday was taken up with the Mid-Summer Conference commencing with a devotional and business meeting of the district mission board in the morning, a discussion of various topics in the afternoon and a song service, stand table discussion and sermon in the evening.

Thursday was taken up with a church conference and included both devotional and business meetings.

The conference was a success in every way. There were a large number of visitors from a distance and much good was done by the event. The weather and roads were not of the very best, but were not so bad as to prevent a most helpful conference being held.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JULY 27

SAMUEL ANOINTS DAVID

Golden Text "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity." 1 Timothy 4:12

Lesson: 1 Samuel 16:1-13

Devotional Reading: Proverbs 3:1-6

Explanations and Comments

I. Samuel's Mission to Bethlehem, verses 1-3. Saul had failed to obey a command of God, and had been rejected of him. Sadly Jehovah contemplated the situation. Saul should be mourned, but God's purpose could not be stayed. Jehovah said that such was God's will He sent on to Bethlehem with a flock thereto filled with oil to anoint one of the sons of Jesse as the Lord's chosen king. Let he hesitated to go lest Saul would kill him if the fact became known. Then a way out of the difficulty came to his mind, as a matter of prudence he would give as the object of his visit the holding of a sacrifice, and would keep silent about the more important reason for his coming. He would give one reason for his visit, which was a true one, and would say nothing about another reason, which we would be obligated to disclose.

It was not concealment the object of which was to mislead any one, or to injure any one to do what he would not have done had the whole truth been known to him. When the occasion is permitted in order to the doing of good to others, we are not at liberty to withhold a part of the truth. It is detestable. But no general rule requires the publication to the world, when some important end is to be served, to make a different thing.—W. G. Blaikie.

Helen had the quality Miss Abbie lacked, she was not afraid of any thing. Miss Abbie could not be happy in her carriage, in her parlor and for that reason she was scarcely to be. All her timid life Miss Abbie had yearned to be fearless and unreserved about public opinion. That was the biggest thing in life—not to be afraid of Anyone. Miss Abbie had been at pains very wickedly once. It made her shudder at the time, but it freshened her now. She shut her eyes and drew the whole world in the face and felt it in an "—" Miss Abbie could not think the word. She struck the hour with the lines fastened. He, believing her to be merely having got off a switched his tail appreciatively.

Miss Abbie waited under the elm yes, she would. If the girl was eager for adoption she would be adopted by Miss Abbie Moore, dignitary.

Helen directed her to the Yale Hotel, and Miss Abbie drove off. She felt the elegance of the elm-shaded square. It was the best part of the town, and the hotel was the best in the block. She noticed the quality of the Bow with a long complicated canopy on the box. I—no! I—and she—to know more about her if I may. The interests me; I am a settler among girls. She spoke as Caesar, if not.

Margie Kenny politely handed Miss Abbie the one turned child, and piloted down the sun-warmed floor to supper.

It is little I know about music, only that my heart is glad when I hear her to use to look after and do's a baby. I'm not a musician, but I'm glad. I have two ears, two hands, and sweet and willin'. Else', a spare girl in the middle way her respect.

"The last child I might have to to settle and live with me—I'm young and have a think about." Miss Abbie blushed because of the sense to be the last child. "I'm not to be a mother's helper, for her to all the lives I need someone to love."

If this sounds not the perfection of selfishness, it is.

Helen had indeed been with God not for her own sake. Her mother, Mrs. Kenny, had been a widow with a large family, and Helen, the eldest, had been her mother's helper from the time she was a little girl. Mrs. Kenny

Pool Buys More Elevators

Twenty country elevators have just been bought by the Alberta Wheat Pool from the United Grain Company, Limited, according to an announcement from the offices of the pool during the past week. These elevators are located at East Carbon, Hilliard, Bassano, Hughenden, Irricana, Byemoor, Hartrell, Bashaw, Liberty, Sibbald, Eyrel, Meeting Creek, Mecheche, Lomond, Iddesleigh, Namaka, Wimborne, Ewing, Orkney, Youngstown, Cereal and Endiang.

Alberta Wheat Pool now owns a total of 135 elevators in the province, it is asserted that this number will be increased to 150 before the 1927 crop begins to move to market.

Stray Horses To Be Sold

Two other of estray horses have been taken up in the Brooks district recently, states Livestock Commissioner S. G. Carlyle, and arrangements are being made for the disposal of them, not claimed by their owners. The animals owned by the round-up is described as follows: on the north the C.P.R. main line from Brooks to Medicine Hat, south to Terrace, Boundary Municipal District 122, westerly the Bow River, west boundary a line straight south from Gleichen to the Bow River.

The horses collected in the round-up are being held at J. J. Bowlen's Ranch on the N.E. Quarter of 23-14-18 W4, six miles south of Alderson, and if such animals are not claimed before July 15th, will be offered for sale on that date at Alderson. Application may be made to Mr. Bowlen before the date of the sale for the release of any horses whose owners help is established and when such fee as may be fixed, not exceeding $4.00 per head, has been paid to Mr. Bowlen.

Make Survey Of Farm Lands in North

A complete survey to ascertain the amount of suitable farming land lying within easy access of the E.D. & B.C. and A. & G.W. railway lines will be undertaken by the provincial government during the present summer and fall in order to secure such information as to the potential wealth of the part of the province served by the government-owned railways will be in charge of Alfred Child, freight rate and traffic supervisor for the province, who will assemble and compile all available data. Field men will later be sent out to survey the ground not already covered in the preliminary inspection. Much information as to the amount of agricultural land available in the crown land areas and lumber limits will be secured from the records of the Dominion forestry branch.

The Message Of The Bells

Canada, which in its sixty years as a confederated Dominion has established a new nation and world record of wealth, commercial power and liberty, is the credit on the anniversary of its Diamond Jubilee, when, through the agency of radio broadcasting, millions ever assembled, than is possible at the national capital were listening into the air and carried to the attention of ports of the Dominion, and Bermuda to by hundreds of thousands of people over the United Kingdom and British Colonies.

For architecture, it was not only appropriate but well worth while. Direct from the Dominion's Parliament, over a network of telegraph and telephone wires, to a total of twenty-three broadcasting stations, the tones of the Peace Tower bell, the ringing bells of national leaders were carried into homes and public gathering places, each of the bells of the month, all carillons installed in the Ottawa Tower at intervals.

For the moment the farthest east and the farthest west, and all the intervening stations, from St. Hubert and Sackville, to Prince Rupert and Vancouver, established listeners rendered of no account. The bells' strokes were heard and felt throughout the land. It was a union in spirit and sentiment, as well as in fact, understood of by the Fathers of Confederation.

EARLE NELSON WINS DELAY FOR TRIAL

Judge Grants Postponement of Hearing for Alleged 'Strangler'

WINNIPEG, July 11—Postponement of the trial of Earle Nelson, alleged strangler, until the next session of the Manitoba assize court in November, was granted by Mr. Justice Macdonald here yesterday. Nelson was to have been tried on July 26 for the murder of Miss Lola Gowan, 11 year-old Winnipeg school girl, and Mrs. Emily Patterson, a mother of two children.

Counsel for the defense requested delay of the trial on two counts. The first was that public opinion was at present such an inflamed state that the prisoner could not be assured of an impartial trial, and the second that the defense could not prepare its case in time for the original date set.

AUCTION SALES

Three auction sales are billed for one near future. The first to be held on Saturday, July 16th, is a furniture sale to be held near the Town Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart are selling their household goods and moving to the coast.

The third is on Thursday, July 28 h and is a farm sale of an exceptionally well equipped farm. Mr. Asa Hall has farm and implements for sale.

The next is on Tuesday, July 26th, when Mr. John L. Stauffer who is retiring from active farming will offer his farm equipment.

J. D. Hannan will cry all three sales.

WORK ON NEW CURLING RINK GOES FORWARD

Planned To Be One Of Best Curling Rinks in West

Work is now underway on the new curling rink for the Tofield Curling Club, and it is expected the rink will be completed in about a month. The rink, which is centrally located, is being situated immediately East of M. C. Hammond's, will be 65 ft. wide by 175 ft. long. In addition to room for four sheets of ice, a waiting room 22 ft. by 65 ft. will be included. This is to itself as a hall of good size and will be used for community gatherings of all kinds. After the building is erected it is expected that a series of Saturday night dances will be held there, a permit having already been purchased for the purpose. In addition to the waiting room there will be a fully equipped kitchen for the ladies to prepare lunches, etc. At the East end a section 40, by 10 ft. by 21 ft. will be constructed and with the water piped off the roof to this there will be ample water for flooding purposes. There will also be a curlers' dressing room so that if desirable the curlers can sleep on the premises. The entire rink will be well lighted and with the exception of the ruin proper will be heated.

The building will cost about $3,000. Albert Roberge have the contract for the completion of plan and the commencing of work on a rink for Tofield comes after much hard work on the part of the curling clubs, both ladies and gentlemen. It is impossible to mention all of these ladies by their efforts have made this possible, but there are a few who have undoubtedly laboure have made it possible. It is well known that Mr. Tofield Chapman has been untiring in his efforts to get the rink erected and he has been well supported by A. R. Clutterham and M. C. Hammond, and many other. Among the ladies could be mentioned Mrs. C. Lee Mr. Hannan, and other. Both which are to be congratulated that their efforts are taking a definite shape.

The big purse aide must not be forgotten either, while on the grounds there will be a local midway. Put on your motor picture and head for Tofield on the 25th.

DARING STUNTS FURNISH THRILLS IN BUFFALO JONES' MOVIE

Buck Jones gives theatre patrons another sensational thriller in "Good as Gold" his latest starring drama for Fox Film, opening to the Variety Theatre on Saturday. In the closing scenes Buck and his horse are thrown captive in a mine shaft while others of the gang are cutting gold bars from the mine walls.

Buck rescues the two by remarkable action, but the gang men pull the heavily guarded iron door of the shaft. Buck on a steed of his bonded with one to a safe back door has a sharp grade down to the mine. He cuts loose the car and lets them crash through the door. When the frantic battering from the rear of Buck battering from the rear of awakes the leader of the gang just as he tries the gold into an open ladder on a cable suspended into the mine.

A frantic fight starts and Buck leader against the leader battering the ladders. Both keep after the bucket and finally to the bucket makes over the cause and a pulling of both others the gang tier fast to the cable. However, the sheriff arrives just in time to get Buck and the gold

Soil Scientists Visit Alberta

Delegates to the number of 200 representing some 30 countries are they say from the First International Congress of Soil Science at Washington, D.C., spent two days in Alberta on the conclusion of a tour through the United States and Western Canada. Tuesday was spent at Jasper National Park and on Wednesday they were entertained at Edmonton by the Board of Trade, the University of Alberta and the Provincial Government. The visitors were greatly impressed by the fertility of Alberta soil as indicated by the splendid crops seen during the day in the surrounding country.

Plan Monument to Father Lacombe

Plans are being made for the erection of a monument to the memory of the late Father Lacombe, who was honored at the centenary celebration in honor of this famous priest, patriot and pioneer at St. Albert on July 10th. Several thousand residents of Edmonton and the St. Albert district were present and witnessed the un-veiling by Hon. Premier Baker of the marble tablet to mark the site of the first bridge built across the Sturgeon River by Father Lacombe in 1862. A number of very prominent addresses were given, tributes to the work of the great pioneer in the building up of the West.

Buffalo Doing Well In North

The buffalo which have been transferred from the park at Wainwright to the preserve in the vicinity of Fort Vermilion succeed well in their new home as there are few hunters on the range and feed was plentiful. According to Ranger Milne no fatalities have come out to encourage any further shipment of buffalo northwards.

About one buffalo still remain to be shot and out of the 2,000 that have been sent to the north from Wainwright the reason. Little difficulty is being experienced in the movement and the animals soon settle down on their new range.

Good Prospects For Sheep Industry

Prospects for the sheep industry are most hopeful this year with good prices in sight for both lambs and wool, stated W. H. Z. Tisdale, assistant manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers Association, who has just completed a tour of the wool growing districts of the West. Comparatively heavy losses in the lamb crop in some of the range areas, it is expected will be reflected in higher prices on the lamb market and the present quality of the wool and this season's clip is to be slightly better than the average.

Wise Tokyo-ite In Upstream

A net gain of 1,[illegible] telephones in operation for the month of June is reported by the Alberta Government Telephone System. A total of 42 new rural phones were installed, while a decrease of 26 exchange phones is shown for the month. Considerable repair work has been necessary following the damage done to rural lines by storms and wind in a number of districts during the present month.

Alberta Poultry For Big Congress

Following their selection by the Canadian Council of Agriculture, of which body which will represent Alberta Becks at the World's Poultry Congress in Ottawa, July 27th to August 6th, was held at Edmonton and Calgary on Friday and Saturday of last week last in charge of P. J. Stratton. A comprehensive exhibit of agricultural products from the province as well as animals to Ottawa where it will advertise Alberta to the visitors from many countries who will be in attendance at the Congress.

Field Crop Competitions Popular

Great interest is being shown in the Alberta Field Crops Competition, the annual event sponsored by the Provincial Department of Agriculture in co-operation with various Boards of Trade throughout the province. The following towns have already secured the competitions: Bay Valley, Calmon, Sangudo, Stettler, Leduc, Athabasca, Hanna, Lethbridge, Olds, Taber Glenwoodville, Innisfail, Bay-mond, Magrath, Sedgewick, and Strathmore.

The Edmonton Board of Trade will award a silver cup to the winner in the Edmonton district and it is expected that other boards of trade will do the same in their localities. Those who carry off the prizes in the competition will be asked to exhibit at the provincial seed fair.

19th BATTALION! ATTENSHUN!

Edmonton, July 18th, 1927.

The Battalion will parade to All Saints Cathedral, Edmonton, on Sunday, the 24th, of July, 1927. You are cordially invited to attend. This invitation is directed to all those who at any time served in the old Battalion.

2. The following are the particulars:

1. The Battalion will assemble promptly at 10 a.m. on Sunday, the 24 h of July, on the Memorial Hall, Edmonton, and will fall in on command numbers.

2 The Battalion will be organized as nearly as may be with the officers, N.C.O.'s and men in the same company and discharging the same duties as when the Battalion left Edmonton in 1915.

3. DRESS: Civilian clothes will be worn by all ranks. Jackets will be buttoned up. Medals and decorations will be worn on the jacket. Medals are worn on the left breast in line with the left arm pit. Ribbons should be two inches in length. The wearing of medals of the last war, as follows, from right to left: The 1914 star; the general service medal and the victory medal last and not the left armpit. Medal was before the last war are worn on the right of medals of the last war. Foreign decorations are worn on the left of the line next the left arm.

4. The 60th Lines and pipe bands will lead the parade. The Battalion colours with an armed escort from the Militia Building will precede the Battalion.

5. It is hoped that the parade will become an annual affair and that all Forty-niners will co-operate to make our first church parade a success. This success will be measured by the numbers taking part. The Edmonton Industrial Fair takes place on the 20th to 23rd of July, both days inclusive. The committee trust that many Forty-niners living out of Edmonton will attend the Battalion, and, with this parade in view, could make arrangements to be present on three days of the Fair and remain over in Edmonton on Sunday for the parade following the last day of the Fair.

6. You can contribute to the success of this parade in two ways:

First, by falling in yourself with your old comrades on this occasion, and Second, by notifying every Forty-niner you can get in touch with and urging him to attend.

7. Six thousand men have passed through the Battalion from first to last. A large proportion of these men live in Northern Alberta. We are anxious to make the parade a success and a demonstration strength for the honour of the old Battalion.

W. A. Griesbach President.
Earle Hay, Hon. Secretary.

FIFTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

July 15th, 1927.

Crops throughout the province as a continued to make rapid growth during the past two weeks and conditions generally are regarded as very satisfactory, according to reports reaching the Department of Agriculture. Precipitation in most districts has been sufficient to relieve all to better condition in this regard and that it has been at this season for a number of years, and only in very few low-lying fields has the abundance of moisture done any damage to the growing crop.

Early wheat is heading rapidly in many sections of the province. It is estimated that fully twenty-five per cent. of wheat in the head and boot are being in many fields of oats and barley. Correspondingly heavy yields of all grains are reported throughout the province, crops being clothed in the best of conditions.

Damage from hail over the province so far has not been heavy. Local storms in a number of districts have left their mark, but losses from this cause have not been of a widespread nature. Insect damage appears to be very slight this season. In some northern districts wireworms have injured the crop to a slight extent, but not sufficiently to cause a serious reduction in the yield over the entire province.

In the southern and south-eastern sections of the province the crop continues to give excellent promise. Intermittent showers are carrying the cereal crops and beets along well, and so far little irrigation has been necessary. A splendid crop of alfalfa is reported from the first cutting, thirty to forty per cent. is being already in the stack. A good yield of fall rye is being cut and all hay crops are reported to be heavier than usual. Brassets are very encouraging from the Grande Prairie and Peace River

WESLAKE S. D. JUNIOR CELEBRATION OF THE DIAMOND JUBILEE

There were a good number present. The first item was the erection of a flag pole (kindly supplied by J. Lepine) and flying the flag above the school for the first time since its inauguration. The teacher, Miss M. McDonald and her pupils then gave a pageant. The chief items being a march by the pupils up to and saluting the flag; singing of O Canada by the pupils and audience; a reading by Ida Anderson, "The Day We Celebrate," this was very well read and greatly appreciated, and received much applause. The pageant was then given as follows:

Miss Canada, Hazel Weslake; Nova Scotia, George Weslake; New Brunswick, May Lepine; Quebec, Carl Anderson; Ontario, Jeanette Herbert; Manitoba, Roland Herbert; British Columbia, Roy Herbert; Prince Edward Island, Louie Lepine; Saskatchewan, Isabel Herbert; Alberta, Ida Anderson; North West Territories, Martha Gosbault and Edward Lepine. This was carried through with splendid success and thoroughly enjoyed by the audience and received lots great applause.

A few recitations were then given by the various pupils, all relative to our Canadian history and progress, concluding with singing by all those present of "God Save The King."

Hearty congratulations were then given to the teacher and pupils for the splendid way in which this part of the program went through. The second portion of the program consisted of a luncheon given in picnic style by the ladies. Mrs. Lepine, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Emile Gosbault and Mrs. M. M. MacDonald. All this was thoroughly enjoyed and put everyone in first class humor. It is hoped and that one who batches in this district came fully prepared out of the race or not I cannot say, but this portion of the program, in fact all entire received a great and hearty vote of thanks.

The whole was surrounded by beautiful and well selected flowers, which had been kindly supplied by the ladies' committee. He had heard record it.

Presentation of prizes then took place. Mr. Paskins presenting them and also the Jubilee Medals were presented to the pupils.

What was left of the repast was then consumed and so ended a very enjoyable day for all present and we hope a most memorable one.

ITEMS OF NEWS

We are pleased to see among us again after their illness, Mrs. Corbin and Mr. Paskins, who are convalescent.

Keep Up The Good Work

With the warm July days here, special care needs to be taken to keep up the grades. Any of the usual methods of keeping cream sweet in warm weather can be resorted to, but frequent marketing during warm weather is wise. The better the quality of cream—the better the grade of butter, and in this respect we are all in the same boat. Alberta butter is now sold on the world's markets and must compete with the best the world can produce. The simple explanation is the better the quality the greater the demand and the greater the demand the better the price.

PETTY THIEVING

ONE OF the worst epidemics apart from sickness, a district can be afflicted with is one of petty thieving. To have things stolen, even though they be only of moderate value is annoying. Quite often the articles stolen are of considerable value and means much loss to the person from which the article is stolen. Judging from newspapers published in other centres, we assume that Tofield is no worse than other places, but we are confronted with the fact that every so often reports of petty thieving occurring in or near Tofield come into this office.

It is only a week or so ago that a store warehouse in town was broken into and from the same source we learn that it is a more or less common thing for merchants to have small articles stolen from display counters. The recent report of the stealing of a sum of money and some other articles from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton is evidence enough that sooner or later, one of the perpetrators of petty stealing will be caught. When they are caught, it is likely to go hard with them, as one concerned petty thief in a community is a public nuisance.

If by any chance these lines should be read by an individual addicted to petty stealing (which is unlikely) we ask the question whether it is worth the risk. Frequently articles stolen are of no practical use to those stealing them. As an example, we recently heard that a merchant had lost some small tools that were of no use to anyone but those who owned their counterpart, and very few of these were to be found in the district. The probability is that the party who stole them will get no use or benefit from them. Apart from the question of right or wrong, which in the matter of stealing, stands pre-eminent, is it worth the risk? It certainly is not!

ANNUAL SPORTS DAY

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of an annual sports day to be held on Monday, July 25th, may create some surprise in view of the fact that on July 1st, we celebrated Confederation. It may be mentioned, however, that July 1st was a patriotic celebration and was observed in practically very centre of importance. Consequently it was impossible to get outside baseball talent to play that day. Moreover the July 1st celebration was free and funds were limited. On July 25th, a good line of athletic events will be held with baseball as the star attraction. Generous prizes are being offered and there will no doubt be a galaxy of baseball stars from all over northern Alberta here.

A day of this kind was impossible on July 1st, and the committee in charge of the coming celebration are planning to make it a real day of sport, and cordially invite everyone in the district to come and enjoy it.

THE IMMIGRATION POLICY

THE MERCURY received a visit last week from a native Canadian, who had served over seas and had travelled considerably throughout this country. He complained bitterly regarding the immigration policy of the government, which he claimed had the effect of forcing good Canadians to the United States, they in turn being substituted by cheap newly arrived labor here. That there is some truth in his statement none will deny, yet to put the ban on immigration would be a fatal mistake. To the "working man" untrained in any specl l line, this country will always be a hard problem. Climatic conditions necessary mean considerable loss of time in the winter. This however, is more than made up by the opportunities that this country affords working men of improving their condition. The records of the country are full of incidents where men have come from other lands practically without funds and in a few years have become firmly settled and well-to-do. We recognize, however, that at the best, conditions for the working man here are not easy. The climatic conditions of the country and the mental outlook of its people are such as to provide little encouragement to those who do not make a real effort on their own behalf. As long as immigration is desirable and thousands of new workers are brought into the country every year, there is bound to be something in the nature of an upheaval in the labor market, but the final outcome should prove beneficial to those whom it effects the most.

Of course, while we believe in immigration, we are not and never have been in favor of huge numbers of newcomers arriving on our shores at one time. Immigration, like fire and water can be a good servant but a bad master.

WHEAT POOL NEWS BULLETIN

Steady progress is being made in the campaign for the signing of the Second Series of Wheat Pool contracts. Weather conditions have hindered the work of the canvassers to a considerable extent, no orthern the contrac are coming into head offices in a satisfactory manner. An encouraging feature is the number of new members who are joining the Wheat Pool. It is anticipated that over 500 new members will be signed up during July. Another feature of the drive in the larger acreages being signed up.

* * * * *

It is expected that the foundation for the Alberta Wheat Pool terminal elevator at Vancouver will be started next month. C. B. Rowe, of wide reputation as an engineer, has been engaged to supervise the construction of the terminal. The elevator will be completed in time to handle the 1928 crop.

Is It Coming Our Way?

Twice a year the Mercury endeavors to check up on subscriptions, those somewhat will-o-wisp dollar fifties, of which there are so many floating around and a number of which rarely lands home. Shortly we will be sending out the summer S.O.S. call for subscriptions by mailing notices showing date subscription expired and amount owing. Now, if these notices are just laid away for further attention, as appeals for finances they are the "bunk," as a good notice should command immediate attention. But if they make you dig down and say "by golly that editor must be paid," they are the pure thing as notices go. But then again there are some people who will say, any kind of a notice is the "bunk." I'm going to beat the editor to it and pay up before he has an opportunity to send me one. Is it coming our way?

FACE LOOKED TERRIBLE

Pimples Were Awfully Painful. Cuticura Heals.

A small pimple appeared on my chin and I scratched it causing considerable irritation. The pimples soon spread all over my face and I used to keep scratching. The pimples developed awful pustules and my face looked terrible. I was for ranged treatment which I found useless. I was advised to use Cuticura and bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In about a week's time I could see they were helping me. I continued using them for a month and the pimples disappeared. I was entirely cured.—(Signed) Mrs Harry Hebb, Hebron, N. S., Dec. 15, 1920.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are perfection.

MEAGRE ATTENDANCE AT THE TOFIELD'S SPORTS DAY

Rain in Evening Prevents Final Ball Game Being Played

Too much of a good thing was probably the cause of Tofield's Annual Sports Day not fully meeting up to the committee's expectations. The July 1st celebration here, numerous picnics at country points and the week previous being Edmonton Fair week all tended towards the lessening of the attendance here on Monday. The attendance was less than half of the usual number.

The committee, however, went forward with the full program of the athletic events and were only stopped by conditions over which they had no control viz: the weather. Toward the end of the second afternoon ball game rain began to fall and while this game was played out, it was hopeless to attempt to play the final.

The day was commenced with a lacrosse baseball game at 11:00 o'clock, Tofield Trouncers and a junior team from Lakeview players opposing each other on the diamond. After the smoke of battle had cleared away the scorekeepers tally read 11-24 for Tofield.

The second game commenced right after dinner, Tofield and a team from north of Edmonton, who were supposed to appear by the fans, opposing each other. The boys from the north put up a stiff battle in the early part of the game and at one time were three runs to the good, Tofield then took them Woods out of the box and put in Happy Cleland and from then on the result was never in doubt. Merlin Lehman finished the game in the box for Tofield. F. Ball caught. The game ended with the score keepers tally reading 16-5 for Tofield.

The next game was the last game of the day with Camrose and New Norway on the diamond. The fans were given, especially in the early stages of the game, an exhibition of heavy and snappy ball playing. There was no score until the 4th inning both teams playing air-tight ball. In the fourth with New Norway at bat, man up connects, and goes to first, next man up also goes to first putting other man to second and next batter connects for a two-bagger sending home a man and putting other man to third. The next two men fanned and the inning is closed. In the same inning Camrose broke into the scoring column, and got two runs, in the fifth 3rd New Norway sent three men across making the score 4-2 in their favor. After this they were never headed. In the fifth, New Norway jumped into a safe lead scoring three runs. The bases were loaded and man goes to bat, Annske out a three-bagger and sends home all three men on base, making the score 7-2 for them. Camrose then went to work and while they were able to get one more run that New Norway in the end of the game, they were unable to overtake the lead and the game ended with the score standing at 9 to 8 for New Norway.

There was some very good plays made, one double play on the fifth being worthy of mention. Camrose batter up with a man on first, hits a grounder which pitcher got and throws to second putting runner out. 2nd baseman throws to first and puts out runner there. This play was clean and speedy.

In the evening a picture show and dance was held. The attendance at Edmonton was a little late in arriving due to bad roads and quite a few dancers splendid music when they did arrive.

What with frequent showers to "please" the autumn, and millions of mosquitoes to annoy the fair workers and berry pickers, we are at present not what of a time but it is not so bad to those cleaning and breaking, they can burn up stuff and create a smoke barrage themselves of the mosquitoes, but we've often wish they keep the berry pickers of the fair and stand them; do they carry a few packets of cigarettes or do they drink their "Dandy" blend smelling pipe and drive them off that way?

Some have started haying here, but not many. Perhaps the mosquito is to blame.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Marking Graves Of American Soldiers

Italian Marble Headstones Will Be Placed in Overseas Cemeteries

Orders have been placed by the American government for more than 22,000 headstones for graves of American soldiers in the eight jet basins in operation in France, Belgium and England, the War Department has announced. It elaborates for this, in the opinion of the framers in testing the plan believes the power will be generated in huge central power stations, from which it will be transmitted by high tension lines. These stations would be located at coal mines, where possible, power for all kinds of purposes could be supplied.

The ministers of the air obedient to the wishes of the late Lord Rhondda, sketch that of air power in electrical current, and a definite move for new power that that they are ready to demand. Much has been done, the ministers say, but there is no power I will try around the world. Winston Churchill, it is said, is a firm believer in the power of air.

"When I was about nine years old I used to run errands for Mr. Waters in Ilkley in the afternoon. One night down the unusually silent road I saw Mr. Waters standing at the gate. He looked very ill and I was afraid to speak to him. I went on to the house and told mother what I had seen. She came with me and found Mr. Waters dead. He had died suddenly of heart disease."

Sending Power By Radio

Famous Inventor Claims Experiments Have Been Successful

Scriptures and Airships driven by Radio electric motors instead of the heavy gasoline engines now used will soon be a feature of air travel, according to Nicola Tesla, inventor of the alternating system of power transmission. The same will be turned by power transmitted by radio, in the opinion of the famous inventor. He also believes the power will be generated in huge central power stations, from which it will be transmitted by high tension lines. By means of Tesla power for all kinds of purposes could be supplied.

INTERESTING TRIP FROM IOWA TO TOFIELD

(no The Edit.)

Perhaps will be of interest to the readers of your paper to give you a short account of our trip from Iowa to Tofield. We left Iowa on the 15th of June and arrived at Tofield on the 30th. We drove a little more than 1,000 miles and we are glad to say that we had no serious accidents or breakdowns. We had a beautiful day for our journey across the prairies of Saskatchewan, which is a vast country, and we were amazed at this time of the year at the large acreage of wheat, oats and barley that is being grown. We had taken that route because we had been told that it was the most beautiful at this time of the year, and we were not disappointed in this respect. We had intended to stop at Saskatoon for the night, but as we were making such good time we decided to go on to Battleford, which is a distance of 120 miles further on. We arrived there about 9 o'clock in the evening and found a very comfortable camping ground on the banks of the Saskatchewan River. We had our supper and then went for a walk around the town, which is a very pretty place, situated on the hills overlooking the river. The next morning we had breakfast and then started on our journey again. We had not gone very far when we came to a very steep hill, which we had to descend, and on the other side of the river we had to climb another hill which was very steep and long. We had been told that we would find a very pretty drive from Battleford to Edmonton, but we were disappointed in this respect, as the country was very flat and uninteresting, and we did not see any scenery worth mentioning until we reached Vermilion, which is a very pretty place, situated on the banks of the Vermilion River. We had lunch there and then continued our journey. We had been told that we would find a very pretty drive from Vermilion to Edmonton, but we were disappointed in this respect also, as the country was very flat and uninteresting, and we did not see any scenery worth mentioning until we reached Vermilion Falls, which is a very pretty place, situated on the banks of the Vermilion River. We had our lunch there and then continued our journey. We had been told that we would find a very pretty drive from Vermilion Falls

Tar Sands for Jasper Roads

Ninety carloads of tar sands will be shipped from McMurray during the present summer, it is announced, to be used in roadmaking at Jasper park. The work of surfacing the roads is being supervised by Dr. S. S. Ells of Ottawa. Shipments are being made at the rate of three or four cars each week and it is expected that some three miles of road in the park will be covered in this way during the season.

Fine District Exhibits Shown

Eight districts in the central and northern part of the province were represented by splendid exhibits of their agricultural products at the Edmonton Exhibition. Included in the very attractively arranged displays were grains and grasses, fodder crops and vegetables, fruit, honey, wool and eggs, all being products of the farms in the district represented.

On a basis of a total of 200 points the awards made by the judges were as follows: 1, Lacombe, 161 points, winning $150; 2, Sedgewick, 214 points, winning $125; 3, Vegreville, 241½ points, winning $100; 4, Pumpka, 221 points, winning $80; 5 Wetaskiwin, 228½ points, winning $75; 6, Vermilion, 247½ points, winning $60; 7, Leduc, 251 points, winning $50. Only four exhibits were shown in this competition last year.

Here and There

Canada's net debt was reduced by $47,000,000 during the past fiscal year, a reduction in the national debt larger than any in its history.

"The Royal York" is the name chosen by President Beatty for the new Canadian Pacific hotel to be erected at Toronto, in accordance with the new hotel with the early history of that city.

Canadian Pacific Railway engineers, now busy with their preliminary survey of the projected railway to Chicoutimi and the Lake St. John district, are at present studying the question of a terminus site.

An aviation field available to commercial flying is to be prepared at Lethbridge, Alberta. The new field, which will be wide enough to allow ten planes to be abreast, will also be used for aerial mail service.

A large party of professional men will leave for a tour of the west over Canadian Pacific lines, on the third annual tour conducted under the auspices of the University of Montreal. The party will spend about two weeks in the Rockies.

The second regular journey to Canada of the Canadian Pacific steamship "Empress of Australia," will be distinguished by the presence on board of the Duke of York, Prince of Wales and Premier Stanley Baldwin, of Great Britain.

Col. J. S. Dennis, chief commissioner of the Department of Colonization and Development, Canadian Pacific Railway, predicts a much larger immigration movement to Canada this year than last. He explained that the reported congestion of farm workers in the western towns was transient and not likely to occur.

U.F.W.A. Notes

The regular meeting was held on July 23rd at the home of Mr. Phillips. There were thirteen members and several visitors present.

The roll-call was answered with current event. After the routine was disposed of Mr. Seale read a paper on "Co-operation Between the U.F.W.A. and the School Farm." This was a rather difficult subject very ably handled and showed that Mr. Seale had given the matter much thought and study in preparing his paper.

After the meeting adjourned, Mrs. Danner Hawley, Ball and Abernethy served tea.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Jensen on August 13th, at 2.00 p.m. The roll-call will be answered by "Bet I and Quacks I Deceived I Make." There will be a paper on "Scottish Feokery" by Mrs McAllister, and last but by no means least the Report of the Annual Convention of the Federal Constituency Association will be given by the delegates.

Members Fergus on, Baptist, Stone Thompson and Warner will act as hostesses. Visitors and new members always welcome.

SIXTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

Crops all over the province have made steady progress during the past two weeks, and continue to promise of the greatest harvest Alberta has ever reaped, according to the information reaching the Department of Agriculture. Wheat practically, 100 per cent. in head, the same is the case with barley and oats are reported to be from 60 to 75 per cent. headed out.

Hot weather during this period has assisted materially in the growth of the crops, and with the occasional showers the moisture found in the ground is considered as most definite to be sufficient to carry the crops to maturity, and all grain in general is in good condition.

Suicide at Shonts

A sad affair occurred at Shonts on Tuesday when Fred Spanoth, becoming despondent over ill health, committed suicide by shooting.

The deceased who was employed by the Canadian National Railways as tank man at Shonts had been unwell for some time and evidently despairing of becoming better took his own life. He had used a shot gun and blown the upper portion of his head off.

The first intimation of the tragedy came through the inability of the foreman to procure water. Crossing water and finding none in the tank, the trainmen effected an entrance to the pump house, only to find the dead body of the pumpman with a gun lying near. There was a note to the effect that through sickness deceased had taken his own life.

The body was brought to Tofield on Tuesday and interred on Wednesday.

The deceased was a native of Illinois and had been on this country for about twenty years, and leaves two sister who reside in the United States.

He was about forty-five years of age.

TOM MIX AND TONY IN THE "GREAT K & A TRAIN ROBBERY"

Those who see Tom Mix as a detective who runs down a dangerous gang of railroad bandits in Fox Film "The Great K & A Train Robbery," coming to the Variety Theatre on Saturday, August 6, will be interested in knowing that Mix did similar work in real life while a Deputy United States Marshal in Oklahoma.

In the picture coming on Saturday, Tom and Tony will once again ride into your heart in this cyclonic thriller that'll chill you to the marrow. Watch the blaze of the West riding behind a car of railroad dynamite as down a gang of railroad desperadoes. Tom runs under water in the Rocky River bed, which has been dynamited from the wheels of death. And see how well the heart of a beautiful girl—it's 22 carat entertainment every second of it!

Last Weeks Ball Game

The regular meeting was held on July 23rd at the home of Mr. Phillips. There were thirteen members and several visitor present.

The roll-call was answered with current event. After the routine was disposed of Mr. Seale read a paper on "Co-operation Between the U.F.W.A. and the School Farm." This was a rather difficult subject very ably handled and showed that Mr. Seale had given the matter much thought and study in preparing his paper.

After the meeting adjourned, Mesdames Hawley, Ball and Abernethy served tea.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Jensen on August 13th, at 2.00 p.m. The roll-call will be answered by "Bet I and Quacks I Deceived I Make." There will be a paper on "Scottish Feokery" by Mrs McAllister, and last but by no means least the Report of the Annual Convention of the Federal Constituency Association will be given by the delegates.

Members Fergus on, Baptist, Stone Thompson and Warner will act as hostesses. Visitors and new members always welcome.

Filling rapidly

Harvesting of rye has been commenced in a number of districts in the south of the province and a splendid yield is reported. The fall wheat has made especially good progress and promises a heavy crop. It is reported as unlikely that harvesting of wheat will be at all general until probably August 20th

A number of rather severe hail storms have done considerable damage in scattered districts, but generally have been purely local in character and their effect on the total yield of grain from the province will not, it is expected, be a serious one. Practically no injury to crops from insect pest is reported and no frosts reported as yet in any section of the province.

The area in the south and south east of the province reports a good deal of the heaviest crop in a number of years and that conditions are ideal for filling and ripening. Cutting has been and the second cutting of alfalfa are making rapid growth and so far very little hail damage has occurred.

While more warm weather would be welcomed by people in the Peace River districts are giving promise of a better than average yield, particular reports of the season as compared with last year being noted in the case of the oat crop, and all grains show a uniformly good vigor and color.

A start has been made with haying in many sections of the province and a good crop of both wild and cultivated hay is being put up. Purveyors and ranchers report that the pasture growth is rank and that all live stock is in good condition.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN
Issued by Publicity Commissioner, Government of Alberta, Edmonton, July 30th, 1927.

Alberta Officials Attend The Poultry Congress

Alberta was represented at the World's Poultry Congress which opened at Ottawa on Wednesday by Hon. George Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture and J. H. Marr, Provincial Poultry Commissioner. Assisting Mr. Marr with the live bird exhibit from the province, was P. J. Tomme of Calgary, while a comprehensive display of agricultural products from Alberta was in charge of W. D. Morrison.

Beaver Trapping Banned in North

It has been announced by the Provincial Game Branch that no trapping of beaver in Alberta north of Township 69 will be permitted during the coming season, and that the closed season for beaver which has been enforced in this area for the past 20 years will continue for the coming fall and winter as the beaver supply in the province has been steadily growing here. South of the line of Township 69 permits will be issued as usual in cases where found desirable through damage to the farm property by the local colonies of beaver.

Last Shipment of Buffalo to North

The final shipment of 218 buffalo left the Wainwright Park on Tuesday, making a total of 1946 animals to be moved to their new northern home this season. Owing to the rapid increase in the number of buffalo in the park at Wainwright, shipments to the north in three years have totalled 1,946 head, and of this number only six failed to stand the long trip by rail and water to their new home.

Fire Protection and Insurance

Attention is called by Henry Bruce, Provincial Fire Commissioner to the fact that the work of the branch is entirely separate from that of the Provincial Department of Insurance, although some confusion appears to exist in the public mind as to the type of work handled by each body. Officials of the Fire Commissioners Branch visit each town and village in the province at least once a year. Voluntary fire brigades are organized and municipal authorities are assisted in the enforcement of their fire-prevention by-laws. Buildings are inspected and orders given where necessary for the removing of conditions from a fire prevention standpoint, and the office is maintained solely for the protection of the public and the reduction as far as possible of the enormous fire waste of the province.

The Department of Insurance, on the other hand, is empowered by the Alberta Insurance Act to exercise control over insurance companies of all classes doing business in the province and to license and control their companies and their agents and insurance adjusters. Difficulties arising between adjusters and insured persons under losses of any class are frequently referred to the Department for investigation and the interest of the public are safeguarded in every case. The Department of Insurance is prepared at all times to give expert advice on insurance matters and the office of the Fire Commissioner is also prepared at all times to give advice as to the construction and maintenance of buildings from a fire-prevention standpoint.

Alberta Death Rate Low

Alberta has the third lowest death rate among the provinces of the Dominion, according to the vital statistics for 1926. The rates by provinces are as follows: Saskatchewan, 7.4 per thousand; Manitoba, 8.2; Alberta, 8.8; British Columbia, 9.6; Prince Edward Island, 10.1; Ontario, 10.3; New Brunswick, 12.2, and Quebec, 14.5. The 11.4; Nova Scotia, 11.6; New Brunswick in Alberta, it is stated, is decreased to some extent by the death of tubercular patients who come to the province for their health.

Alberta Cattle for Toronto

A prominent exhibit in the Canada building has been allotted for the Alberta cattle display during the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto on August 27th to September 10th, according to word received by Hon. Reid Brattsberry, Alberta Trade Commissioner. The exhibit of domestic cattle being shown by the Alberta Government and the Canadian coal publicity commission. Mr Brattsberry, while in the East at this time will make a tour of some 30 towns and cities speaking in the interests of Alberta coal.

Motor Roads Marked For Tourists

Directions for tourists in the southern part of the province have been improved this season by the work of the Alberta Development Board (the Southern Section). New markings have been placed on the Blue trail between Banff and the International Boundary, the Yellow trail between Calgary and Walsh, the Red trail between Calgary and Alaska and the Scandine trail between Calgary and Red Deer. This organization has also distributed a large number of maps showing the best routes to Alberta's scenic spots, where many tourists are holidaying this summer.

Cairn Marks Site Of Old Police Post

Unveiling of the cairn in the grounds of the Fort Saskatchewan Jail, which marks the site of the original buildings erected in October, 1875, by Col. W. D. Jarvis and 20 non-commissioned officers and men of the first party of Northwest Mounted Police to enter the Edmonton district was carried out on Sunday, July 24, by Major General Griesbach in the presence of a large gathering of old-time members of the famous force and citizens of the town.

BANK OF MONTREAL CROP REPORT
July 28th, 1927.

General—In the Prairie Provinces conditions continue satisfactory, and all crops are making good progress. Some further scattered hail losses occurred. In Manitoba and Saskatchewan rust has appeared, but whether or not this will develop into serious proportions depends entirely upon the weather. In Quebec the crops are progressing favorably, but haying has been delayed by rains. In Ontario heavy rainfalls over the whole Province have caused slight damage to hay, but have improved grain and root crops. In the Maritime Provinces all crops have benefited from warm dry weather during the past few days. In British Columbia hot weather has accelerated the growth, and all crops are in good condition.

Inland Atlantic Salmon of N.B.

No. 1, A prominent pool on the Cains River. 2, Rockhill salmon taken from the Baker John River last summer. 3, One of the fish-ladders which allow salmon to ascend the falls.

While it is twenty-three years since it was found that Atlantic salmon would run in a fly, it is considerable shorter since the discovery was made that these huge fighting fish were to be caught many miles inland in the rivers of New Brunswick. Yet such is the fact that only adds to the world-wide reputation of the Province of New Brunswick as a big game hunting and fishing paradise.

The Cains River, one of the best choices when salmon fishing is being considered, flows through the centre of the Province, rising in the wilderness territory and emptying into the Bay of Fundy. The large fish enter the river at its mouth at the city of Saint John and pass up on their way to the spawning grounds at the Tobique, lying over 120 miles from the sea. W. B. Neill, a merchant of Fredericton, was the first to make the discovery. It was in 1903 that the first trip to the Miramichi was made. Neill and Joseph Walker hooked, and grafted their first salmon at Hartt's Island. Since that time the sport has become widely known and during one season alone in 1923 no less than four hundred salmon were taken by fly from these waters, the largest being a twenty-eight pounder caught by Reginald Currie of Fredericton.

The Cains River, another of New Brunswick's largest, runs with the St. John's when it comes to record Atlantic salmon. This stream is under lease to Harry Allen, of Boston, and whose yearly are at the disposal of sportsmen. The pool at Hartland, and the other pools in the vicinity are reached by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The former of has been pronounced as one of the finest in the Province.

An interesting point in connection with the growth of this sport in its early days with American sportsmen, who are coming to New Brunswick in increasing numbers each season to take part in what they describe as the most exciting form of angling to be found. Their opinions are shared by all who have ever dropped a line in some of the beautiful rocky pools along these rivers where the fighting salmon

With the warm July days here, special care needs to be taken to keep up the grades. Any of the usual methods of keeping cream sweet in warm weather can be resorted to, but frequent marketing during warm weather is wise. The better the quality of cream—the better the grade of butter, and in this respect we are all in the same boat. Alberta butter is now sold on the world's markets and must compete with the best the world can produce. The simple explanation is the better the quality the greater the demand and the greater the demand the better the price.

THE WORLD MOVES

THOSE EARLY pioneers of the Tofield and other districts surrounding Edmonton do not have to stretch their imagination to recall the time when the capital city was only reached after an arduous journey, sometimes taking several days. Even when the railroad came and the first trains were operated over it, sometimes the traveller arrived at his destination when he expected to and sometimes he did not. Difficulties connected with a new service frequently meant delays, but the service was a great improvement over the old time modes of travel. Now we have a Tofield-Edmonton service that compares very favorably with some of the best trains in the world. Recently the writer travelled on the "Confederation" from Edmonton to Tofield and the journey was made in exactly sixty minutes. Travelling to Edmonton is now a pleasure while at one time it was an ordeal.

HIS LAST EDITORIAL

JOHN MARKEY, one of the best known newspapermen in Eastern Canada, and for more than a score of years editor of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, whose death is reported in the current issue of Canadian Printer and Publisher, maintained the highest standards of journalistic excellence in the columns of the paper he edited. The ruling passion was strong in him even in death, and when things of time and sense were slipping away and his eyes looked wistfully out over the rim of eternity he sent from his death-bed his last editorial to his paper as a final message to his readers. In it he says:

My surroundings and circumstances are entirely new and unusual. I am lying on a strange cot in a strange room, surrounded by people whom a week ago, I did not know. So, likewise, are the thoughts that come crowding into my mind and the theme that forces itself upon me for this my last editorial. Hitherto my thoughts have been of time and timely interests. My themes have been of policies—Civic, Provincial and Federal. Now, as I lie facing eternity, all these thoughts have passed away, and their place is taken by an all-absorbing one—"What's the use of all these things for eternity?" and the theme that forces itself upon me now is: "In view of eternity, what policy should one follow?"

If in the past, by my editorials, I have brought you any good or in any small way added to your happiness, kindly readers and friends, now I pray God, whom I am about to meet, that this my last message may do you much good and help you to a happy death and a happier eternity.

"What is the use of it all, in view of eternity?" queries the Toronto Globe. "The question that is asked by the late Mr. Markey has been asked by multitudes throughout the ages when they have looked back at the work they have done as life nears its close. Too often the only reply they have given to their question has been in the words of the despairing conclusion of the Preacher of a far-off day: "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." Who is able to answer the question:

"In view of eternity, what policy should one follow? The only answer is: the policy one would wish to have followed as one views eternity. Men and women need to take long views of life, death and the great hereafter. It is a salutary thing to look at life sometimes as it would appear from one's death-bed, and measure time with the perspective glass of eternity. It enables one to 'see life steadily and see it whole,' and to evaluate in their true importance the things that are done under the sun.'"

READY TO RECEIVE VISITORS

AT ALL seasons of the year residents of Alberta are ready and willing to receive visitors. At this time however, the very province itself is arraying herself in mantles of green to be soon changed to orange and gold.

Visitors now will see Alberta at her best. Containing all the beauty that the most artistic soul can desire, the Alberta countryside now clothed in very beautiful fields of standing grain, interspersed with forest, lake and stream, presents a beauty that has a utility base. One can admire her fields and gardens realizing that after the winter frosts have set in and snow covers the ground, mankind is well taken care of as regards the necessities of life.

To The Man Considering The Purchase of a Private Electric Plant

We present the famous "Kohler Automatic." This plant, which comes in four sizes, 800 watt, 1500 watt, 2000 watt and 5000 watt, is the peer of private automatic electric plants. With this plant installed, press a button and you get light, turn a switch and you get power.

The plant generally recommended for ordinary farm purposes is of 1500 watt capacity. Its 3 h.p. engine has four cylinders, magneto ignition, vacuum tank, drawing gasoline from large tank underground; is radiator cooled, each cylinder being entirely surrounded by water; and is economical of operation, the amount of gasoline being consumed varying according to the amount of electricity being used. It runs very quietly and is exceptionally well made in every particular. The dynamo is four pole, compound wound 110 volt. It has the famous Kohler patented switch, whereby when a light is turned on the plant starts, and when the last light is turned off the plant stops, thus needing the minimum of care.

This plant will give years and years of satisfactory service and sells for $850.00 f.o.b. Tofield.

SOMETHING ABOUT KOHLER OF KOHLER

Fifty-four years ago the organization now known throughout the world as "Kohler of Kohler," had its beginning in a small work shop employing a half dozen men.

Through its policy of making the quality of its products its highest aim, it has grown to be an organization whose factory buildings cover many acres. In the beautiful Village of Kohler which borders the immense factory, many skilled artisans live in neat, attractive homes. Branch offices have been established in seventeen of the principal cities of America. An affiliated company is located in London, England. Thousands of dealers' scattered throughout the country are easily accessible to users of Kohler of Kohler wares.

Is It Coming Our Way?

Twice a year the Mercury endeavors to check up on subscriptions, those somewhat will-o-wisp dollar fifties, of which there are so many floating around and a number of which rarely lands home. Shortly we will be sending out the summer S.O.S. call for subscriptions by mailing notices showing date subscription expired and amount owing. Now, if these notices are just laid away for further attention, as appeals for finances they are the "bunk," as a good notice should command immediate attention. But if they make you dig down and say "by golly that editor must be paid," they are the pure thing as notices go. But then again there are some people who will say, any kind of a notice is the "bunk," I'm going to beat the editor to it and pay up before he has an opportunity to send me one. Is it coming our way?

Canada's Next Stage Of Development

There are a great many things people have to learn about Canada, and when they have learned them they are highly delighted with the country. But as only this Dominion has achieved fifth place among the exporting nations of the world since the war and more especially during the past few years, the trade in Canada has enormously expanded, the people are in good with far surpassing that of any other country.

It is a particular spot on the map of the world, and it is a country of possibilities as richer and unbounded. It is not, to be entirely the world's granary, but it is more of a mosquito and the world's treasury of all the naturally interested in food and more than any other country in raising the world's food supplies.

Notwithstanding all these and advantages can't thanks every hope to call the prosperous of the United Kingdom and the United States as the world's greatest investment ground. If in what I've related to you there is any

Now one would ever think a still in any kind stronger, possible, but in no other country does it seem to be necessary that Canada should take certain steps. Apart the present time that country has been established, has encountered with those same problems and internal affairs fluctuated in the world. Within the last few years developments of the country seems to have entirely been so exceptional that it has seemed necessary to make certain changes in the methods of transportation, in the methods of finance, and financing and of course in the methods of dealing with the people. Canada itself and its future now depends upon the manner in which it is meeting the problems to handle and manage them.

The developments of our wonderful material resources must be the key to a great deal in connection with the material prosperity of the Dominion. Canada is a country of immense resources, and the development of these resources will depend among the most important effects that is to have on the future of the country. Canada has a great deal to do with the development of the resources of the country, and the development of the resources of the country will depend upon the development of the resources of the country. BIGGER AND BETTER BALSAM AT THE VARIETY—OPENS TO-DAY AGAIN

Most Gibson's in town again! Smiling, dimpled Mae Busch, laughing and battling his way in and out of situations both comic and dangerous, will hold the screen at the Variety Theatre on Saturday evening in "The Deserter Dude."

"The Deserter Dude" might easily prove to be the most popular picture the star has made to many a day, for although the others have set some high mark of popularity for him, "The Deserter Dude" possesses all the qualities his previous productions have boasted and some added attractions that will give you new enjoyment and entertainment.

RETURNED

With ideal haying and ripening weather, haying is in full swing in some of the wheat is turning but the heavy crop is very poor this year, and the flies are conspicuous by their absence.

To The Man Considering The Purchase of a Private Electric Plant

We present the famous "Kohler Automatic." This plant, which comes in four sizes, 800 watt, 1500 watt, 2000 watt and 5000 watt, is the peer of private automatic electric plants. With this plant installed, press a button and you get light, turn a switch and you get power.

The plant generally recommended for ordinary farm purposes is of 1500 watt capacity. Its 3 h.p. engine has four cylinders, magneto ignition, vacuum tank, drawing gasoline from large tank underground; is radiator cooled, each cylinder being entirely surrounded by water; and is economical of operation, the amount of gasoline being consumed varying according to the amount of electricity being used. It runs very quietly and is exceptionally well made in every particular. The dynamo is four pole, compound wound 110 volt. It has the famous Kohler patented switch, whereby when a light is turned on the plant starts, and when the last light is turned off the plant stops, thus needing the minimum of care.

This plant will give years and years of satisfactory service and sells for $850.00 f.o.b. Tofield.

Other models at other prices.

SOMETHING ABOUT KOHLER OF KOHLER

Fifty-four years ago the organization now known throughout the world as "Kohler of Kohler," had its beginning in a small work shop employing a half dozen men.

Through its policy of making the quality of its products its highest aim, it has grown to be an organization whose factory buildings cover many acres. In the beautiful Village of Kohler which borders the immense factory, many skilled artisans live in neat, attractive homes. Branch offices have been established in seventeen of the principal cities of America. An affiliated company is located in London, England. Thousands of dealers scattered throughout the country are easily accessible to users of Kohler of Kohler wares.

Cereal Crop Field Day, August 10th

Bee Keepers' field Day, August 23rd

A cereal crop field day will be held at the Experimental Station, Lacombe, on August 10th, when the different varieties of cereals will be showing to advantage Mr. L. H. Newman, Dominion Cerealist, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, will be at the station on this day and will be prepared to give information on matters relating to cereal production. The experimental Station Staff will also be prepared to report on the progress of their experimental work with cereals.

A Bee Keepers' field day will be held on August 23rd, Mr. C. B. Goodrich-Dondelson Apiarist, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, will be at the Station and will be prepared to discuss bee keepers' problems; while the Experimental Station staff will give the results of their experience with bees in Central Alberta.

The Experimental Station extends an invitation to everyone interested in agriculture to visit the station on these days. With the Dominion Cerealist and Dominion Apiarist to give addresses, and with the annual experimental work in review, you are assured a day of profit and pleasure.

Hot and cold water will be provided for those who bring their lunch. Come early, take your family and friends and see the gardens and flowers before lunch. The tour of the farm will start at 1:30.

HAY LAKE FARMER SERIOUSLY INJURED

In an accident which occurred on Friday, July 22nd, Mr. Gottfried Diebert, farmer, of Hay Lake district, was very severly injured.

Mr. Diebert, accompanied by two new-comer boys, had driven to the farm of Mr. Hans Sandke, and was returning home late in the evening, when the misfortune happened. One of the horses jumped the ditch across the road, upsetting the buggy, and Mr. Diebert was pinned underneath. He sustained several painful bruises in various parts of the body, and received internal injuries as well. It is reported that for a time his life was despaired of, but when medical aid was summoned, it was found to be less serious than was believed.

Here and There

Experiments in the Pacific Coast by-method of halibut fishing are now being made by R. B. Cann, of Vancouver, B.C., with his new halibut fishing boat, "Fannie Powell II.," following his extensive studies on the Pacific Coast.

The Canadian Pacific's gross earnings for the first quarter of the year were the largest on record for that quarter, at $43,358,000, or an increase of $2,001,061 over the corresponding quarter of last year. Net, however, was a little lower than last year at $8,486,823, compared with $8,531,067.

Madame Jane Bloo, champion of European women cyclonsers, arrived in Canada aboard the steamship May on the Canadian Pacific steamer "Montrairn" from Antwerp. She will take part in various cycling marathons in Montreal and other centres in both Canada and the United States, including events at the Toronto Exhibition.

The total catch of swafish on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts during the month of March showed an increase of nearly 3,000,000 pounds over the catch for the same month last year. The catch amounted to 17,863,000 pounds, valued at $1,324,796, according to a report of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. The increase was due to the increased catch of herring on the Pacific coast.

Two thousand sportsmen from the United States will attend the forthcoming World's Poultry Congress, to be held from July 27 to August 4. The delegates will be headed by the Hon. W. M. Jardine, Secretary of Agriculture, officially representing the Government. He will be accompanied by assistant secretary R. W. Dunlop. Some 25 States are participating.

That the prospects for British settlers coming to New Brunswick were good; that, in fact, arrangements had already been made for bringing a substantial number of British families to this province, was asserted by J. A. Murray, provincial superintendent of Colonization and Industry, who has returned from England where he was acting in the interests of the Government. He has received many applications to the settlement prospects in New Brunswick.

That Calgary industry has again taken its place in the front rank as a producer of horses in the Dominion was pointed out by C. H. Burton President of the Calgary Rotary Club, who declared that 37 carloads of horses had been shipped east from Calgary in three weeks, recently indicating the growth of the industry in the district he referred to the large number of entries received for the town's Horse Show, totalling more than 800, as compared with 600 last year.

Evidence of the interest in the new departure among Canadian Pacific locomotives known as the G-3-d type or "Pacific" engine is in remarkable combination of greatly increased power and efficiency with very slightly increased weight, is furnished by the fact that principals of twenty-five provincial schools in the east of Canada and also in the west have requested photographs of this locomotive with a view of hanging them in these schools for the information of the children.

Gene Tunney, world's champion heavy weight boxer, arrived in Montreal at the Canadian Pacific Windsor Street Station, May 6, and proceeded north to Murray in the Laurentian Mountains. From here he proceeded by motor to Five Fingers Lake, spending several days fishing. Tunney was accompanied on the outing by W. O. McGeehan, sporting editor, New York Herald Tribune, and W. A. Davenport, of Outdoors Weekly. Mr. Tunney declared that he was scheduled to fight the winner of the elimination march this year. He retired Canada in 1928 and 1923, when he went into amateur ranks operated by the French organization in order to harden his hands.

Keep Up The Good Work

With the warm July days here, special care needs to be taken to keep up the grades. Any of the usual methods of keeping cream sweet in warm weather can be resorted to, but frequent marketing during warm weather is wise. The better the quality of cream—the better the grade of butter, and in this respect we are all in the same boat. Alberta butter is now sold on the world's markets and must compete with the best the world can produce. The simple explanation is the better the quality the greater the demand and the greater the demand the better the price.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

IT IS to be regretted that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and Premier Baldwin of England have not the time to include a visit to Edmonton while in the province. Nevertheless, it is an honor to the province and the people living therein to have the heir apparent to the British throne and the first statesman of the land, choose Canada and Alberta as a place to spend their vacation. Of course it is well known that the Prince has a splendid ranch at High River and that he is deeply interested in its progress. Citizens of Alberta will trust that Alberta weather, unlike the occasion of his last visit, will be of the best. There is no climate in the world that can better an Alberta ideal fall, but then again, once in awhile the weather man loses count and sends us out of season weather. Let us hope that this fall may be typical of Alberta, in which case the distinguished visitors will be favorably impressed.

PREPARING FOR SCHOOL

. . WHILE THE observant scholar (perhaps with some concern) is watching the passing of the days that will bring the school holidays to a close, school boards all over the country are making arrangements to engage teachers. Unlike the older countries, where the teaching staff of schools rarely changes and a principal of a school stays on for years and years, the teaching staffs of our schools are continually changing. To make an wholesale condemnation of change would be folly, for no doubt some of the changes are for the better, both as regards school and teacher, but one is forced to the conclusion that very often there is little benefit to anyone, either teacher, school board or scholar, when changes are constant. To note cause for adjustment is easy, to suggest a remedy not so easy but it might be worth noting that unsatisfactory conditions and ambition are the most common causes of teachers changing, excepting perhaps, that inevitable one, marriage. Regarding ambition, nothing much can be said. It is laudable for teachers to aim at more responsible positions and higher salaries but changes created in this manner are more or less unavoidable due to the general nature of things. But where changes are made just for the sake of changing, or through some trivial unsatisfactory thing either on the part of the teacher or board, effort would well repent to bring about an adjustment, and thus prolong as much as possible unbroken teaching personel. There are advantages to be obtained by having a teacher with a full knowledge of the record of scholars. Little weaknesses on the part of some scholars in their ability to absorb knowledge regarding certain subjects can be helped if the teacher is informed as to such weaknesses. A little effort here and there where the teacher knows it is most needed may put the scholar through where otherwise the subject would prove an impassible barrier.

Of course there always comes a time in the affairs of all teachers and boards when it is to the best advantage of both that a change be made. When this occurs it should be done as quickly and pleasantly as possible.

BOUNTIFUL CROPS

FROM ALL over the west comes news of bountiful crops now ripening under an August sun. To many the crop looks like a record one, surpassing the famous crop of 1915. Of course definite statements regarding this cannot be made until after harvest, but present indications are that a splendid crop will be harvested.

Many will remember that when last winter hung on and on and the passing weeks saw the gradual shortening of the seeding season, there were some, our Lakeshore correspondent among them, who stated that a late spring usually meant a good crop. It certainly appears to be so, and while of course complete realization of a bumper crop cannot be made until after the harvest, we sincerely hope that the realization will be every bit as good as the expectations.

Preparing for Visit of Prince and Premier

The Prince of Wales and his brother Prince George plan to spend five days at the farmers' ranch home at High River, it is announced from Ottawa. The Princes expect to leave Calgary for the ranch on Aug. 10th, Premier Baldwin and his party going on at that time to Banff and returning to Calgary for a civic reception which is being tendered them on August 12th. Addresses of welcome on this occasion will be delivered by Hon. R. G. Reid acting premier of the province, and Mayor F. E. Osborne of Calgary. It is planned that these addresses and the reply of Premier Baldwin will be broadcasted through radio stations CFAC at Calgary and CJCA at Edmonton.

Horses for Soviet Shipped East

Considering the fact that Russia has a train left Alberta during the past week for Quebec carrying 250 head of horses purchased on the open market of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Included in the cargo for Quebec will also be 300 head previously shipped east, bringing the total number of horses purchased by the Russian Government in Alberta during the past month up to 967. It is expected that buying for further shipments will again commence at an early date in the south and central part of the province.

MAN MEETS DEATH UNDER WHEELS OF TRACTOR

A terrible tragedy occured in the Hay Lake district on Monday last when Mr. Fawcett of the staff of the Mosher Implement Co. of Edmonton, was run over by a tractor.

The tractor was the property of Mr. Wilhelm Grahn, who at the time of the accident, was breaking for Geo. Hendrickson. The machine had been giving some trouble owing to a faulty governor, and Mr. Fawcett had been sent down to put a new governor on it. This he had done, and was walking beside the tractor, adjusting the governor when the misfortune happened.

At the moment that Mr. Grahn who was driving the machine, reached around to lift the plows out of the ground, he heard a cry. He immediately stopped, but upon jumping down, found that the mechanic was directly under the wheel, and he was obliged to drive further forward in order to release the unfortunate man.

Dr. Craig of Camrose was immediately concerned and in the meantime the crushed unconscious man was placed on a truck to be brought to the Camrose hospital. The doctor rushing to the scene of the accident, met the truck and the body was transferred to his car. Unfortunately the man was beyond medical aid and died in the hospital shortly after midnight.

It is not known whether Mr. Fawcett stumbled and fell in front of the tractor wheel, or whether some part of his clothing became entangled in the machinery, drawing him under it. The pathos of the tragedy was deepened by the fact that the unfortunate Mr. Fawcet had been married only a couple of days, and was intending to set out on a honeymoon trip. Owing to the fact that his office was short handed, he had been sent out to handle this job.

WHO'S POOR IS THE HILL

An automobile accident occurred in the Beaver Hill on Sunday when two cars collided around the large curve near Lindbrook. The occupants of both cars were badly shaken up, one woman receiving a bad cut across her forehead. Dr. Law from Tofield went out and gave medical attention to the wounded.
On Monday, it is reported, another car turned over in the hills, but fortunately no one was hurt. The car was righted and proceeded under its own power.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

BARDO

Little Alton Steen, six year old son of Arnold Steen, had the misfortune to fall from a horse and break his left arm one day last week. He is receiving treatment at the hospital in Camrose.

An all day meeting was held in the Lutheran Church on Sunday. There was a large attendance from neighboring towns. In the evening, two returned missionaries from China, Chester Rooning and Palmer Anderson, gave a lecture which was illustrated by lantern slides made from views they had taken during their sojourn in China.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Standeld who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker for the past week left for their home at Whitter, Cal., on Wednesday. Mrs. Standeld is a sister to Mrs. Walker.

Mr. C. W. Piper has been on the sick list with a threatened attack of appendicitis but is somewhat improved at time of writing.

Miss Mildred Anderson is helping Mrs. Abernathy with her housework for some time.

Jack Phillips of Vermilion who has been visiting relatives in this district for several days returned home on Tuesday. Merle Myers accompanied him.

OMER KELLNER PASSES AWAY

It is with sincere regret that we have to report the passing away of Omer Kellner, aged 18 years. A short while ago he was as full of life as the average young boy, but on Friday, August 12th, he was taken ill and while everything that medical aid could do was done for him, he passed away on Sunday, 8 a.m. from infantile paralysis more virulent type. The funeral was held on Sunday and was of a private nature owing to the infectious nature of the disease, in company with the people of the Tofield district the Mercury extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

LAKESHORE

Donald Phillips was severely bru-

ed about the face and head last Wednesday while playing with his cousins the Roe Philips children. The latter had been to the coal mine with their father and had fetched home some apparently empty bicycling powder cans. However, several of the cans had a little powder in them and the children threw a match in the can causing an explosion. Young Calvin Phillips was also slightly burned.

M. W. Ferguson has been breaking for A. N. Booth with his steam outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny of Edson have been visiting the latters parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sherlock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Plank and daughters, Patricia and Shirley, from Rosiuna, Sask., are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Plank is a niece of Mrs. F. E. Hills. They made the trip by motor and expect to visit Banff before returning.

Mrs. Albert Voogtlund will go to Edmonton for an operation this week. Mrs. Bender will care for her children.

Irene Rude and Hester Nay will both ninth grade work in the Grand Forks School passed their examinations with honors.

The young people held a social on Friday evening in the newly finished hall of the Rude farm. About seventy were present and spent a most delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alward and little son Donald, of Hanley, Alberta, visited last week in the J. Jacobsen home.

The families of H. E. Brenneman, P. Letkeman, E. L. Plank, and F. E. Hills picnicked at Cooking Lake, while Basil Beach on Wednesday.

The Low-Swung Body with no loss of headroom or road-clearance

THE dream of every automobile manufacturer—to build a body low swung for beauty and for roadability, without loss of head room or road-clearance—has become reality in McLaughlin-Buick for 1928.
McLaughlin-Buick engineers achieved this lower effect, not by the makeshift of smaller wheels with their increased tire wear, but by a complete re-designing of bodies, and by an entirely new and exclusive principle, the double-drop frame. The tallest McLaughlin-Buick now stands but 70 inches high, yet McLaughlin bodies are roomier than ever before.
See the low swung body as McLaughlin-Buick builds it, and you will see at once why McLaughlin-Buick is the industry's accepted leader in beauty, luxury, performance—and especially in value.

STERN WORDS FROM BENCH IN POLICE COURT

Speaking to the point and to 17 year old Roy Williams in the city police court Wednesday morning, Magistrate Primrose ordered some burning words for the benefit of flaming youth. Williams, convicted on the charge of theft of a bike, was placed on a two years' probation ordered to eschew liquor and pool and not to report to the Salvation army every month. He also was ordered to [illegible] for a good behavior.

"I don't know what the boys are coming to in these days; you all seem to be candidates for the bastile, asylums or jails," remonstred his worship.

"You think I'm an old fool as I know that you're a young fool and that's the difference between us," he added, telling the chastened boy that he would give him a chance this time.

Keep Up The Good Work

With the warm July days here, special care needs to be taken to keep up the grades. Any of the usual methods of keeping cream sweet in warm weather can be resorted to, but frequent marketing during warm weather is wise. The better the quality of cream—the better the grade of butter, and in this respect we are all in the same boat. Alberta butter is now sold on the world's markets and must compete with the best the world can produce. The simple explanation is the better the quality the greater the demand and the greater the demand the better the price.

THE GOOD CROP AND AGENTS

AS THE weeks pass by, the possibility of Western Canada harvesting a record crop becomes more and more apparent. News of this kind spreads quickly, and ere the crop is in tre elevator, agents of all kinds will be scouring their way through western Canada offering the farmers this that and the other thing. There is nothing that the trader is so willing to share with the farmer as prosperity, and the word harvest has a meaning other than that of cutting grain.

The Mercury has no antagonism towards travelling agents as a class. We ourselves do not sow or reap the golden grain, yet we have to live, and moreover, occasionally a traveling agent presents something desireable that cannot be procurred in any other way. But we do know that the news of a record crop in the country will bring many agents from afar off whose chief aim will be easy pickings. A really glib salesman will sell anything to anyone —once—but that is frequently once too often.

In these days of rapid transport and reasonably good roads, there are few things that cannot be procured in the local town. Generally there is one man in the town who knows more about the article desired than the buyer does. This man will tender suggestions and perhaps advice, knowing that he will meet you again and again. If the local town cannot supply your needs there are reputable city houses that can.

If a travelling agent who is unknown to you calls upon you with a "line" you were not interested in before he arrived, it is generally wise to pass up his plea for immediate action. If the article is still desireable a few days after, go ahead and buy it.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

WHOEVER COINED the phrase "nothing succeeds like success," was evidently a student of mankind. Here it was not so very long ago that we were complaining of a late spring, no crop, summerless year and all the calamities that could befall us, while now everyone is predicting one of the best crops the country has ever seen. There were few farmers last spring who were inclined to raise the valuation of their land, yet now from Saskatchewan we read of "a land boom," some writers having gone as far as to condemn it as unwise. Land booms such as Western Canada has previously experienced would do little good, though even then the "boom" rarely reached farm lands. It is true that the excellent crop conditions this year have created a feeling of optimism that has had the effect of strengthening and, in some cases, raising the price of farm lands. This is interesting, as it shows to what extent we are all influenced by temporary conditions. It is more than likely the price of farm lands will, with various fluctuations, raise to nearly that of the lands in the country to the south of us. Just how long this will take, no one can say. But for the immediate present, there is little, with the exception of this years crop (which to some people may be justification enough) to justify the raise in price. While the above teaches us forcibly that "nothing succeeds like success," it also should, when the next period of doubt occurs, and it undoubtedly will, teach us that "Rome was not built in a day."

With time, patience and energy intelligently applied, Alberta offers a much more than even chance of a man and his family making good.

THAT PUT! PUT!! PUT!!!

SCIENTISTS ARE telling us that this old world is becoming too noisy Too much of a strain put on the nervous shock absorber, so to speak. Anyway, one fellow that lives on main street, and who hears the noise of machinery during the day and the bur-r-r of automobile engines at night, recently woke out of a sound sleep, went to the window and exclaimed that a Canadian National train was coming up main street. With the coming of the "electric" train, a little more noise is added to that which we already had, but should one of these trains come up main street in the middle of the night, the guy says he will throw something from the bedroom window, on top of it.

Cairn Marks Site of Old Forts

Commemorating the advent of civilization into this part of the Canadian west, a handsome cairn was unveiled near Fort Saskatchewan on Monday with an impressive ceremony by Lieutenant Governor Egbert. The inscription on the historic landmark is as follows:

POST AUGUSTUS
FORT EDMONTON

On the river flat below stood Fort Augustus, established by the Northwest Company in 1794; Fort Edmonton, established by the Hudsons' Bay Company in 1795.

Rivals in trade, allies in danger, these companies carried the flag and commerce of Britain by way of the great rivers from the shores of the Atlantic Ocean and Hudson Bay to the Pacific and Arctic Oceans.

Speakers during the course of the ceremony included Judge F. W. Howay of New Westminster, western representative of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Dominion, which erected the cairn; Acting Premier Hon. G. H. Hall; Chief Factor James Thomson of the Hudson's Bay Company, Winnipeg; A. J. Cain, Fort Saskatchewan, and Hon. Dr. A. A. Rutherford, first premier of the province.

Honey Crop Heavy in South

Alberta's honey crop this season promises to be in the neighborhood of 300 tons, according to reports from the southern part of the province where the industry is steadily gaining in importance. Apiaries at Calgary alone have shipped their first carload of honey to Calgary and further shipments will be made to Edmonton A new extraction plant, the largest in Canada, has been installed at the Bee[illegible] headquarters at Cobdale and is operating steadily. From the weather and a wealth of sweet clover and alsike blooms are combining to give the bees now the best harvest on record and Alberta is expected for the first time to supply its honey need from within the province.

To Sell Land For Taxes

Under the Tax Recovery Act, sale of land will be held in Strathmore and Lacombe on September 17th. Other sales [illegible] several of the smaller municipalities in the province are being arranged by the Provincial Government, but where possible they will be held over until the first returns from the present crop have been received. It is believed that these sales will greatly reduce the tax arrears in many localities.

Record Production from Royalite Well

Royalite No. 4 well in the Turner Valley field produced over eighty-six million cubic feet of natural gas—more than all the other [illegible] producing wells in Canada, according to a statement issued in a report on natural gas and petroleum by director of the Mines of the natural resources department of mines, Ottawa.

With the bringing in of this well in 1926, states this report, Alberta assumed first place among the provinces of the Dominion in the production of oil. Royalite No. 4 produced an average of 455 barrels per day of high gravity oil in 1926 and more than 600 barrels per day in 1926. Results to-day the report continues, indicate that Turner Valley is one of the world's greatest gas fields.

Will Establish Commercial Airways

Construction of five commercial [illegible] airways in Alberta will be started in September, announces R. T. Rodd, Dominion Air[illegible] inspector This will be located at the mouth of Cadgan Creek, two miles east of Edmonton on the L. & E. and C. N. railways, on the south bank of Le[illegible] Lake. It is estimated that [illegible] 100,000,000 waterfowl will be propagated at the Mission every year to maintain an undiminished supply of duck for the many companies operating in the lake.

Visiting Poultrymen To See Alberta

Delegates to the World's Poultry Congress, to the number of 120 will spend two days in Alberta in the course of their [illegible] tour. After stopping at Wainwright, the party will spend August 19th at Edmonton, later going on to Jasper, and on their return from the rocky mountains will visit at Banff and Lake Louise and spend August 24 at Calgary. Included in the party are many authorities of note who are visiting Canada for the first time.

Road Grading Contracts Awarded

Four new road grading contracts have been awarded by the Department of Public Works to cover the balance of the work mapped out for the season in the southern part of the province. Seven miles of the Drumheller Munson road will be graded by Fred Mannix, while two sections of the Macleod-Manyberries road forming links in the trunk line north and south from Edmonton to the international boundary have been awarded as follows: Macleod to Standoff 15½ miles to W. A. Farmen of Pincher Creek; Standoff to Carsland, 23 miles through the Blood Indian Reserve to Russell and McLeod, Lethbridge. Eleven miles between Waterton Lakes and Mountain Vein, the first half of the new road into the Waterton Park area will be graded by the Commercial Carthage Co. of Calgary. This road will follow a revised route across the southwestern part of the province, using the original trail for some miles and in other places following easier grades to reach the same point.

Keen Interest In Grain Competition

Judging in the first annual standing grain competition sponsored by the Calgary Board of Trade will be started by Field Crops Commissioner W. J. Stephen about August 10th. There are 65 entries to be judged, all in within a radius of 70 miles of Calgary, and owing to the large number of entries received from outside the city it is possible that the boundaries will be extended next year. Three handsome trophies have been donated for the best field of wheat, oats and barley and a number of substantial prizes are being offered.

Commercial Flying Starts in Alberta

The first regular passenger and [illegible] Lethbridge Commercial Airways was made on August the seventh between High River and Lethbridge by the plane piloted by Jack Palmer, [illegible] and Bert Hunter, mechanic. Both will be arranged between Lethbridge and Waterton Lake.

SEVENTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

August 13th, 1927

The present season has been almost ideal for the growth of crops, the weather during the past two weeks being especially suited to the filling and ripening period, according to reports reaching the Department of Agriculture. Exact statistics, although [illegible] are impossible at this early date, but from all indications the number of districts in the province, while in some cases [illegible] has also been cut, and with a continuation of the present favorable weather, harvest promises to be fully general in from ten days to two weeks. Some frost damage has been reported, but this is negligible and there is every indication that one of the greatest crops in the history of Alberta is well on its way to maturity.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics in a report issued during the past week shows a marked increase in the estimated acreages under the five principal grain crops in Alberta this season as compared with 1926, and with the decidedly higher yield which is promised, the total production of grain in the province for 1927 may undoubtedly will show an increase of [illegible] over record [illegible] million bushels over last year's mark.

In the south and southeastern parts of the province a start has been made with the cutting of fall wheat and [illegible] fields are reported, the acreage in this crop being considerably larger than has been the case for the past several years. Harvesting of [illegible] has been practically completed and the bulk of this grain is now [illegible] in a number of districts. The weather in the north part of the province has been dry but very [illegible] and the crop is filling out satisfactorily.

In the central and northern sections of the province all grains are [illegible] rapidly and uniformly and [illegible] have started in early areas where fields in a number of districts. A heavy crop of hay is being put up and pasture generally show little effect of the record dry weather [illegible] throughout the province and [illegible] condition and grain [illegible] heed [illegible] for months at no [illegible] time.

Harvesting has started in a number of districts in the Peace River and Grande Prairie districts [illegible] and the crop [illegible] [illegible] stages of [illegible] ripened [illegible] and [illegible] in the part of the province [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible]

Here and There

The estimated gross agricultural wealth of Canada is $7,808,297,000 according to the Department of Interior.

Concluding a stay in Canada on their yacht near Kamloops, B. C., the Marquess and Marchioness of Aberdeen accompanied by Lady Winifred Coats, left from Quebec recently on the Canadian Pacific steamship Minnedosa for England.

An aeroplane passenger and freight service to the central Manitoba mine area was inaugurated on June 1 by the Western Canada Airways, Limited, making the first commercial service to be operated in the Province.

Foundation work is proceeding rapidly on the new million to the [illegible] grain elevators at Port McNicoll, which when completed will have a storage capacity of 6,000,000 bushels instead of the present capacity of 4,000,000 bushels.

A total of 1,254 English boys have already been moved from the Old Country and placed on farms in Canada and Great Britain by the British Immigration and Colonization Association according to the figures given out at the annual meeting of that organization.

According to figures of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Canada had all countries of the world to compete against, increased her wheat shipments from August 1 to December 31, 1926, to April 30 last year by [illegible] 267,700,000 bushels has cleared [illegible] the United States with $6,191,000 bushels.

Days of the covered wagon were recalled when Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunter and six children arrived in Regina, Saskatchewan from Marshall, North Dakota, in an [illegible] consisting of a team of horses and four wagons carrying their household effects and farm implements. They leased a half section of land.

General [illegible] travel through the Canadian rockies is expected to be very heavy this year according to R. G. McVetty, general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Winnipeg. Several [illegible] parties will also add to the number of persons [illegible] through the Canadian Rockies regions.

The life of John Pope, sailor aboard the Allan-Royal Mail-Star steamship Empress of Britain was saved recently by a member of the Canadian Pacific steamship Minnedosa, after Pope had been severely injured by a fall of every floor from the mast. The two ships were 300 miles apart but were to meet and the injured man was transferred to the C P R ship and carried to [illegible].

[illegible] wasted at Mr. Bailey's until Mr. Atkinson, a neighbor of Minisitik, took her and the gentleman home. The result might easily have been fatal, as it is, they are bad enough. It is hit time that the bank which makes this a blind curve was cut down and road widened there. Most of us who use the road have at some time or other, had a narrow squeak there, either with cars, rucks or wagons. There is a "slow" sign on the west end but none on the east end, and even this is disregarded, as Constable Mattson found out whilst there, for as he led several speed fiends. We trust that now this accident another accident may not run into the ditch and it be seen that it too, about a 20 foot ditch is found being hit, so we think it is time to lay this place before ref [illegible] are needed for the remainder.

THEATRE NOTES

Madge Bellamy, who has her round of admirers at Tofield will star at the Variety Theatre on Saturday evening in "Ankles Preferred."

This is a late production and one that will be sure to please.

For the following Wednesday, the management have been able to procure "Valley of Hell" which is not nearly so bad as it sounds but a picture well worth seeing.

For those who are fond of a mystery picture "The Mystery Club" showing on Saturday, August 27th will prove a rare treat. This is an exceptionally good production of the mystery type.

For September 17th there has been booked, "The Flag Lieutenant." This is a naval picture taken on board British battle ships, and is ranked as a high grade film production.

PRESENTATION TO MISS FORMAN

Members of the congregation of the Catholic Church met at the St. Francis Rectory on Sunday evening. Miss M. Forman is shortly to take up a position on the staff of Killam school and during the evening the sentiments of those present were ably expressed in a neat little speech by Miss C. Kuhni, our C. W. L. president.

Rev. F. Quirk in his remarks also expressed the fact Tofield's loss is Killam's gain, as Miss Forman, the mainstay of our choir, our worthy treasurer and an enthusiastic church worker will certainly be missed in her departure.

SCHOOL OPENS THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st.

The Tofield school will re-open on Thursday, September 1st, with an enrollment of about 240. This number is a slight increase over last term but on a great increase over the enrollment of six or more years ago.

It is interesting to note that at Tofield the school population has by far maintained the general population. The general census taken last year shows only a light increase over that taken six years previously, but the school enrollment has increased from per cent.

There has been under consideration the establishment of another town, but so far nothing has been done. This will only be done if absolutely necessary as the establishment of another room would undoubtedly result in increased taxation for ratepayers.

The school will open on Thursday, September 1st, with the following staff: Principal, S. R. McCullough, B.A.; A. R. Pearson, Miss L. M. Fitment, Miss Marion Argue, Miss Stella Clement.

ANGLICAN CHILDREN'S FLOWER SERVICE

A very beautiful and interesting event was held last Sunday when the people and teachers of the Anglican Sunday school held their annual flower service. The service which was conducted by the Rev. Adams brought out the significance of the beauty of flowers and enhanced the inspiration to do good that beautiful flowers give.

After the service the children and teachers were conveyed to the cemetery by automobiles where the flowers were reverently laid upon the graves of the departed.

FINE YIELD OF GARNET WHEAT

Mr. Ed Eqlial has commenced cutting his Garnet wheat, at time of writing (Wednesday) having 70 acres out. This wheat is a particularly good stand and was cut 97 days after seeding. Mr. Eqlial has 140 acres to cut and the binder will be kept busy from now until the last sheaf is tied. He estimates the yield at about 40 bushels per acre.

AMISK CREEK

The Ladies' Aid will meet at Mrs. C. Olson's next Friday, August 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Watt and the two children from Sandiges, California, are visiting at the Olson home. Mr. Watt being Mr. J. H. Olson's brother. They motored all the way and had a very interesting trip. They are staying about two weeks.

The A. Patterson, B. A. Horn, Mr. P. Mock, R. D. Berg and P. D. Pearson families were all guests of the J. Jacobson home on Sturdo last Sunday.

Miss Lena Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Beplitzer and Mr. E. Lunay returned on Sunday from Stone Lake, where they had gone on a hog and beer picking trip.

The girls of Amisk Creek travelled to their new cell hall at the Patterson grounds on last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Biel and son returned from the United States last week. They will serve Jos Biel with her work this Fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blackburn and children from Lavoy were guests at the Olson home last Sunday.

SCHOOL FAIR SEPTEMBER 16th

The annual school fair will be held at Tofield on Friday, September 16th when it is expected there will be a large number of exhibits from both town and country school pupils.

Last year's fair was a decided success despite the fact that the very worst kind of weather prevailed on the day the fair was held. With the experience of last year to help them and the excellent growing season we have had, it is expected that the exhibit the year will by far eclipse both in point of number and quality that of last year.

(1) Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, where Festival was held. (2) Gaultier Boulevard, French Canadian balcony interpreted (3) The image of the lofty cheptainbas was a few of the visual many offerings of the Festival. (4) Lionel Daoust, famous sculptor and her appearing whom

By all accounts the Canadian Folk-song and Handicraft Festival held at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, under the auspices of the National Museum of Canada was an unqualified success. More than any previous event which had to do with French Canadian folk music it has brought to public notice the rich heritage of native song in Canada. Not merely did the concerts prove magnetic, but the general atmosphere of the Festival brought forth something dormant, a wealth of national culture that has been buried under the oppressive weight of materialism.

Quebec during the three days of the Festival was invaded by artists from all parts of Canada — celebrated singers from the large cities and the most humble, though not the least interesting, interpreters of folk-song coming from the outlying districts. The Festival Committee has a budget to cover such artists and material never suspected. The celebrated men and women were applauded but there unknown quantities like the village songsters and dancers, and the Bureau of Loyalty, supplied that unusual atmosphere of novelty and attraction that characterized the Festival.

Vincent Fortier de Repentigny and the lumberjacks in their checked shirts and grey breeches; Philéas Bedard with his homespun clothes and his beaming smile; the fish-of-fo-ti-o Gaspé; Madame Lalonde and her daughters with their spinning wheels and hooked rugs; Napoleon Lalonde from the Ile of Orleans with his toy ships carved by hand; the women from l'Assomption braving the Canadian rush — almost a test art — and in contrast with these the superb singing of cultivated artists, Cedia Brault, Juliette Gaultier, Jeanne Dussaux, J. Campbell Mc-Inne and Rodolphe Plamondon. Nothing more thoroughly Canadian can be imagined than the rollicking songs of the lumberjacks and raftsmen of Quebec by Charles Marchand and his "Troubadours."

And it looks as if the Festival will become an annual event. At the close of the final concert in Quebec, it was announced that not only would the Festival be held next year, but that E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, had offered $2,000 a prize for competitions to be held at the 1928 Festival. The competitions to be based on French-Canadian chansons and folk melodies, for which prizes are offered as follows:

1.—$1,000, divided into $750.00 and $250.00 as first and second prize, for instruments, and not to last over 30 minutes.

2.—$1,000, divided into $750.00 and $250.00 as first and second prizes, for a cantata introducing French-Canadian chansons popularized; the $750 to be divided; $500 for music and $250 for libretto; the $250 to be divided: $150 for music and $100 for libretto.

3.—$500 for suite for string quartet, not to last over twenty minutes.

4.—$250 for group of arrangements of four chansons popularized for male voices.

5.—$250 for group of arrangements of four chansons popularized for mixed voices.

The last two (4 and 5) are confined to Canadian composers. The others are open to International competition. Rules and details will be announced as soon as possible, through the musical press.

To The Man Considering The Purchase of a Private Electric Plant

We present the famous "Kohler Automatic." This plant, which comes in four sizes, 800 watt, 1600 watt, 2000 watt and 3000 watt, is the peer of private automatic electric plants. With this plant installed, press a button and you get light, turn a switch and you get power.

The plant generally recommended for ordinary farm purposes is of 1600 watt capacity. Its 3 h.p. engine has four cylinders, magneto ignition, vacuum tank, drawing gasoline from Large tank underground; is radiator cooled, each cylinder being entirely surrounded by water; and is economical of operation, the amount of gasoline being consumed varying according to the amount of electricity being used. It runs very quietly and is exceptionally well made in every particular. The dynamo is four pole, compound wound 110 volt. It has the famous Kohler patented switch, whereby when a light is turned on the plant starts, and when the last light is turned off the plant stops, thus needing the minimum of care.

This plant will give years and years of satisfactory service and sells for $950.00 f.o.b Tofield.

SOMETHING ABOUT KOHLER OF KOHLER

Fifty-four years ago the organization now known throughout the world as "Kohler of Kohler," had its beginning in a small work shop employing a half dozen men.

Through its policy of making the quality of its products its highest aim, it has grown to be an organization whose factory buildings cover many acres, in the beautiful Village of Kohler which borders the immense factory, many skilled artisans live in neat, attractive homes. Branch offices have been established in seventeen of the principal cities of America. An affiliated company is located in London, England. Thousands of dealers scattered throughout the country are easily accessible to users of Kohler of Kohler wares.

Here and There

Air mail service between Winnipeg and Pierre, North Dakota, has been inaugurated and the first mail for Winnipeg from the United States arrived recently.

The Shorthorn bull, King of the Lacombe, recently sold from the Calgary Exhibition.

Evidences of the renewal of interest of Old Country investors in Western Canada are seen in a number of recent transactions recorded at Winnipeg, including the proposed erection of three steam pictures houses by reams of English capital.

Frederic Beaupersat, when clearing his farm south of Verner on the Canadian Pacific lines, found a $20-in boulder which was half native silver and worth about $1,200. The discovery has aroused considerable interest among mining men in Cobalt and elsewhere who are arriving in numbers.

London, Ontario, now has an air harbor, through the efforts of the part of the Chamber of Commerce an local air-fields. The city has a good one and within a month or two will be completely equipped and marked so as to provide an air depot available to all planes that seek London as a stopping place.

According to a financial statement issued from the headquarters of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, the gross earnings of the Company for the first six months of the year ended showed an increase of $3,614,-273.6. The net profits, however, decreased about $900 000 due to a four million dollar increase in the working expenses for that period.

Quebec City lived up to its traditions as the historic gateway and welcomed their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and Prince George, Governor and Mrs. Baldwin with an ceremonial salute of 21 guns, and a blaze of bunting and streamers throughout the docks and waterfront as the Canadian Pacific Railway, the President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, had offered $2,000 a prize for competitions to be held at the 1928 Festival. The competitions to be based on French-Canadian chansons and folk melodies, for which prizes are offered as follows:

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1 or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand, the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

THE SEED CATALOGUES BEATEN

AS THE snows of winter are about to be melted by the steady strengthening warmth of the spring sun—the seed catalogue appears. Depicted in gorgeous colors, the last word in the color printers art, are flowers, the colors of which, so we have frequently heard, are seldom seen actually growing on stem or stalk. But now we know, that no matter how clever the color printer has become, he has only been immitating real things and an immitation is never as good as the real article.

The flower gardens in the Tofield district this year are exceptionally fine. Brought along by copious rains and brilliant sunshine, they have reached a beauty of much more than average degree and there are many gardens in the town and district that are well worth seeing.

We acknowledge with appreciative thanks bouquets of flowers from Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. J. Cookson, Mrs. Nickerson, Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Mrs. W. Herndon and Mr. Hannan, Sr.

SACCO AND VANGETTI

THERE HAVE been few criminal cases that have had such international notoriety as that of Sacco and Vangetti. About seven years ago a robbery was perpetrated in which a payroll was stolen and the paymaster killed. Sacco and Vangetti were suspected and arrested and in one or more trials found guilty and sentenced to die in the electric chair. Appeal followed appeal and quite recently they were saved almost at the eleventh hour by a governor's order that gave them several more days to live. The sentence for them to die was marked by demonstrations signifying sympathy which took different forms from mass meetings to bombing outrages. Reading the newspaper dispatches, one would gather that there is little doubt of their guilt, and the outcry against their sentences comes from radicals and extremists with whom the condemned men were in sympathy. But so says the the Alberta "U.F.A.":

"The fact is that the protests against the executions are supported by many eminent citizens of the United States and of every country in the civilized world. After an exhaustive inquiry into the circumstances of the trial, Professor Felix Frankfurter, of the Harvard Law School, who was formerly an assistant in the United States War Department, has come to the very definite conclusion that the trial was a travesty of justice. He is supported by many other men of prominence in law and the universities and the church on both sides of the Atlantic whose views have been expressed in the past few weeks."

Whatever the outcome of the case, whether the men receive another trial or whether they die in the electric chair, the Canadian and British public will wonder how the case could be so prolonged. If the men are guilty, the case should have become merely a matter of record years ago, if they are innocent they should long since have obtained their freedom. If there is a reasonable doubt, the men should be given the benefit of it.

CAPITAL

THERE ARE many reasons why some men do not succeed as well as they would like, one of the most common ones being lack of capital. This applies with equal force to both business men and farmers. There are times in both business and farming careers when access to one thousand more dollars would mean the turning point and set a man on the road to prosperity. "Doing business on a shoestring" is always risky, though sometimes successful.

It is announced that a plan is on foot, in which by an arrangement between the Canadian and British treasuries, money will be loaned to British immigrants so that they may buy farms. This is a splendid thing as far as it goes, but why should an immigrant be accorded privileges denied to native sons of Canada? There are many young Canadians, sons of farmers, through training and environment are much better financial risks, who would be glad to receive financial aid. They could make excellent use of the money and in many cases it would prove a foundation upon which to construct a life's endeavor.

The British immigrant is always heartily welcomed to Canada, and the British and Canadian treasuries are to be commended for their enterprise, yet if Canadian government money is to be used to establish farmers upon farms of their own, preference should be given to native sons and settlers who have been in the country for a number of years.

CANADA LOOKS GOOD TO THIS MAN

Winnipeg, Aug. 9th.—The pasted life of a farm worker in Canada looks "mighty good" after half a year of life in various prisons, where he was because he could not prove his Canadian citizenship, according to C. Ward, repatriated Canadian, who has recently been placed in farm work by the colonization and Agriculture Department of the Canadian National Railways. Before his departure for Lacelle, Mr. Ward, who reached Canada on the Cunard liner Ausonia, visited a table of having been "shanghaied" aboard a French freighter, carried to Sicilia and there discharged — stranded — to undergo many hardships before reaching his return to Canada. According to Mr. Ward, this was his third voyage "before the mast" and it will be his last. The Canadian farm looking attractive after his adventures.

In his statement made at the Colonization Office of the Canadian National Railways at Bonaventure Station, where employment was found for him, Mr. Ward stated that he December last he had been offered employment as a fireman aboard a French freighter, the S. S. Leopold of Marseeilles registry, then lying at Quebec. He accepted the position. In spite of the Captain's threat to put him ashore for attempting desertion, he managed to escape from the ship at North Shields—broke—and by working on his bread and cheese, tramped his way to London, 290 miles, in two weeks. At the end of that walk I was agnan arrested by London police and sent to a workhouse, where the condition of my feet and legs was such that a doctor ordered me kept in bed for a week before I was allowed to visit Canada House.

"When I finally reached Canada House I was told that nothing could be done for me. I finally got them to cable my people, but at the end of a week was told there was no reply to the cable. Another week later I was taken ill with diphtheria and scarlitis and sent to a hospital for two weeks and then back to the workhouse to recuperate. When I returned to Canada House I found a cable waiting which established my identity, but I was informed that there were no funds to take care of stranded seamen and they could not help me. One of the secretaries did, however, give me two shillings to keep me going until there was a reply to a cable they had sent acquainting Ottawa to repatriate me. I was still in part of the rags of prison clothing I had worn when escaping from Hoogstraaten, and I was moved from the workhouse to another place. After three days, Ottawa cabled that I was to be repatriated and the High Commissioner's office then provided me with a pair of pants and jacket, second hand, and informed me that I was to be returned to Canada on a passenger ship. As an ex-Canadian soldier, who was staying at the same place, gave me shoes and socks and a shirt, and later I learned that I was to return to Canada on the S.S. Ausonia, under the Immigration Act, and that I would be expected to refund the passage money.

"On July 23rd I embarked on the Ausonia at Southampton and arrived at Quebec on July 31st. There I was met by R. B. Maxwell of the Colonization Department of the Canadian National Railways, who took me up to the Salvation Army hostel for the night, and next morning with others on the offer, provided enough funds to buy my food and bring me to Montreal, with a letter to E. J. Sauve of the Colonization Department there. Arriving in Montreal I went to Mr. Sauve's office and was immediately offered a farm job at Lacelle, Que., and I'm going there on the first train for it looks like a mighty good chance to get a foothold myself after the long and unusual I have had since December 10th last.

"And my case is not a solitary one. In the get-out of Hoogstraaten there were three Canadians with both tuberculosis and dysentery, all held because they have no proper passport and unable to secure help from the British consul, as I was. If I can

McLAUGHLIN BUICK

No less than sixty eight major refinements and improvements have been made in the 1928 McLaughlin-Buicks which are announced this week by the McLaughlin motor car Company Limited. Running the gamut from modifications in engine design which provide greater and more effortless power to changes in exterior line which increase the attractive appearance of the cars the 1928 improvements more correctly substantiate the McLaughlin-Buick claim to leadership.

The first thing that strikes the eye of the observer is the new care in the latest adoption of the familiar McLaughlin-Buick radiator design which gives the car a lower and more massive appearance. An apparent increase of length and greater refinement have been secured by broadening the over-all height of the care by from two to three inches.

Only thereby an interesting engineering development, pioneered by McLaughlin-Buick engineers, has it been possible to achieve this end without sacrificing riding comfort also. Wheel size and road clearance. A new dual-valve guard, not only stylo and safety but added engine efficiency. With the same headroom, the body is longer, wider, and roomier. The wheel side and road clearance remain the same.

Chief of the engine improvements, which results in a substantial increase of power as well as new silence of operation, is a new McLaughlin-Buick cylinder head, of the spherical type. This gives higher compression with less detonation, causing a greater portion of the fuel to be transformed into useful power. To reduce valve noise to a minimum an entirely new valve mechanism has been developed for the new McLaughlin Buick. The camshaft has been made ligned to insure quiet, and the camshaft bearings increased and sheetened. Greater radiator capacity makes for even cooler running than heretofore. Starting, lighting, ignition, and lubrication systems have been all improved. Standard S. A. E. gear shifts has been adopted.

Canada To The Fore

Canada is not only being kept well to the people of the British Isles supplied with food, but is also playing a very important part in the struggle on the side of the United States. The publicity the Dominion is receiving is of the best kind, and the prestige which it is acquiring as a producer of foodstuffs is being highly appreciated on the country.

The British Isles need small, as we have said before, in connection with the Financial Debate of London, to look at the question of the Empire and large sections of the United States, upon the Dominion and look on it only as a country of cities and the really resourceful development of the country during the last fifty years. Canada today is better known and more respected than ever by the people of Canada, but by the world. The story of marvellous possibilities has been told in the British Isles and in such a way as to command the earnest attention and consideration of capitalists and others.

Furthermore it has established the truth of Hilaire Belloc's prophecy that the Canadian Pacific Railway has again kept Canada prosperously before the people of liberal thinkers. For some of these thinkers have been followed with the keenest interest by the British people, and it is to be hoped that the Board of Directors will see that a very great opportunity is given to British manufacturers in Canada.

The recent visit to Canada upon the invitation of the Toronto Chamber of Commerce of Colonel Gibbon, the Prime Minister of Australia, has also been of immense benefit. Australia distantly could not fail to impress the British people, for into the very being of the citizens of the United States and Canada who was always a commanding and popular figure in the eyes of Great Britain. Finally the visit of Lord Northcliffe to Canada, which was attended by the help of the British Empire, the founder of Lord Strathcona, the Premier of Canada, the Vice-President of the United States, the Governor of New York, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and other leading statesmen, has created a friendly feeling between the United States and Canada which is quite unparalleled and provided an object lesson for all the nations of the world.

The present is not the time for the placing of a Canadian Minister at the Court of St. James's, Washington or Ottawa. It has proved that the interests of Canada with the world prosperity and there is certainly no reason why some future conference, to the National debt, growth and development of both countries. The day of publicity is over. The people of Canada have proved to need a minister to the United States, and at the present time a large number of wealthy and well-known British business men are visiting the Dominion with a view to establishing themselves in the prosperous country and to the manufacturing industries of the future.

It is to the benefit of every one that Canada should be developed to its fullest extent, for the Dominion is destined to become the granary of the British Empire, and a source of supply of many of the products of the United States, and if necessary the finest recruiting ground in the world. Death Of J. Ogden Armour

Once Controlled a Billion Dollar a Year Business

J. Ogden Armour, who once controlled a billion dollar a year business in the packing industry, died in London on a visit that he had recently undertaken because of his interest in the packing company there, and was buried in the Armour family vault in Forest Hill, Chicago.

He was the junior head of Armour and Company, packers, founded by Philip D. Armour.

Mr. Armour's building had to divide its profits for several years that in 1920 the business of the company was so large that it could not handle. He got into the packing business because of his interest in the packing company there, and was buried in the Armour family vault in Forest Hill, Chicago.

His interest in one of all classes of people, the state of affairs, and he seemed to delight in his friend and his family.

Fate played its part in making and breaking Armour's fortune in the early days of the packing industry. He was a boy of 18 when he was left a fortune of $1,000,000 by his father, Joseph Armour, and his brother, Philip D. Armour, and at the close of the great war greatly weakened the financial power of his family.

Held Breath Fourteen Minutes

College Man At Middleton, Conn., Breaks World's Record

E. L. Gaylor, Jr., of Clintondale College, Middletown, Conn., a student at the college, has broken the world's record for breath-holding by establishing a time of 14 minutes 2 seconds.

The previous mark was made at the Paris relay of California, in 1916, when 13 minutes 56 seconds was recorded.

Gaylor accomplished his feat by breathing pure oxygen before diving before holding his breath, to rid his blood of the carbonic dioxide. To prepare himself further he exercised the pressure and three months of vigorous, hard work.

Harvest Help Arriving

Large Quota From Eastern Canada and Britain Columbia

Winnipeg, Man. The great rush of harvesters to the prairies is now on in earnest. Large quotas have been arriving from the eastern provinces and from Britain Columbia, which will be followed by a heavy movement from the Canadian National Railways. Over 10,000 men will be on duty in getting the crops from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Vancouver is still sending large numbers, and others will follow closely on their heels.

Entering Canada will contribute $4,000,000 to the harvest this year, it is estimated. Manitoba needs 8,000, and Saskatchewan 20,000. Saskatchewan has asked for 60,000 of which half are available locally, and Alberta needs 18,000 of which 4,000 must come from outside the province. Either province has but 6,000 available.

Before he went back to Europe Mr. Crosfield's story will be told by Canadians in the hands and breadth of Canada, said John Aldred Rutherford, president of the British Newspaper Society. "Since such a journey as this we can never again resist bringing to the name of Canada as many newspapers. Before we left Canada in many of us, was just a patch of red on the map of the world. Now we are seeing its wonderful possibilities of development, for ourselves."

Alberta Coal For East

Outlook More Favorable For Shipments To Ontario This Fall

Toronto.—Following a conference here between Major Power, Provincial Subsidiary Industrial Commissioner, and Howard Struthers, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, the outlook between more optimistic for shipment to Toronto and Ontario generally of Alberta coal.

As the railway situation is now developing the question of doing away with the embargo on Alberta coal for shipment to Ontario points we have every hope that we are going to get a new rate this year," said Mr. Struthers, "and I believe I am going to be a big movement of coal from Alberta to Ontario. The railway board, I expect, will make its decision before the end of the month, and the Government will have to take action after that. We feel pretty certain that the Dodine will be satisfactory, but we know that steps are on the embargo schedule."

SACCO AND VANZETTI PAY DEATH PENALTY

Boston, Aug. 23rd.—Nicola Sacco Bartolomeo Vanzetti have paid with their lives for the murder of which they were convicted six years ago. They died, calmly, shortly after midnight, in the electric chair at Charlestown state prison, protesting their innocence of crime affirming their belief in anarchy and refusing the benefits of religion.

In his native tongue, Sacco shouted: "Long live anarchy," as he rested himself in the death chair.

"I am an innocent man" were among the last words of Vanzetti.

Sacco walked to the execution room. Pale, but apparently strong and vigorous and quite alert and collected, he stepped to the chair, and as he sat down shouted in a ringing voice: "Viva l'anarchia."

While the straps were being adjusted he spoke in English in a moderate tone: "Farewell my wife and children and all my friends."

After a pause, he looked around at the silent witnesses of the state and said: "Good evening gentlemen."

His final words, spoken as the hood strap was tightened were: "Farewell mother."

He had entered the chamber at 12:11:12 and was pronounced dead at 12:19:39.

The guards then left the chamber and returned with Vanzetti. He was the most collected, and seemed quite at ease as he entered.

He shook hands just inside the door with a guard whom he recognized and then grasped the hands of others as he walked to the chair.

With a quiver he took his place and then in a formal way, said: "I wish to tell you I am innocent and never committed any crime but sometimes some sin. I thank Mr. Warden for everything you have done for me. I am innocent of all crime, not only of this one, but all. I am an innocent man."

As the final straps, those which held the head in place were being adjusted, he gave a final message of forgiveness.

"I wish to forgive some people for what they are now doing to me," he said simply.

He had entered at 12:20:38 and was dead at 12:27:55.

Grain Freight Rates Equalized

LONG AWAITED DECISION READY

Ottawa.—, Aug. 29th.—Ordering that the rates on grain and flour from all points on the C.P.R. branch lines west of Fort William to Port William and Westfort be equalized to the present Canadian Pacific mileage basis of rates of equivalent mileage grouping, and that all other railways similarly adjust their rates on grain and flour to Fort William, Port Arthur, Westfort and Armstrong, the railway commission this afternoon issued its main order arising out of the prolonged hearing into the matter of equalization of freight rates.

The order stipulates that rates to Fort William and Port Arthur shall be on the same basis as to Fort William.

Reasons for judgment will be announced later.

What is now issued is the order to the railways giving effect to the board's conclusions. The order refers to the government's direction for a general inquiry with the design of investigating as far as possible the grouping of Canadian grain and other products through Canadian ports.

After detailing the sittings held and the interests represented, the board orders as follows:

1. That the rates on grain and flour from all points on Canadian Pacific branch lines west of Port William to Fort William Port Arthur and Westport to be equalized to the present Canadian Pacific mileage basis of rates applicable from those points to Fort William Port Arthur and Westport as set into effect by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co.

2. That the rates on grain and flour from points on the Canadian National Railways in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to Vancouver, North Vancouver, Prince Rupert and Port Mann, shall be on the same basis as the rate to Fort William, plus the competing rail rates, the distance from Calgary to Vancouver via the Canadian Pacific Railway shall be assumed to be the same as from Edmonton to Vancouver via the Canadian National Railway, viz: 766 miles.

3.—That the provisions as to defeating tariffs set out in section 11 of the Inland Water Freight Act shall apply to the Canadian National Railways as well, the necessary amendments to be made in the tariff to be effective on the 17th day of September 1927.

4.—That the rate of 34½c per 100 pounds on wheat and 42½ per 100 pounds on other grain for export from Port Arthur, Fort William, Westport and Armstrong, Ontario, to Quebec or lower ports be and the same is hereby declared reasonable and fixed as the maximum to be charged by the railways subject to the jurisdiction hereof and they are hereby required to publish and file tariffs having the same effect, to Quebec or to Montreal etc.

5.—(a) grain from bay ports for export;

(b) all traffic from Toronto and points west thereof for export.

Such changes to become effective upon or before but not later than the 12th day of September 1927.

The board's order therefore removes equalization of freight rates on Canada to grain and flour only.

Anyone picking up a bridle in a pasture last week of town would confer a favor upon the owner by leaving it at the Mercury office.

NOW SHOWING STARRING SATURDAY

That popular screen star, Tom Mix, will be on the screen at the Variety theatre in Vegreville on Saturday night in "Canyon of Light". He will be supported by an excellent cast in a good western picture. The usual admirers of Tom Mix will no doubt be present. This is a picture worth seeing.

For Wednesday next, "Corporal Kate" will be shown. This is a picture depicting the women's side of the world war. Genuine punch in the thrills, heart throbs aplenty! There is a love story connected with the production thereof a tariff showing a rate of 18.34 cent per 100 pounds on all grain for export from Port Arthur, Fort William, Westfort and Armstrong, Ontario, to Quebec; such rate to be one effective on or before the 12th day of September, 1927 but not later.

5.—(b) and further right shall embrace competing subject to the jurisdiction hereof and they are hereby required to publish and file tariffs having the same rate to Quebec or to Montreal etc.

(c) grain from bay ports for export;

(d) all traffic from Toronto and points west thereof for export.

Such changes to become effective on or before but not later than the 12th day of September 1927.

The board's order therefore removes equalization of freight rates on Canada to grain and flour only.

BASKETBALL GAME

On Thursday, August the 18th at 7:30 the local girls went down to defeat before Chipman by a score of 6—38. Chipman had too much power for Tofield girls. It plainly showed that Emily McAllister the main stay of Tofield's sharp shooters, felt the loss of her dependent forward Dorothy Bowman.

Line-up was: Nora Wood and Emily McAllister, forwards; Dorothy Sharp, centre; guards, Ruth McLaughlin and Florence Kendall. Sub. Gertrude Stanton.

Fred Kennedho refereed the the game.

On Saturday night, September 3rd, Tofield will play a game here with Oyrdie at seven o'clock and we look forward for Emily and Dorothy to get them well out in the lead.

Line-up will be: Dorothy Bowman and Emily McAllister; centre, Florence Kendall; guards, Ruth McLaughlin and Gertrude Blake.

With this team Tofield should pull through with a victory.

LINDBROOK

The recent rains have stifled the ears of the binders here for a few days. We hope it does't last too long, or fine weather is what is needed now.

Mr. and Mrs. Leahy and family Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hooper and family of Edmonton visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Tofield last Sunday.

The Chester children are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Burton of Lindbrook N. over the holidays. They have been on the pick at her foot with an axe but not badly and is progressing favorably.

Mr. Jones of Tofield has been ill a bed this last week is well on the way to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hooper and family of Edmonton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Hooper of this place.

We see that yet another auto has had a mishap in the hills here. This time it is just north of Mr. W. Glenn's gate. The note is in the ditch completely overturned.

We regret to learn that Mrs. P. Archibald is in hospital again and hope for more favorable news regarding her recovery from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hobbs and son William motored to Lashburn, Sask., this week, hence the rain. Willie Hobbs is entering the high school grades at that point.

Westdale School re-opened this week with Miss Emily Ferguson as teacher.

Miss Clara Abbott of Tofield has been engaged as teacher for the Lindbrook school for the next term which open on the first.

RETCHAMONT

The horn of the binder was heard in all sides on last Monday after-noon rain commenced to fall putting a stop to all field operations. It is hoped it will be of short duration.

SAVING SEED CORN

(Experimental Farms Note)

Home-grown seed corn has, for a number of years, been produced in certain sections of Western Canada. Investigation have shown that one of the early growers began by saving a few ears for seed each year, and that the corn gradually became adapted to the particular region in which it was grown.

Unlike grain, even early varieties of corn will at mature sufficiently for safe storage on the plant in Western Canada except in rare instances. Ears for seed must be selected from the field before being injured by autumn frosts. When the dents are formed on the dent corn, and the ears glazed on the flint corn, seed may be saved. Increased maturity is of course, better, and plants showing increased maturity should be selected from which to pluck ears for seed.

Seed corn picked at these stages contains thirty to forty per cent moisture. This moisture content must be reduced by drying the ears in a well ventilated room before the first severe frost is content with the frost. Several weeks of drying are required. While drying, the ears should be placed so that they do not touch each other. Groups of a few ears may be tied by the husks and suspended from walls or ceiling, or the ears may be driven with butts to the walls on nails attached to the posts or walls. Ears may also be dried by hanging in parallel lines of strings which must be tapped over after placing in each ear. Large quantities may be placed in chicken wire attached to racks made of scantling.

Each year new exhibitors at corn shows ship ears which are not dry. Some of these arrive in a very soft condition while others would hardly a transit. Such material rapidly becomes unfit for seed when packed in boxes.

Home-grown seed possesses decided advantages in the vigour of plants and early maturity when compared with seed of the same varieties produced farther south. Seed of a dozen varieties has been tested, as indicated above, at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Indian Head, for a number of years.

The wonders of modern science are again brought home to us by a news item which tells about the removal of a steel jacketed bullet from the horns of an ox-soldier, after it had also there for nine years, by careful manipulation of a powerful electromagnet. With the aid of two floor-sweeper the surgeons were able to guide the bullet into the "trap" which had been gently pushed down to the long.

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

GOOD NEWS

The farmers of the Tofield district will hail as good news the judgment recently issued by the railway commission, equalizing the freight rates, proportioned to distance, between Edmonton and Fort William and Edmonton and Vancouver.

The order which is published on the front page, we take to mean that on grain or flour the rate either east or west from Tofield per ton mile will be the same. This is a ruling, which with certain modifications have been in effect since 1925, but as this was an order put into effect prior to the Board's consideration of the entire grain shipping question and was only adopted on a tie vote of the board, there were always fears that the order would be rescinded. In the recent complete judgment, the equalization of rates is made a special feature, and there will be much satisfaction among shippers on this account. Until the railways issue their new tariffs it is not possible to say exactly what the saving will be to the Tofield farmer, but it is safe to say it will be considerable.

HARVEST HELP

NEWSPAPERS THROUGHOUT the west are making a plea for the harvest help that is now coming into the country. In past years, harvest help has in some districts been found up as something in the nature of a necessary evil. The harvesters, too, in former years were mostly out for adventure and were, to say the least, a boisterous bunch.

However, during the passing of the years, as the development of the West proceeded and the number of harvesters increased, the type has gradually changed. Where before, comparitively speaking, there were only a sprinkling of young men coming west at harvest time on adventure bent, there is now quite an army of men coming each fall, the majority of whom are looking upon the prairie west as the one big opportunity in their lives. Instead of being merely a "trip west," many of the harvesters now here and coming are on a trip to spy out the land, and find out at first hand what it has to offer the settler.

To a man in a strange country, any kindness, courtesy or consideration shown makes a deep and lasting impression, and quite often is the means of changing a condition of doubt into one of decision—a decision to make the west his home.

TAKING CHANCES

IT PROBABLY is difficult for the young man who has just emerged or who is just emerging into manhood to realise that twenty years ago automobiles on Alberta country roads were rare. Go back another ten years and there were none at all. Nowadays it is the most common thing to see young men jump into a car, "step on it" and away they go in a cloud of dust. It matters little whether the road is straight or crooked, the one object seems to be to go as fast as possible. Far be it from us to put any damper upon the exhilaration created by fast riding, but it is safe to say that when cars get above the 25 mile an hour mark on an ordinary dirt road, the driver is taking chances. There are thousands that get through safely, but the number of reports of overturned cars are increasing all the time. Driving an auto is great fun and in view of this it might be better to drive slower so as to live longer to enjoy it.

EIGTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

Issued by the Department of Agriculture, Government of Alberta, Edmonton, August 27, 1927.

The whole province gives promise of an excellent crop with high average yields of all kinds of grain. Late seeding with abundance of moisture in the early part of the season, is responsible for somewhat late ripening of the general crop. The warm sunshine we have had this past week is ripening the crops with great rapidity. The earlier varieties of wheat, particularly that sown on lighter land, are now mature and a considerable amount of grain is known to have already been done. Cutting will not be general, however, until the first week of September.

A careful check-up of the frost situation shows that there has been no frost damage except in the extreme north-eastern section of the province. In some isolated districts in this area frost struck rather heavily. Except in the above areas the province is entirely free from frost damage. Hail damage has been more prevalent than usual, with the result the damage from this source will be slightly greater than the average. Rust has made an appearance in a few sections. The damage from this source, however, is negligible.

Notwithstanding the losses caused by the above mentioned agencies, no further serious losses occur, we are convinced that the province will have the largest total yield of wheat in its history. A particularly significant feature this year is to be found in the fact that there is a uniformly good crop in every section of the province.

Large numbers of harvesters are now arriving, and it is not anticipated that any shortage of help will occur.

Here and There

When the internet trouble which has been devastating China for the last two years subsides, a tremendous market will open up for Canadian wheat in that country, according to A. E. Scott, representing a large British firm of wheat buyers, on his way back to London to report.

Bounties paid for bob-cats in New Brunswick, by the Department of Lands and Mines, have so far exceeded the figures for the corresponding period of last year, according to L. A. Gagnon, chief game warden, who states that wild cats are being killed in greater numbers each year.

Ontario honey and milk cows have almost completed the purchase of the cattlemen of Guernsey cows from Richard Shorter, Cumberland and Pierce counties. The buyers are Anderson Bros. and Messrs. Graham and Calder from the Hamilton districts.

The first auction sale of horses that has taken place in Montreal for some years was opened at the East End Stock Markets, March 28. Bidding was put at $22 horses and it was stated that approximately 300 horses were sold. The demand was mostly for heavy draught horses, Percherons, Clydesdales and the like, for carters and for lumbering purposes, coming chiefly from Alberta and Saskatchewan, and some from the middle west.

Consequent upon an agreement reached at the recent summer resorts in the Highlands of Ontario, brothers of romance in many ways, there is nothing to tell of the desperation with which men sought to reveal a secret, could come from one more readily than the romantic days of the first settlers of the upper and lower Mainland.

There is a host of legends about the lost fortune of silver but the story that is most generally accepted is that it was buffoon brought out of the district by the Indians and used in exchange for blankets, whiskey and firearms and that they had stored much silver in a cave in the cliffs. His son, however, was brought up with the Indians, and, supplying them with whiskey, induced them to take him to the spot. The three of them went up the Metis River from Myersville to Loon Lake and across country to Bon Echo. Somewhere on top of the cliff they came upon two flat stones. By forcing these stones in opposite directions they discovered an opening about twelve inches in diameter through which Myers forced himself. What the flame from his pine-pitch torch disclosed is doubtful, but there was silver in some form or other and in immense quantities of it. Filling his pockets and a small bag with the treasure, the adventurer made mental note of the locale and came out into the light of day.

Myers' lake was rough and the persons of the whiskey were lost. The two Indians, advised by their cunning, became sorry for this action and fearful of the vengeance of their tribe. In an attempt to depose of Myers, they upset the canoe and lost their own lives, while the survivor made a painful way back alone to Myersville, where he soon succumbed to pneumonia. Myers left a map and descriptions of the location, and it is his map which up till quite

Hidden Treasure of Bon Echo

While the very atmosphere of Bon Echo, one of the most popular summer resorts in the Highlands of Ontario, breathes of romance in many ways, there is nothing to tell of the desperation with which men sought to reveal a secret, could come from one more readily than the romantic days of the first settlers of the upper and lower Mainland.

There is a host of legends about the lost fortune of silver but the story that is most generally accepted is that it was buffoon brought out of the district by the Indians and used in exchange for blankets, whiskey and firearms and that they had stored much silver in a cave in the cliffs. The story goes that one John Myers, who kept a store at Myersville discovered the cache actually was discovered never discover where the cache actually was. His son, however, was brought up with the Indians, and, supplying them with whiskey, induced them to take him to the spot. The three of them went up the Metis River from Myersville to Loon Lake and across country to Bon Echo. Somewhere on top of the cliff they came upon two flat stones. By forcing these stones in opposite directions they discovered an opening about twelve inches in diameter through which Myers forced himself. What the flame from his pine-pitch torch disclosed is doubtful, but there was silver in some form or other and in immense quantities of it. Filling his pockets and a small bag with the treasure, the adventurer made mental note of the locale and came out into the light of day.

Myers' lake was rough and the persons of the whiskey were lost. The two Indians, advised by their cunning, became sorry for this action and fearful of the vengeance of their tribe. In an attempt to depose of Myers, they upset the canoe and lost their own lives, while the survivor made a painful way back alone to Myersville, where he soon succumbed to pneumonia. Myers left a map and descriptions of the location, and it is his map which up till quite recent years has led men to waste their p...'s substance on the supposed treasure at Bon Echo.

In 1860, George Merrill, grandfather of the present operator of Bon Echo Inn, Merrill Dewey well known writer, and one John Ball, were among the first to make an attempt to unravel the secret of the Rock. Coming to the foot of the cliff on a point marks the picture of the upper and lower Mazinaw Lakes, Ball took the southern face, while Merrill worked in the opposite direction, and he said to be the only man to ever see the cave again. Fearful however, that as Ball had once killed a man, his life would not be safe if his secret were known, he kept it to himself, and later the two men left, one discouraged and the other hoping to return again. On his return, but the great forest fires had changed the topography of the top of the rock, that he was unable to locate the cave at the second time.

Later, a man named Van Anrooten becoming possessed of the land mortgaged two excellent farms on the Kingston Road, and spent fourteen years prospecting on the rock to no avail. Then in 1911, two persons, by a queer coincidence, both appropriately, the famous Anna Eva Fay, that they would find a buried deep near the spot by John Myers. They spent over two thousand dollars fail they possessed in the search, and save enough found a rusty gun-bend with the initials J. M. stamped upon it, but they found nothing else.

Bon Echo, with its ideal holidaying facilities, and its treasure romance, lies a short motor drive from the Canadian Pacific Railway Station, Kaladar, on the Montreal-Toronto line.

COOKING LAKE RESERVE NOT TO BE THROWN OPEN

Mayor McCauley Receives Letter After Town Had Requested That It Be Thrown Open For Homestead Entry

Dear Mr. McCauley:

Adverting to the Minister's letter to you of the 22th December last, in connection with the request that the Cooking Lake Forest Reserve be made available for settlement under the homestead regulations, I may say that the Department is now in receipt of a report from an inspector.

It appears from this report that the land in this reserve is of such a nature that it would be of more benefit to the country for grazing, reforestation and water shed purposes than for agriculture, being at the present time covered with a heavy growth of timber and scrub, which if cleared, would make rather indifferent agricultural land.

Under the circumstances, it has been decided to take no action at the present time to make these lands available for settlement.

Yours very truly,

ROY A. GIBSON,

Acting Deputy Minister.

W.I. NOTES

Our first meeting after the holidays, will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 13th at three o'clock in our rooms. New members are welcome to any of our meetings, and a cordial invitation extended to old members as well. The roll call will be answered by giving the name of some great Canadian woman, and tell what she is noted for. Mrs. McCauley will give a paper on "Canadianization," and Mrs. Pinsent one on "Music in the Home, its advantages." Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Spencer. Let us have a fine meeting after the holidays.

The constituency conference which was postponed in the spring on account of bad roads is again set for October 12th, at which time we hope to have a bumper house. Mrs. Rogers of Fort Saskatchewan, our new district director, will be with us at this time and will give a talk. More will be announced later about this.

Our library is open again every Saturday and we have seventeen new books for members to read. Have you joined this thriving library? It is only $1.00 per year, and entitles you to two books a week, and there are over 500 to choose from. Why not join? The new list follows.

Galahad, The Magnificent, by Jos. C. Lincoln.

Christopher Hibbenitt—Soudmaker, by Marguerite Bryant.

The Girls, by Edna Ferber.

Free Highway, by R. Rider Haggard.

The Happy Warrior, by A. E. M. Hitchcock.

The Secret Victory, by L. Nehems

How Many Cards ?, by Orlander.

"A HERO ON HORSEBACK"

An unqualified treat is in store for patrons of the theatre next Saturday when "A Hero on Horseback," a Universal Jewel, is thrown onto the screen, with the always popular Western star, Hoot Gibson, playing a new role in an old setting.

The picture is a screen version of Peter B. Kyne's popular short story entitled "Bread Upon the Waters," with a plot strong in originality, embracing a plentiful measure of thrilling fast action, comedy, human interest and a pleasing love story.

"A Hero on Horseback" conquers the adventurer of a buckaroo—Jed Tonker, a great "break" for Most Gibson fans. The titan-hasted Lightning Chair is capitalizing as the heroine and portrays her role with vivacity and charm.

Edwards Davis, well known screen character actor, is cast as Sim father, while Edward Hearn is a most personable and heart-palpitating villain. Dan Hanlon of Townsville Trolley fame, plays in the comedy relief role and his antics are sure fire for hearty laughs.

ROLY TRINITY CHURCH

Harvest Home Services

Will be held on Sunday, September 18th, 1927 at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Contributions of fruit, vegetables and grain will be thankfully received and may be sent to the church on Friday and Saturday, September 16 and 17.

There will also be a Harvest Festival service at Logan at 3.00 p.m. on the same day.

LINDBROOK

Last Sunday another "punitive" expedition went to Elk Island Park from here. The "punitive" refers to the "bugs." The weather was fine this time and the roads not too bad either. There were between 30 and 40 people from here, quite a procession of cars, but time it was a "flivver." The buffalo were conspicuous by their absence altho a bull moose was seen, and all admired the scenery. Bar one car having a blowout and limping home on the rims, and one breaking a spring no mishaps occured this trip.

Treasures Hidden in Desert

Many Cities Buried Under Drifting Sands During Centuries

It is not generally known that the Sahara Desert has undoubtedly been the cradle of many ancient empires, the centres since the days of Egyptian civilization and up to more recently. Turkish rule—in populations dating from the dawn of history. Many of these cities are now buried beneath the sands of the desert, but the ruins of some of them are still visible to the traveller who has the time and the means to explore the region.

Many of the cities mentioned in the Bible are known to have been situated in the Sahara, but the exact location of most of them is unknown. Even the ruins of Leptis Magna, which was the birthplace of the Roman Emperor Septimius Severus, and which was one of the most important cities of Roman Africa, have been lost to sight for centuries, and were only discovered by accident a few years ago.

Leptis Magna was founded by the Phoenicians, and was at the height of its prosperity in the second century A.D. Its population then numbered about 80,000, and it was the centre of a flourishing trade in olive oil, which was produced in large quantities in the surrounding country. Its ruins, which are now being excavated, include a theatre, a triumphal arch, temples, baths, and a forum, and are surrounded by a wall about three miles in length.

The Sahara is not the only desert which has yielded up the remains of ancient cities. Explorers in Mesopotamia have unearthed the ruins of Babylon, Nineveh, Ur of the Chaldees, and many other cities which flourished in the days of the Assyrian and Babylonian empires, and in Central Asia the sands of the Gobi Desert have covered the ruins of many cities which were once the centres of a thriving trade between China and the West.

Irish Free State Issuing New Coins

Design Of Young Yeatsithrean W. to World Competition

From designs submitted by leading artists in the Irish Free State and the part that of Mr Percy Metcalfe, a young Yorkshireman, has been accepted by the Irish Free State Government for use on its coins before a Japanese artist can win what has so far been the "coveted" prize.

Mr Metcalfe, who is being congratulated by his friends in Yorkshire, has been accepted by the Irish Free State Government for its coinage.

Mr Metcalfe's design is a harp, the "coveted" prize of the Japanese artist, and a salmon, which is symbolical of an old Irish legend, dating to the fall which swam to the "sacred well" and ate the hazel nuts that fell into the winding depths.

Motor Penetrates Far North

English Woman Breaks Distance Record—by Three Miles

Two British motorists who have just achieved the feat of breaking the farthest north record in a motor car have turned back when 70 miles within the Arctic circle by reason of bad conditions, arising from the intense heat.

The Hon. Mrs. Victor Bruce and party, who have returned to London after a very adventurous trip, have motored to Finland and Lapland, went about three miles beyond the North Cape that any previous motorist has penetrated and met with no mishaps on the North Cape.

The average 250 miles a day; 20 days, more or the journey by over rough roads. In Northern Scandinavia. The enterprise was undertaken partly with the object of showing that the capabilities of motor cars or motorists, being ready for it within 12 months are small.

Japanese Plan To Fly Across Pacific

Long Distance Machines Have Aroused Their Interest

The latest success in some long flights have stimulated Japanese interest in aviation and efforts are being made to launch longish people's plans for a Japanese attempt to fly the Pacific Ocean next year. It is now considered that the chances of such a flight taking place are greater than ever before, and the prospects of the success of the attempt are considerably improved by the fact that the Japanese Government has promised to contribute handsomely to the funds.

The Japanese aviators have been training with long-distance flights in mind for some time past, and have already made a number of successful flights over the Pacific Ocean. The latest of these was a flight from Tokyo to Osaka, a distance of about 300 miles, which was completed in a little over three hours.

SOLOMON DEDICATES THE TEMPLE

I Kings 8:1-11, 54-61. Memory verses, 54-61. Golden Text: "I have built an house for the name of Jehovah." Psalm 122:1

Lesson: 1 Kings 8.

The national Reading: Psalm 122

Explanations and Comments

I. The Great Procession With the Ark (vs. 1-11). The Tabernacle, verses 1-4. It was decided by the Feast of Tabernacles, which began on the seventh day of the seventh month, and lasted seven days (Lev. 23:34), that the ship of Lord and all the heads of the tribes brought up the ark of the covenant out of the city of David, which was Zion, to the house that Solomon had built. The Temple was not yet complete, so we would put it for the ark to rest in the temple together with the people, and the princes of the land, of the house of Israel, were there in addition, there was a vast multitude of the ark and the Tabernacle. The procession commenced leading the journey and has no plan, which, military or naval, with the necessary skill and technical ability. A foreign plane may be bought but Japan realizes that half the battle would be to train the pilots.

The idea of attempting a flight is certainly referring to the fact that the Japan's present air armaments during the early 11 hours, while the ark and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto its place, to the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. For the cherubim spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the staves thereof above. And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle, and they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

Then spake Solomon, The Lord said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have surely built an house of habitation for thee, a place for thy dwelling forever.

And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood;) and he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel: but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. And the Lord said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart. Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

And the Lord hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven: and he said, Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

Therefore now, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

And now, O God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have built!

Have thou respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee this day:

That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place.

And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall make toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication unto thee in this house;

Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to their fathers.

When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them;

Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be;

What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

That they may fear thee to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

Moreover concerning the stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake;

(For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;

Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whatsoever way thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the Lord toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, so that they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captive, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;

And so return unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause,

And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

(For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:)

That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

Blessed be the Lord, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as every day shall require:

That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God, and that there is none else.

Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

(Verses 55-61 are omitted.)

Practical Application

Solomon's prayer is a model for all who would pray. Note the following points:

1. He began with praise and thanksgiving.
2. He recognized God's faithfulness to his promises.
3. He asked for God's blessing upon himself and his people.
4. He prayed for the fulfilment of God's promises.
5. He prayed for the forgiveness of sins.
6. He prayed for the salvation of the heathen.
7. He prayed for the success of God's people in battle.
8. He prayed for God's chastisement upon his people when they sinned.
9. He prayed for God's mercy upon his people when they repented.
10. He prayed for God's help in all the needs of his people.
11. He prayed that all the people might know God.
12. He prayed that God's people might be kept from sin.
13. He prayed that God's people might be perfect before him.
14. He prayed that God's people might be obedient to his commandments.

Make the Penalty Fit the Crime

Proposal Made That Whipping Be Added To Jail Sentence For Stealing Cars.

Whipping with a strap perhaps run in the case of motor car thieves is one of the amendments to the criminal law proposed in the report of the Canadian Bar Association's committee on administration of justice.

The committee, which met in the Chateau Laurier at its annual meeting in October 9 Chairman of Toronto.

Judge Chatsworth stated immediate publication by the Dominion and provincial governments so that there is no time to be lost in the matter. Judge Chatsworth stated that he had no objection to the proposal to make the penalty fit the crime, but he thought that instead of the present one year sentence for stealing a car, the penalty be two months imprisonment with a whipping in the second month with a strap instead of a cat-o'-nine-tails.

The committee also outlined a practical legislation for supervision of persons to be employed as witnesses for a system of parole, and for "effective grading" with all the facilities included and sexually afflicted both when in court and in confinement.

Every seat in the courtroom was filled. It is not every day such a thrilling case as this comes to an unexplored public. A jaunty, well-groomed young man, Mr. Whitney, then with brisk, business-like air, rose and addressed the jury.

"I am not yet convinced that the girl does not understand Christian Warring's conduct. That is a point, he thought, and one that may well be left to further work. If she is innocent, why not? Why not? Why not?

Let her speak. Let her tell her story. If she is innocent, why not? Why not? Why not?

It would be altogether futile to try and elicit any information from a witness with such a mental attitude as that of Mrs. Harper in the present case. She could not be induced to say anything that would help the prisoner.

The interpreter spoke to her.

"Mrs. Mitchell," he demanded, "you understand the charge against you. You have heard what has been said. Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

Yes, the prisoner understood. She had heard the charge. She did not plead guilty. She did not plead not guilty. She would not plead at all.

"Then," said the interpreter, "the court will enter a plea of not guilty."

All the court knew that the prisoner was in a position of great danger. Her refusal to plead, or to say anything in her own defence, was a confession of guilt. The public interest in the case was aroused. The court was crowded. The jury was selected. The prisoner was brought in. The witnesses were called. The evidence was given. The jury retired. The jury returned. The verdict was guilty. The prisoner was sentenced to death. The sentence was carried out. The prisoner was executed. The case was closed.

The apple crop this year will run to 1,200,000 barrels, according to W. H. Chase of Wellville, or a fifty percent increase over last year, while the crop of the Eastern States is reported only half that of last year.

The Department of Lands and Forests of the Province of Quebec have planted 1,000,000 trees this year—a record figure and nearly double that of last year. Next season it is proposed to plant 2,000,000 trees.

Canada's net debt decreased by $62,000,429 during the first four months of the fiscal year. It now stands at $2,256,235,949. During the corresponding period of last fiscal year there was a decrease of $41,281,884. Both revenues and expenditures show increases.

Tourist travel this season is in excess of previous years and is even more cosmopolitan in its destinations than formerly, according to C. E. E. Usher, general passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, back from a tour of inspection of the company's interests at Banff, Lake Louise and other favored tourist spots.

E. J. Chambers, President and General Manager of the Associated Fruit Growers of British Columbia, states that British Columbia apples are now being sent to South Africa, China, Sweden, Norway, Germany and Denmark, as well as Great Britain, the heaviest market. New York and Chicago are big customers of two varieties, the McIntosh Red and Delicious, respectively.

A further party of 49 students representing many colleges in the British Isles arrived on the Canadian Pacific steamship Empress and proceeded to the harvest field of Western Canada in the care of the C.P.R. Department of Colonization and Agriculture. They will be distributed in farm districts in Saskatchewan for the duration of their visit by the British Women's Immigration League.

Construction of the first commercial fish hatchery in Alberta will be started in September, announces R. F. Redd, Dominion Fisheries Inspector. It will be located at the mouth of Cayley Creek, on the south shore of Lesser Slave Lake. It is estimated that 100,000,000 whitefish will be propagated at the hatchery every year to maintain an undiminished supply of fish for the many companies operating in the lake.

The More Often You Ship The Sweeter The Cream

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

SCHOOLS OVERCROWDED

FROM ALL parts of Alberta comes the news of full schools, full to the point of overcrowding. Here in Tofield, it has reached the stage where it is a problem for the principal and teachers to operate the school efficiently. The school is being operated efficiently of course, but only by resorting to ways and means which are the result of a large number of pupils and a comparitively small staff and almost inadequate accommodation. In Edmonton the schools are full also, and the authorities there are continually being faced with the problem of providing additional accommodation.

In a young country such as Western Canada, it is only natural that the number of school children should be large in proportion to the general population. Alberta is still a "young mans" country and it is in the first half of marital life that children are born and raised. But this does not exactly tell the whole story as regards to school accommodation; the fact is schools are going in at the bottom faster than they are going out at the top. Nowadays, in the small towns at least, it is the exception rather than the rule for boys and girls to cease going to school when they have received a "common" school education. Now, most everyone endeavors to get two or more years in high school, while the proportion "going right through" is quite large. With free high school tuition and accommodation provided students, there automatically follows a demand for teachers and class-rooms, which if it increases in the future as it has done in the past will ultimately result in increased taxes for educational purposes.

There are many men who still claim that unless a boy is going to be a doctor, lawyer or preacher, a public school education is sufficient. Most of them argue that a boy is better off spending the time from fourteen years of age onwards learning a trade than being in school. "That boy should be going to work instead of going to school" is still a frequently heard phrase. As to the extent that it is erroneous depends upon the boy. There are some boys, a very small proportion of the whole, who would be better learning a trade toward which they show a marked interest, than they would be at school. But for the majority of boys and girls, it is safe to say to-day, that they can go just as far in their chosen vocation as their academic training will let them. The better they are educated the higher they can go. Moreover let no one rest under the erroneous impression that the high school boy or girl does not "work." The tasks in commercial life given a boy or girl of that age are generally less arduous than lessons in Latin, French, Algebra, Trigonometry, etc. If a boy or girl passes his or her examinations, you can depend upon it there was work done.

The general effect upon the country of so many boys and girls taking the high school course cannot help but be beneficial and while present indications point to increased expenditures of public monies for educational purposes, if we can keep our young folk in the land of their birth, it is worth it.

WHEAT FROM KING TNT'S TOMB

SOMETIMES EVEN "big brother" newspapers are lead astray into reporting in good faith, as facts, things that are not so, thereby starting into motion a train of events that brings dire consequences to some remote person whom the writer of the article never dreamed or heard of. In the Wednesday August 31st issue of the Edmonton Journal, their appeared an article accompanied by a photograph, relating to an ear of wheat, grown in South Cooking Lake, supposedly from seed wheat taken from King Tut's tomb in Egypt, by the Earl of Carnavon and Harold Carter. The sample ear taken to the Journ l office had twelve distinct heads on one stalk which indicated phenomenal yielding qualities. This wheat crops up somewhere every season, and while some statements that it is grown from wheat taken from King Tut's tomb are made in good faith, they are wrong nevertheless. The editor saw samples of this wheat in Saskatchewan eleven years ago, before King Tut's tomb was opened. The seed was then supposed to come from the Pyramids. As a matter of fact the germinating qualities of wheat are comparitively short lived and it is safe to say no wheat that has lain 3000 years will ever grow. While there was nothing in the Journal article to indicate any sales effort, owing to the extremely large heads and apparent heavy yield, there has been considerable of this variety of wheat sold in previous years to unwary farmers for seed at fancy prices. As a utility crop it is almost worthless and farmers would be wise to write their nearest government experimental station before spending time and money on it.

WHEAT POOL NEWS BULLETIN

The E P. Ranch, owned by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, has been signed to a Wheat Pool contract. The ranch contains a section of land and is located near High River, Alberta. The Prince was a regent visitor at his ranch and while there instructed W. L. Carlyle, his farm manager, to have the acreage placed under a Pool contract.

* * * * *

The Alberta Wheat Pool is not operating a coarse grain pool this year. Blank coarse grain contracts have been sent out and if a sufficient acreage is signed a coarse grain pool will be operated next year.

* * * * *

By the time the bulk of wheat is moving in Alberta this fall, the Alberta Wheat Pool will have 164 line elevators completed and in operation.

* * * * *

Yukei Shiozi, of the Japanese firm of Mitsubishi Shoji Kaisha Ltd., importers and exporters of Seattle, Wash., was a visitor at the Alberta Wheat Pool office this morning. He returned a great deal of interest in the organization.

* * * * *

The first sample of this year's wheat to reach the Alberta Pool office was from the crop of C. Lindsay, Strome. The wheat is an excellent No. 1 Northern and weighed 64 lbs. to the bushel. Mr. Lindsay has 60 acres of wheat which has been cut but has yet to be threshed. The sample was hand threshed. Mr. Lindsay is a member of the Alberta Wheat Pool.

STOCKTAKING AND INVESTMENTS FOR YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN ON ALBERTA FARMS

With the approach of Fall one's thoughts naturally turn to the winter months which will surely follow and the resulting easing off from work on the farm. Now is an excellent time for every young man and young woman on the farms in Alberta to take stock and to decide how best to invest their spare cash and time during the coming winter.

Are you needed on the farm during the coming winter months? Whether your answer be in the affirmative or in the negative we have a proposition to make to you—the outline of an investment of a small amount of money and of your spare time. An investment which will give not only staggering and profit during the coming winter, but a return that will endure throughout your entire lifetime.

If you are needed on the farm, the 3,000 books of the library of the Olds School of Agriculture are at your disposal for the small yearly fee of $2.00.

If you can be spared from the farm the courses offered at the Olds School of Agriculture are worthy of your consideration and you will be interested to know that:

1.—The regular course consists of two sessions of five months each, opening this year on October 26th and closing on March 29th, 1928.

2.—The only entrance requirement is the ability to read and write.

3.—The minimum age is sixteen years, for admittance to this school.

4.—The school course is entirely free.

5.—The new dormitory being opened this fall provides accommodation for 80 women and 100 men at $20.00 per month. It is fully modern and is under the matron of the school.

6.—There is a gymnasium at the S.A., and plenty of social life is provided.

7.—The courses taken up are Domestic Science for Women and Agriculture for men. Both courses lay the foundation for more advanced study if the students wish to take it.

8.—Anyone having grade nine standing may enter the second year of the course.

9.—A special Matriculation course is given about Spring enabling the two years' course, which is equivalent to the first year of University.

The number of applications on file at present is more than at the same time in any previous year and every people then ever before are inquiring concerning the courses. We anticipate the largest attendance in the history of the school. Do you know of any better way of investing your money and time than in a winter spent at the O.S.A.?

The students are ex-students what they think of the O.S.A. and inquire into the present undertaking and see the achievements of our graduates.

If you are interested the Principal For recommendation ask any of will be pleased to send you a calendar and any further particulars regarding the school.

Assiniboine--the Greatest Achievement of the Trail Riders

1. Mount Assiniboine where the Trail Riders camped for two days. 2. The Fish & Hearn Leader of the Trail Riders, R. Bell-Irving with the mule. 3. Rare wood monkey of Yukon Trail.

Mount Assiniboine, one of the most magnificent peaks in all the Canadian Rockies, has been definitely placed on the tourist map as a result of the recent annual expedition of the Trail Riders, who have just completed their most ambitious ride.

The Assiniboine district is rendered by the few that have visited it, to surpass in beauty anything in the mountains. The mountain itself, which is frequently referred to as the "Matterhorn of the Canadian Rockies" towers many thousand feet above the surrounding alps and little lakes which are set like jewels among the hills. It was discovered less than two score years ago but has only been known here for the more adventurous mountaineers. This year's Trail Ride has proved that Assiniboine and the wonderful country surrounding it is accessible to almost anyone.

"A Hero On Horseback"

Saturday Night, Sept. 10th

Yes Sir! Hoot chills you into an iceberg with his wilder than ever stunts and riding. And the stirring Peter B. Kyne story gives him the chance of a lifetime. Men, what a punch twelve hefts of a gambling cow-puncher who buys the bank that refused to lend him money. And what laughs.

DON'T FORGET "THE FLAG LIEUTENANT." Showing next Friday and Saturday. Positively one of the best pictures ever shown in Tofield.

Quack! Quack! Bang! Bang!

Be prepared for the 16th the opening of duck season. We have a complete line of DOMINION AMMUNITION. For the man who is particular about his shells he is bound to find one to suit him in the Dominion Line.

IMPERIAL LONG RANGE

CANUCK HEAVY LOAD

FALCON

THE IMPERIAL LONG RANGE is the favorite shell for the shooter who likes to kill them a few yards farther than the other fellow. It is a high base shell with water proof case. It handles easily in any repeater or double barrel gun.

CANUCK HEAVY LOAD is a lower base shell but has the same load as the Imperial Long Range. The Canuck is the old reliable of the Dominion line and is a leader in the medium priced shell.

FALCON is a low base shell with standard load and is a very serviceable shell for general shooting. We have this line of shells in shot sizes from BB to 7½ and Dupont or Belistite Powder. We also have the Western Super X in stock.

We also have a few good buys in used 12 gauge repeating shot guns and 22 calibre rifles.

Through Good Times and Bad

Just now the country is flooded with literature that is a direct solicitation for your business. News of the good crop about to be harvested has spread far and wide and many are the reams that will be worked to prepare business from the Western Canadian farmer.

Some of the solicitation for business the We term farmer will receive will be of the "cash-in-your" type. Business on arranged that one dollar will be sufficient for the seller—and buyer. Other solicitations for the Western farmers' business will be genuine enough in character and will be but the natural desire of firms afar off to share in the business resulting from the big crop.

The days of the "country" store as distinct from a city store, are passed. There was a time when only the bare necessities could be purchased at the village store, but with the coming of better transportation and more aggressiveness on the part of the country merchant, farmers and farm wives can find, almost at their very door, a large and choice selection of everything that is good to eat or wear.

At the RELIANCE STORE you can outfit all the Men folk of the family. And on a quality basis, the prices will stand the acid test of city literature. From headgear to footwear for father, son or brother, you will find a range of prices to suit your desires and purse.

And the daily necessities of life, that Grocery Basket that must continually be filled. The housewife will be glad to hear that she cannot do better ANYWHERE than at the Reliance Store. Buying frequently and in goodly quantities, our customers are well protected as regards price and freshness.

Western Canada is about to harvest one of the best crops on record, but in the Tofield district, through good times and bad, the Reliance Store has been with you.

Travel in Effigy on Pioneer Railway

Those in charge of their tour have not yet decided upon a fall itinerary.

Upper—The figures that sat in conference by their car in Toronto's Union station. Lower—Those who travelled in comfort.

Travelling in effigy on the Railway that made it possible the union of the Canadian provinces, the Fathers of Confederation recently journeyed from Toronto to Vancouver via the Canadian Pacific Railway. These were part of the program of a Vancouver department store in connection with the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations.

The "Fathers" were assigned in Toronto by Kevin Power after months of research among the archives at Ottawa. Little did these stalwarts dream that representatives of themselves would travel in luxury-comfort than their real selves could command in decades ago.

Every consideration was given for their welfare, the effigies were carefully protected with soft gauze; they too dry-washed in the finest of excellent. They travelled de luxe in individual crates wrapped in bridal paper- dustproof and cushioned.

The "Fathers" were conducted to their seats in a private car specially adapted from the Royal Alexandra Theatre's production of "The Vagabond King." They were then conducted seated around the conference table where they remained in comfort for two and eight for three solid weeks from Vancouver.

NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH FOR TOFIELD

As a contribution to the 1927 building boom, Tofield's new Catholic church is an item worthy of notice. Replacing the former and smaller building, it is in course of construction on the same site, adjoining the United Church. The plans, by Mr. E. Underwood of Edmonton, call for a frame building of modern Gothic design, 24ft. x 60 ft., with a 12ft. 0 in. extension for the sanctuary and Sacristy.

Provision has been made for a brick veneer to be added later.

The inside will be finished in perforated plaster board and the lighting by day is to be diffused through colored glass windows.

The basement, 24 ft. by 60 ft., will be 8ft. 9 in. high with concrete floor, and will be used periodically for basement, card parties etc. At other times it is proposed to use it as a general social club room to which the public is welcome at all times.

Care is to be used in both upper and lower compartments for heating and lighting.

The contract has been let to the Carlson Lumber Co., of Edmonton and the complete cost is approximately $8,000.00 of which the C.W.L. has undertaken to produce $1000.00. The date of opening will be announced to regular week for the Elevator Co.

FLAG LIEUTENANT" FOR THE VARIETY THEATRE

Artists: There's a carload of it in store for the theatre goer of Tofield when they visit the Variety Theatre on Friday and Saturday of this week, where the "Flag Lieutenant" will be holding forth. It's one of those spectacular British productions and is destined to crowd the resources of the Variety during the engagement. The production has all most everything even the most boisterous picture fan could want. There is a strong story plot the love of man for woman, and of man for man. There is the wonderful way of the seemingly unsentimental English girl with that white hot volcano of affection in the heart of her beneath the deliberately cool exterior that shows to the unfeeling world. There's a romance and a thrill. There's a mystery magnificent effects. There's fighting and there is flirting. There's death and there is dancing. In fact all that's a happy ending wove out of almost impossible hard conditions, and the sort of story that makes the tangle of real life seem worth living through after all.

W. I. NOTES

We will hold the first ladies' part of the season next Thursday, Sept. 29th in our rooms at 8.30 o'clock. We are having our roof shingled and the kitchen made warmer for the winter and we are giving this drive to assist in paying for these improvements. Won't you come and help? The admission is but 25 cents. If you don't know bridge, it will be easy to learn and a good time assured, and a social served.

Our regular meeting was held on Tuesday and there was a good attendance in spite of the rain. A most enjoyable business was done, after which Mrs. McCauley and Mr. Peacock gave interesting paper readings and discussions, and "Music in the home." Both papers were very good and enjoyed by the members. Mr. Robson and Mrs. Spencer served a most excellent lunch, after which the meeting adjourned.

The conference conference will be held in Tofield, in our rooms on Wednesday, October 12th. All members who can arrange to have dinner at the hotel with the visiting delegate please phone Mrs. Lee or Mrs. Peacock, as we wish to make the necessary arrangements.

Mr. P. J. Ass of Edmonton arrived here on Monday and will visit for the vicinity for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Viking arrived at the Ab. Anderson home on Tuesday when Mrs. Anderson's brother and family, and his father 77 years old.

ANION CREEK

Harvesting operations well advanced on this district. Some farmers are through cutting with the exception of a few acres, while others expected will be finished in a few days, weather permitting.

Mr. [illegible] is attending the Agricultural College at Olds this year taking up Grade XI.

The Anion Creek school commenced on Monday, September 5th with Mrs. McLennan of Edmonton as temporary teacher until Miss Malone is out of quarantine.

The [illegible] commenced on Thursday, September 1st, with Miss [illegible] of Edmonton as teacher for the [illegible] school.

Mr. [illegible] returned here on Wednesday.

The Anion Circle Ladies' Aid which was to be held at Mrs. H. O. Berg's on Wednesday, September 14th has been postponed until Friday, Sept. 16th, due to the funeral on Wednesday.

[illegible] a number of persons from Tofield attended at the Anion Creek Hall on Saturday when Mrs. [illegible] was presented with a [illegible] by the members of the Anion Creek Ladies' Aid.

TOFIELD SCHOOLS CLOSED FOR TEN DAYS

Owing to the nearby prevalence of infantile paralysis, the Tofield School and Health Boards held a meeting on Tuesday night and decided to close the schools. This will of course necessitarily postpone the school fair editorially commented upon elsewhere in this issue.

Up to the time of going to press there were no reported or recognized cases within fifteen miles of Tofield, but the health authorities believed it best to take precautionary measures before serious happenings occur rather than after.

Special attention is drawn to the notice appearing elsewhere in this issue and parents are requested to see that their children are kept as isolated as possible.

BARGO

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Eagen and Mrs. Bowden, returned from their Norway visit last week. On Sunday, Mrs. Stauffer and Mrs. Hoskal entertained thirty guests for dinner at the Joe Stauffer home, in honor honor. A niece of Mrs. Bradshaw and her family, and two young ladies, came with her and will make their home here.

John Anderson who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to the hospital in Camrose on Friday but passed away on Saturday morning. Funeral services will be held in the Lutheran church here at 2 p.m., Wednesday, 14th. He will be interred in Bardo cemetery beside his wife who preceded him.

Miss Gobrum [illegible] night in Edmonton with Mr. Margit, who is there taking training to be a nurse. [illegible] Gobrum left for Northfield, Minn. to continue her school work for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. King, who have had company from the states, entertained thirty-[illegible] on Sunday.

The H. E. [illegible] Wife families spent [illegible] P. O. Lettuce.

At the young [illegible] service in the Lutheran Church [illegible] evening. Mrs. Palmer [illegible] very interesting reading [illegible] and Mrs. Anderson will leave the last of the week for St. Paul, Minn. where Mr. Anderson will continue his seminary course this winter. Mrs. Anderson anticipates spending the holiday season with her sister, Ruby, in town.

KINGMAN

Mrs. Hans Sorenson of Edmonton is staying with her mother, Mrs. Oxelson for a couple of weeks.

Messrs. Einar Hegland of Bellingham, Wash., and H. Haugen of Lulu Island, B. C. were Kingman visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Detwiler were Edmonton visitors last week.

Mrs. Ed Johnson who has been a patient at the St. Mary's hospital for about two weeks returned on Saturday.

Inez Erickson was the fortunate winner of the bronze medal given by the Department of Education for writing in the Jubilee Nursery Competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Horte and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Haugen of Tofield on Sunday.

Ida Kingman school will be closed for two weeks owing to the infantile paralysis epidemic, although no cases have been reported here yet.

NOTICE

Owing to the prevailing epidemic of Infantile Paralysis in the Province, the Local Board of Health of the Town of Tofield has ordered that the Tofield Public and High Schools be closed until Monday, September 26.

The Board of Health has also imposed a regulation that no child under 16 years of age shall be allowed in any public place or to attend any public gathering during the period stated above.

All parents are requested to keep their children within the limits of their own premises.

Dated at Tofield, this 14th day of September, 1927.

J. W. CHAPMAN,
Secretary Board of Health.

Cable Business Not Affected By Wireless

Prophecy That Its Days Were Numbered Proved Rash

When, twenty six years ago, Marconi first succeeded in sending wireless messages from Newfoundland to England, many people prophesied that the days of the submarine cable were numbered.

The fulfilment of this prophecy is proved beyond doubt that during the first two months of this year, the value of the submarine telegraph and telephone cables sent out from the United Kingdom amounted to £3,150,000. This was even, though, a far below the average owing to the fact that the trade has not yet recovered from the effects of the coal strike.

Although the early efforts were plain, the invention of wireless telegraphy has telephony spurred the cable companies to greater efforts. As a result of the discovery of a new alloy of steel from which, instead of being a mere ribbon, the cable is made in the form of a rope, its power thirty times greater than that of the best cable ever laid.

The increase has taken place principally in the Pacific, where, whereas in 1913 not more than two thousand letters a minute could be sent, the new cable can transmit two thousand letters a minute through either cable.

THE SCHOOL FAIR

At this is being typed the weather does not appear to be any too promising for the school fair which is to be held on Friday of this week. But if good wishes amount to any thing, the weather will clear up and Friday will be a fine day. The wishes regarding the good weather will be made equally as much for the general condition of the crops as for the School Fair, though when it is remembered what kind of a day they had last year, it would be a heart less soul indeed who would not wish for them a fine day this year.

The Mercury has always been much in favor of a School fair for Tofield and district. As far back as 1918 this paper was suggesting that one be organized. Some few years ago an attempt was made to organize one and it appeared for a time as if it would succeed, but it was heroically killed by the then existing agricultural society. The agricultural society dying a natural death, the school fair was born, and will no doubt thrive.

The Department of Agriculture, the Department of Education and local school boards spend quite a little money and time on school fairs and they are becoming more and more popular each year. We are glad to see one established here and wish it every success.

DOG FIGHTING

There is no question but what it is somewhat dull around Tofield on Sunday evenings, and that a dog fight or series of dog fights break the monotony of the day. Nevertheless, it is "pour sport" for boys to deliberately encourage their dogs to fight and then make a great shouting at trying to part them. Boys are boys all the world over and taking one thing and another, there is little to choose between them, but boys who are really fond of their dogs will hesitate before they deliberately send their dogs into a fight, while boys who deliberately set their dogs on, should be debarred from the pleasure of owning one.

It would have been a fine thing for Tofield if the Cooking Lake Forest Reserve had been thrown open for settlement. While not of the very best, yet there are no doubt many quarter sections upon which a family could profitably locate. This is not a new question, efforts being made to have this land thrown open before. But for the present at least, the government evidently intends to keep the land as a forest reserve.

Enduring Quality at LOWER PRICES

Makes Pontiac Six the Best Investment Value

MEN who look upon an automobile from the viewpoint of a hard, dollar-and-cents standpoint are just as emphatic in their praise of Pontiac Six as those who seek primarily the beauty, smoothness and comfort which Pontiac provides.

The enduring quality of Pontiac Six—its ruggedness and staying power—gives it the lowest depreciation and the highest resale value of any six-cylinder car in its price class.

From a business standpoint, the New and Finer Pontiac Six represents a sound investment in reliable, comfortable, economical automobile transportation—protected by the lasting quality of the car and the staunch integrity of its makers.

And the New, Low Prices make Pontiac Six a more attractive investment than ever.

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

BETTER FARM POWER AT LOWER COSTS
Lower costs for fuel—lower costs for oil—lower costs for repairs—longer life and less delays.
BECAUSE THE JOHN DEERE 15-27:
Is hundreds of pounds lighter—is hundreds of parts simpler—has sturdier parts, made of best materials—wastes less power in transmitting the great power of the engine to draw bar and belt—has its working parts fully enclosed—has its working parts automatically oiled—
THE JOHN DEERE IS MAKING POWER FARMING EXTRA PROFITABLE.

AN OPPORTUNITY!
Did you ever stop to consider the advantage derived thru selling your grain in car lots. If you have not a car load yourself, why not get your neighbor to put grain in with you? This can be arranged and you will derive more benefit from your sales from three angles. First you have government weights, secondly, you receive a better grade and thirdly you receive the earliest price in place of street prices. While shipping you can not do better than consign your grain to THE McCAUSLAND ELEVATOR COMPANY, Ltd.

Local And Personal

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and D. M. Morrison motored to the city last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver have moved into Mr. Richardson's new cottage.

Mrs. Ed. Hicks left for Cadogan this week, where she will visit among friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh left on Monday for Biggar, Sask.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rogers, Mr. and Mr. W. Webb motored to the city on Monday to hear Sousa's band.

C. Hobson made a business trip to the city this week.

The sympathies of the Tofield residents will be extended to the Barden family on account of the sickness they are at present experiencing. Mrs. Barden recently underwent an operation in an Edmonton hospital and is now resting at the home of her sister prior to returning to the hospital to undergo further treatment. Charles underwent an operation for appendicitis recently and latest reports are that his condition is still serious.

Mr. H. Savage is visiting former friends around town and doing a little shooting on the side.

SOCIAL EVENING AND PRESENTATION

A social evening was held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Webb, on Thursday, September 15th, in honor of Miss Dorothy Baptist, who is leaving Tofield, to enter Camrose Normal school.
The following address was read by Mrs. F. M. Webb and presentation made by Mrs. John Chapman.
Dear Dorothy:
We, the members of the Women's Auxiliary and Sunday school workers of Holy Trinity Church, Tofield, desire to express to you in some small measure, our appreciation and thankfulness for the valuable services you have rendered, as our Sunday school teacher and church member. We shall miss you very much, but, as your removal from us is for the advancement of your education, we wish you every success in your chosen profession. We ask you to accept these small gift as a token of our love and esteem for you.
Signed on behalf of the W.A.
Mrs. F. M. Webb, Secretary.
The gifts consisted of: Round ball bat and crepe scarf.
Dorothy replied in a few well chosen words, after which a dainty lunch and fruit was served by the hostess.

THRESHING MACHINE BURNS
The last few years have been something on the nature of an open season for kings. In Europe, since the war, several have had their crowns lifted off their heads, here at Tofield, we too had a king by attaining by accident, there are no doubt many of these Royal gossips around the town, as we had many on the job on Monday. He dropped a four pound can of oil and putting an old rag in one or two buckets, as the case may be, there are no doubt many others in the district who are very shortly will be threshing splendid crops and "Big Bertha" would be pleased to hear of them. Mr. Kelly's yield was about 42 bu. bel. to the acre.

WHAT DRIVE AT THE CURLING RINK LAST THURSDAY

A very pleasant whist drive was held at the rink on Thursday last. There were a goodly number present and a general good time was enjoyed by all.
The prize winners were: Gentlemen, Geo. Bruce, lady, Mrs. J. Bryant.
A bridge party was held at the Women's Institute rooms on Tuesday of this week, under the auspices of that organization. A full report of this event will be published in our next issue.

Born.—To Mr. Emery Phillips, on September 17th, a son.

Ted Parido arrived home from an Edmonton trip this week, where he underwent an operation on appendicitis.

NOT DUMB BUT BUNGARUS FAITHFUL

Ducks are good! Hungarian Farmers think so and so do we, but we know that A. E. Chettleburgh received his Wednesday morning.
Geo. Rogers, who spent a year with the boys of the war out there, on opening the parcel, hopefully hung many ducks fell to his unerring aim, we do not know, but, he saved a basket of wheat for some farmer by killing a crow.
Wrapping the crow in paper, he brought it to town and innocently handed it to the postmaster with the request as to whether he liked Hungarian Partridge. Of course he did, but on opening the parcel, hopefully hung all he could. Well, everyone has the privilege of changing their mind, and he tell the truth, several did that morning, over the self same "Hungarian Partridge."

FIRE ALARM

On Wednesday afternoon Tofield citizens were aroused by the loud clanging of the fire alarm bell.
Among the first to answer the call was Geo. Bruce, who hoked the chemical behind his car and took it to the scene of the fire.
The outbreak had occurred in the garage of E. W. Rogers and was of a small nature. It was quickly extinguished, little damage being done.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS WANING

Up to time of writing (Wednesday) there were no reported cases of the dread disease in Tofield or immediate vicinity.
As announced in last week's issue the Tofield schools are closed until September 26th, inclusive.
Reports from Edmonton indicate that the epidemic is on the wane there and it is hoped that soon every thing will be back to normal.

NOW YOU TELL ONE

Mr. A. Haugen, who lives south east of town, is no dunky, but a real true blooded Nordic, and a genuine Canadian, yet when it comes to chicken fame, he has the cutest darky beaters, having cut one of the best crops of his career, and having some binder twine left over, he put it in a bag and put the bag in his dear-est in the evening to bring to town the next day. During the night, a chicken, which evidently was of an enquiring turn of mind, wended it way into the bag, and unnoticed by Mr. Haugen was brought to F. H. Ball's office the next day. Poising his head in the bag to get the twine, Mr. Haugen, much to his surprise, brought out the chicken. Just about this time, John Gray was delivering chickens to the same place, and A. H. was the target for some good natured joking.

PLENTY OF ACTION IN "SO BIG"
LOW ZONE LATEST 100% FILM.

"So Below Zero," Fox Films latest release featuring the famed Western star, Buck Jones, will have a booking at the Variety Theatre on Saturday, September 24th.
In the story of the wild adventures of a wild young man, there is plenty of action as the result of a very interesting plot. The scenes are laid in the wilds of Broadway and the wilds of the north woods. The love interest is very pronounced and some of the climax performed by Buck are of the kind to make an audience grip their seats. The outstanding feature of the production, however, are the many humorous situations, in which the star becomes involved. Laugh, good and plenty, are a happy feature of these comedy drama, where Genuine Jones-Ena Novak. The cast is unusually strong and includes Paul Panzer, F. J. Ratcliffe, Frank Butler, Harry Woods, Fred Walton, Dewey Mabel and Vincent Howard.

STOCKER AND FEEDER SHOW

The fifth annual Alberta Stocker and Feeder show will be held on Oct. 7th, next, followed by an auction sale on the 10th of all entries.
The success which has attended all previous shows and sales gave the directors confidence in suggesting that all consigners of stock to the 1927 event, at Calgary, will find a splendid market for their feeder steers.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

KETCHAMOOT

Ideal harvesting continues, much to the delight of the farmers. Another week will see most of the grain in the stook.

Preaching service was held on Sunday, after Rev. Gordon being absent on vacation three weeks. Many more of us have been absent longer than this, so come and do better and be at church next Sunday. Sunday School at 2.30 p.m., preaching service at 3.00 p.m.

Mr. Oliver Letourneau renewed old acquaintances in our district on Saturday.

Misses Mabel and Mildred Lawson and brother Martin, motored to the city on Sunday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire entertained a company of relatives on Sunday. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Warner of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. John Warner of Lakeshore; Mrs. Viola Lintz of Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown; Miss Annie Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McGuire.

Friends of Mrs. Frank Hull are glad to know she is improving greatly, and is now able to sit up in a chair occasionally.

The ladies of the Missionary Society in Tofield kindly invited the members of our society to attend their meeting on Wednesday afternoon. But at present the farm ladies are so very busy, we fear not many will be able to accept the invitation.

Mrs. Bradbury, Misses Dolena and Mabel Thompson, John Thompson, and Earl Dilsie were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchell on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lawson and family, Mrs. Geo. Lawson and Miss Edna were guests of Mr. and Mr. Johnson, north of town on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Shupe and two boys from Bruce and Albert Wendelboe of Farmer Hill, arrived last Tuesday by a car and the boys.

Mr. G. R. Green accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hay to Holden on Sunday to visit their friend, Mr. and Mr Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hegardine and two children, who arrived last week from Norway, are making their home for the present on Roy Lee's farm.

Mr. Joseph Brown, sen., wishes to thank all the men who left their field work and joined in searching for Mr. Brown, Saturday. On Friday evening Mr. Brown left home to go to the home of his son, John Brown, for a few days. Darkness setting in, he walked past the house, and not until about eight o'clock did he find his way back. As the gentleman has been in ill health for a long time, great anxiety was felt for his recovery. Fortunately, he suffered no serious effects from the night's exposure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Younie and family, and Mr. H. Mitchell, were visited at the W. A. Mitchell home on Monday evening.

Friends of Miss Jessie Ingram, formerly of Tofield, now of Victoria, are pleased to hear she so successfully passed her music examinations, coming first with honors.

ARDEN CREEK

Harvesting was delayed some last week due to the rain coming, but we have a threshing machine going and the threshing will be general next week if weather permits.

The Amisk Creek Ladies Aid meeting held at Mrs. R. O. Berg's last Friday was very well attended. Mrs. N. Stevenson and son, Mrs. Wang and daughter, Mrs. Kjosness and Miss Hart of Ryley, were present, also Mr. J. Moen and Mrs. I. Ruehan and daughter.

Several from this vicinity attended the funeral of the late John Anderson of Bardo.

The Amisk Creek and Solberg Schools have been closed due to the infantile paralysis epidemic, although there are no cases of it reported here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moon visited at the J. A. Jacobson home in Bardo last Sunday.

Mr. Emil Carlson is working for Mr. R. O. Berg during threshing.

BARDO

Obituary

We regret to the report the death, at Camrose, on Saturday morning last, of John Anderson, of Bardo, at the age of 74 years. Mr. Anderson, who was very well and favorably known throughout the entire Bardo and Tofield districts, had been ailing for some time and he was taken to the Camrose hospital on the day previous. However, all that medical aid could do was done, but without avail.
John Anderson was born in Bardo, Norway, in November 1853. In early life he came to Minnesota, U.S.A. Here he married Gertrude Johnson, sister of John Johnson. They came to Alberta in 1902, and settled at Bardo. Mrs. Johnson died in 1906. There adopted children, Abbott, Martha and Bernard grew up here and survive him. He also leaves two brothers, Andrew and P. B. Anderson of Bardo and two sisters, Mrs. Tinseth and Mrs. Aasmo of Ryley. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church on Thursday afternoon, September 15th. Rev. Bjelde spoke in Norwegian and Palmer Anderson, in English. Palmer Bernard and Abbott Anderson and Betsy Ness, sang his favorite hymn, "Fly as a Bird to the Mountain." His nephews, Andrew, Bennie, and Normal Ensworth, Palmer, Bennie, and Olaf Anderson were pall bearers. Mr. Anderson was devoted to his church and the missionary cause.

Much of the grain here is in the stook.

N. E. Both went to High River on Saturday to attend the funeral, on Sunday, of Bishop Norman Stauffer. Mr. Stauffer was well and favorably known here at Bardo where he has visited in previous years.

Mr. and Mrs. Rubin Eide have moved from the Mr. Anderson to the M. Eide farm, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and Mr. Has Hasksted of Grande Prairie and Mr. Hauger of Bellingham, Washington, are here visiting old friends.

Mrs. Green was able to bring Alvan home from Edmonton last week.

Grande Forks school is closed for the present.

LOWER ROSS CREEK

Wheat cutting is over and another week will see a good part of the oats and barley in stook. Crops are uniformly excellent. The potato crop promises an extra yield, in fact, all garden produce

The buildings on the Warner farm have all received a coat of paint which improves their appearance one hundred per cent.

Mr. G. Schacher has purchased a small threshing outfit for personal use.

Miss Grace Jordan, recently the guest of Miss Grace Wood has returned to Swalwell.

Mr. Gordon and son James, and Mr. Padgate of Swalwell made a short visit to the settlement.

Mr. Jas. Ackley has purchased a new 20th City tractor and is breaking for Mr. Trent.

Colin Lennie has gone to Saskatchewan to look after the harvest there.

Mr. Geo. Reiman has hauled lumber to build another granary and a small house on his C.P.R. half section.

Mr. Steve Hafner has moved onto the former Pollenok farm.

Our latest news from the Mission is that they are now doing nicely. Two of the other children had an attack of diphtheria we are to quarantine longer than they had expected.

Mrs. R. O. Berg and Arnold called at the N. Sand home in Ryley on Sunday evening.

Miss Ruby Berg, Mrs. Flaaten and Gunvald were dinner guests at Mrs. J. Ruehan's home in Bardo on Sunday.

The Amisks and Elvestad families were guests at the P. Aasmo home last Sunday.

Miss Ruby Berg, Mrs. Flaaten and Gunvald, called on Mrs. A. Anderson at the Hagen home on Sunday evening.

The Wymarths were entirely the same type,—black eyed, quick tempered, with luminous thin, black hair through which a bloodless scalp showed distinctly. Later years, it is true, softened everyone could see that they were artificial, either in color or while they were almost blue. They believed in hell and spoke of the world, the flesh and the devil with a horror and conviction. They knew that Christ was coming to take the saints out of the world, leaving the sinners and millions to the well merited tribulation.

Mr Wymarth watched the Board that he believed in, with a kind of hard grim delight—regret was not part of that; it was all over and done with long ago. "Well," he said, "I suppose the city will be pushed by now to-morrow, and we'll have to get our heads and down to this for keeps."

The Board heard him more tenderly. "It will be better soon," said Dr Stanley, "and I think it would be well for us to have the proper appeal to the liberality of the public, and a little money for the additional salary. I am sure the ladies will take care of it."

He was in the right. Presently, Mrs Wymarth asked that Hester Ann might be allowed to read a paper which her son-in-law Hedley had written for the Methodist Quarterly. Mr Hedley was a literary man, and had published books, but his wife's family disapproved of him, and he lived in Montreal, so that Mrs Wymarth had never had the pleasure of reading any of his productions.

Hester Ann read the paper in a clear, sweet voice, and it was a very good paper indeed. It was a plea for the Indians, and it was full of information and of sympathy. The Board was deeply impressed, and would gladly have given them a grant, but the Indians were not in the Chinook district, and the Board had no money for them.

Mrs Wymarth was delighted with the success of her son-in-law's paper, and when Hester Ann had finished reading it, she said, "Now, Hester Ann, you must read the poem you wrote about the Indians. I'm sure the Board would like to hear it."

Hester Ann looked startled. She had written the poem, but she had no intention of reading it. She had written it in the middle of the night, when she could not sleep for thinking of the Indians, and the wrongs they had suffered at the hands of the white men. She had written it with tears streaming down her face, and she had no intention of reading it to the Board.

"Oh, I don't think I will," she said hastily. "I'm afraid it is not very good."

"Nonsense, my dear," said Mrs Wymarth, "I'm sure it is very good indeed. Read it at once."

Hester Ann looked at her father, but he was still too sick to know what had happened. Hedley had to pilot the verse. Her friend in her mind, gazed at Mrs Wymarth's silk, with its rich folds and its costly trimmings, and at the heavy cut glass on the centre table, at the gorgeous chromo that had some glittering text from the Bible on it, and at the gilt-framed mirror, and her black hair with the silver arrow, she would have liked to tear it all down, and fling it in the people in his wrath. Else this was the time to do it, and she could not, she could not. She turned to the remaining Dayspring elder, and said that Mr Jones would read the poem, and that she would read the paper instead. Mr Jones was willing, and Hester Ann read the poem, and her voice was clear and sweet, but her heart was beating wildly, and her face was pale with excitement.

It was a fine poem. It was a noble poem. The hatred that white men had for Indians was denounced in burning words, and the wrongs they had suffered at the hands of the white men were described in detail. The history of the Indians was told from the beginning of their contact with the white men, and the story was a terrible one. It was a story of broken treaties, of lands taken by force, of starvation and misery, of the extinction of whole tribes, of the corruption of the survivors by the vices of civilization. The poem was a terrible indictment of the white race, and it was a noble defence of the Indian. It was a cry for justice, for mercy, for the brotherhood of man, for the fatherhood of God.

Hester Ann read it in a voice that trembled with emotion, and when she had finished there was a long silence. Then Mrs Wymarth said, "Well, I'm sure I don't know what to say about it. I suppose it is very clever, but I'm glad I'm not an Indian, and I'm glad you're not an Indian, Hester Ann. I'm sure I don't know what the Board will think

WINTER CARE OF THE DAIRY HERD

(Experimental Farms Note)

Dairy cattle have been kept at the Dominion Experimental Station at [illegible] since 1914, and although methods of feeding and management are in some respects different from those in most herds, the health and vigor and production of the animals comprising the herd are such as to justify what has been done. Cattle do not seem to know whether the stable is painted or unpainted, whether it is made of dressed lumber or log, three pendulum and condition of breast-fills not seem to vary with temperature. There are, however, affected by feed, regularity of feeding, drought, exercise and sunshine. The cows in milk, and the calves dropped after July 1st, are kept in stable. Free from draughts, and no ventilation is to be provided with open doors, but not warm, the temperature frequently dropping to below zero. It is considered for the herd that it have water in the manger, but the temptation that is to deprive the cows of sufficient exercise and take it. It turned out twice daily for water and exercise at the watering, cattle are more healthy. Calves dropped before July 1st built and sold for breed before the hot weather. They thrive in corrals, having pole and straw shelters over the feed and. When provided with plenty of fresh bedding, they do not seem to mind the late temperatures although wind does affect them adversely. It is better if the shelter can be closed in time of a storm. Cattle can be carried through the winter under such conditions, increasing in weight if they have sufficient feed of the right kind. They thrive on plenty of hay or oat straw and roughage with a little meal. They thrive better if feeding, watering and milking are carried out with regularity.

Here and There

Four ships, arriving at Vancouver within one week, brought more than $20,000,000 worth of silk from the Orient, for trans-shipment to New York. This is the heaviest movement of its kind on record along this coast.

The first passenger trip of the Lethbridge Commercial Airways was made on August 7th, between High River and Lethbridge by a plane piloted by Jack Palmer. It is announced that commercial flights will be arranged between Lethbridge and Waterton Lakes.

Already the musk-rat has come to lead all other furbearers of the Province in the total value of pelts sold, not alone by reason of the great number of pelts taken, but on account of the remarkable rise in the price of fur. In the olden days furs sold in London for a few cents per pelt, but in more recent times.

An official announcement has been made to the effect that the Canadian Pacific Railway company will construct a line from Midland to the Canadian Pacific Railway boat, the Algonquin, with her little daughter, etc. They attended the Charlotte County Cottage Crafts exhibition pageant which is held at St. Andrews every year. Recent changes in the department of Natural Resources of the Canadian Pacific Railway have been announced. F. L. Naismith who has been manager of that office since 1912 tendered his resignation, whereupon Mr. A. G. Porter will assume as manager. Mr. Naismith will, however, retain his position as chairman of the Advisory Committee, which he has held for the past two years.

No Canadian agricultural honor has been more persistently true than the award of the silver medal for "outstanding excellence" to the Canadian exhibit of tobacco prepared by the tobacco division of the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa, at the Empire Exhibition held at Olympia, London, England, in May. Canada's exhibit, which was in competition with that of South Africa, North and South Rhodesia, India, Colombia, Italy, Greece and Macedonia gives consolidating the position previously held by Canada as expert opinion as the producer of the best tobacco in the British Empire.

The More Often You Ship The Sweeter The Cream
The Butt-makers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.
Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.
Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

THEATRE NEWS

"The Texas Streak"

A LYNN REYNOLDS PRODUCTION

A Thrilling Story With Lots of Pep.

SHOWING ON SATURDAY, SEPT. 24th, at 8:30

"30 Below Zero"

Starring Buck Jones

Jones is the type of man you would like to know—prefers listening to talking. When Buck Jones rode on the wings of a soaring airplane in a series of stunts in "30 Below Zero," now to be shown at the Theatre, he discovered that a runaway plane supplied more thrills in a second than a runaway horse with a brain-storm could ever do.

SHOWING SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1st, at 8:30

...Nation, ... provided me, and if he, with all his ... ed where there was a more beautiful ... symbol of a nation than the joint ... Dominion of Wolfe and Montcalm.

Another feature of early Canadian life was the part played in Canadian development in transportation by water. Then followed confederation and the development of the country by transportation by land and by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Quoting a letter from Sir Robert Borden the Premier read that had it not been for the French using the St. Lawrence there would have been no settlement in the ... to-day.

It was conceivable, said the Premier, that if the Canadian Pacific Railway had not been built ... that there would have been no British Dominion in western Canada to-day. There was a danger of annexation from the south, but the C.P.R. brought British millions through to the West.

"We have been celebrating the development of the former colonies into a mighty nation. We have come forward from a colonial status to a national status," the Premier went on. The new development was in international relations in which the development of water transportation again came to the fore, as typified, he thought, by the Empress of Australia." He concluded by paying a personal tribute to Mr. Bland and the connection he has always received from him.

"The pleasure of industry, education and religion, all labored here," said Hon. W. D. Ross, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, in proposing a toast to the Province of Quebec.

"And Canada owes a debt to Quebec and to her loyalty. If she had not been true to the ideals of the American revolution it is probable we should have no confederation to celebrate," he said.

Hon. Narcisse Perodeau, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Quebec, in replying, welcomed the last speaker's words and expressed a hope for closer co-operation between the two provinces.

The More Often You Ship The Sweeter The Cream

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

FIRE PREVENTION

THE LOUD clanging of the town fire alarm is a better reminder of fall fire prevention than any thing we could write. That this actually occurred less than two weeks ago, most town residents will remember.

At this and the immediately approaching season of the year, fire hazard is at its greatest. The luxuriant vegetation of the past summer is rapidly drying and until winter snow falls upon it, it will remain a fire risk that needs careful watching. A lighted match carelessly thrown away or a cigarette partly consumed, alight and dropped, contains sufficient potential damage as to be in the realm of disaster.

Vegetation in town and around country homes should be carefully watched to see that no outbreak occurs, while buildings and property of value should be protected by adequate fire guards.

In the home even though the stoves and chimneys were working satisfactorily last spring, they should all be discussed, properly cleaned and set up again. Soot should be taken out of chimneys to ensure proper draft. A few hours preventative work now will more than pay for itself and may be the means of preventing a serious conflagration.

CHARLIE BARDEN

IT IS never easy to understand the acts of providence or the decrees of fate. A young life taken always contains the element of poignant tragedy and leaves mortal minds vainly asking "why?".

In our news columns this week we record the passing away of Charlie Barden, a lad who has lived and grown up among us for most of his years. Bright, willing, intelligent, and smiling, whether at play or work "Chay" was a typical Canadian boy and held his place among other boys well. Those who watched the junior hockey games at the rink last winter will now remember with a tinge of sadness, that exultant cry of the Tofield fans, "Come on Chay." And frequently he "came on" and did the thing he set out to do, which was to score a goal for his side. For certain periods during the past two summers, Charlie was asked to do the rather popular work of milking a neighbor's cow, and this was done with ability and promptness that commanded attention. Head up, shoulders thrown back, whistling, smiling, sharp at seven every morning came Charlie. Doing the work, he departed in the same manner, saying nothing but leaving a lasting impression.

It is idle to conjecture what the world held for Charlie had he been spared to us or what contribution he would have made to its welfare; all we can do is to trust that his spirit is in a place where pain and troubles are non-existent and where justice reigns supreme.

"KNOWING YOUR ONIONS."

THOSE WHO attended the Variety Theatre during the recent run of the "Flag Lieutenant," the British photo play, were rewarded by an excellent two hours entertainment. The picture held special appeal as being of naval origin, depicting scenes in His Majesty's Royal Navy. The story, as usual, centred around the love of man for a woman, but something very unusual, that of love between man and man, was equally emphasized. In fact the love between man and man was really the main theme of the story. In spite of the oft times proved assertion that "truth is stranger than fiction," it is hard for the average person to associate with real life, the sacrifice that the hero of this story was willing to make for a life long male friend. Yet, sacrifices are made daily, and no one can deny that there is something fine and noble in them, which frequently brings its own reward. It would appear that material success is bound up with the element of self assertion, that "I'll tell the world," and "knowing your onions," is the Alpha and Omega of modern life. Yet calm reflection and dramatic association with sacrifices made, will cause many to question whether there is nothing more to life, than "knowing your onions."

Every Week

Hundreds of people in this district receive and read the "Tofield Mercury." Local news coming from this farm, that farm, this school house and that school house, sent in by a loyal corps of country correspondents from all corners of the Tofield district is arranged and printed weekly and immediately sent out again so that all may read.

This combined with four pages of general news makes up a journal that we desire to reach every home.

The cost is small, $1.50 per year, less than three cents per week, and this amount can be more than made up by the subscriber reading the advertisements and buying intelligently through them.

There is someone at the office waiting to receive your subscription right now and [illegible] of the week.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

Issued by Publicity Commissioner, Government of Alberta, Edmonton, September 13th, 1927.

Alberta Exhibits Appeal to American Farmers

Keen interest in Alberta on the part of farmers in the middle-western states and prospects for quite an influx of very desirable settlers from that territory are reported by Publicity Commissioner D. A. MacLeod, who has returned from a trip to Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota. The exhibit of Alberta agricultural products which was shown at a number of fairs throughout this region made a strong appeal to farmers, and Alberta's plan on the smaller plots up to 160 acres on the largest farm that of Galbraith Bros near Calgary. All are many who are farming under berta at the present time ranks 4th the various income handicaps exist among the provinces of the Dominion and in this part of the United States, in regard to the size of the fat industry.

For Farming Is Growing Industry In Alberta

The number of silver foxes on fox farms in Alberta has doubled during the past year, according to the estimate of H. S. Cullen, inspector for the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association, who has been looking into conditions in this province. It is the belief of Mr. Cullen that the gross profits from the sale of Alberta raised fox pelts will be more than $500,000 dollars to which there will be a considerable profit from the sale of live foxes for breeding purposes.

Last year there were 3000 registered foxes in Alberta and it is expected there will be 3000 more for registration this year. There are already 600 registered fox ranches in Alberta on which the stock varies from a few pairs on the smaller plots up to 160 acres on the largest farm that of Galbraith Bros near Calgary. All are many who are farming under berta at the present time ranks 4th the various income handicaps exist among the provinces of the Dominion and in this part of the United States, in regard to the size of the fat industry.

Bay Third Shipment of Horses For Russia

Good progress has been made by Soviet government in their purchases in this province, according to J. M. Dillon, who has charge in Alberta of the buying for the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Buying for the third and last shipment this year will commence on Monday, September 26th, at the Halfway corrals, south of Gen. On Wednesday, September 28th, inspections will be held at Harry Walsh's ranch on the Bow River south of Bassano and in the course of the next two weeks the Russian buyers will be at Eide Bros. corrals, north-west of Brooks; Doc Giffin's corrals, south of Brooks on the Bow River; W. B. McLennan's corrals, north of Medicine Hat and on the Indian reserve at Gleichen.

Ranchers having horses of a suitable type for sale can secure further information as to the itinerary of the buying commission from Mr. Dillon at the Hunter Hotel, Bassano.

To Build Canning Plant In Edmonton

A site for a canning factory has been purchased in Edmonton by the Border canning factory of New Westminster, B.C., and an early start will be made with the erection of a plant which will can Alberta grown fruit and vegetables.

Wallis Tractor Supreme in Fuel Economy

Look, Listen and Read the following article which was taken from a Government Tractor test at Lincoln, Nebr., and has no connection with any company manufacturing tractors.

"In recent tests at Lincoln, Nebr., the Wallis Tractor, sold by Massey-Harris and Sawyer Massey Co., established wonderful fuel economy in the Ten Hour Draw Bar test by developing 7.84 horse power with each gallon of distillate used per hour, which is the highest fuel economy ever recorded a wheel Tractor.

I have this and other remarkable Government Test features recording the Wallis Tractor at my office, if anyone cares to see same.

Carver & Hannan

Lord Rodney Reynolds and wife in Western Canada

Titled Farmers Till Canadian Prairies

Western Canada is becoming very popular with lords and ladies of high rank. From England, from France, from Denmark, and from Hungary,—to say nothing of Russian nobles, they are coming to the prairies of Alberta and Saskatchewan to prosper on farms or ranches.

Everyone knows, of course, that the Prince of Wales has a large ranch in Alberta, stocked with thoroughbred cattle, sheep and pigs. But purpose of no less than five other members of the royal family in Western Saskatchewan a twelve room mansion of splendid architecture and modern throughout and built on a ranch covering a thousand acres where Lord and Lady Rodney, with their family, have decided to spend the rest of their lives, with occasional trips, of course, back to England to visit their friends and relatives. Before undertaking to run the ranch, however, both of them worked out on farm hands on a neighboring ranch—they felt that they knew something of conditions which have since arisen on the prairies are obliged to meet. Now they are not only successfully running their own large farm, but friends in the old country tell us that they are the most popular couple under Lord Rodney before. Lady Rodney, who is the daughter of the late Duke of Westminster, is a cousin of Lady Farquhar, of London, England, to whom Lady Rodney's little son, John, although only eight years of age, helps his father herd the cattle and bids fair to being an experienced farmer before he is out of his teens.

One of France's wealthiest noblemen the Marquis Duc de Nemours, who attended the coronation of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies in a manner, was so fascinated with the country around Banff and the Yoho Valley that he is reported to have bought some property and intends to return again next summer. Prince Eric of Denmark and his marriage to one of Canada's best known society girls was an event much heralded a few years ago his intention of following the example of the Duke of Wales.

WHEAT POOL NOTES

Important changes have recently been made in the staff of the Central Selling Agency, which disposes of all the grains of the Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Alberta and Ontario wheat pools.

An office has been opened in London, England, and D. L. Smith, formerly general sales manager has been put in charge of this important post. Geo. McIvor has been appointed general sales manager. He was formerly western sales manager with headquarters at Calgary. Mr. McIvor's new duties require his residence in Winnipeg and he is leaving for that city early in October.

Donald McIntyre, assistant sales manager, at Winnipeg, has been appointed eastern sales manager. C. Z. Buchanan, who has been in charge of the Vancouver office of the pool, will be western sales manager, located at Calgary, succeeding Mr. McIvor.

W. C. Folliott, assistant sale. manager, has been appointed coarse grains sales manager.

James Gibson, of the Pools Calgary office, has been appointed manager of the Vancouver office in succession to Mr. Buchanan.

Mr. McIvor, who undertakes the great responsibility of the selling of the immense volume of pool grain, was born in Portage la Prairie and entered the grain business in 1904 with the McLaughlin Grain Co. of Winnipeg. He was appointed manager of that firm's Lethbridge office and has since been employed by the Wilford Cumming Grain Co., being Winnipeg manager. Subsequently he was employed by the James Richardson Grain Company as Calgary manager. Mr. McIvor is a young man who has made rapid progress in the grain business and is well-equipped for the responsible post he is about to assume.

C. Z. Buchanan was born in Ontario was employed by the United Grain Growers' Grain Company for many years, coming to the Alberta pool in its infancy, as assistant to the late Mr. Elliott, sales manager. As manager of the Vancouver office, he has been responsible for the forwarding of grain, arranging ocean bills of lading, paying railway freight, keeping the sales agency posted on the freight market, and for the rapid movement of grain into the Vancouver terminals.

James Gibson, the new Vancouver manager, was born at Kenora, Ont., and started in the grain business in Winnipeg. He served overseas with the 16th Canadian Scottish, and subsequently came to Calgary to take employment with a leading grain firm here. He joined the pool staff in 1925.

The central selling agency handles one hundred and eighty nine million bushels of wheat in 1928, besides the sale of coarse grains.

Since the pool was formed, the agency has handled 850,000,000 bushels of wheat and 50,000,000 bushels of coarse grains.

The Calgary office handles all Western shipments and 25,500,000 of the 1926 crop have been shipped west.

SKIM MILK vs. BEEF-SCRAP FOR WINTER EGG PRODUCTION

(Experimental Farm Note)

It is generally acknowledged by poultry keepers that laying hens require a certain amount of their protein supplied from animal sources. Vegetable protein cannot entirely replace animal protein for egg produce. The two most common sources are beef-scrap and skim milk; the former being a by-product of the abattoir and on the market and the latter a by product of whole milk. Could set most dairy farms.

With the object of comparing the results obtained in winter egg production from the use of skim-milk and beef scrap as a source of animal protein, such experiments have been conducted at the Dominion experimental stations, Kapuskasing, Ont., for the last three years. The average figures over a three year period show that there is no significant difference in the number of eggs laid, or in the cost per dozen between the two pens. This fact would seem to indicate that farmers who have a supply of skim-milk would not benefit by purchasing other animal feed for their poultry, while other poultrykeepers who may not have a supply of skim milk may use the beef scrap to advantage.

This test has covered a period of six months each year from November 1st to April 30th. One hundred pullets were used. These were divided equally as to size and general development into two pens of fifty birds each. The ration given to each pen was the same, with the exception of the skim-milk and the beef scrap. The scrap ration consisted of two parts each of wheat and cracked corn and one part each of whole oats and barley. The dry mash consisted of equal parts of bran, middlings, corn meal, ground oats and barley. The beef scrap was fed from a hopper and the skim milk from a drinking vessel. A supply of each was available to the respective pens at all times. Mineral matter and green feed were also supplied to each lot.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

Issued by Publicity Commissioner, of Alberta, Edmonton, October 1st.

Big Sugar Beet Crop Anticipated

The largest crop of sugar beets in the history of the industry in Alberta is estimated this season from the southern part of the province where harvesting is now under way. The crop which is expected, totalling from 60,000 to 80,000 tons as compared with 41,000 tons last year. On account of the plentiful supply of rainfall during the growing season the crop has grown satisfactorily with very little irrigation. The sugar factory at Raymond is expected to open on its fall run about October 15th.

Tariff For Protection by Threshers

A committee of farmers and threshermen, especially those operating steam engines, is now being called to the attention of the Prairie Fire Association after them, by Benj. Lawton, Chief Fire Inspector for the province of Alberta. Mr. Lawton points out that in order to prevent the risk of forest conflagration no engine shall be placed within thirty feet of any building or stack and that a metal pan of adequate size filled with water shall be placed under the engine as a receptacle for cinders and ashes.

All cinders and ashes shall be thoroughly extinguished before the engine is removed from any place where it has been in operation and a barrel of water and two buckets shall be placed conveniently to any stack of combustible material near the engine. A spark arrester in good repair shall be used and shall not be opened while the engine is in operation.

It is hoped that closer observance of these regulations will reduce the fire loss which is annually from this source.

Making the Canadian Dollar Go Farther than Ever Before

IN the purchase of the common commodities of life, the Canadian dollar has decreased in value during the past decade.

But, in the purchase of an automobile, the dollar is now worth one hundred to two hundred per cent more than it was seven to ten years ago—is worth more, in fact, than ever before in history.

While constantly raising the quality standard of its products, General Motors of Canada has increased the purchasing power of the Canadian car-buyer's dollar. . . .

. . . by the economies of volume purchasing and production,

. . . by the close co-ordination of resources and facilities,

. . . by improved labor- and time-saving methods of manufacture,

. . . by sharing with Canada the savings effected by increased production.

In quality and in value, the Canadian dollar now goes farther than ever before in the purchase of a General Motors car.

TEN YEARS OF COMMUNISM

THIS MONTH marks the tenth anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia. For ten years a Communist state founded on the closet philosophy of Karl Marx, has persisted in Europe, and it seems firmly enough established to last certainly for some years to come. What has the world learned—and what have the Russians learned—from this decade of experience with so daring an experiment in government?

For one thing, that communism is in fact what it is in theory, a dictatorship. It is the negation of individual or political liberty. It is paternalism, benevolent towards the industrial worker, well disposed but inclined to be scornful and strict towards the agriculturalist, severe to the point of cruelty towards the rest of society. It means the government of a small bureaucracy, representing, in theory at least, a minority of the people, and maintained by a kind of terrorism, of which a large army and an active secret police are the agents. That the real communists are sincere and as a rule incorruptible seems to be true. They adhere to the doctrine of Marx and Lenine with a kind of religious fervor. The historic forms of religion, including Christianity, they deny and often persecute. Economic materialism is they god. Lenine they begin to revere as other religionists revere their saints and prophets. The "proletariat" is a chosen people. The doctrine of communism is to be spread abroad until the whole earth receives and glories in it.

It is this fiery zeal in the midst of a nation so politically in different and inexperienced as Russia, that enable a militant minority to govern and to govern without serious protest from anyone. But even so, Russia is far from being purely communist in practice. The Bolshevik leaders have found it impossible to force their philosophy on the eighty million peasants. They have been obliged to permit these peasants to occupy their parcels of land as if they were their personal property and to treat their crops as if they too were property—in violation of all communist rule. They have had to permit a considerable amount of private trading, and, though every obstacle is put in the private trader's way he multiplies and thrives after a fashion. In industry the communist principle prevails and the worker is better paid and far more privileged than he was before the war. But production is low for want of discipline and efficient management, and overhead expenses are high. So goods are rare and expensive, and living conditions for the people at large do not greatly improve.

The military efforts of the communists have not been successful. They anticipated ten years ago revolutions in Germany, Italy, Austria, Hungary and Great Britain. None have occurred, and the world revolution which Lenine dreamed of and which Trotzky still preaches grows every year a more forlorn hope. As a result there is already evident a rift within the communist party between the section that still wants the world revolution pushed to the front as the policy of the soviet republic and the section—now in power—that is inclined to devote its energies to the local problems of Russia itself. If the first party wins, there is imminent danger of further war and bloodshed in Eastern Europe and in Asia. If the second group gains the ascendancy in authority, Russia will drift more and more towards a purely national policy—a semi-Communist state in an anti-Communist world.

Will the present Soviet government remain indefinitely in power? No one dares predict. Politically it is strong enough to do so, so long as it does not interfere too much with the still individualistic peasantry. Its fate will be determined by economic forces. If it is able to maintain tolerable conditions of life in Russia, it will keep its authority. If its breaks down industrially, or if it is driven to exorbitant taxation to keep the government-owned industries in operation, it can hardly survive. In any event it seems bound to move slowly but surely towards a compromise with the rest of the world. As a political experiment pure communism is already discredited. As a desperate attempt to destroy variety among mankind, to replace the individual man, the citizen, with collective man, the standardized unit among a monotonous race, it will still bear watching.—The Youths' Companion.

Every Week

Hundreds of people in this district receive and read the "Tofield Mercury." Local news coming from this farm, that farm, this school house and that school house, sent in by a loyal corps of country correspondents from all corners of the Tofield district is arranged and printed weekly and immediately sent out again so that all may read.

This combined with four pages of general news makes up a journal that we desire to reach every home.

The cost is small, $1.50 per year, less than three cents per week, and this amount can be more than made up by the subscriber reading the advertisements and buying intelligently through them.

British Columbia Officials Visit Peace River

Mr. A. Paulins, Agent-General for British Columbia in London, and G. G. McGeer of Vancouver, Freight rates counsel for the coast province, left Edmonton on Thursday for a tour of inspection of the Peace River country. As a result of their visit, stated Mr. McGeer, London financiers will be given further accurate, first-hand information as to the resources of Alberta's great Northland. Both visitors stated that British Columbia is also vitally interested in the settlement and development of the Peace River area and especially in the provision of a coastal outlet for that section.

Pool To Build Two More Elevators

Contracts have been awarded by the Alberta Wheat Pool for the construction of two more elevators, it is announced from the head office of the Pool in Calgary. These will be 25,000 bushel houses located at Sexsmith and Raimbow the newly completed Bon Slope branch of the C.P.R. This will bring the total number of elevators owned by the Pool at country points in the province up to 157.

Canadian Hunting Prospects Excellent

A Caribou and fawn from the district of North British Columbia. A Peace River man is shooting a moose. A bear about to swim ashore in the Barren

Canadian moose and deer hunting seasons are at hand and from reports reaching the local department of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company there is every indication that one of the best hunting seasons ever will be experienced.

Mike Bates sends down a [illegible] from his camp at Metagama, Ontario, that [illegible] hunters don't get their deer and moose this season they will have nothing to blame but their poor shooting. He says that moose are very plentiful [illegible] and in great [illegible] where John Handel outfitter, has been operating, Handel says the reports are just as encouraging. Handel says that the game has increased [illegible] the Superior Reserve [illegible] and that C.P.R. crew and a very considerable part of the region has cleared to the [illegible] of the tracks offering good hunting. He says that caribou are common [illegible] woods at the [illegible] As the C.P.R. runs in the south [illegible] any of the game preserves, hunters don't have to go very far for their quarry.

The news from Sheehan's camp at Lake Penage, southwest of Sudbury, is also music to the hunter's ears. Deer here are reported to be very plentiful. Reports turned in by guides of the five Bass Camps on the Temiscamingue River, N.B., point to the effect that deer though very plentiful last season show signs of much greater increase. The same word comes from A. D. Thomas at South Milford, in the Kedgwick-Restigouche district.

The hunting facilities of the Yukon and northern British Columbia districts are worthy of special mention. According to sportsmen who have hunted in all parts of the world there are few big game fields anywhere these days to compare with the Kluhane Lake and White River and the Mc Millan River districts of the Yukon territory. In addition to the remarkable inducements offered the hunter these districts have an appeal of attraction for the tourist, as an outing, as [illegible] in exploring the wonders and beauties of Nature in wild and primitive country.

The big game inhabitants, according to locality, of the White River [illegible] are [illegible] great. Others carry [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible] grizzly, brown and black. Some magnificent [illegible] of all these species have been obtained in the past.

The Yukon game country is so vast in its extent that a great variety of hunting parties can be out in the same season [illegible] ever seen by one another.

The Kluhane Lake and White River district is reached from the East via the Canadian Pacific Railway through the world renowned scenery of the Canadian Rockies to Vancouver, thence by Canadian Pacific "Princess" steamer for an enchanting run of one thousand miles to Skagway, Alaska, where change is made and journey continued by train over the White Pass and Yukon route to White Horse, Y.T., a distance of 110 miles. Hunting grounds are situated about 150 miles from White Horse, the trip usually being made in automobiles to Kluhane Lake Landing 103 miles to the [illegible] then by canoe to Beaver Creek the outfitters and [illegible] the Hired Gal to Kluhane Lake 154 miles where the actual hunting commences.

Here and There

The E.P. ranch is the latest to join the wheat pool. Professor W. L. Carlyle, secretary of the ranch, on behalf of R.R.H. the Prince of Wales, has signed a pool contract covering one thousand acres.

In the annual report of the Roads Department of Quebec Province this year of a general increase of 20 per cent. in automobile traffic has been recorded. In some sections of the province the increase over last year has been more considerable.

A recent report issued by the secretary of commerce of the United States Government at Washington estimated the American tourist traffic into Canada as representing $300,000,000 of the $761,000,000 spent by Americans in foreign countries for the year.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has let contract to a Montreal company for the extermination of noxious weeds along its right of way on the eastern lines. This fall a total of 2,000 miles will be sprayed with a death dealing liquid by a mechanical device attached to tank cars.

Motor cars continue to occupy place of first importance in Canadian trade with South Africa, according to the report of the trade commissioner at Cape Town. Following the list of principal importance: automobiles, paper, tires and tubes, agricultural machinery, condensed milk, fencing, canned fish, white lead, oatmeal, binder twine.

To serve the interests of hundreds of farmers in Southern Saskatchewan two new branch lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway began to operate on September 1st, according to announcement by D. C. Coleman, Vice-President, C.P.R. The layout of the two lines runs from Assiniboine south to Verona, a distance of 50 miles, and the second, a 25-mile stretch runs from Bromhead to Lake [illegible].

A horned Plymouth Rock hen, owned by the University of Saskatchewan, has made a new record for egg production. This new champion has a total of 359 eggs in 365 days, not only a new record for her breed but for any variety in the University.

The Forest Fresh Office First Aid Team entered for the Shaughnessy Lloyd Challenge Cup, exhibition of the First Aid Championship of the Canadian Pacific system, in competition with the Western Shops of Winnipeg, won from these champions, at the Prince Rupert Hotel, September 21. The Fort Fresh team entered a total of 412 points out of a possible 500, while the Weston shops secured 403 points.

The establishment of a colony of Germans, chiefly from Saskatchewan is a further development of the work which has charged a number of United Germans to several [illegible] Saskatchewan [illegible] 1925. This colony established is situated in the area. Investment of a capital of large proportions upon large farms is said to be contemplated by the party which is to return to Germany to make its report and come back in the spring with families and relatives. One member has already purchased one and one-half sections of

The Conference Of Premiers

At the invitation of the Dominion Government there will be held in Ottawa on November 3 a conference of representatives of the Federal Government and of all the Provincial Governments at which our relations will be given to the many questions affecting the interests and rights of the Dominion and the several provinces. This conference will be attended by the Dominion Prime Minister and some of his colleagues and by all nine Provincial Premiers who in each case will be accompanied by cabinet colleagues.

The object of this round table conference is, of course, to discuss problems common to all and endeavour to find satisfactory solutions to matters of difference and seeking to try and harmonize the working between the Dominion administration, and in general to study the financial requirements of the several governmental units. It is said, however, that no agenda has been prepared for the guidance of the conference and that no definite decisions are expected to be arrived at.

The conference is of Canadian Premiers is designed to accomplish for Canada something similar to what the present Imperial Conference at London is accomplishing for the Empire as a whole. For example, the matter of tariffs, the Dominion and its several Provinces in regard to certain subjects requires to be clarified. The long conflict of authority in connection with the operation of railways, including branching of railroads into new territory particularly that in the province of Saskatchewan, is another matter which requires to be adjusted. Most of the Provinces are anxious to acquire more territory than they now have and would like to have the Dominion Government extend their boundaries. Ontario and Quebec have been asking for years that their northern boundaries be extended, and other Provinces have also been pressing for additions to their territory. In the Dominion, particularly Ontario, Quebec and other Provinces, there is a feeling that the Provinces are being hampered in their development by the present boundaries which have been fixed from time to time. In addition to the Provinces themselves, there are numerous municipalities in the Provinces which are anxious to have certain changes made in their boundaries. Some of these municipalities, such as Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver, are hampered in their development by the fact that they are unable to annex adjacent territory which is now outside their boundaries. Many municipalities, such as Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Saskatoon, Moose Jaw and others, are anxious to have certain changes made in their boundaries. Some of these municipalities, such as Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver, are hampered in their development by the fact that they are unable to annex adjacent territory which is now outside their boundaries. Isolate Germ Of Infantile Paralysis

Task Of Science Is Simplified In Attempt To Cope With Disease

A special despatch to the Morning World from Boston, Mass., New York, says:

"The germ of infantile paralysis has been definitely identified, thereby simplifying the task of science in its efforts to overcome the disease," Dr. H. L. Amoss, head of the Harvard Infantile Paralysis Commission, said recently.

"The whole problem now is to find a suitable animal to infect," he said.

The only animal which takes the disease appears to be the monkey, and Dr. Amoss said that the latter's mortality is so high that it is an unsatisfactory subject. When the proper animal for experimental purposes is secured, infantile paralysis will be controlled."

Dr. Amoss published on that it cannot be absolutely determined whether the diphtheria germ was cultured and finally it was found that the germ was a staphylococcus, the blood of the horse.

"The Methods Employed

In the course of further daily observations in my office, no man or woman has come to me with the statement that they have ever had the slightest criticism to offer against the efficacy of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the treatment of the various forms of stomach, liver and bowel complaints. All these people have received relief from the use of this well known medicine, and I am personally proud of the fact that I have been instrumental in bringing about so many cures. I am, therefore, more than ever convinced that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best medicine for the purpose that I have ever used in my practice, and I am glad to recommend it to my friends and patients."

Don't Accept a Substitute

This valuable preparation has been on the market for over 60 years. Be sure to ask for Dr. T. Fowler's Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Flight Will Be Hazardous

Commander Byrd's Trip To Antarctic Is More Dangerous Than Any Yet Attempted

Commander Richard Byrd, who recently flew the Atlantic ocean with planes never will undertake that most hazardous flight that has ever been made by an airman when he will attempt to cross the Antarctic Pole by aeroplane. He has already explored the South Pole by air, so the task he has undertaken is to accomplish a similar exploration and discovery, and distinguish himself by being the first aviator to make the flight. If he is successful in this he will have accomplished a feat which will make him the most famous aviator in the world.

The flight will be a long one, enough for all the foreign voyagers on their way back to civilization early in 1929.

"If all goes well" the words are often on the lips of Byrd and his companions as a note for mail they leave from all the days in hand, but usually all these are used up on the last half dozen days, which has been so thick named "The Home of the Blizzard."

The first aeroplane to fly across the unknown frozen wastes of the Arctic ocean will be equipped with skis for landing and taking off from the snow and ice. The skis are of the same design as those used by the Canadian Arctic explorers in their dog-sled journeys.

Round Trip from $155.00 up, everything included. Children half fare. Visit Steamship Agent for full particulars.

TWO ELEVATORS GOING UP IN TOFIELD

As a climax to a very busy building season at Tofield, there are now in course of erection, two grain elevators. One most of the station and so what is known as the old spur, is being put up by Hannan and Carver. Construction on this elevator has been delayed through inability to procure lumber, but lumber is now coming through and work will be rushed forward.

The other elevator which is situated near the station, is being put up by the Reno Elevator Co. Work is already well advanced and it will only be a matter of days before it will be open for business.

Both elevators will, of course, be open to receive this year's grain. Messrs Hannan and Carver will shortly have an announcement to make to the Tofield farmers.

The Bytown Troubadours

1—Pierre Gauthier 2—Fortunat Champagne 3—Charles Marchand 4—Emile Boucher 5—Ghislin Bellemare

The good old French-Canadian songs, richly harmonized and interpreted with taste, have always met with great success, but one has to hear them rendered by several voices to enjoy their fullness of poesy and sounds. In order to present such songs to their most artistic setting the Canadian Pacific Railway obtained the services of Charles Marchand and his famous Bytown Troubadours for the Folk-song and Handicraft Festival held at the Chateau Frontenac this spring.

This quartet was founded at Ottawa in 1926 by Mr Marchand and the friends who seconded him in bringing these songs before the general public are: Fortunat Champagne, second tenor; Emile Boucher, tenor, and Ghislin Bellemare, bazse.

The leader and founder of the quartet was a former chorister of the Basilique at Ottawa. He is an ardent interpreter of the old French songs and in the very soul of the quatuor. His profound knowledge of the rhyme characterizing the old country songs makes him to render them faithfully. This has resulted in an inspiring ovation among his friends mentioned above, who have entered with enthusiasm in interpreting the songs indigent of the Province of Quebec.

The programme rendered at the Festival by the Bytown Troubadours, consisted of songs by Amédée Tremblay, Oscar O'Brien, Paul Larose, Alfred Laliberté and Maurice Mariaut. Pierre Gauthier has arranged these songs for several voices, doing so with such skill that even greater charm has been drawn from the old harmonizations. Mr. Gauthier came to Ottawa in 1930, after a brilliant career in France, as professor of piano and harmony.

The Bytown Troubadours is a unique organization in musical circles on the continent. Every member is imbued with the true spirit of French-Canada, enabling a faithful interpretation of the songs of their forefathers.

All Canada Agrees 'It's Better because it's Canadian'

"IT'S Better because It's Canadian" . . . a year ago General Motors of Canada gave first utterance to this phrase.

"It's Better because It's Canadian" . . . newspapers and magazines all over Canada took up the theme, impressing on Canadian citizens the pride they should justly feel in the products of their country.

"It's Better because It's Canadian" . . . the phrase has struck home, has become a challenge to the Canadian manufacturer and to the Canadian buyer.

"It's Better because It's Canadian" . . . it is a fact. And because it is a fact . . . because General Motors was inspired to put it into words . . . because Canadian editors added to its impetus . . . because Canadians accepted it . . . and because the standard of Canadian quality proved it true. . . .

. . . all Canada has enjoyed a greater measure of prosperity; and General Motors of Canada, with many other Canadian manufacturing organizations, has just completed the most successful year in its history.

The More Often You Ship The Sweeter The Cream

The Buttermakers' heaven is where all cream is No. 1, or Special, for the better the cream, the better the butter.

Apart from the increased revenue received for special or No. 1, as against the lower grades, there is a direct benefit coming to the shipper. Alberta now exports a large quantity of butter and this meets in competition, butter from all parts of the world. The better the butter, the greater the demand, and the greater the demand the higher the price.

Anything the shipper does to enable him to deliver sweet cream, helps both himself and us.

STORAGE OF ROOTS AND VEGETABLES

(Experimental Farm Note)

Owing to the comparatively l[ong] storage period in the prairie pro[vinces] particular care is necessary in the [various] phases must be exercised. A fairly [cool] contact temperature and humidity [conditions] are essential for all roots and vege[tables]; specimens for storage should not be too immature or too old, nor may usually begins in January when [the] diseased any injured individuals; do not store tender vegetables (if) has been exposed to frost; severe [frost] will also injure the keeping quality of such hardy vegetables as beet, carrot, rutabaga or turnip. There are some of the conditions that require consideration before and during the storage.

Selection of roots and vegetables for [storage]

While the majority of roots may be successfully stored in bins in a relatively moist, cold compartment, for small quantities, the method of [plac]ing in sand is recommended. [Most] of the practice conducted at the Experimental Farm, Indian Head, Sask., during the winter 1926-27 best results followed the use of dry sand as compared with the use of moistened sand. The same method of storage is recommended for Winter radish, turnip, rutabaga and salsify.

The air temperature of the cellar from October 18, 1926 to March 21, 1927 averaged 39.01 degrees Fahr. ranging from 32 to 50 degrees Fahr. in the mornings, and 39.97 degrees Fahr., ranging from 34 to 51 degrees Fahr., in the evenings. In the same cellar the temperature of the soil at a depth of 4 feet ranged from 36.5 degrees Fahr. on October 18, 1926 to 39.5 degrees Fahr. on March 21, 1927 indicating during the winter the temperature remained relatively constant. Another factor to be taken into consideration was that the least amount of shrinkage took place on potatoes stored in pale darkness.

Under similar temperature conditions cabbage may be stored successfully in the roots to the ceiling or as [they] are started bins or on shelves. Firm undamaged heads only should be stored. In the same cellar celery [may] be kept in the garden before severe [frost] with all roots attached and removed to moist sand and kept fresh and [crisp] until after Christmas.

A small coal burning heater which was installed to moderate and evening [cold] in the cellar. In shelf like [bins] of dry kiln sawdust, squash, [citron] and pumpkins were stored. The [bins] were in excellent condition in the spring when a number of the mature [roots] were planted for the production of ripe seeds. Citron and pumpkin, however, [did] not keep well. Drier and warmer [conditions] are required for [these] vegetables and the ripper the [fruit] the better will they keep in [storage].

Here and There

Air mail service between Winnipeg and the North Battleford has been inaugurated and the first mail for Winnipeg left the United States arrived recently.

The potato acreage along the Dominion Canadian Railway this is larger than last year and a 40 per cent. crop is expected. This will mean that there will likely be 178,000 bushels available for export, as compared with 142,000 last year.

British Columbia's farms produced $71,362,939 last year; bringing all records and raising $9,000,000 over the previous year, according to the final figures of the Provincial Statistician, G. H. Stewart. Lumbering leads with agriculture second.

A new world record is set—300 white Leghorn baby chicks arrived from the University of British Columbia at Ottawa through the Canadian Pacific Express Company, sound, and hungry, all of them. Upon the food or water of their 3,000 mile journey and none died or suffered.

A Barred Plymouth Rock, owned by the University of Saskatchewan has established a new record for the three Prairie Provinces, laying the 300th egg in her pullet year of which there is still a month to go. The world's record for trap-nested production is held by No. 5, at Agassiz, B.C. pullet, which laid 361 eggs in 364 days.

Members of the newly-appointed Saint John Board of Harbor Commissioners, headed by Hon. W. F. Foster, recently concluded a conference with Canadian Pacific officials of Montreal in connection with the proposed improvements in the grain shipping facilities of the port. The chief object of the new commission, according to Mr. Foster, is the extending of a national line of an All-Canadian trade route through the Port of Saint John.

Scots in Canada are banding forward with keen interest to the coming Highland Gathering and Festival of Scottish music to be held at Banff September 3 to 5, the activities taking place on the grounds adjoining the Banff Springs Hotel. Through the generosity of the Canadian Pacific Railway officials the festival has been made possible and it is along the line of the Canadian Folk Song Festival held at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, in May which was voted such an outstanding success.

The United States' interest in the development of the mineralogics in Canada is seen in a request by the Baltimore and Ohio to have the Canadian Pacific Railway to send on of its latest type engines of engine to the centenary exhibit of locomotives, which will open in Baltimore on September 24th. The Canadian Pacific has agreed to the request and the latest Hudson engine will be sent to Baltimore. This engine with over 70,000 pounds tractive power is the company's fastest and most powerful passenger locomotive.

One of the strangest attempts at taking a course is now being made by Andrew Wilson of Bella Coola, B.C., according to information received here at the request of Harlan I. Smith of the National Museum of Canada. Mr. Wilson is taking a census of the grizzly bear population of some uneven valleys along the fiords which are included in the "Norway of America" traversed on the steamship journey between Prince Rupert and Vancouver. The count like between three two ports is a noted big game hunting spot and attracts many greatly hunters each year from all sections of the continent as well as from other parts of the world.

Here and There

On your return from the exhibition in the Canada Coast to new republic, you will see the inspection and grading of fruit for exportation which is now in progress. They will receive all fruit from the time it is inspected and an expert inspector will determine the grade before leaving the country.

A record was established at Quebec recently with nine passenger vessels arriving and leaving passengers and mail, the largest number ever to visit the port at any one time. Included in this arrivals was the "Empress of Scotland," "Duchess of Bedford," "Montclare" and "Metagama" of the Canadian Pacific Steamships.

A new high record of $58,256,-921 in gold production of the province of Ontario during the first year to church in the records, the increase over the similar period of last year being a gain of $3,000,000. The total for the last half year the total production of all minerals in Ontario was $84,-195,255, as against $42,564,425 for the same half year of 1926.

To serve the interests of hundreds of farmers in Southern Saskatchewan two new branch lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway started operation on September 1st, according to information given by C. E. Colston, Vice-President, C.P.R. The new lines are the two lines run from Assiniboia south to Coronach, a distance of 36 miles, and second, a 27-mile stretch, runs from Bromhead to Lake Alma.

The 160 members of the British Empire Beauty ball Canada Tournament, which will be held in Toronto next November. Their entry is expected to be the most potentially much greater, and they will be accompanied in Canada in such a manner as has never been accomplished in Canada, in such a manner as has never been accomplished in Canada. They sailed from Montreal on the Canadian Pacific Steamship Empress Britain, the ship having a large portion of the party.

After a stormy six weeks trip during winter the Dominion of Canada Their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and his brother George, landed at the Canadian Pacific Steamship, the "Empress of Scotland" these last happy. Prince Edward says, "Every time I come to your country I am more and more impressed by the wonderful natural resources and the great future that lies before it. I am very enthusiastic, and from that I will say no more for I may be no more again."

Approximately 1,200 members of the American Legion visited Montreal on their way to Paris, France where they will hold their 8th annual convention. The people came from Idaho, Buffalo, Wisconsin, Washington, Montana and North and South Dakota. Frank E. Samuel, mayor of Buffalo, gave the Legionaires of that city a wild buffalo to be presented to the citizens of Paris. They crossed to Antwerp on the "Montclare" and "Montrose," both liners in the Canadian Pacific service.

"A band of good wages and security" is the way Premier Brownlee of Alberta described the type of land he public address in the Old Country recently. Of the land in Alberta, ninety-five per cent. of the land is owned by the men who got out to the Dominion and took up their farms to be homesteaders. I have no doubt that a man can succeed on the land there even if he has not been brought up to the country at home," he said. "He will do a long way."

WHEAT POOL NEWS NOTES

Quite a number of United States citizens, who own land in Alberta, are joining the Wheat Pool. Just recently Senator J. W. Reid, of Idaho, signed a contract covering two and a half sections of land in the Makepeace district.

Writing in The Farm & Ranch Review, C. W. Peterson says, "It seems obvious to me that an organization which controls the wheat production of 125,000 farmers, fifty per cent of all Canada's wheat and nearly one per cent. of the world's exportable surplus, and which is organized to render services to its member ship at actual cost, can effect such economies in handling, and has such tremendous power, that to place it side by side with the competitively [illegible] efforts of even the greatest of private grain handling concerns is fantastic in the extreme.

The total handlings of the Alberta pool elevators from the 1926 crop was 9,576,760 bushels for the forty-two houses, or an average of about 228,-000 bushels per elevator. The first five elevators were 310-one, 273,658 bus., Pelmdn, 223,650 bus., Coaldale, 222,272 bus., Kilburn 220,642 bus., Hussar, 214,243 bus., Daysland, 17-Section Bay, Woodhouse, 176,341 bus., Didsbury, 168,373 bus., Raleigh, 166,-

The Hardest Pure Metal

Recon. Tests Made in England Prove Iridium First

Iridium, a metallic found in nickel ore, is the hardest pure metal according to tests recently made by the National Physical Laboratory in London. Its tensile strength is 80,000 pounds to the square inch. Platinum is the hardest of the precious metals, as it ranks fifth, the iron metal coming second as hardest.

Platinum is only to pure gold in the matter of weight. One cubic foot of platinum weighs 1,340 pounds, while gold weighs 1,204 pounds. Platinum is the heaviest metal that is commercially used, but osmium, which is found in platinum ores, has been produced in laboratories. It is 2½ times heavier than platinum and 40 times heavier than water. Osmium is the rarest of the

Alberta Exhibit to be Shown at Toronto Royal

Alberta will be well represented at the Agricultural Jubilee for the Dominion which is to be a feature of the Toronto Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in November. The exhibit of agricultural products from this province which attracted so much favorable attention at the World's Poultry Congress, and since at a number of large fairs throughout the middle western states has been improved by the addition of a number of new features and will be sent to Toronto as Alberta's contribution to the Jubilee. Alberta grains, grasses and vegetables this season are well worth the attention they attract when shown outside the province.

Good Returns for 1926 Sugar Beet Crop

Some twenty thousand dollars has been paid to sugar beet growers in southern Alberta during the past year, representing a final bonus of 47 cents a ton on their 1926 crop delivered to the Canadian Sugar Factories Ltd., at Raymond. This brings the total returns to growers up to $7.92 per ton for the 1926 crop. This is an increase of $1.42 per ton over the final price paid for the 1925 crop, and the statement is made in a letter issued to growers by the sugar company that "Sugar prices are stable and prices for 1927 and 1928 beets are likely to remain high and attractive to the farmer."

Professor McKee to Judge at Corn Show

The Alberta Corn Grower's Association has been fortunate in being able to secure the services of Prof. Clyde McKee as judge of the entries at the Provincial Corn Show which is to be held in Calgary on November 17 and 18. Prof. McKee has been agronomist at the Montana State College for a number of years and has been closely identified with the development of corn growing in Montana. He has judged at a number of shows in Montana and the neighboring states where the types of corn grown are similar to those produced in Alberta.

Harndon received a broken collar bone, but the other occupants of the car escaped with a bad shaking up. This is very fortunate as both lady passengers are elderly Mrs. Lewis a cripple.

Mr. Lukey were taken to Edmonton in a passing car, where they were given hospital treatment.

RACING PICTURE "DOWN STRETCH" QUICKENS PULSE

The Varsity Theatre should enjoy a capacity house on Sat. when "Down the Stretch," the Universal-Jewel race picture from the story "The Thoroughbred" by the late Geo. Bronson-Howard.

"Down the Stretch," under the able direction of King Baggot, who is also seen here handling a picture in his latest, is one of the most unusual and yet entertaining pictures of the year here in a long time. It abounds with drama, thrills, romance and plenty of down and out heart-throbs and trouble, the whole story and the moments of high comedy that make up jockeys, the turf of the race meet that the fan never knows, handicaps and more hangovers on the sport of it.

R. I. NOTES

We are putting on a picture show at the Varsity Theatre next Wednesday, October 26th at 8:30. We have a good show which we are sure will please everybody. "The Winning of Barbara Worth." Tickets may be secured from members of the institute, and would advise getting your tickets in the way, and then avoid the rush at the box office. We are doing this picture to help pay for the new curtain for our building for the stage, so trust each one will help in this way, and at the same time, enjoy a pleasant evening. There will be two shows, one for Adults, and one for children. Mrs. Children's show will be held in the afternoon.

An enjoyable time was had at the A. I. G. dance last Thursday evening, a record attending. Mrs. McCauley and Mrs. Cruise, Mrs. Harndon and Laura Scott, first and second prizes in the ladies' waltz. A one-step was won by Mrs. Herndon sr., Mrs. Mr. Cruise taking second prize. Mrs. Hanby and Mrs. Smith all who attended and helped to make this a success.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE CONFERENCE

The Constituency Conference was held in our rooms on Wednesday, October 12th, the first session starting about 11:00 a.m., by singing "O Canada" after which a short address of welcome was given by the president, Mrs. Pinnell, and very well replied to by Mrs. Morton, Vegreville's president. Following this Tofield, Ryley and Vegreville branches gave reports on the year's work, both of which should be heard to be appreciated. One, perhaps, does not realize the work that is being accomplished by the small town institute.

Listen to the yearly reports, full reports from the most skeptical that it is truly women's work and that they are doing it well, after these reports, the company took dinner at the hotel, 35 delegates and local members doing full justice to the excellent meal, as well as enjoying the social time that prevailed. The afternoon session opened at 1:30 with community singing, "The Maple Leaf," followed by Mrs. Ward, convener of household economics. Mr. Pinnell then gave a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. McIntosh and responded to a hearty encore, which was followed by a paper by Mrs. Taylor, convener of "immigration and the Department of Agriculture," read by Mrs. Thornley in the former's absence. Mrs. Ward then sang "Old Dry Town Town", accompanied by Mrs. McIntosh. Election of officers followed when Mrs. Odell was returned as convener for the constituency and Mrs. Reid as secretary, and the following:

Conveners were elected: Child Welfare and Public Health, Mrs. Firth; Education and Better Schools, Mrs. Morton, Vegreville; Legislation, Mrs. A. H. Hooper; Agriculture, Mrs. Baines, Agricultural Committee of Ryley; Home Economics, Mrs. Ward; Standing and National Fund, Mrs. Blackburn of Vegreville.

Mrs. Goodall then spoke on Child Welfare and Public Health and Mrs. Firth read a paper by Mrs. Dearborn, who was absent, "Education Matters". Mrs. A. H. Hooper of Saskatchewan, our new district director, then gave a lengthy talk on The High Lights of the Associated Conventions, which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. Mrs. Rogers is an excellent speaker, and gave a very comprehensive report of the recent Alberta convention in London. She also explained in detail the workings of the Associated Women's Institute, and dealt with each individual branch, as they in different groups, form the institutes and the constituency groups forming the district, as the districts forming the big provincial conventions, and these ending in the federated conventions succeeded the individual institutes must be successful. They must do their work as a unit to be done. She spoke very highly of the work of the constituency and all the visiting delegates spoke very highly of the appearance of our local meeting rooms. In fact, one lady remarked that they were the best institute rooms she had ever been in. After Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Pinnell gave a humorous reading, Aunt Hannah's Beau, Mrs. Firth, Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Pinnell assisted by Mrs. McLaughlin. The gathering broke up by singing "God Save The King". The piano being used at the closing rink was kindly loaned for this occasion, which added much towards the success of the meeting. Between 40 and 50 attended the afternoon session.

ANOTHER CUP FOR THE LADIES' CURLING CLUB BONSPIEL

Mr. Young of Young's Jewelry Store, Tofield, has generously presented the Tofield Ladies' Curling Club with a handsome cup to be played for as a trophy in their annual bonspiel. It states Mr. Chapman of Edmonton was successful in securing the cup, he being in the Ladies' Curling Club to this extent.

The cup will be played for at a date to be announced later and it is no doubt gladden the hearts of the rink that wins it.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

KEG RAMONT

We are thankful for one whole week of fine weather as one takes in a distance of two miles five threshing machines were on the hum and as they could be fed, almost day and night, starting at 6:30 in the morning and not stopping until nearly 10 in the evening. We are not able to keep track of the cars of grain being loaded, or the average to the acre, but the farmers are well pleased with the year's crop.

Miss Viola Law, who is attending Alberta College in Edmonton, is spending the week end at home.

Mrs. Duncan Ratigan and father, Mr. Lindsay evening for Edmonton, where they will take apartments until Christmas.

Mrs. McKerrial of Edmonton visited a few days with her friend, Mrs. H. Sidwell.

Fred and Mrs. Foley of Armena spent Thursday as the guest of Mrs. C. B. Owen.

T. H. Bergquist and little son spent a few days the first of the week at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mitchell sold a farm last week to Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Minnesota, U.S.A., for the sum of seven thousand dollars.

Mr. Edison Starrett fell and broke his arm one day last week, necessitating a trip to Ryley to have it X-ray photograph taken.

Mrs. Jensen and daughter, Mrs. Marshall and Miss Viola Lee were guests of Mrs. C. A. Ingram on Friday afternoon.

Our district was not very well represented at the school fair last Friday. It seems hardly worth while for our district to co-operate with Tofield in such a fair are interested.

Mr. Martin Lawson has accepted a position as grain elevator at Tofield.

Mr. Jon Nomeland assisted Mr. Ed Olsen during threshing operations down there.

Mr. Jon Olsen assisted Mr. Nomeland in threshing for threshers last Saturday.

WEDDING - QUIETLY CELEBRATED

A few friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hall called on them on Thursday afternoon to congratulate them on a silver wedding which took place on Sept. 2nd. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Hall's health, the event was kept very quiet and it was felt by all there would be honored. Mr. and Mrs. Hall came to the Hall home in 1902 as a couple had a photo taken together, Mrs. Hall being up in the wheat chair. Mr. Hall were married in the parsonage in our district, as noted for their kindhospitality, having entertained on a large scale and taken a part in the affairs of the district. They have tried to make their people happy by getting up personal surprises for them, thereby making the community a more jolly one in which to live. Mrs. Frank Lewis on behalf of many friends, presented them with a nice

MR. AND MRS. MITCHELL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mitchell on the 4th inst. celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home in Tofield and received the congratulations of many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were married in Edmonton, over 100 people were present to wish the happy couple the best of luck. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, were entertained afternoon and evening, October 11th. The day was very appropriate for the occasion, a beautiful golden day in early autumn. Mr. Mitchell was born in Ontario, but went to Iowa to keep house for his brothers, where she was married and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were for several years, then to Minnesota, and then in 1903 came to Alberta, settling on a homestead four miles from Tofield, which is now Tofield. Edmonton was the nearest railroad. With the exception of a few years living in Edmonton, they have spent all the time practically lived in Tofield for the past 21 years. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are fa-

LINDBROOK

Mrs. E. Hooper and son Dick, of Edmonton, were down here last week visiting relatives.

Mr. J. Lusby made a business trip to Edmonton last week.

The C. N. R. are putting a house siding and not stopping until next Tuesday into the stockyards here. This will be quite a help when shipping cattle or sheep, of which Lindbrook shops quite a few.

Mrs. Higgins of Lamoureux, Sask., is staying with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hobbs on a visit.

Mrs. W. Hooper went with the Albert family of Tofield to Edmonton last Sunday.

On Hallowe'en night the pupils and teacher of Lindbrook school will give a concert in the school house. They will be assisted by some of the older folk and judging from little whisperers that are heard, it looks as if it is to be a real good show. The fun starts at 8:15 so be there, everybody, and enjoy the fun. Don't forget, Monday evening, October 31st, at 8:15 all are welcome.

The threshers are busy making up for lost time, some even using our headlights to enable the bundle teams to pick up their loads after dark.

Mr. W. Lancaster shipped cattle this week and Messrs Lindgren, Wescourt and Sullivan shipped sheep.

Mr. E. Huntley and Mr. Gladden of Edmonton visited friends here this week and enjoyed their visit immensely.

Mr. J. H. Brown jr., shipped a carload of wheat from here this week.

BARDO

Threshing machines are humming on every direction, the grain is dry, and it is threshing well now.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Steen, Mrs. Rude and Miss Nora, Mrs. Rude and Mrs. Hills were among those from Bardo who were able to go to Kethamont and congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell on their golden wedding anniversary.

Several from Tofield and a large number from Bardo went to Kingman on Sunday afternoon and joined with other friends in helping Mr. and Mrs. Benson in celebrating their silver wedding anniversary.

School re-opened in Grandforks school district on Monday.

On Sunday Mrs. Nora Stauffer entertained the J. L. Yoder, Dave Yoder, D. Swartzendruber, Troyer, and H. E. Brenneman families. Mrs. Bender and children and Mrs. Hilts.

Three Miller boys from here, also visiting their aunt, Mrs. Lydia Yoder and other relatives.

Mr. Stutzman preached an interesting sermon on the "Need of True Heart Religion", at the Mennonite Church on Sunday morning.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends in the community, also Tofield and Hall's long illness, have shown kindness in many ways by sending fruit and flowers and also by kindly letters of sympathy. Also for the handsome and useful gift at the time of their golden wedding anniversary. We extend to you every time we hear it rung out in the hours.

Yours sincerely,
MR. and MRS. FRANK HULL

FINAL WHEAT POOL PAYMENT

A final payment of over nineteen million dollars on the 1926 crop of Pool wheat, was announced this (Wednesday) morning by J. A. McPhail, President of the Canadian Wheat Pool.

"Of the total amount the Saskatchewan Pool receives $12,939,307, the Alberta Pool $4,198,527, and the Manitoba Pool $2,005,175," stated Mr. McPhail.

"The total payment made by the Central Selling Agency to the three provincial Pools represents the net balance after deducting all marketing costs incurred by the Central Selling Agency, such as storage, interest charges and administrative expenses from the proceeds of the 1926 crop.

"As in previous years the spreads between grades have been adjusted in the final payments which reflect the actual price secured for the various grades.

"The final payments make the total price on the principal grades as follows: No. 1 $1.42; No. 1 Durum $1.40; No. 2 $1.37½, No. 3 $1.31; No. 4 $1.21½; No. 5, $1.09; No. 6 97½c."

Mr. McPhail stated that the carrying charges and operating expenses of the provincial pools are deducted from the final payment. In addition the provincial pools made deductions for the commercial and elevator reserves, which are credited to the individual members. Members receive interest on the money lent by them to their pool as an elevator reserve, which is used to provide elevator facilities.

The administrative expenses of the Central Selling Agency for the crop year of 1926-27, according to Mr. McPhail, were covered by a deduction of less than a fifth of a cent per bushel. The distribution of over nineteen million dollars brings the Grand total paid by the Pools since the Alberta Pool started in 1923 to over six hundred and seventy-four million dollars.

Elevator Reserve

The amount deducted for elevator Reserve purposes is credited to each Member according to the number of bushels he shipped to the 1926-27 Pools on the basis of two cents per bushel. This is not an expense, but is actually an asset to the grower, a sum of money retained by the Pool for the sole purpose of acquiring elevators, in the ownership of which he is a partner with all other members. Interest at the rate of six per cent per annum is paid to him in cash by the Pool on each year's interest falls due on the amount deducted for elevator reserve purposes. When a distribution of the elevator reserve fund is made, he will receive his share in the proportion in which it was credited. The total amount of the elevator reserve fund including 1926-27 pool deductions, is now $1,231,131.65. This money has been used to pay for the 137 elevators now owned by our subsidiary Company, Alberta Elevators Limited, and also the Alberta Pool's share of Terminal Elevator at Head of the Lakes.

Commercial Reserve

One and one twentieth of a cent per bushel has been retained from the proceeds of the sale of wheat, delivered to 1926—27 Pool for commercial Reserve purposes. In common with the elevator reserve fund, this amount is credited to each member in proportion to the number of bushels shipped. The commercial reserve differs from the elevator reserve in that it can be used for any of the purposes of the Association. No interest is paid on commercial reserve deductions. A heavier deduction was deemed necessary this year on keeping with the general expansion of the pool and the extensive elevator programme which has been undertaken. The total amount of the commercial reserve fund, including 1926-27 Pool deductions, is now over $600,000.00.

Similar deductions will be made to each member shipping wheat to the 1926-27 pool, observing the same rate of amount deducted and retained by the Association for elevator and commercial reserve purposes.

Terminal and Country Elevators.

Savings effected through ownership and operation of our own terminal elevators amounted to three-quarters of a cent per bushel on total wheat handled in 1926—27 pool. The amount thus saved was used to take care of the amount paid out by the pool in the difference in freight where oats were of necessity shipped to Fort William which is 2c per bushel higher than to Vancouver. It will be remembered that all members receive, of their initial payment at time of delivery on basis of freight rate to Vancouver, whether car was shipped east or west.

The Alberta Wheat Pool has made satisfactory progress during the year. There has been a considerable increase in membership and the signing up of a substantial majority of first option signers, to second option contracts, was successfully obtained. Progress has been made in the acquisition of country elevators, the total now being 137. Prince Rupert terminal elevator was operated and the Vancouver Harbor Commission's No. 2 terminal was leased. A start has been made in the erection of a pool terminal of 2,000,000 bushel capacity at Vancouver.

CLEA. OPENING DATE POST-PONED TO NOVEMBER 15th

The date of opening for the first and second year students at the Olds School of Agriculture has been changed from October 30th to November 15th. This change has been made, that the new buildings may be completed and the equipment installed before the classes begin. The third year classes will open as usual in the old building on the 19th of October. The overcome the loss of time resulting from the late opening, the holidays at Christmas will be curtailed somewhat, and the spring term will be extended a few days.

There are applications from two hundred and sixty students at the present time. This is one hundred more than at the same date in previous years, and would indicate that the attendance at the school this winter will fill to capacity.

Winter Milking

Old Bessie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a hardy yearly appetite, she goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. Get the habit of winter milking—it pays!

A Complete Electric Service

KOHLER of KOHLER, specialists in private electric plants, now have for immediate delivery electric plants ranging in power from 800 to 10,000 watts. These new large plants are the outcome of the wonderful success and reception of their 200, 1500 and 3000 watt plants, which are now known all over the world, on land and sea, as being a first class and high grade electric plant in every particular. For some time we have been endeavoring to interest Alberta farmers in this plant and feel sure that the purchaser will be pleased with the plant and after using it, if he could not procure another, would not part with it for much more than he paid for it.

Model D, 1500 watt capacity, which we recommend for most installations, costs $625.00 f.o.b. Alberta points.

A Kohler Electric Plant gives you "city" service at an economical running cost. Write for booklet or call and let us explain this plant to you.

Save The Trees

(Reprinted from "The Barrhead News".

This might appear at first sight a strange topic for an editorial in the Barrhead newspaper, where, since the time of the arrival of the first settlers, one of the chief aims has been to destroy the trees with all possible speed. However, on many farms the time has come when the law making authorities should step in and call a halt. It is the editor's view, which is shared by others, that the setting aside of forty acres as a tree reserve on each quarter section should be compulsory.

Some of the values of forests are well known, others are not so often taken into consideration. It is a difficult matter to undertake the task of reforestation but no effort is required to conserve what we already possess.

The terrible destruction in the Mississippi Valley during the past summer is very largely traceable to the denudation of the territory which it drains of its primeval forests. It is also well known that a country having forest tracts is not so apt to suffer from drought. There are historical instances where fertile river bottom become barren wastes through failure to pay due attention to this fact.

The trees modify the climate in many other ways. Possibly the most desirable climatic condition is the prevalence of high winds. In a well treed country the course of the wind is shifted upward so that even in the open spaces it is apt to be calm except when a hurricane is ranging above. Even twenty below is very pleasant in our clear air and brilliant sunshine if you are protected from the wind.

Trees also save expense and inconvenience in the winter time by preventing the roads from drifting with snow. They also prevent the fields from being blown clear of soil in the winter time and thus not being properly supplied with moisture for the spring. Similarly in the summer they prevent soil drifting which sometimes necessitates re-seeding, and they also prevent a resulting unfortunate feature of soil drifting, namely, the drifting of foul seeds which high winds carry with the soil.

Trees are a necessity for nesting purposes with most birds. It is well known that without the protection birds give us life would surely cease on the earth on account of insect pests. It is estimated that it costs the United States about a billion dollars a year through losses of crops caused by grubs and insects of various kinds. Anything, therefore, that will induce birds to locate in the neighborhood is a direct benefit to every farmer.

However, apart from these indirect benefits forests have a direct value. A few years ago the editor took an automobile trip through the northern and southern portions of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. A person could not but be impressed with the greater beauty of Alberta over Saskatchewan, especially the southern part of that Province, due to our greater tree growth. As Paris said to his brother Hector, "Beauty is a gift of the gods and not be despised." It is also said, "Man shall not live by bread alone." We are all striving to make all the money we can, to which surely no objection should be taken, but it would be very unwise to place money on such a pedestal that it were the only consideration. We want new comers, and our fields interspersed with trees make an appeal to visitors that the bald prairies cannot produce, and many farmers in Saskatchewan look with longing to the more beautiful province of Alberta.

Forty acres reserved on a quarter section would be by no means, apart from its indirect value, useless. In fact the News has no hesitation in making a prophesy that in the Barrhead district inside of ten years forty acres of timberland will be as valuable as forty acres of wheat land. It is a crop that never fails. Its good work, both of an indirect and direct nature, is always in evidence. On the said trip through Saskatchewan, in the yard of an uncle farming there, attention was called to a little willow stick, less than two inches in its biggest part, which the editor was advised was a fence post that had been imported at an expense of fifteen cents. By dilicious thinning and use of dead wood these forest patches should always be kept for future generations; and as this Province fills up there will be an increasing demand of wood for fuel, fence posts, mine props, building material, telephone poles, railway ties, etc. The editor will stack his reputation on another prophesy that within less than a year from the arrival of the steel in New Barrhead there will be a considerable export from the district to the City of Edmonton of cordwood for fuel purposes. Added to all of the above, in most of our forest land there is good pasturage among the trees wherein stock can obtain shelter from the heat of summer and the storms of winter.

So, Mr. Progressive Farmer, if at some future time a Government inspector, after complimenting you on your fine wheat field, gives you instructions that after the present crop be harvested you are to plant it to trees, do not look downhearted.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

Issued by Publicity Commissioner, Government of Alberta, Edmonton, October 15th, 1927.

Swine Club Shows Cancelled

It has been found necessary by the Department of Agriculture, to cancel arrangements made to hold Boys' and Girls' Swine Club shows in Calgary and Edmonton during the coming fall, owing to the recent outbreaks of infantile Paralysis at a number of points in the province and the consequent unwillingness of parents to allow their children to travel far from home.

The pigs fed by club members in various districts will be marketed as they are ready under the direction of local club supervisors, and the carlot prizes will be awarded as previously arranged, but the other features of the shows, including judging competitions for the railway trophy and the trip of the winning teams to Toronto, will unfortunately be abandoned this season.

Preparing Exhibits for Royal and International.

Reports from former Alberta prize winners at the Toronto Royal Agricultural Fair and the Chicago International Hay and Grain Show indicate that many of them will again be competitors in various classes this year. Entries for the Royal, which will be held from the 10th to the 19th of November, must be in the office of the manager, A. P. Westervelt, not later than November 10th, and all exhibits must be there not later than November 14th. In connection with this show, Alberta exhibitors may send their entries to the Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, and also send their exhibits to the Field Crops Branch of the Department, from where they will be forwarded to Chicago.

In this case all entries should reach Edmonton not later than November 1st, and all exhibits should arrive not later than November 8th. Exhibits should be sent to the Provincial Government Cleaning and Grading Plant, c-o W. J. Stephen, 9407 108a Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta.

Telephone System Had Busy Month

Establishing a new high record in the history of the system, toll business over Alberta telephone lines during the month of September, 1927, amounted to $120,603.20, being an increase of over $20,000.00 as compared with the corresponding month in 1926. A total of 628 stations were added to the system in the month, 247 of these being in towns and cities and 181 on rural lines.

Premier and Party Visiting North

Premier Brownlee, Hon. R. G. Reid and a number of prominent citizens are spending the present week in a trip of inspection which includes visits to many points in the Peace River country. Hugh Allen, M.L.A., for Peace River, is arranging to have a number of delegates meet the Premier at various points to give an opportunity to make any representations they may wish to the government.

In addition to the Premier and the Provincial Treasurer, the party includes Mrs. Brownlee; Hon. Irene Parlby; Miss Brown, Secretary to the Premier; Mayor Bury of Edmonton; Mayor Osborne of Calgary; John Callahan, General Manager of the Alberta Government Railway Lines; P. W. Doherty, Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, Edmonton; G. R. F. Kirkpatrick, Manager of the Imperial Bank, Edmonton; C. W. Peterson, Editor of the Farm and Ranch Review, Calgary; Dr. F. A. Wyatt, Professor of Soils, University of Alberta and F. H. Moffett of the Edmonton Journal.

Will Attempt to Keep Road Open During Winter

An attempt will be made this winter to demonstrate that given a good road, automobile traffic can be carried on successfully all winter long in Alberta. The Probus Club, a business men's organization of Calgary, has undertaken to keep the highway between Calgary and High River clear of snow during the winter months to stimulate business in the city and encourage motor traffic. from country points along this line.

Here and There

To meet the increased activity in aviation the Royal Canadian Air Force will be equipped with 25 new planes, according to information given out at Ottawa recently.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has decided to give the name of Princess Elaine to the new vessel building in Scotland for the Vancouver-Nanaimo route, at a cost of $1,500,000.

To handle the heavy prospective movement of grain this year the Canadian Pacific Railway has established a Transcona yards at Winnipeg and the new yards are to be known as Melrose and Whittier Yards.

Some idea of the increase in the volume of traffic through the port of Vancouver is given by the fact that during the past year exports from that port were valued at $140,000,000 as compared with $60,000,000 five years ago.

The winter carnival at Banff is to be held from February 7 to 11 this year, according to F. O. Orr-Ewing, President of the Banff Winter Sports Association. Preparations are under way that give promise of a greater carnival than ever staged at this famous mountain resort.

An exceptional crop of Manitoba flax has been gathered this season according to the estimate of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which places the total production at approximately 20,000 pounds being shipped over the lakes to the United States. The estimated value of the total shipment is placed at about $30,000.

The names of Nanaimo and Cumberland, British Columbia, will live forever in the annals of Canada. The Topographical survey department of the Interior, has issued a new map of the gold bearing areas in the vicinity of Wemas Harbour and Bowl Lake in northwestern Ontario. The names of these two districts from France have been given to two lakes.

E. W. Beatty, Chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has announced that a gift of $100,000 in financing the hotel Construction of a $1,250,000 building will commence immediately.

Canada's "Agricultural Jubilee" is to be celebrated this year according to an announcement made by Hon. W. R. Motherwell minister of agriculture, who has taken charge up with various provinces. It has been decided to hold the celebration in connection with the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation, 1867 to 1927 as the new building erected there jointly by the Dominion and Ontario Governments offer a splendid setting for this event.

In spite of the milk embargo Canada's exports of milk and cream to the United States have been well above the average this year, according to Washington figures. The total exports of milk and cream, chiefly the latter, show an increase of 52,000 gallons during the seven months' period January to July. The exact figures, 1,260,799 gallons compare favorably with 1,042,756 gallons in 1926 and 1,208,163 gallons in 1925.

CANADIAN FUR RESOURCES

There are thousands of trappers in Canada and all of them are engaged at one time or another during the winter season in taking the pelts of wild fur-bearers. There is hardly a farm, village or a town in Canada that has not got the trapper or furbearer. Millions of dollars are distributed each year among these persons as a result of the disposal of Canada's annual raw fur catch. Last year it had a value of $15,672,264. A very considerable increase in the yearly value would be made possible were proper methods of pelt handling more widely known.

Too many trappers think that once they have taken a skin nothing else remains to be done. Amateur and farmer trappers which form more than half of the trapping fraternity are the chief losers through this lack of knowledge in the handling of raw pelts, as poorly prepared pelts bring much lower prices than those which have been properly prepared. Loading for authorities have stressed the fact that in many cases up to one half of the pelts coming to the raw fur market falls into the unprofitable class and that every year there is a tremendous loss in pelt values that could be prevented. The loss, however, is not confined to the careless trappers, but efforts the whole fur industry and lowers the value of both the raw and finished product.

With a view to improving this condition and making possible a wider knowledge of the essentials necessary to the proper skinning, stretching and drying of raw pelts, a monograph entitled "The Preparation of Pelts for the Market" has been prepared by the Department of the Interior. This document will be sent free of charge on request to interested persons.

"MIRACLE" WHEAT AGAIN

There has appeared recently in a number of leading agricultural papers, an article entitled "King Tutz Wheat Grown in the West." The article refers to certain results obtained by a rubber settler living near Edmonton, Alta., and gives the impression that the wheat in question was discovered in 1922 in the tomb of King Tut-ankh-amen. As a matter of fact, the records show that this wheat was known as far back as 1840 when some entertaining gentlemen offered heads of it to Edinburgh.

The above variety belongs to the Emmer sub species of wheat being somewhat intermediate between the common and Durum wheats. It has numerous aliases, the most common of which are Egyptian, Elmonds, Mary Headed Marsh, Mummy, Seven Headed and Victor. It has always been very interesting people in this line of wing to its bearded head. If an acclaimed head will yield so much, surely a bearded head, will add much more! While head for head this may be true, yet experiments have not shown that it holds good acre for acre. This wheat was originally introduced into North America from Europe or Egypt in colonial days. It was received by the Philadelphia Society for promoting agriculture at that time which time it has appeared periodically under one name or another.

In 1906 the United States Department of Agriculture began an extensive investigation of this wheat, which investigation continued for several years. In the meantime it has been tried by farmers all over the United States, but it is not now grown anywhere as a commercial crop. The fact that it has never become established in spite of the remarkable advertising it has received is a good indication of its lack of merit. Promoters, however, recognize it periodically and, owing to its striking and unusual appearance, manage to sell it to the unsuspecting farmer at exorbitant prices.

AN INTERESTING COMPETITION WITH TWO PRIZES

I am offering two prizes as outlined below and will watch the result with keen interest. The prizes are:

First—A three tube radio set with tubes.

Second—A Lord Spanker.

An essay to be written, containing not more than a thousand words, the subject being "How and Why the Pool system has, and must continue to improve the Farmers' financial position".

To be eligible to write you must be one making regular deliveries to The Tofield Creamery Ltd., or wife, husband, son or daughter of such person.

All essays must be signed, placed in a sealed envelope and handed into Mr. Melntosh, the manager, on or before November 30th.

Contest will be void unless at least ten essays received, and not less than fifteen for second prize award. Use one side of the paper only. Three competent judges will be selected.

RAYMOND W. PINCOTT

The essential facts concerning Alsike wheat, have been summed up very nicely in a bulletin published by the United States Department of Agriculture. Bulletin No. 357,1916, p. 27—"at the conclusion of extensive tests conducted at many points in the U.S. as follows:—

1.—That it has been used in this country very often as a source of decreasing people and very seldom as a farm crop;

2.—That it has failed to produce even fair yields when tried in many parts of the country, and has never been known to produce extraordinary yields;

3.—That it is not a good milling wheat;

4.—That the branched head is not a sign of superior yielding power.

WANTED—Two tons of good upland hay. Also a quantity of good grassland. Apply Mercury Office.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have been requested to write something that would help in some way, to keep boys from playing on railroad property, with consequent danger to themselves.

The list of prize winners at the Tofield School Fair will be published in our next issue. Independents of the colour and mechanical difficulties made it impossible to publish it in this issue.

BETTER FARM POWER AT LOWER COSTS

Lower costs for fuel—lower costs for oil—lower

BECAUSE THE JOHN DEERE 15-27:

Is hundreds of pounds lighter—is hundreds of parts simpler—has sturdier parts, made of best materials —wastes less power in transmitting the great power of the engine to draw bar and belt—has its working parts fully enclosed—has its working parts automatically oiled—

THE JOHN DEERE IS MAKING POWER FARMING EXTRA PROFITABLE.

AN OPPORTUNITY!

When you have produce to sell by the car-load, why waste a good share of your profits by selling locally? Do you realize when you sell locally you are helping further some one elses need; you realize the parties buying locally must make a profit on your produce or they will not buy it; why not ship direct to markets yourself and make these profits come home to you. We can ship your grain in car lots and guarantee highest possible market prices. If you give us a trial we are sure you will return to us again.

HANNAN & CARVER ELEVATOR ALMOST COMPLETED

The new elevator now being erected by Hannan & Carver, will, it is confidently expected, be open for business next week. The last thing, the installing of the scales, at time of writing, is to be done, and experts to do this work are expected every day.

The elevator which is erected by all local capital is a standard house. That is, of the type most generally suitable for the convenience of farmers and others. The capacity is 35,000,000 bushels. It will be unique in that no power out of will be derived from natural gas. There will be an approach light for the benefit of farmers bringing grain after dark.

There will be an air dump of the most approved type, while the scales will be of ten ton capacity. There are extra large scales for a standard house and permits the weighing of grain in five ton motor trucks. The elevator is also equipped with a pen or lift. The cost is ground $12,000

The contractor is Mr. Gilmore of Calgary, who have put up many elevators in Alberta. An interesting feature is that the foreman, Mr. Conroy, built the first elevator that stood on this site.

The elevator is located on a private spur, east of the depot. This spur has been constructed for those desiring to load cars as cars will not be subject to moving, due to switching.

The elevator will handle both pool and non pool grain, and Mr. Brown, formerly of Delhi, with a number of years experience in the grain business has been engaged as buyer.

It is something unusual for a local firm to step out and erect an elevator, and shows both enterprise and faith in the district. The Mercury wishes the new venture well.

AROUND TOWN

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Willard McHaffey, on October 24th, a daughter.

Mrs. Kendall received the sad news of the passing away of a brother, residing at Fredericton, this week.

R. R. Owens, Provincial Sanitary Engineer and Assistant Deputy Minister of Health, was in town on Saturday last, gathering certain information regarding sanitary conditions.

The above repair shop of A. W. Wallis will be closed for a few days from Wednesday, November 2nd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Tofield Women's Auxiliary will be held in the mission house on Wednesday, November 2nd at 2:30 p.m. sharp.

Dr. and Mrs. Terwilleger of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart of Calgary, visited at the Grey home on Sunday.

Visitors at the Lee home over the week end were, Lillian, Clifford, Mr. Blackwell, Kissimme and O'Brian.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clutterham and family and Miss Bowman motored to the latters home at Islay on Sunday.

Visitors from Tofield to the city last week included, Miss W. Wood, T. Noland, L. Abbott, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Brace and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee.

Miss Marion Carter of Camrose spent the week end at the Wood home.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Holmen spent the week-end in the city.

Mr. R. Griffin of Bashaw, spent the week end visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. Sheets.

Mr. Donaldson spent a few days at the Pincott home last week.

Mrs. Napier of Edmonton spent a few days at the Hammond home this week.

Miss Mabel Wood returned on Sunday after spending a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Goeglein.

Mr. R. McInnes and Mr. Griffen motored to Edmonton on Monday.

KETCHAMOOT

The hang goes steadily on every days of the week Still there is two more weeks of threshing. The grain elevator at the siding is full and it is difficult to get cars to load. The wheat is going dry, so consequently everybody is very anxious to get threshed. Here we expect two more weeks of good weather.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ingram and Mrs. G. R. Owen were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Mellon of Amisk Creek.

Mrs. W. Carter of Holden is assisting Miss Fretwell cooking for threshers at the Shultis home.

Mr. Roger Bay and children of Woodlawn are staying with Mrs. Bay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lee, throughout the threshing season.

A "quilting bee" was held at the Geo Lawson home on Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames C. Whillans, I. Ingram, Haukedal, Herman Lawson and G. W. Sears.

Mr. G. R. Owen assisted Miss Ada Turne during threshing, from Monday until Friday.

Mrs. Stella Welch returned to her home near Edmonton, after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Fred Sutton.

Mrs. McKerron and Mrs. Abbott were guests of Mrs. W. A. Mitchell on Friday evening. Mrs. McKerron is remaining until Saturday afternoon.

A splendid crowd turned out to the M.A.S. meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Mitchell on Wednesday afternoon. Preparations for the annual tea and thanksgiving supper was made. Visitors present were Mrs. A. McMullen, Mrs. C. Coombes, Mrs. Peter Lee, Mrs. Roger Bay and children, Mrs. Harrison, Miss Fawcett, Mrs. Henry McGinnis and children.

The thanksgiving supper will be held at the Appleby home Friday evening, November 18th. Our supper speak for themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mitchell wishes to thank all the friends who so kindly rendered them on their golden wedding day, both for spending the afternoon with them and for the many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sears and J. H. Ingram spent Sunday visiting their brother, Wesley Ingram, who is very ill.

DOES WE HAVE SOME CARROTS!

Mervin Swisher will no doubt have been [illegible] hugs, and kisses, [illegible] ...e-foot kings and kindred boys of the soil, but here's a bunch we can and should grow mine.

Quite recently the editor was the recipient of a bag of splendid carrots from the garden of Mrs. Peter Lee. They were of good size and formation and just the thing to improve the flavor of an Irish stew. Mrs. Lee informs us that she harvested over a ton of these, having already 10 11 hundred pounds and have that many left. Surely this is a record for this useful vegetable for the Tofield district.

AN INTERESTING COMPETITION WITH TWO PRIZES

I am offering two prizes as outlined below and will watch the result with keen interest. The prizes are:

First—A three tube radio set with tubes.

Second—A Lord Spanker.

An essay to be written, containing not more than a thousand words, the subject being "How and Why the Pool system has, and must continue to improve the Farmers' financial position".

To be eligible to write you must be one making regular deliveries to The Tofield Creamery Ltd., or wife, husband, son or daughter of such person.

All essays must be signed, placed in a sealed envelope and handed into Mr. Melntosh, the manager, on or before November 30th.

Contest will be void unless at least ten essays received, and not less than fifteen for second prize award. Use one side of the paper only. Three competent judges will be selected.

RAYMOND W. PINCOTT

AMISK CREEK

A large crowd attended the funeral of the late Eurydice Haberel, held at the Amisk Creek church last Sunday. Many from Viking, Jarvis, Tofield and other points were present Mrs. P. J. Aas, Mr. and Mrs. Turkey and son Kenneth from Edmonton also attended. Miss Anna Sand, a cousin of the deceased, now a student at the Camrose normal school was present also.

The people from Viking who attended the funeral were all invited to Flanten's home for lunch. Mrs. N. Sand from Ryley, Mrs. E. A. Mors, Mrs. R. O. Berg, Mrs. Flaaten, and Mrs. T. Anderson were the hostesses.

Mrs. J. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson visited at the Flaaten home last Sunday.

The children of the Amisk Creek school had a holiday on Monday last, the teacher, Miss Malone, being unable to attend school that day.

Mrs. P. O. Flaaten accompanied her sister, Mrs. Gardner of Viking to Calgary. Mrs. Gardner was called to Calgary to visit her daughter who is very ill in the sanatoriums there. The two ladies also took the opportunity to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wood's Christian Home for fatherless and motherless children. The visit was a very interesting one and anyone visiting Calgary would profit by visiting the institution.

Threshing has been going on now steady for two weeks. Crops are good and the weather has been ideal, and we are getting nearer the finish every day.

A Erickson threshed 43 bushels of wheat to the acre off of his summerfallow and P. Flaaten got 40 from his summerfallow and 30 on fall plowing. Oats went 74 bushels to the acre.

LAKESHORE

Mrs. Owen Eaton had the misfortune to fracture her arm while cranking the car on Saturday. She was taken to Ryley to have the injured member X-rayed.

Mrs. Guy Walther entertained the Ladies' Aid Society on Thursday of last week. There were five members and two visitors present. The ladies are planning on making a silk quilt which will be sold some time before Christmas.

Mrs. J. S. Munro was a visitor at the Elgin Scale and Sam Bethel homes on Thursday last week.

Mrs. H. Stine and little daughter Verna, of Lindbrook visited in this district one day last week.

Mrs. M. Shaw, Melvin Bethel and William Scale were Sunday visitors at the Weslake home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Eaton were visitors at the Roe Phillips home one evening last week to partake of the wild goose Mr. Phillips had fortunate enough to bag a day or two previous.

Mrs. Mildred Shaw assisted Mrs. Henry Tiedeman to cook for threshers last week.

LOWER ROSS CREEK

Mrs. Jas. Ackley had the misfortune to break three of her ribs last week, being kicked by a horse.

Mr. Gordon Schacher holds the record for heavy yield of wheat this year. He threshed 470 bushels of Marquis wheat from seven acres of breaking. Next"

Ten threshing outfits are threshing out the grain in this neighborhood. Threshing is about half done now, and all are boasting of record yields.

Miss Mabel Wood is the guest of Mrs. Elmer Goeglein.

DYSENTERY WAS SO BAD BECAME ALARMED

Mrs. Hilaire Payer, R.R. 4, Wallaceburg, Ont., writes: "I was taken with dysentery and was so bad I became alarmed. I had cramps and pains and was very sick. I got a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and after taking it I felt much better. I took only part of a bottle and was completely relieved. I feel I cannot say too much in praise of this wonderful bowel regulator, which only has been on the market for the past year, but can only be had from Dr. Fowler's Extract Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY FOR THE THERAPION

American Legion Honors Captain

A signal honor has been conferred on Captain H Sibbens, R.N.R., commander of the Canadian Pacific Steamship, by the members of the American Legion who sailed 500 strong on his ship from Europe recently after the gathering of the Legionnaires in Paris in September. On their voyage across the Atlantic to Quebec, R. J. Byers, adjutant of the American Legion, department of Michigan, decorated Captain Sibbens with the American Legion official medal of the Second A.E.F.

Many of the Legionnaires who journeyed both ways on the "Montcalm" joined the convention, were carved by this ship to France during the Great War and renewed their friendship with the popular commander. The medal of the Legion carries an inscription to the effect that to France were from the Allied west and west of the United States.

In honoring Captain Sibbens with the official medal, Adjutant Byers said:

"Upon our return, a historic pilgrimage has been successfully held, and thousands of the best citizens of America, proven to be such in action, and proven again in their sincere devotion to that good citizenship by promoting world peace through this pilgrimage, now have their forms turned homewards. They are conquerors, conquerors of friendship. You, sir, helped guide the first A.E.F through danger infested seas. You, sir, have again helped guide safely the second A.E.F. to a joyous conclusion. It was the comparatively few men of your calibre, men who have spent a lifetime on the great Atlantic, who made possible that first glorious victory of our Allied countries. You, sir, are carrying on in peace-time, just as we are carrying on—the soldiers, sailors and marines—whom you have so safely carried across and back—first to war and then to peace. You are one of us; one of our trusted leaders; one on whom we depended, and depend. Sir, it gives me the honor to present the American Legion Official Medal of the Second American Expeditionary Force on your breast. Only men of proven worth are permitted to have it. In due time, when we shall have completed our journey, a suitable accompanying citation will be forwarded to you. By this I am served medal to be worn with your uniform on proper occasions."

Better the Man with His Eye to the Sky than the Man with His Ear to the Ground

ALL through its long, successful history, General Motors of Canada has had its ear to the ground . . . listening not for what followed, but looking always toward the thing ahead.

And General Motors has seen many of its visions realized. . . .

It has seen a great industry grow up in Canada to supply the Canadian family with a measure of transportation to meet its needs and resources, to answer the desire for style, dependability, luxury.

It has seen, in the Canadian Fisher Body plants, the perpetuation of Canadian ideals of craftsmanship.

It has seen, in the General Motors Research laboratories, the development of countless advances and refinements on which much of modern motoring comfort depends.

It has seen, on the General Motors Proving Grounds, the proof of principles which are now accepted factors in automobile design and construction.

It has seen the triumph of co-operative purchasing and manufacturing methods with their resultant economies to be shared with the buyers of General Motors cars.

And the eyes of General Motors are still to the horizon . . . still seeking new ways to improve General Motors cars and to place the cars within reach of ever-widening circles of Canadian buyers.

POSTPONE OPENING OF AGRICULTURAL SCHOOLS

Owing to the delay in threshing in many districts in the province it has been decided to postpone the opening of a number of the provincial agricultural schools in order to allow farm boys who are busy with fall work to attend from the beginning of the term.

The teachers of the Camrose inspectorate will not be called in convention this fall, owing to the fact that many schools within the inspectorate have been closed for long periods due to the epidemic of infantile paralysis.

Winter Milking

Old Bossie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a brief yearly rest period, she goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. Get the habit of winter milking—it pays!

A Complete Electric Service

KOHLER of KOHLER, specialists in private electric plants, now have for immediate delivery electric plants ranging in power from 800 to 10,000 watts. These new large plants are the outcome of the wonderful success and reception of their 200, 1500 and 2000 watt plants, which are now known all over the world, on land and sea, as being a first class and high grade electric plant in every particular. For some time we have been endeavoring to interest Alberta farmers in this plant and feel sure that the purchaser will be pleased with the plant and after using it, if he could not procure another, would not part with it for much more than he paid for it.

Model D, 1500 watt capacity, which we recommend for most installations, costs $625.00 f.o.b. Alberta points.

A Kohler Electric Plant gives you "city" service at an economical running cost. Write for booklet or call and let us explain this plant to you.

WITH BEST WISHES

IT IS with much pleasure that the Mercury extends its good wishes to the new "Tofield" elevator, just erected by Hannan and Carver. Grain elevators have gone up before, but they are mostly big company houses, with a barrier of impersonality which it is hard to surmount. Everybody in this district knows Jim, just as well as they know the few dozen other business houses in the town, and on this account, will wish the firm of Hannan & Carver well.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS

MOST MEN would prefer to be anything but a confirmed grouch, especially so in the opinion of growing wide-awake boys. By the same token, most men have a real and kindly interest in the activities of growing boys. Therefore, this being understood, the following should be taken as timely advice, rather than grouchy complaining.

It has become quite a custom for many of our Tofield boys to play around the railroad yards on Sunday afternoon and at night. Recently while one elevator was in the course of construction some of the lads amused themselves by hauling each other up the hoist used by the men to haul up lumber. The game, from the boys point of view, was a very dangerous one, and more by good luck than good judgement, no one was hurt. It is also a common practice for boys to climb upon the freight cars and run along the length of the train. Also it is becoming something in the nature of an accomplishment for some of the boys to "jump a freight," go as far as Ryley or the next stop, get off and wait for a freight coming to Tofield again. These and general "high jinks" around the station yard, is a matter of much concern to the railway authorities.

Fully recognizing that there is no real evil intent behind any of these escapades, the railroad authorities are loth to take drastic action, yet for their own protection and the boys welfare, they will soon be compelled to, unless these practices cease.

We are informed on reliable authority, that the trainmen are really scared when they enter Tofield yards of killing one or more adventurous youngsters who may be climbing on or off the trains. This is especially true of the yard crew, who are continually shunting around, going back and forth to the mines, etc. They, better than anyone else, realize just how dangerous it is for boys to be climbing around when trains are coming and going. Although free of-all legal responsibility, it would create distress among them if a serious or fatal accident occurred in the yards.

It should be needless for us to say that there should be no trespassing on the property at any time, but this is a rule which it is not possible to rigidly enforce; certainly there is no excuse for using the railroad property for a playing ground.

Free Hospitals

(Reprinted from the "Barrhead News")

There in a tendency to-day to look to the state to assume too many of the responsibilities that ought to be borne by the individual. In this, as in many other phases of the relationship between the government and the subject, there is a failure to grasp the underlying principles, so that most of our recent laws are simply a whimsical collection of contradictions.

The state should do nothing for the individual that he can do for himself. This statement is of application in other connections. It should hold between parent and child, teacher and pupil.

On this principle, the school authorities should not provide books for the scholars, but they should provide schools.

How should the rule be applied to hospitals? When you are governed by underlying principles, it is usually easy to quickly solve any problem that presents itself. Is the average individual any more able to provide hospital accommodation for himself than he is able to personally provide a school and teacher for his children? In not the questions already answered?

Illness is something, the appearance of which, is not beyond probability for any of us, and it strikes the earning power of its victim. He is called on for heavy expenditures just when he is least in the position to make them.

Finally a man is crippled for years by having to meet payments for such service to himself or family.

Why then should not this burden be equally distributed on all? The strong ought to be willing to bear the burdens of the weak, and no one can tell when he might himself be the beneficiary.

However, while medical and hospital attention should be free for all, there should be no nationalization of the medical profession, nor should the state seek a monopoly of hospitalization. The individual should be free to choose, provided he is willing to pay for the non-state service.

WINTER RATIONS FOR MILCH COWS

(Experimentors Farms Note)

Winter rations for dairy cows should, as nearly as possible, correspond with the natural pastures of summer, if economical gains are to be secured. Winter rations must therefore be palatable, nutritious, succulent and readily digestible.

On the Dominion Experimental station, Morden, Man., the daily winter ration per 1000 pounds live weight for cows in full milk is as follows:—Mixed alfalfa and rye grass or oat and pea hay 12 to 14 pounds, corn silage 20 pounds, roots (mangels) 10 pounds and a grain mixture composed of 2 parts crushed oats, 2 parts wheat bran, one part pea meal and one part oil cake meal. One pound of this mixture is fed for every three and a half pounds of milk given. As individuals reach the last few months of lactation, grain is fed more economically, i.e., at the rate of one pound to each four or five pounds of milk given.

During the winter of 1924—25 five cows at Morden on the above ration, averaged 40 pounds of milk per day and made an average daily profit over feed fed of 52c.

On well regulated dairy farms either silage or roots should be available. The following rations are recommended when only one of these succulent foods can be fed.

(a.) Grass or mixed hay 15 pounds, roots 40 pounds, oil cake or cotton seed meal two parts, fed at the rate of one pound per three and a half pounds of milk produced.

(b.) Grass, alfalfa, or mixed hay 12 to 14 pounds, corn silage 30 pounds, with the same grain ration as outlined in (a). Oat straw can barely be fed profitably to the high producing cow unless in superlative quantities with alfalfa or clover by using 10 pounds alfalfa to five pounds of the straw. Alfalfa and clovers are difficult to excel as feeder for milk production and when successfully grown can always be fed profitably.

HERE AND THERE

According to the press reports from Brandon, the Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration, answered to his own satisfaction the criticism of his department. The charge against the action was that he was not giving the attention he should to bringing out British immigrants and that he was employing Roman Catholic priests to bring immigrants of that faith. Judging from the report of his address that came over the wires the Honorable gentleman seems to think that he answers his critics by admitting the charges.

The Baptist Union of Ontario and Quebec by a vote of 432 to 217 has decided that the Baptist church in these Provinces shall be an anti-Christian body.

In addition to the above he anticipates the economic tension involved in the above at $16,500,000,000.00. This is certainly a big bill and judged only from the financial standpoint alone it would seem that for the sake of us who try to be good it would be a paying proposition to take steps to make those who are otherwise inclined behave themselves.

Scientists now have convincing proof that the early home of man was in Africa. A year ago they had convincing proof that the early home was in western Asia. Let us hope that no other scientist upsets their equilibrium by adducing convincing proof that his early home was in Alberta, or some such out-landish place.

The Edmonton Symphony Orchestra knows how. It has the Premier of the Province and the Chief Justice of the Province join with it in its violation of the law.

Some Alberta farmers apparently never went any farther in their reading of the Bible than Ex. 20:7.

President Calles of Mexico is a strange character for this enlightened age. He seems to think that it is the duty of a government to govern and to enforce the law.

The U. S. Society of Sob-Sisters has evidently not done very effective missionary work in Mexico.

On the White Rose Side—Many people who think they are live wires are merely shocking.

Ontario Premier Suggests Subsidizing Coal Shipments

Strong support in Alberta's move to place coal from this province on the Ontario market was promised by Hon. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, at a banquet tendered him by the Alberta Government and the Edmonton Board of Trade in Edmonton on Saturday last. Premier Ferguson, who was welcomed by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, urged the granting of a subsidy by the Dominion government to overcome the difficulty of high transportation charges on coal to encourage inter-provincial trade, and suggested the same procedure to assist in moving grain, beef, fish and other western products to the markets of Eastern Canada.

Consider System of Grading Beef

Proposals to grade beef for market on has been done in the case of eggs, butter cheese and other products, are being considered by a committee appointed by the Dominion government. This commission, which included R. S. Hamer of the Dominion Livestock Branch, Ottawa; J. H. Evans, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Manitoba; F. M. Baker representing the packing interests; R. A. Wright, President of the Western Canada Livestock Union and L. P. McOuat of Ottawa, has been meeting in Calgary during the past week and hearing evidence from producers, retailers and consumers as to the probable effect of a system of grading on the marketing of Alberta beef.

To Slaughter 1000 Head of Buffalo

In order to reduce the size of the buffalo herd at Wainwright which of recent years has been increasing very rapidly, 1,000 head of these animals will be slaughtered during the coming fall and winter. The P. Burns Co. of Calgary, it is announced, has the contract for the killing and the meat will be sold as a commercial product, while the hides find a ready market. In spite of the transfer of some 8,000 head of buffalo to the park reserves in the north, the remainder of the herd is still too numerous for the carrying capacity of the park.

Threshers Must Have Machines Licensed

Reports from a number of points in the province indicate that threshing in some instances are operating machines without having secured a license from the Department of Agriculture as required under the provisions of the "Threshers' Lien Act. This license may be had by sending in one dollar to the office of the publicity Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, and the thresher will also be supplied with a copy of the sections of the Act now in force. Act relating to threshers and with a form for the threshing returns which must be filed in by all threshing machine operators at the end of the season. It may be pointed out that threshers outside one of the most valuable sources of information available for the computation of Alberta's total crop yields in any season and a prompt return of this statement, accurately filled out, will greatly assist the officials in charge of this work.

Trans New Run Over New Line

Inaugurating the first freight and passenger service over the newly completed Pembina Valley Railway, the branch line of the C.N. & R.C. from Busby to Barrhead, a distance of 50 miles, the first mixed train left Edmonton on Tuesday, October 18. Two trains weekly will be run over this line, leaving Edmonton Wednesday and Friday.

Work To Start on Pool Elevator at Coast

The contract for the big terminal elevator to be erected at Vancouver by the Alberta Wheat Pool has been let to the Northern Construction Co. Ltd., and J. W. Stewart, it is announced from the head office of the pool in Calgary.

The elevator when completed will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 and will have a capacity of some 2,000,000 bushels. Plans call for its construction this year the Pool is operating under lease the Number 2 terminal of the Vancouver Harbor Board which has a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels.

The Conservative National Convention

The holding of a national convention by any great organization is a matter of interest and of importance to people generally to whom it does not have an immediate personal application. But when a convention is called by a political party for the purpose of organizing party work and selecting its leader, as the Conservative Party is doing at the present time, the event immediately becomes one of first importance to the whole country. Therefore the recent Conservative Convention in Ottawa, which was called and held for the purpose of organizing the Conservative party throughout the Dominion, and selecting a new leader, was an event of great importance to the whole country. The Conservative party is a national party, and its convention was held in the capital city of the Dominion, and was attended by delegates from every province in the Dominion. Every province was represented by a large number of delegates, and the convention was a thoroughly representative one. The Conservative party is the party of the Fathers of Confederation, the party of Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir George Etienne Cartier, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Hector Langevin, and other great statesmen who laid the foundations of the Canadian nation. It is the party of the National Policy, which has built up the industries of Canada, and which has made Canada a country of diversified industries, instead of a country of exclusively agricultural industry. It is the party of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which has developed the resources of the whole country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It is the party of the British connection, which has made Canada a self-governing nation within the British Empire, and which has given Canada a voice in the councils of the Empire. It is the party of the protective tariff

We wish to again thank each and everyone who attended and helped to make it a success. The returns from the tickets are not yet all in, but the proceeds will be announced next week.

GAS RATES LOWER

In February last, when the city of Edmonton was conducting its application for lower gas rates before the Board of Public Utility Commissioners, the town council made a request to the gas company that this town be given a reduction in the price of gas in line with the reduction granted in Edmonton, provided the Board ordered a reduction.

Without further application, a reduction has been granted, the rate to be paid to be forty-five cents per thousand cubic feet in place of fifty cents as formerly.

The reduction will be noticed on the bills now being rendered for the month ending September 20th.

There is no change in the residential rate, which remains at 33 cents per thousand as formerly.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Honzy Trellenberg, on November 2nd, a son.

Mr. J. W. Weir, Mr. W. Watson, Mr. J. H. Buchanan and Mr. O. H. Syverson, all of Edmonton were down to Tofield on a duck hunting trip this week.

PRESENTATION MADE TO MR. GLOVER AND MISS WOOD OF LOCAL STAFF

The Alberta government telephone offices in the C.P.R. building were on fete on Friday evening when a jolly staff Hallowe'en dance was held. The members and their friends were a curious company as they gathered together in costumes of many kinds and characters. Miss Mary Miller, in Hallowe'en costume, and Mr. W. R. Ferguson, as a Chinaman, won the prizes for fancy dress. Little Peggy Maloy and Mr. Reginald Bullock took honors in the "original class," and Mr. and Mrs. L. Pilcher appeared in best comics. Mr. Charles Hepburn had charge of the judging.

Streamers of orange and black festooned the impromptu dance hall and Hallowe'en motifs were used on the tables. The girls of the committee, the Misses Verna Armstrong (convener), J. Good, J. McGregor, D. Roach and L. Turnbull, were duisty serving customers in keeping with Hallowe'en and very fitting at the supper hour. Mr. George Robertson (convener), Messrs. J. McGeary, T. Robb, T. Smith, George Brown and H. Starkie were the men of the committee.

In the course of the evening Mr. R. B. Baxter, general manager, called upon Mr. Glover and Miss Wood of Tofield to receive a certificate and clock for having attained third place in the annual building competition. In this competition, which is put on for the purpose of emphasizing the desire of the company for attractive grounds and building appearance, Tofield came up against the larger places such as Calgary and Lethbridge. Considering the small check which is used for a criterion and the lack of facilities, the accomplishment was a very great one, said Mr. Baxter.

MR. AND MRS. MORRISON LEAVE TOWN

Constable and Mrs. Morrison left Tofield on Wednesday morning en-route to Innisfail to which town Constable Morrison has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison have been residents of Tofield for some eight or nine years and during that time have enjoyed the respect of all those with whom they came in contact. Mrs. Morrison is an enthusiastic curler and a member of the Women's Institute, and both bodies will regret her departure. Mr. Morrison too is an enthusiastic curler.

U.F.W.A NOTES

The meeting of October 22nd was very well attended in spite of the extremely busy season for the farm women.

As the President was not present, the Vice-president occupied the chair. The roll call was answered with "Some benefit I have received from belonging to the U.F.W.A". This was very enthusiastically answered in every case, not "one "present" being heard.

Mrs. Gray gave a very interesting paper on "The History of the U.F.A. which was much appreciated by the members present. A discussion followed as to the advisability of forming a Junior U. F. A., It was decided that steps be taken to ascertain as soon as possible the proper procedure to follow in order to form a junior local.

So we are hoping to have a fully-fledged junior U.F.A. flourishing at Tofield early in the new year.

The next regular meeting will be held on Saturday, November 12th, at 8:30 p.m.

The roll call will be answered with current events.

Mrs. W. E. Parker will give a paper on "Origins of Thanksgiving Day."

Remember the time and place, November 12th at 2:30 p.m. sharp at "Municipal Hall."

HOME GRAIN COMPANY'S ELEVATOR NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The elevator recently erected at Tofield is now open for business and receiving grain daily. The house is up-to-date in every particular having one of the most up-to-date cleaners it is possible to install. Mr. T. T. Cey, who has had many years experience in the grain business is in charge and will be pleased to meet and receive grain from farmers in the Tofield district. Give us a trial we will serve you well.

HOME GRAIN CO.

W.I. NOTES

Next Tuesday's meeting on November 8th, will be observed as Grandmothers' Day, and each member is asked to invite a grandmother. If you cannot invite your own, borrow one. Each member and visitor is asked to tell an exciting or funny experience in her life. Let's all go and have some fun.

Because Armistice Day comes on Thanksgiving Day, the War Poppy will be sold on Saturday, November 5th, so that everyone can wear a poppy on Thanksgiving Day. Girls and boys will be on the streets and receive the torn on Saturday, selling the poppies. The small ones, with pin attached are 10c, the large ones, silk finished with leaf and long stems are 25c. These poppies are made by disabled war veterans. They did their part, let us do ours on Saturday, and wear a poppy "in memory," "A poppy in every home."

Mrs. MacGregor-Smith will be at the meeting on Tuesday to give her lecture on the Federated Convention reading which she attended last summer.

In the course of the evening Mr. R. B. Baxter, general manager, called upon Mr. Glover and Miss Wood of Tofield to receive a certificate and clock for having attained third place in the annual building competition. In this competition, which is put on for the purpose of emphasizing the desire of the company for attractive grounds and building appearance, Tofield came up against the larger places such as Calgary and Lethbridge. Considering the small check which is used for a criterion and the lack of facilities, the accomplishment was a very great one, said Mr. Baxter.

A very enjoyable high school party was held at the new curling rink on Monday of this week. The hall was tastefully decorated and many amusing games were played by those attending. Refreshments were in abundance and heartily partaken of by the large number of high school boys and girls. At around eleven-thirty the party broke up all declaring to have had an excellent time.

The dance planned by the Curling Club for November 11th will be held on Monday, November 7th, (Thanksgiving Day). In the afternoon a tarvy about will be held at the rink.

The Annual Bazaar of the United Church will be held at the Club Rooms on Saturday, November 26th. There will be a large number of dainty and useful gifts for sale many of which will be suitable for Christmas gifts. There will be afternoon tea and sale of home cooking.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

BARDO

Mrs. Hagen fell and sprained her wrist one day last week.

The Misses Anna and Mable Javerning are working in Edmonton.

Mrs. Lerbekmo and Jackie spent the week-end at Bardo.

Mr. Steen and Edna were in Kingman on Saturday afternoon.

A. L. Stauffer was in Camrose part of last week taking treatments.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. Brenneman and the M. E. Brennemans visited the city.

The Ezra Yoders', Jake Rings' and Fannie Binder visited Edmonton on Tuesday.

The J. Kauffman, J. Brenneman and Willie Stauffer were guests in the Malden Binder home on Sunday.

Mrs. Rude, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Jacobson helped Mrs. Lerbekmo and Mrs. Hills with a quilt on Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday, several ladies in Bardo baked pastry for the chicken supper held in Camrose on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Lutheran College. Saturday afternoon Mrs. F. B. Anderson collected the donations here, and in the evening the Anderson and Ness families and several young people went to Camrose.

Everybody is glad to see the sunshine this (Monday) morning, there has been so much cloudy weather the past week, but to speak of the heavy rains and showers has greatly delayed thre-shing.

On Sunday Mrs. Jacobson entertained the F. B. Anderson and Rude families for dinner, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, who have been here for some time. In the afternoon a large crowd of old neighbors came to greet Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Lunch was served and a very pleas ant afternoon was spent all visiting and recalling pleasant memories of former days. Mr. Johnson has found it his home here and they expect to return now to their home in Grande Prairie. Mr. Johnson was presented with a pipe and Mrs. Johnson was given a handsome bedspread.

The President of the Ladies' Aid took advantage of the bad weather and called a special meeting of the Society. The meeting was held at the Jensen home. Assistant hostess, Mrs. Hanhdal. Quite a large number were in attendance. Arrangements were made, and even entire supplies for the sale and Lutefisk dinner to be held in the basement of the Church on Wednesday, November 30th. Dinner will be served promptly at 12 noon.

KETCHAMOOT

Announcements have come for the unthreshed farmer. Only two half days of threshing were done last week owing to wet weather.

The Missionary Aid Society will hold their monthly meeting on next Wednesday, November 9th, at the home of Mrs. Wildman

Mrs. Carter of Holden, visited a few days with her friend, Mrs. H. R. Owan.

Mrs. John McGinitie, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mclntosh and Miss Anne Brown motored to the city Monday, returning home in the evening.

Mrs. Wesley Ingram and Miss Pearl Welch motored to Camrose on Thursday and spent the day.

Mrs. N Ingram, Sr., returned to town Friday after several days visiting relatives in our district.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lawson, Mrs. Roy Flemings, Miss Mildred Lawson and their cousin, Mr. Campbell, were Camrose callers on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and family of Bardo, were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hay and Mrs. Noland of Tofield, were guests of Mrs. G. R. Owen on Thursday evening. Mrs. Carter returning to town with them.

Mrs. Carrie Gwildson, of Kingman district, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Jim Sutton over the threshing season.

Mrs. Dick Hoon, a young man who has been working for Mr. Schultz, was thrown off a horse injuring his knee. He was taken to Ryley for a few days. No bones were broken but it will lay him up for some time. He expects to return to his home in R.V. soon.

AMISK CREEK

The ladies of the neighborhood were invited to spend the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Herberger last Friday. Those present were Mrs. T. O. Olson and children, Mrs. E. A. Moen, Mrs. J. Brenneman, Mrs. D. Brenneman, Mrs. T. Anderson, Mr. A. Patterson, Mrs. P. Moen, Mrs. P. O. Hansen, Miss Florence Moen, Miss Bertie and Lena Anderson. A bountiful lunch was served, and all had a very enjoyable time.

One of A. Patterson's hired men, A. Polander, and a runaway last Saturday. He got underneath the wagon some how and was badly bruised. He was taken to Doctor McPherson in Ryley to have his x-ray and it was found a small bone in his wrist was broken, which will make it impossible for him to work for some time.

OBITUARY

The death of Earnalee Holroyd occurred at the Central Alberta Sanitorium at Calgary, on the 17th of October, 1927. She was born in Norway on the 27th of June 1907 and came to his country with her parents when one year old, and lived near Elk Point until three years ago, then coming to Amisk Creek. She took sick with the "flu" in Edmonton last winter and this developed into consumption. She was at the sanitorium for three months, but doctors and medical aid could only help her any. She leaves to mourn her loss a brother and stepfather, one sister and one brother. The funeral took place on Sunday, October 23rd, at the Amisk Creek Lutheran Church, Rev. Ryde conducting the service. The interment took place at the Amisk Creek Cemetary. Pall bearers were Arvold Langrere of Elk Point, Ole and Casper Kjelland of Viking, Ingvald Lillo of Ryley and Conrad Paulsrud and Hilmar Moen of Amisk Creek.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our most grateful thanks to all kind friends who so willingly assisted during our recent and bereavement, also a hearty thanks to each and everyone for the many beautiful floral tributes.

Mr. and Mrs. Garthe, Gundrum and family.

LAKE SHORE

Mrs. Abernethy went to Edmonton last week for medical examination and treatment. Her many friends are hoping for an improvement in her health when she has been away for some time. Mrs. Dorothy Walker is keeping house in her absence.

H. Phillips is digging a well for Jas. Secord.

S. Bethel has been indisposed for a few days with a troublesome toe, but is improving under medical treatment.

Mrs. Anna Garton made a business trip to Edmonton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Phillips and family were guests at the H. Eaton home on Sunday.

The Misuse Of Gasoline

The misuse of gasoline reported in Western newspapers this fall as resulting from the careless use of gasoline and oil as a means of starting fires in stoves, in order to relieve the sufferings of chilled persons, seems to be the fault more than of ignorance, and hardly a week passes that we do not hear of some such incident.

[illegible] for Saskatchewan in a recent radio address stated that one fire in one country five times was due to gasoline being used for starting fires. It is possible that this loss is just as great in the cities as in the rural districts.

In some [illegible] in Saskatchewan this method of starting a fire is considered a joke, and the [illegible] of some farmer, and damage to another, is [illegible] some burned, and on a third [illegible] a pool had been [illegible] but had not died till three accidents occurred in close [illegible] Although gasoline may be sold in red tins or sometimes plainly labelled as such outside, the fact is that the gasoline is all too frequently supplied from other receptacles which are not marked, nor properly sealed. It is frequently unlabelled for road oil, and even for water.

In the former case it is not a large number of children [illegible] that have [illegible] greater danger from those handling gasoline than those [illegible] from standing matches with the one which [illegible] because it [illegible] and the lighting of a match, or an electric [illegible] causes a fearful explosion. Even a can which has contained gasoline but is emptied, may still retain a quantity of this vapor, and therefore should never be used as a lighted match, as it may cause an explosion.

Gasoline and road oil should not be used in light fires. To use them is to [illegible] in the different [illegible] are now largely used in cleaning clothes [illegible] body with it. [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

TWO CAR ACCIDENTS

While returning from Edmonton on Monday night a Chevrolet coach belonging to Mr. L. Carshide and driven by his son, sport, tune Landbrook. The occupants of the car received a bad shaking up, but fortunately were not seriously hurt. The top of the car was badly damaged.

While crossing the track on Wednesday a truck belonging to a farmer north of town was struck by the incoming local passenger train. The front of the car was smashed up, but fortunately the collision occurred before the auto was far advanced on the track. The driver was unhurt.

ENTIRE CIRCUS WORKS A MONTH FOR "SPANGLES"

The longest engagement ever played by a big circus within sight of its permanent winter quarters took place during the filming of "Spangles," the Universal-Jewel to be shown at the Variety Theatre on Saturday, November 5th.

To furnish the setting for this picture, which features Pat O'Malley and Marian Nixon, one of the country's largest circuses, the Al G. Barnes Shows, was taken over entire for a month, and the "big top" set up near the winter quarters at Culver City, ten miles from Universal City.

Here the "Spangles" company worked day after day, with the ring boss and his crew on the trained animals "doing their stuff," the clowns "clowning," the ringmaster ringing the track. The driver was unhurt. or rather cracking his whip, and everything just as it is during a performance. In fact, on one very especial day, a Sunday, an audience of 5000 persons was recruited to "set" in the picture. Incidentally, the work of the circus people served as rehearsal and practise for them, as the show left the day after the picture company finished, and began its summer tour in Phoenix, Arizona.

"Spangles" was directed by Frank O'Connor, and the supporting cast includes Hobart Bosworth, Gladys Brockwell, Jay Emmett, Grace Gordon and James Corby. The story is by Nellie Revell, with screen adaptation by Lush Baird.

HALLOWE'EN WELL OBSERVED LOCALLY

The exuberance of youth was well demonstrated on Monday night in Tofield when the usual hallowe'en high jinks were held. Gates, loose, carts, wagons, and even threshing machines were torn from their moorings and on the side of youthful spirits were scattered hither and thither. There were some rather peeved owners of property the next morning but on the whole the damage was slight.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooker and Mr. and Mrs. P. Jarvis motored to Innisfail for Thanksgiving. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lewis who reside there.

Mr. Frank Wood has accepted a position at Brown's Garage, Viking.

Miss T. Crawford of Edmonton visited at the Lee home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chittenhan and family motored in the city to spend Sunday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Constantine spent Thanksgiving with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and Miss Napier motored to the city on Sunday.

Miss Helen and Audrey Jobb and Miss Jean Sword motored from Vermilion to Tofield on Wednesday, November 16th. Those desiring to meet them may do so at the Royal Alexandra Hotel.

Everybody was hoping that the Indian Summer weather would have lasted until all the threshing was done, but as long as it stays cold, the work is going forward and it will only be a short time before threshing will be over for this season.

WESTERN FEATURE FOR SATURDAY

"Jesse Hills Peril" a drama of the West is the bill of fare provided by the Variety management for Saturday. Western pictures have a charm all of their own and how at Tofield, they have always been popular. The feature on Saturday is a first-class production and one that will please the audience.

Commencing next week the management announces "Men of Steel." This is a super production and one that is sure to draw a capacity house. Besides having a strong story plot, superb acting, tense moments, humorous incidents, etc., it gives a graphic story of steel from the time it is mined from the ground, until it becomes a finished product. "Men of Steel" should be a real drawing card at the Variety Theatre on Friday and Saturday next.

TURKEY SHOOT POPULAR

The Curling Club, ever on the look out for ways and means to augment their building fund, but upon a popular theme for Thanksgiving day, it was none other than the time honored turkey shoot, although it is some number of years since one was held in Tofield. From morning until late in the afternoon the guns were kept popping and some of the marksmen hit the bullseye and some did not. Ye reporter took a pot shot or two, but all beef for super just the same. Quite a number were fortunate in winning turkeys, geese and chickens, while those who did not win had their moments of fun.

In the evening the Club staged a dance in their hall, there being a good crowd present. Both dance and shoot were a success financially to the club.

W. I. NOTES

We were sorry so many missed the fine talk Mrs. Harrower gave us on Tuesday, at our regular meeting on the Inglewood Exhibit at Hythe last year. It was surely a treat, and proves a chance that any member of the Tofield Institute could let one chance pass by without taking advantage of it. Tofield doesn't get any too many of these real good speakers here, but when we do, or we at least like a decent sized audience to talk to. However, Mrs. Smith didn't seem to mind the small audience as well, and through the passing of several accounts, and the December meeting, the next monthly meeting to be held the second Tuesday December 13th, at three o'clock. A prize will be given for the best home made Christmas gift of any not more than fifty cents to make. These may be donated to a bazaar if so desired, or others may take them home again. All members please mark your calendar on the 13th, and keep in mind the gift as well as the meeting. Three outside guests will be asked to judge the gifts. Mrs. McClurg and Mrs. Taylor made excellent hostesses and served a delicious lunch, which all enjoyed.

Mrs. Pocott, our president, was in Edmonton for the week end over Thanksgiving and attended the monthly meeting of the Edmonton W.I. on Friday evening, at which time she gave several readings by request.

We will soon have something to tell you about our library.

ALBERTA FISH FOR CHICAGO MARKET

A large shipment of salmon trout from Lake Athabaska to Chicago recently indicates a forward step in one of Alberta's growing industries. The Lake Athabasca Fisheries Ltd., has gone into the business of supplying the large markets of the United States with the popular product of Alberta lakes. A large plant and several boats along with dwelling accommodation for fifty employees have been erected and plans are made for further enlarging the business as the market demands.

ALBERTA CATTLE TOP CHICAGO MARKET

Forty-one head of Alberta grass-finished steers shipped by P. Burns and Co., to Chicago recently set a new figure on that market for this class of cattle during the season. These steers sold for $14.65 per hundred pounds, exceeding the previous high price by 65c. Good prices on the American markets have attracted many buyers from the western provinces during the past few months.

The Tofield skating rink will, it is expected be opened on December 1st. That is weather permitting. T. Waddington, who was the lessee of the rink last year has again leased it for this season. The prices for season tickets are contained in an advertisement on the back page and will be seen to be only a little different from previous years.

HARDO

Most of the threshing is done in these parts. Three rings finished on Wednesday, one or two others will take the rest of the week to finish.

Mrs. Bender entertained the Will Stauffer and Ezra Yoder families on Sunday.

The Dave Yoder and Joe Stauffer families and Mrs. Jennie Hankstead were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stauffer on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ezra Yoder visited Mrs. Ben on Tuesday. Heidel Carson and Ben George and Bill were calling on all friends here on Tuesday afternoon.

SCHOOL FAIR SPECIAL PRIZES

$5.00 for singing, W. C. Burt.

$3.00 for Weed Collection, R. W. Purcell.

Pencil, for Writing, A. A. Bezner.

Two Hams, for pups, Chas. Hobson.

WINTER IS HERE:

Old Man Winter put in a sudden and unmistakable presence this past week. Snow and frost and a dull atmosphere that was the real thing as winters go, fell upon this district on Sunday last, and although the snow is not deep, it fell intermittently each day since Sunday.

Le-ward P. Woodhams, optometrist of Camrose will be in Tofield on regular visit to Tofield on Wednesday, November 16th. Those desiring to meet him may do so at the Royal Alexandra Hotel.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

KETCHAMOOT

Threshing is being rushed and some steadily falling. We are not sure when will win out. Threshing we hope, as there is lots of grain still in the field. To the few farmers without a bushel threshed the outlook is rather discouraging.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown and family of Bawlf spent last Sunday with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. W. Mullen and the Coombes family.

Mrs. Peter Lee underwent a operation for goitre at an Edmonton hospital on Thursday. We are glad to hear she is progressing very favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. Olegaardine and family, Mr. McMullen and Mr. Abbey, Coombes were guests of Mrs. J. H. Ingram on Friday for dinner.

Mrs. Paul McMullen is a patient in an Edmonton hospital again.

Mrs. Herold McMullen was called to Calgary on Friday evening to attend the funeral of her grandmother.

Mrs. Marjorie Lee, who is teaching near Wainwright is visiting during the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Owing to threshing not being finished the Thanksgiving Chicken supper had to be held later this year. Don't forget the date and place, next Friday evening, November 18 at the Appleby home. Also the fine cigar will be held, not auctioned off as formerly. Anyone wishing a supper and article, may buy the same and return home early if desirous of losing so. A beautiful quilt, all kinds of fancy work, hand knit socks, etc., will be on sale. Just the place to get new Christmas gifts and warm winter socks.

Hallowe'en passed very quietly in our midst. A few of the older boys went to Lindbrook to a dance and a few of the school boys did a little work at the schoolhouse, no damage done.

Mr. and Mrs. Olegaardine who have been living on the Roy Lee farm for a few months, left on Friday last for Kitscoty, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hankstead and little daughter spent Sunday at New Norway.

Miss Hannah Jensen assisted Mrs. Hansen in the cook car during the fall work.

The Tofield ladies who had charge of the Hallowe'en supper and dance on Monday night realized enough to have it continued next year.

Mr. Barbara Stahl and Bill Stauffer were home over the holidays.

Mr. Lillian and Clifford Lee visited home over the holidays.

J. J. Stauffer is busily shelling the Stutzman family.

L. Reid spent the week-end at Tofield.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahler Bender entertained the Barkdoller young people on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brenneman and the John Reid family on Sunday.

Mr. J. Brenneman, H. F. Brenneman and Owen Hershberger families motored to the Willie Bender family near Kingman on Sunday after church.

Dave Reid—Little son Lloyd took appendicitis.

Last week seemed to be an unusual week for Mr. Nees. Over a dozen days up the way home for Hershberger he also lost a calf and two colts and will say from all appearances that he is not through yet. Other word calls in this way: Fences were damaged in the same way.

Mr. Nees is putting up a new wind mill.

Mrs. Ezra Lutwig visited Mrs. Ben on Tuesday. Heidel Carson and Ben George and Bill were calling on all friends here on Tuesday afternoon.

LINDBROOK

On Monday evening Mother Hubbard's concert was given at Lindbrook by the teacher, Miss Arnott and pupils of the school and to a few of the adults. A large crowd was present. Mr. H. Hobbs acted as chairman. The pupils including Lucretia Mae Mahler were to be highly decorated with costumes, etc., for Hallowe'en and completely with witches and Jack o'lanterns. The evening opened with "The Witches' Incantation" under the direction of Miss Mae Mahler. The witches' song was very well rendered and then the curtain went up on the first scene of "Mother Hubbard's Cupboard." The most appropriate style and attire in Mr. Hobbs' youthful character was to see Mr. JJ [illegible] to the recital the evening, dressed in the Mother Hubbard fairy, he was an old hand at it. It is far too much to attempt to describe the dancing of little [illegible] and the many other items of merriment of which we will attempt to describe. The dancing of little Miss Mae Mahler as the witches was a real treat. This little lady is a natural born dancer and the witches' dance dressed in flagstaff costume, the Sailor's Hornpipe, also in costume and the Irish Jig, also in costume. Her foot work was marvelous. Little Betty Bender as tasteful and recitation as a French maid was much appreciated. The [illegible] dance took well, especially as it spoke some subjects of themselves in the quarrels and fights. The scarecrows also gave a very realistic display as did the Witches, Broomies, and the ingredients of "A complete pot". Interspersed with these comedy items was rendered by the [illegible] in the "Lindbrook choir" with Miss Vesper of Tofield at the piano. Miss Hooper, Lenby and Hubbard also sang songs. The final [illegible] was a play entitled with Mr. H. R. Hobbs as master, which [illegible] was the climax of the evening. Mr. Hobbs presented with a basket of fruit by Miss Mae Mahler on behalf of the school. Mr. Hobbs in turn encouraged by thanks and from [illegible] pupils in the future. HOSEA PREACHES GOD'S LOVE

Golden Text: "I desire goodness and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings." Hosea 6:6.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 36:5-10

Explanations and Comments

I. Hosea's Love for Israel, 11:1-4. "When Israel was a child," in the beginning of his national existence, then I loved him, and called my son out of (or bringing in Egypt." Called him, to fit, into the land of Canaan, and morally, to set an example of true religion.

CARE AND FEEDING OF FOALS

(Experimental Farms Note.)

Under Prairie conditions it is advisable to have the foals come early. Foals born early and which have been well fed and nourished during the summer months are in much better shape to go into winter quarters than the later born foals.

Previous to weaning the foals should have if possible, a creep in the corner of the pasture or paddock with access to grain and roughage. This prevents any setback at such when the colt is finally weaned.

When separation from the dam takes place they should be kept apart and the mare put to work. Care should be taken to have the mares milked out as often as necessary to avoid udder trouble. To prevent fretting and possible injury after weaning, the mare foals run run together, preferably in a large roomy box stall with plenty of light and sunshine.

Growth and development during the first two years of the colt's life should receive careful attention. Give them the right kind of feed to promote maximum growth. Alfalfa hay is considered one of the best roughage for growing foals. Western rye grass and timothy are excellent, and good oat straw if it be found valuable if other forages are not available. In addition to the above, the young foals should have a liberal ration of grain of oats. Bran is not necessary while the foals are being fed. However, it should be included in the ration when western rye grass or timothy is the roughage used.

Keep the colts growing, thrifty and not excessively fat. Keep the manure cleaned away every day, too often their feet are spoiled with an over supply of manure in the stalls. Handle the colts quietly and teach them to lead. This will help considerably when trimming their feet which should have attention every month or six weeks. Keep their feet round and level on the soles. This prevents the feet from bruising, and the soles from contracting. Many good colts have been ruined through lack of attention to their feet.

Winter Milking

Old Bossie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a brief yearly rest period, she goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. Get the habit of winter milking—it pays!

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

What has destroyed church consciousness in Tofield and Ketchamont. What do you substitute for worship of God on Sundays?. Next Sunday we are holding Thanksgiving services. There will be a special offering for the Red Cross at the morning service, to be held at 12 noon. There will be special music by the choir at morning and evening services. Please note His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name."

Come to both services if you are thankful to the Red Cross and to God.

John Deere Tractors

BETTER FARM POWER AT LOWER COSTS

Lower costs for fuel—lower costs for oil—lower

BECAUSE THE JOHN DEERE 15-27:

Is hundreds of pounds lighter—is hundreds of parts simpler—has sturdier parts, made of best materials —wastes less power in transmitting the great power of the engine to draw bar and belt—has its working parts fully enclosed—has its working parts automatically oiled—

THE JOHN DEERE IS MAKING POWER FARMING EXTRA PROFITABLE.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH, TOFIELD

The solemn Dedicative and Opening of the New Catholic Church, Tofield, will take place on Sunday, November 27th, at 10.30 a.m.

The Most Reverend Archbishop O'Leary will be present and will take the chief part in the opening ceremonies.

The new church, which has recently been erected is a beautiful and most useful edifice for a country town, and Father Quirk and those of the Catholic faith in the town and district, are to be congratulated upon its erection.

On Sunday, December 4th, there will begin a mission, conducted by Rev. Father McDonald, C.S.S.R.

The general public are welcome to attend both events.

BIG PICTURE SATURDAY NIGHT

A picture that many have been looking forward to is coming to the Variety this Saturday night. "Men of Steel," is reputed to be one of the best moving pictures ever filmed. This is an oft repeated claim, but in many cases true. Each big picture deals with a phase of life peculiar to itself, and "Men of Steel," has as its background, the immense steel mills of Pittsburg. If for no other purpose at all, "Men of Steel" would be well worth seeing as a educational feature, but in addition to many scenes of educational interest, there is a strong love theme, story plot, suits and humor woven together so as to make one of the most enjoyable pictures ever thrown on the silver screen.

AUCTION SALES

The coming of winter has brought its usual quota of farm auction sales. Seven have just recently or will shortly be held. The first of the season was that of H. B. Rogers, near Ryley, not cried by P. O. Ball. There is rapid succession will come six sales cried by J. D. Hannan, viz: Messrs. Ferrow & Isaackson's, Community sale, W. E. Parker's, Robt. M. Myers, T. N. Carlisle, D. H. Mitchell. The dates are announced elsewhere in this issue. On Friday, November 25th, the farm effects of the late Mr. Anderson will be sold. F. O. Ball will cry this sale.

HOCKEY TEAM RE-ORGANIZES

The youngsters, last year known as the Tofield United, and who at the height of their enthusiasm wanted to challenge Ottawa, have again organized as a hockey team for the 1927—8 hockey season. The new executive is Bill Morton and the new manager, Mr. McCullough.

This year it is most likely they will drop the name of Tofield United and become known as the Tofield high school team. This team, with few exceptions, have played together for the past three or four years, and while they have not yet reached senior ranks, are now able to give a good account of themselves, and to make the attendance at their games worth while. Ted Parfitt had charge of them for a year or two and W. Worthington managed the team last year. This year, under the "sportability" of Mr. Mc Cullough, they should have a successful season. They are Simon pure and all "home brew."

ANOTHER CUP FOR THE LADY CURLERS

Mr. Irving Kline of Edmonton has presented a cup to the Tofield Lady Curling Association to be played for during their bonspiel which will be held some time during the curling season.

This makes three trophies they now have, all procured through the energy of J. Chapman and the generosity of Edmonton jewellers.

Previous cups were presented by Ash Bros., and Jackson Bros.

KINGMAN

Mr. W. McIntosh, who has been away for five months, returned a few days ago to take up his former position as agent at the depot.

The Misses Helga and Myrtle Bjornson were Edmonton visitors on Friday.

Mr. Ed Johnson was a Vegreville visitor for a few days last week.

It pays to farm well. Mr. W. Wray, 4 miles east of Kingman, has 7th of town received one hundred and six bushels of oats to an acre on 70 acre field.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, on Saturday, November 12, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Munson and family, of Camrose, visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Blychert over the week end.

Mr. R. O. Berg of Edmonton, was a business visitor here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Blychert and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Munson and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hoste and Mr. F. Tollefson motored to Round Hill on Tuesday evening.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tollefson is a patient at the St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. Ole Rofandahl, that for many years have been farming four miles north of Camrose, have bought the farm from Mr. W. Jardie and will be here for business, November 21st. Mr and Mrs. Rosendahl is well are well known by all in this district and all wish them good luck in their new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jardie were the guests of Mr. and Mrs Hartschen on Sunday.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

KETCHAMONT

It will take another week to finish threshing. Mr. Wm. Lee is on his last job at Mr. Hills. Mr. L. Carlisle has several days for Mr. S. Norseland on the Tracknell farm and Mr. S. Sutton will be all week at Mr. C. Williams. It sure will be a grand and glorious feeling when it is all finished as the weather has been so cold and stormy the past week, making the work very difficult

Mr. Frank Shupe and brother-in-law returned home on Sunday after a three weeks trip through the Peace River country. They travelled in car but had to return home on the train.

Dr. Morrison installed a five tube DeForest Crosley radio for J. H. Ferguson on Saturday.

Little Miss Mary Ingram, who has been living with her aunt, Mrs. G. R. Owen, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Ingram on Monday.

Messrs. Herman Lawson, D. Turner, J. H. Ingram, G. W. Sears, and C. A. Ingram shipped a carload of cattle from the Bardo siding on Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Wildman entertained the M.A.S. at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henderson on Wednesday afternoon. In spite of the stormy weather, a pleasant afternoon was spent and a goodly number of members and visitors were present. Visitors were Mrs. Ed Cookson and Mrs. Henry McGinnis. After the meeting a social hour was spent and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

LAKESHORE

Friends of Mrs. W. Abernathy will be pleased to hear that she is doing splendidly after her recent operation and will be home in a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley and little Marjorie Murray are keeping Mrs. Keith McIntosh company while Mr. McIntosh is away on a hunting trip.

Miss Mabie Wood assisted Mrs. J. R. Warner for a few days last week.

Emil Feist is helping R. C. Phillips to haul grain

John Booth and Percy Miller have been visiting at the A. M. Booth home for several days. The former is a nephew of Mrs. Booth. The young men have been harvesting in Saskatchewan and are visiting relatives here for a few days before returning to their home in Quebec.

Threshing is practically finished in this district and more too soon, the way the weather man has been performing lately.

C.F.W.A. NOTES

At the meeting of November 12th the attendance was rather small, only five members and one visitor being present. The roll call was answered with current events. Then a little business was transacted. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, November 26th, at 2:30 sharp. The roll call will be answered by some change I would like to see made in the present system of immigration." A discussion will follow on several phases of immigration, which will be by Mesdames Murray, Soule, Baptist, Dodds, Gray and Lee.

Kindly bear in mind that the first meeting in December is the last meeting of this year and election of officers for the coming year will take place and full attendance is hoped for

AMISK CREEK

Threshing is now all finished a round here except at A. Haugen's. The A. Patterson outfit is three now and is finishing up.

Gunvald Flaaten left last night for Calgary where he is attending the technical school this winter.

E. A. Moen is shipping a carload of cattle and hogs from Ryley to the Pool, today Tuesday.

A. Elvestad left last Sunday for a short visit to Grande Prairie.

BARDO

The Lutherans of this district will hold a three days meeting at the church here at Bardo beginning Sunday, November 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robson left Sunday night for their home in Grand Prairie Mrs. J. Hankstad, who accompanied them here, will remain for a longer visit. Two or three of the new arrivals from Norway, went north with them. I pity it to be able to bear it there.

P. O. Larbelson returned on Sunday morning from a three weeks hunting trip north of Edmonton. He shot a moose, a deer and three bears, an old bear and her three cubs. Mrs. Larbelson anticipates having a bear skin rug.

Four threshing rings in this district finished on Saturday. Most of the threshing is done, but there is still considerable grovelled to be taken in yet.

The Young People will have a social at the Ivor Hoen home on Friday evening, November 18th.

There is a little daughter at the George Hendrickson home, Scandia. Mrs. Hendrickson was formerly Miss Magda Anderson of Bardo.

John Nilson, Mr. Hanson and E. Nystad left last Sunday for the Great Lakes, where they are going fishing this winter

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moen visited at the Anne home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Berg and Mrs. P. O. Flaaten visited at the Eggen home in Bardo last Sunday.

E. Bakkebraa is assisting at P. Flaaten's with the chores.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Sand and daughter from Ryley were callers at the Flaaten's last Sunday.

OUR NATIVE TONGUE

THE ENGLISH language, originally the tongue of two or three million people in the south and east of one of the British Islands, has spread, through the enterprise and the spirit of adventure which animates that stock, over a great part of the habitable globe. It is the daily speech of forty-five millions in Great Britain, of nearly one hundred and twenty-five millions in North America, and of other millions in South Africa, in India and in the great islands of the South Pacific Ocean. Inevitably so wide a distribution of English speaking people has lead to more or less modification of the original tongue. These great groups, far removed from one another, and exposed to quite different conditions of life, have developed differences in pronunciation, in vocabulary and in usage. The English of London is not precisely the English of Boston or of Melbourne. The wonder is that the variations are not more remarkable than they are; they are no where so great—among fairly well-educated people, at any rate—as to make it difficult for one who talks English to understand another, though he come from the other side of the globe.

An interesting conference, which is intended to help in making such differences as exist still less troublesome, was lately held in London, to form what is called an International Council of English, with representatives from all parts of the English-speaking world. Englishmen like Lord Balfour, Robert Bridges, the poet laureate, and Sir Henry Newbolt were among the founders of the council, and among Americans who took part in the work were Professor Lowes of Harvard, Professor Hamby of Yale, Professor Manly, of the University of Chicago, Professor Scott of the University of Michigan, and Professor Caley of the University of California.

The council is not to set itself up as an arbiter of speech after the manner of the French Academy. It does not mean to put any curb on the natural growth of the English language. It will undertake to consider all disputed questions of grammar and pronunciation, and words or forms of speech which are peculiar to one or another branch of the English-speaking peoples, "in the attempt to discover what current usages are in accord with the tradition and genius of the tongue and represent growth, not decay."

The decisions of such a council, made up, of course, of scholars and literary men, can not have much effect on colloquial speech. Yankees in their daily habits will still speak like Yankees, Australians like Australians, Scotchmen like Scotchmen, Cockneys like Cockneys, and Americans of the south after their own fashion. But it will be easier to preserve a universal form in the written and spoken speech of educated persons wherever they may live, if there is a recognized authority to which all subscribe. Dialects and local peculiarities of speech will always exist, but the international Council of English has an opportunity to perform a real service in keeping the real language pure, virile and substantially the same in every quarter of the globe.—Youths' Companion.

SEVEN WONDERS OF THE BIBLE

By Rev. M. L. Gregg, M.A.

"The Battered Book."

Editor's Note—This week, Rev. M. L. Gregg, M.A., pastor of Stonebrow Baptist Church, is continuing his splendid article, which was begun a week ago. It will be concluded in the next of the following issues.

[illegible] people are good writers but poor speakers. Mr. Gregg is a master of both. Some orators say nothing, but they say it so well that we are apt to listen to them. Others are good talkers, but we are glad to hear them because they give you something of value. Mr. Gregg combines the good qualities of both classes. His church has an excellent choir, and you will be sure of several handshakes before you pass out of the door. If in the city next Sunday, you will appreciate an evening spent in Strathcona Baptist Church.

One of the Great Wonders of the Bible is Its Formation

Here is a book that was not planned by any man, or group of men. But was written, a part here, and a part there, by some 14 men, of different callings and of different circumstances, who wrote independently of each other on different lands and in different languages, and in different ages. The whole history, through a period of some 1600 years.

[illegible] years and 3 months are building The People's Bank was 66 years in building. Rome of Dana was two hundred years in building. But the Temple of God's word, the great Book of all the Bible was 1600 years in the process of formation.

The [illegible] of the 66 parts written and written too in different styles. But in all the multiplicity of diversity perfect unity and purpose of all is well prevails. And these 66 parts have come into an orderly and harmonious whole. How was this done? It is [illegible] Himself. "Holy men of God spoke [illegible] as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

The second Great Wonder of The Bible is Its Preservation

[illegible] for believing in the inspiration of the Bible is the fitting of it into one glorious whole, of all these different parts. If 44 artists separated by hundreds of miles of distance, and hundreds of years of time, and by hundreds of degrees of mental standing, and of personal [illegible] were to each paint something on a piece of canvas. Then if all these pieces of canvas were collected and were found to fit together so as to form a perfect picture, what would you say? You would say that they had all been planned, inspired and directed by one great intelligence. That One divine Mind inspired the whole book. One divine purpose pervades the whole volume. Then too the Bible is inspired because it inspires those that read.

No man, or body of men, did or could write the Bible without divine inspiration. No man, or body of men would write it if they could, without divine inspiration, for their pride would prevent them. [illegible] among those about their own intellectual [illegible] the Bible says.

God has had written in this book the statement "Thus saith the Lord," [illegible] times, and He has had His name, "God," stamped upon its pages [illegible]. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God."

The Third Great Wonder of the Bible Is Its Revelation.

Verily, one of the greatest wonders of the Bible is its revelation—particularly its revelation of God. It is full of the truths of redemption, to God's plan of salvation, and provision for the redemption of mankind. The Bible tells us the truth the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about God's way of redemption. That fact was in Paul. Dear, THE great reason for believing it to be the word of God.

Thank God, for the revelation which he has given of Himself, of sin, of salvation, of immortality, and of a glorious culmination of all these to those who receive and believe it. What an awful world this would be without this revelation! God does not exist because there is a Bible. But the Bible exists because there is a God. And because we have the Bible we may therefore know Him. Thank God for the revelation of the glorious knowledge of the grace of God given in these sacred pages, upon everyone of which is portrayed more or less clearly the face of Jesus Christ, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Him, (Christ) and no man cometh to Christ but by the Bible (the Word of God).

The Fourth Great Wonder of The Bible is Its Preservation.

The indestructability of the Bible is one of the greatest miracles of all time. No other book has been so widely assailed and yet it has survived. All the augury of destruction that human and hellish hate and philosophy could devise has been employed against the Bible to stamp it out of existence, from the butcheries of Diocletian, the tortures of the Inquisition, the ridicule of the 19th century infidelity, to the mutilation of present day destructive criticism. Elegant funeral orations have been composed and supposed to be, on the occasion of each world's history, through a period of some 1600 years.

[illegible] years and 3 months are building The People's Bank was 66 years in building. Rome of Dana was two hundred years in building. But the Temple of God's word, the great Book of all the Bible was 1600 years in the process of formation.

It is estimated that last year all the Bible Societies in the world published and circulated a total number of about 50,000,000 copies or portions of the Bible. The Society, under whose auspices we have the privilege of gathering this evening, the branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, published at least a third of that total number. And the surprising thing is that the demand for the Scriptures is still increasing.

And even at this present amazing rate of output, it would take 10 years to give to every man, woman, and child now living in this world a copy of the Bible, to say nothing of giving copies to the millions that would be born during that period of 10 years. Great indeed is the need of a far greater host of reporters who will help to more generally circulate the Holy Scriptures.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

You men and women who scorn the ministry of the church in life, will you ask its benediction in death? The church does not exist to perpetuate odious old sinners, but to call living sinners to repentance. "Come ye sinners . . . If ye tarry till you're better, you will never come at all." If you have no need of God do not come to worship Him on Sundays at 7:30 p.m. Worship yourself. If your standard of living excels that of Christ, keep yourself and mate and little ones away from the church school at 11:00 a.m. You do not need to learn of a Saviour. Otherwise, "Come to the Saviour, make no delay."

BETTER FARM POWER AT LOWER COSTS

Lower costs for fuel—lower costs for oil—lower

BECAUSE THE JOHN DEERE 15-27:

Is hundreds of pounds lighter—is hundreds of parts simpler—has starting parts, made of best materials—wastes less power in transmitting the great power of the engine to draw bar and belt—has its working parts fully enclosed—has its working parts automatically oiled—

THE JOHN DEERE IS MAKING POWER FARMING EXTRA PROFITABLE.

SCHOOL LANDS BRING HIGH PRICES

High prices have been realized for parcels of school lands sold by auction in various districts in the province during the past week. One quarter section in the Vermilion district established the high mark of $73 per acre, and an average price of about 40.00 per acre is reported for the 319 quarters offered.

At Vermilion 21,000 acres were disposed of, the aggregate return being some $700,000 and the highest priced quarter bringing $31 per acre. Here about sixty per cent of the lands were purchased by Ukrainian farmers. Most of the land disposed of is located along the new C.P.R. branch line in territory which is settling rapidly.

A similar sum was realized at Lloydminster where 302 parcels were sold, the highest price paid being $39.50 per acre, with the average between $30 and $35 per acre. These sales have been conducted under the direction of W. P. Rollins and R. E. Woods of the federal department of the interior.

PROVINCIAL SEED FAIR JANUARY 17—20

The Alberta Provincial Seed fair will be held in Calgary from January 17 to 20, at the same time as the U.F.A. annual convention and the Field Crops Commissioner, W. J. Stephen. The first two days will be occupied by the judging of entries and a number of meetings will be held during the last two days. The Alberta Seed Growers' Association will hold their annual meeting at the same time. Entries are expected at the seed fair from a number of exhibitors on the premises who are showing at the forthcoming Chicago International Hay and Grain Show.

DATES SELECTED FOR U.F.A. CONVENTION

The 1928 annual convention of the United Farmers of Alberta will be held from January 17 to 20, it is announced from the offices of the U.F.A. in Calgary. It is likely that Calgary will be selected as the meeting place rather than Edmonton, as has been the case in recent years. Resolutions to be submitted to the convention are already coming in to the U.F.A. office and a busy four days' program is anticipated.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS

By a Red Cross Nurse

As a nurse my attention is frequently drawn to those children who are not receiving the care and training necessary for good health. May I here draw your attention to a few facts?

Train your child from the moment he is born, please do not start him on a round of irregularity, in this way you are laying up all sorts of trouble for yourself, and ruining your child's constitution and perhaps its health. Regularity is the secret of success in child rearing as in all the sciences.

1.—Bath your baby regularly night and morning.

2.—Feed him regularly by the clock, as per doctor's instructions every 2 or 4 hours.

3.—Put him to bed in a quiet cool room, window open, without light and close the door.

4.—After the child reaches the age of one year regularity is just as important then as during infancy. Try to picture that this little child is being moulded in us, for as habits form development, action speech and character. Do not spoil him through carelessness, ignorance or over indulgence.

Baby cries when he has indigestion from over feeding or improper feeding. When pins are pricking him. When he requires attention. When in pain. When he requires attention. When he has perhaps been lying too long in the one position or insufficient feeding.

Do not boast that "Baby never goes to bed until 11 or 12 p.m." Baby wakes you up every morning at 5 o'clock and won't go to sleep until 6 o'clock". There are times when a baby will waken during the night, perhaps he requires attention or a drink of water, but that is no reason on for the food parents turning on a strong light by his bed, talking to him and finally taking him into bed with them. If this is repeated, tomorrow night the child tries it again and thus many well behaved babies are spoiled.

Remember that habit formation is the all important factor in the training of a child. A primary tendency in all children is imitation, and the parents may be directly responsible for certain characteristics of their Books on the care of children can be obtained free of charge, by applying to the Canadian Red Cross Society, Edmonton, Alta.

"Lord Nelson" at Halifax Among Dominion's Finest

Upper—Two scenes in the Public Gardens, where the new hotel is to be located. Lower—As the "Lord Nelson" will appear when completed.

With interest has been created by the recent announcement that Halifax is to be provided with one of the finest hotels in the Dominion. The project met with instant approval and financial backing, those materially interested realizing the city's need for such an institution in view of Nova Scotia's historic, scenic and recreational advantages.

That the new "Lord Nelson" hotel, as it will be known, is solidly supported on a business basis, as well as on grounds of civic pride, is shown by the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway has secured over a half interest in the project, which Company's hotels are notable among the leading chains. This Company will direct to a large extent the management of the hotel. According to E. W. Beatty, Chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific, the present conditions in Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia, in every way justify the building of the "Lord Nelson."

The new hotel will be in keeping with the historical charm of Nova Scotia's capital city, while excelling as to style of British history. The building, from its architectural standpoint, will be carried out in Georgian style, the type of architecture prevalent in Lord Nelson's time. Trafalgar Day, October 21st, was the first and in fact consistent period and work began on a building that will be in keeping with the importance of Nova Scotia's capital.

The location of the "Lord Nelson" is one of the outstanding features of the new venture. Situated on one of the famous Public Gardens of Halifax. These beautiful grounds, covering many acres and are located in the heart of the city at the corner of Spring Garden Road and South Park Street. Around this paradise of flowers radiate the North West Arm with the celebrated Waegwoltic Club, Point Pleasant Park, the station, harbor and business district of the city.

The Province of Nova Scotia has earned a wide reputation for rural and historic attractions.

Of the business possibilities of this province, particularly as a tourist centre, the following facts will convey some idea. Last summer by rail and motor there passed through the province over 50 per cent more than the total population of the province. Halifax feels that it can look forward as the Lord Nelson will be opened in less than a year to a further increase in tourist traffic.

Winter Milking
Old Bessie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a brief spell of rest she goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. A Complete Electric Service
KOHLER of KOHLER, specialists in private electric plants, now have for immediate delivery electric plants ranging in power from 800 to 10,000 watts. These new large plants are the outcome of the wonderful success and reception of their 800, 1500 and 2000 watt plants, which are now known all over the world, on land and sea, as being a first class and high grade electric plant in every particular. For some time we have been endeavoring to interest Alberta farmers in this plant and feel sure that the purchaser will be pleased with the plant and after using it, if he could not procure another, would not part with it for much more than he paid for it.
Model D, 1500 watt capacity, which we recommend for most installations, costs $825.00 f.o.b. Alberta points.

AUCTION SALES

There is hardly a rural dweller on the Canadian prairies who have not at some time or other attended an auction sale. During the winter months from coast to coast, they are being held everywhere and constitute a part of civilization itself. To many an auction sale affords an opportunity to purchase goods and chattels at a lower figure than that required for the same articles new; to others it affords entertainment; while at all times an auction sale is a splendid place to study human nature. The witticisms of an auctioneer rarely fail to raise a laugh with a corresponding raise in spirits. "Come on Bill, here's a watch, guaranteed time-keeper, buy it and you can trade it for a calf; why, Bill, that's a start to owning your own farm. Not another dollar, Bill? well here goes, going, going, GONE!

Not all auction sales are humorous though, as frequently forced sales due to adverse circumstances create a pathetic atmosphere. The goods and chattels collected together through many years of hard work; farm animals, the daily association with which has caused the owner to look upon them as something more than mere animals; everything the auctioneer sells bringing back a flood of memories; make an auction sale of this kind a real ordeal for the owner. Not so many years ago, a farm auction sale was being conducted at which everything was to be sold, even to the boy's dog. Unknown to the auctioneer, the boy was crying miserably in the house. When the dog was put up for sale, there was a hush, it was hard to get a bid. Then someone started to bid and in less time than it takes to tell the price was run up far beyond the value of the dog. The auctioneer sensed the situation and said we don't want to sell this dog, what we want is to take up a collection and started it in his own hat with a generous amount. Everybody felt better.

Frequently bargains are procured at sales and occasionally one gets "left." The writer, some fifteen years ago, under the magnetic spell of one John W. Carter, bought a pair of boots at an auction sale. They were good boots, new and cheap. The only thing that was wrong with them was that they were both for the same foot.

"Auction, a method employed for the sale of property which derives its name from the Latin auctio, an increase, because the property was publicly sold to him who bids most for it. The usual form of auction is to offer the property at a low figure, and by the competition of the various bidders, each offering a little more than the predecessor, to raise the price to that point beyond which the bidders refuse to go. The goods are then 'knocked down' to the highest bidder. The Dutch auction, originating in its name indicates, in Holland, is the reverse of this, and is a method generally employed by the 'Cheap Jack'. The property is offered at a higher price than is likely to be paid for it, and the price is gradually lowered till somebody bids for it. The first person to bid gets the property. The mere offer of a bid does not bind the bidder until the auctioneer brings down the hammer, which is the equivalent of accepting it. Until such time a bidder may, if he chooses, withdraw his bid. It has been laid down in England that the buyer of goods at an auction is not bound to perform his contract if he was the only bona fide bidder at the sale, and if public notice was not given of the intention of the vendor to bid. This applies even though his agent was authorized to bid only to a certain sum. This rule is to protect purchasers against the practice of employing persons to make mock biddings with a view to raising the price by their apparent competition. The acceptance of a bid is generally indicated by the auctioneer striking his rostrum with a small hammer (wooden), but sometimes lighted candles are employed to measure the time during which bids will be entertained. The length of candle generally employed is one inch, and the last bidder before the light expires is the purchaser. Yet another method is employed is the running out of sand in the sand glass."

SEVEN WONDERS OF THE BIBLE

By Rev. M. E. Gregg, M.A.

The Sixth Great Wonder of the Bible Is Its Adaptation

Seldom is a book written by a person of one race appreciated by people of another race. There may be very few exceptions, but that is the rule, especially when the races are wide apart in time, in theory and in temperament. But the Bible appeals to and is appreciated by people of every land. It is translatable into into every language. Very few books are ever translated into more than a dozen languages, but the Bible has been translated into more than seven hundred languages and dialects.

The Bible like the sun is universal. Its blessed beams glow saving health to all the nations to which it goes. The Bible is adapted to all people of all races and of all places, of all experiences and of all circumstances, of all times and of all climes. "From Greenland's icy mountains, to India's coral strands", etc. It is adapted to the child as the mature's knee, as well as to the greatest poets, philosophers and statesmen.

The Seventh Wonder of the Bible is the Transformation It Causes in the Individual and in the Nation.

Great is the wonder of the transformation wrought by the Bible It has exerted a mightier and more beneficial influence in this world than any other book. The transformation of western civilization and of England from barbarism was by this book.

The transformation of modern Europe—the renaissance, the reformation was owing to the Bible. It destroys idolatry. It abolishes slavery. F. Whitwell Wilson, a well-known present day journalist, says that wherever and wherever the Bible is opened, personality expounded and made to occupy the attention of any people, the result is always a period of revival, progress and liberation. The Bible not only enlightens but it also liberates.

Perhaps the chief cause of all the amazing, and as we now see it, all the seeming awful revolution, in China today, may be the beginning of the inauguration of liberty in that land where dwell nearly one quarter of the population of the world. Years ago millions copies of the Bible have been absorbed by the Chinese in recent years.

The historian Green tells us that the efforts of the translation of the Bible into English was amazing. It changed the whole temper of the nation, and gave a new conception of life and man."

Dr. Dallinger said the "presence of the Bible in every home in England was one of the things that gave England a great superiority over other nations". To whom much is given much shall be required.

This book, the Bible, contains the mind of God, His message of mercy to mankind, His way of salvation for sinners. It tells of the happiness of the redeemed, and of the doom of the impenitent. Its doctrines are divine. Its destinies are eternal. Its testimonies brighter shine, its benefits unsparked, its precepts are pure, its promises are sure, it will make you wise to rend it, safe to believe it, holy to practice it, and helpful to teach it.

It furnishes light to direct you, food to nourish you, comfort to cheer you, counsel to guide you, a staff to support you, a sword to defend you and a storehouse to supply you. Here paradise is regained, the gates of glory are open to all believers, death and the grave are robbed of all their terrors, and it affords the only certain escape from hell and the only safe passport to heaven.

God is its subject. Christ is its object. The Holy Ghost is its interpreter. The Cross is its key. Salvation is its theme. Grace is its means. Glory is its end. "Glory to God in the highest!"

Who would not be thankful for such a wonderful book? Who would not help, for all he is worth, to publish long it, in circulating it, in preaching it, in teaching it, as well as in living it, believing it, and living it?

God help us to hold aloft the Word of Life among whom we shine as lights in the world.

[Finis.]

Here and There

Dr. the Rev. John [illegible] is leaving England and [illegible] for Australia where he has accepted a call to be pastor of Brunswick Methodist Church, Melbourne. Dr. Jowett has been connected with the Leeds Mission for a number of years, having held the position of secretary since 1919. He was ordained in 1901, and has held pastorates at Keighley, Harrogate and Birmingham.

The idea that the Bible will not spend money was dispelled this month so far as travel is concerned by the thousands of pilgrims who came a hundred miles or more by train or motor to attend the Highland tasbering at Banff, Alberta, Calvin Bible Camp.

A shipment of asbestos from Canada to the United States is shortly to be made, Hillside Baker, said to be at Lake Newell, who has for a few years been interested in the production of these minerals, has contracted to deliver twenty-one tons to a Texas banker.

It has been announced that the representatives of the Cuban potato buyers have agreed to take nine hundred thousand bushels of New Brunswick potatoes this season. Negotiations are at present under way with the Cuban buyers for the sale of the New Brunswick potato crop.

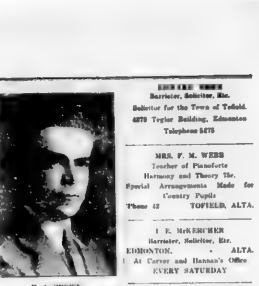
Increasing interest has been shown in the organization of boys' and girls' swine clubs throughout the province of Alberta and new clubs have been formed, among other places, at Fletcher Creek, Marlend and Raymond. To the winning team in Alberta the Canadian Pacific Railway awards a trip to the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto.

The 4,000 sportsmen who made returns to the Saskatchewan provincial game keepers department last year secured a total bag of 100 000 duck, 20,000 prairie chicken, 6,000 ruffed grouse, and 3,200 geese. In order to obtain some idea of the approximate bag of all hunters it is to be assumed that 12,000 who did not make returns secured the same average bags.

An unfailing indication of farm prosperity is the increasing sale of agricultural implements reported by nearly all dealers in the west this year. The demand for heavy machinery has been especially heavy, while the sale of tarewhers, binders, combines and tractors has been exceptionally large, some firms reporting from 100 to 200 per cent increases in the sales of these implements.

When the Canadian Pacific Railway train bearing 125 delegates to the Canadian Chamber of Commerce convention arrived at Craigellachie, B.C., recently, President H. Gundy requested that a brief stop be made during which the delegates paid tribute on the spot where the last spike of the Canadian Pacific transcontinental line was driven linking for the first time the East to the West. Mr. Gundy spoke briefly of the romance of the provision of the builders of the railroad.

Alberta's potential coal wealth is greater than all the known coal deposits in the rest of the British Empire put together, according to Sir Thomas Holland, chairman of the Empire Mining and Metallurgical Council, recently at Calgary. "If the present endeavors to change coal into a fluid fuel, capable of displacing petroleum and all its products, are successful, Canada will take the place of the United States as the world's purveyor of liquid fuel," he further stated.



B. A. BROWN,

whose appointment as Vice-President and General Manager of General Motors of Canada at the age of 37, marks him as one of the youngest higher executives in the automobile industry. Mr. Brown was formerly assistant to the general Motors organization for a number of years, having held the position of comptroller at 21 years of age. In September, 1921. He succeeds Gordon McGregor, who has assumed an important post with the Oakland Motor Car Company at Pontiac, Michigan.

Winter Traffic

Soon on the city streets should come to all motor-mobile drivers at least one thing, once a daily newspaper, a driving speed of at least ten miles an hour less than summer speed. And this word of advice to city motorists may well be passed on to motorists on country roads.

Snow is a tricky surface. It provides a good traction on paved city streets and hard roads—but a car is losing speed, but no traction at all when it is not provided with chains. Brakes applied in other words a car can be driven easily on it but can be stopped only with difficulty.

It is discovering this in order up to a street or road intersection at which the cross or roads would be a moderate speed, and holding need of applying the brake. And the car sliding helplessly toward cross traffic, would be able to slow enough to stop, and it is to prevent.

Experienced and careful drivers have learned to do this almost by instinct, but they know there is no one, no foolproof way to safely destroy to drive slowly, and particularly to avoid locking the brakes. Some, however, enforce a long, steady pressure on the brake pedal, and on slippery roads keep sufficiently ahead to stop in safety.

Pedestrians too should take warning. The first rule of studies—the local and a foot of snow—while a motor passes in slow motion down the road. It is doubly dangerous after the snow comes. If the driver be good to apply his brakes suddenly the car may turn times out of ten will veer to the left or the right, and the pedestrian standing too close is likely to be side-swiped with unpleasant results.

Winter conditions should, in fact, intensify care in driving and walking. There is much greater liability to accident with snow on the ground.

Cold weather brings another danger which is not confined to cities or to summer. In cold weather motorists are tempted to start up their cars—and allow them to run for a time to warm up while the closed doors of the garage. As a natural result the garage fills up with the deadly carbon monoxide gas exhaust with all the possibilities for tragedy which such a condition implies.

Another factor which necessitates greater care in winter driving, is caused by the fact that running cars have all the variable as well the accidents of closed cars are kept shut. It is not possible to drive a car with the hands and feet witnessed, in other cases by the rear passenger. The man at the rear may indeed make in the wheel, the front passenger can control the car—more than is necessary during the summer time. It is necessary to control

NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED

A further item of interest was added to the history of Tofield last Sunday when His Grace, the Archbishop of Edmonton officiated at the solemn dedication of the new Catholic church.

Despite the snowy roads, His Grace motored from the city and, arrayed in his pontifical vestments, was led in procession to the front entrance where the opening prayers were recited.

The Archbishop, with his purple zucchine, racket and white cape, bearing in his hand his crosiery, the official sign of his spiritual pastorate, his head covered with the precious gold mitre, made an imposing figure when, attended by Rev. Father Lyons, Chancellor of the Archdiocese and Rev. Father Quirk, Pastor of Tofield, and the procession took its way completely round the new building which was thereby changed from a mere edifice to the sacred temple of God. The exterior was blessed by the sprinkling of Holy Water and the church was formally opened as His Grace cut the ornamental ribbons at the entrance to the church.

Proceeding to the High Altar, the clergy recited the Hour of the Solemn, invoking the intercession of the Blessed in Heaven for all those present, the ceremony ending with the sprinkling of the interior of the church.

Immediately following the solemn blessing, High Mass was chanted by the Rev. Pastor assisted by the select choir to whom great credit is due for their rendering of the Missa de Angelis.

His Grace's discourse was delivered after the singing of the Gospel. Taking as his text "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church and to thee I will give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven", he showed how Christ had, whilst on earth, founded His church and had appointed Peter as its head. Then His Grace dwelt on the chief teachings of Christ, in particular the Holy Mass, and showed that in the church of Christ, today, are taught and believed the same doctrines of 1000 years ago. His Grace then showed the reason for this morning's ceremony and the necessity of the church by pointing out that from birth, when the child is brought to the church for baptism, all through life for confession, for Mass, for instruction, for marriage and finally at death, the church is as much a part of a Catholic as the heart is a part of the body.

He concluded by reminding his hearers that, always the teaching of the church is backed by facts, irrespective of colour, nationality or creed.

The solemnities of the Mass continued and the impressive grandeur of the scene will surely be deeply fixed in the minds of those present.

The High Altar, the scene of the Sacrifice was tastefully decorated and soon surrounded and reunited to impale clouds arising from the sweet smelling incense blessed by the Most Reverend Prelate seated on the Archiepiscopal Throne erected on the gospel side of the sanctuary.

The solemn silence of the Canon (or chief part) of the Mass was broken or rather shattered by the dulcet tones of the organ which pealed forth in crescendo as the celebrant held aloft the Consecrated Host for the adoration of the humbly kneeling congregation.

The Mass was concluded by the imparting of the Pontifical Benediction.

Following the Mass, the ceremony of the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was performed by Father Quirk. This is the rite of the Catholic church during which the Sacred Host, consecrated during Mass, is exposed for the veneration of the faithful. The blessing is the blessing of God Himself as distinct from the blessing of a priest. The choir sang from the font that the priest in this ceremony covers his hands with a silk veil before raising aloft the Monstrance containing the Sacred Host. After the ceremony, His Grace received the congregation and visitors in the church basement, returning to Edmonton the same day.

Leonard P. Woodham, optometrist of Camrose, will make his regular visit to Tofield on Tuesday, December 6th. This will be Mr. Woodham's last visit to Tofield before the new year. Those desiring examination of their eyes may meet Mr. Woodham at The Royal Alexandra Hotel on the date mentioned.

NEW CURLING RINK OPENED

Amid much enthusiasm the new curling rink was officially opened by Major McCauley on Monday evening last.

After a short address and the official opening, the home of throwing the first rock in the new rink was recorded Mr. John Chapman, who is chairman of the building and finance committee.

A. B. Chatterham, president of the club this season, held the honors.

Two draws were played on the opening night on each sheet of ice, and all the visitors rinks which composed the men's club were able to play.

The ladies' opening night was held the following evening when all nine rinks of the ladies' club curled.

The ladies provided refreshments on both Monday and Tuesday evenings. The ladies served on Monday and a number of men curlers donned cap and apron on Tuesday and displayed the good things provided.

THE NEW FORD CAR

This week, marks the beginning of what is perhaps the most gigantic selling campaign of a uniform character of merchandise, the world has ever seen. We refer to the New Ford car. For weeks in the end and side by side of this continent, people are this week being told through every known medium of information, details regarding the new product of the Ford Motor Co. Thousands and thousands of dollars will be spent in this marketing campaign and thousands of men from the chief at Detroit to the sub-agent in the smallest and farthest removed hamlet will be "on their toes" to make the campaign a success.

The advertisement carried on another page of this paper is the first official announcement of the New Car's arrival in Alberta. That it will "make history" seems to be the opinion of the select few who have already seen it, among them being, Geo. McLaughlin of Toronto, Henry Ford, with his famous model T, provided a car for millions to ride in. Will he repeat? Indications point that way.

Commenting on the new car, H. R. Cottingham, manager of the Calgary branch of the Ford Motor Co., of Can. So Very Ford was a car we had the thrill of riding in it? We were delighted with the new car and felt that it will introduce a new era in highway transport. We went in the luxury expecting a big car we saw more than we expected. In appearance the car is everything that could be desired, and in point of performance it surprised us. It gets away like a shot out of a gun. It negotiates any character of road with perfect ease. It is capable of very high speed and whatever speed it is travelling it seems to hug the road and whatever road it is travelling it seems to run everything out into a paved highway. We watched the new car going through the crowded tests and we saw the cars speeding through the factories and reached then why it must be several month before the supply is in any way adequate to the public demand. Anyone who could see what we saw would no longer wonder why it has taken a long time to build the new car. We found that not only new designs have been evolved, but revolutionary methods of manufacturing have been invented and production machines of entirely new kinds have been designed and built to facilitate quantity production. Necessarily it will be some time before these machines can be tuned in sufficient quantity to effect the enormous volume of production that is required to meet the demand for the new car, but that it is possible to build the new car in reasonably speedy fashion is only by virtue of new methods that it has been possible to build the new car to retail at the low price field. Without such production facilities it would have to sell in the high price field."

The specifications of the new car are as follows:

MOTOR

4 Cylinders
Cast construction.
Pump and thermo-syphon cooling.
Pump and splash lubrication
Single coil distributor ignition.
Sliding gear, three speed) transmission
Multiple disc plate dry disc clutch.
Dynamically balanced crankshaft.
High and low speed jet carburetor (Hot Spot Manifold)
Aluminum pistons
Oil indicator
Two blade aeroplane type fan.

Miss Bessie Francis Owen and Mr. Donald Arthur Crowe will be quietly married at McLennan on Friday, December 2nd. On Tuesday evening a crowd of friends and relatives pleasantly surprised Miss Bessie to wish her God speed and best wishes on her approaching wedding. The evening soon passed with music and singing and cards. A delicious lunch was served. A beautiful wedding cake was baked by her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Ingram. Many useful and beautiful gifts and purse of money was left in token of the esteem of her friends. Before going home, the company all joined hands and sang, "she's a jolly young fellow," and "Should auld acquaintance be forgot." Mr. and Mrs. Crowe will reside at McLennon for the winter. The many friends extend to them best wishes for a long and happy married life.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the Henry McGinnis home on Monday when a large crowd of friends and relatives of Miss Annie Brown, bride elect of the month turned out to a miscellaneous shower in her honor. The afternoon was spent in social conversation followed by a lovely lunch. A mysterious string was strung around the room, Miss Annie was given the ball to wind; at the end and back of the organ she found a cloth parcel of useful and beautiful gifts which was opened by Miss Annie, assisted by Miss Lillian Carlisle, and passed around for inspection. Congratulations were the order of the day on her wedding on Wednesday. Friends present from outside the district were Mr. John Morton and Mr. Thomson, Mrs. Ira Olson, Tofield, Mrs. Lavender and Miss Morden from Lindbrook; Mrs. F. D. Ferguson of Lakeshore.

Mr. G. R. Owen, son Percy and sister, Mary Ingram, left Tuesday evening for Cloverdale B.C. for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and little daughter of Lindbrook moved into their new house on Monday, the 5th, on farm.

G. A. TROUT FARM SOLD FOR $120,000

Northern Alberta's biggest farm land deal for this year was completed on Friday when the well known Trout farm near Tofield was sold to a syndicate of Mennonites for the sum of $120,000. The purchasers own a lot of eight families and they will take possession of the property on January 1st.

The deal was handled by N. A. Kidburn, general agent at Edmonton, and W. B. Beck of Calgary, both of whom acted on behalf of the Canada Colonization Company, a subsidiary of the C.P.R. Representing the Mennonite board of Alberta was W. A. Rhinow, who the vendor was G. A. Trout.

There are 2,561 acres that comprise the Trout farm, one of the largest in the whole Tofield district. The property was sold with all buildings and equipment, at the rate of $47.00 per acre

Mr Kilburn in announcing the deal on Saturday morning stated that these Mennonites, who made the purchase, have had experience in western Canada and will no doubt prove to be settlers of a fine type. Information received from the Wiseupeg office of the Canada Colonization Company, a subsidiary of the C.P.R. is that the Mennonite board of Alberta was W. A. Rhinow who the vendor was G. A. Trent.

DID YOU EVER HEAR OF DRY RAIN?

Editor's Note.—The following letter was received from Joe Kulak, who along with his mother, brother and sister, left for the coast to spend the winter.

Dear Bill and Ed:—

We sure had an enjoyable trip and arrived here at three p.m. yesterday. We moved into an apartment this morning and stayed at Mr. and Mrs. Ingram's yesterday. It rained yesterday and this afternoon and is still raining. The people here call it a dry rain, but believe me, its as wet as any rain I ever saw. Most of the boys go around with raincoats with out a hat or cap. I haven't seen a college student yet, whether it was raining or not, wear a hat.

Last Tuesday when we started the train was three hours late so it put us behind considerably. We arrived at Jasper at 12.00 o'clock, but had to set our watches back one hour. We saw very few mountains before we reached here.

Jasper sure is a beautiful town, tucked in the valley between two large mountains. The mountains there being of rock. From there on we followed a river valley and mostly about with the course of the river. We went through three or four tunnels, the last being one fifth of a mile long. The mountains are wooded there and the river is called the Fraser river and a large bridge spans the junction of the rivers Prince George and Thompson. This is a very beautiful scene. It was snowing most of the way.

The next morning the sights were different, mountains of snow capped stone structure stood out in the sun against the sky with the green moss and dazzling snow caps made beautiful by the sun. From there we followed the Fraser valley known as the most fertile valley in B.C. as a Scotchman termed it.

We saw a deer, two flocks of mountain sheep and two wolves. I was in hopes that we would see a few bears and moose but we didn't.

As we neared Vancouver swarming around mountain lands and beholding British Columbia's big farms of from half to 15 acres, with stumps five feet through in the fields, I thought of good old Alberta and its wheat fields.

There were many saw mills near New Westminster. In order to reach Westminster we had to cross the Fraser river, about one third of a mile wide. The bridge sure is a monster and curves quite a lot. Westminster is a very beautiful town on the banks of the Fraser river. The grass is very beautiful about one inch high in yards (trimmed I expect.) The trees of various kinds are just in beautiful shape

Nine miles farther on we entered Vancouver station a very attractive and serviceable station. We then got on the boat for Victoria. The islands we passed were high mountainous hills covered with luxurious grass.

We then entered the Victory docks. Victoria sure takes the cake when it comes to beauty. Grass grows everywhere, even on rocks. The streets are made very beautiful with trees along each street and cement roads extending far into the country. I hate to think of you poor fellows freezing while playing hockey while I pick flowers for a bouquet on the way home from the rink. Well, I guess I've told all the news so will close. Write soon and tell how the old burg's agoing.

Your friend,
JOE

Winter Milking

Old Bessie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a brief yearly rest you'll see her goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. Get the habit of winter milking—it pays!

A Complete Electric Service

KOHLER of KOHLER, specialists in private electric plants, now have for immediate delivery electric plants ranging in power from 800 to 10,000 watts. These new large plants are the outcome of the wonderful success and reception of their 500, 1500 and 3000 watt plants, which are now known all over the world, on land and sea, as being a first class and high grade electric plant in every particular. For some time we have been endeavoring to interest Alberta farmers in this plant and feel sure that the purchaser will be pleased with the plant and after using it, if he could not procure another, would not part with it for much more than he paid for it.

Model D, 1500 watt capacity, which we recommend for most installations, costs $825.00 f.o.b. Alberta points.

A Kohler Electric Plant gives you "city" service at an economical running cost. Write for booklet or call and let us explain this plant to you.

Luxuries Once But Necessities Now

PRACTICALLY any Canadian citizen may own today an automobile possessing elements of beauty, style, comfort and efficiency which an amount of wealth could have commanded a dozen years ago.

For the automobile industry has outgrown its original function as a supplier of transportation, and has in an amazingly short time, brought about the refinements which are exemplified in the present-day General Motors car.

Since its foundations first were laid sixty years ago, this institution has believed that every Canadian has a right to the best his country produces, has a right to satisfy his sense of beauty, his desire for comfort, his need for dependability.

General Motors has at its command the master minds of this industry. It has the finest automotive research laboratories and the greatest automobile proving grounds in the world, wherein have been pioneered and developed some of the industry's most revolutionary advances.

And General Motors has used its prosperity and success unstintingly in improving the quality and increasing the value of its products. . . .

It is then that General Motors of Canada has played its part in translating ever-increasing value into terms of every-day necessity. . . .

THE SPIRIT OF GOD

CHRISTIANITY, CIVILIZATION and progress travel hand in hand—and the church building is a visible public sign of the profession of faith. Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the dedication services of St. Francis' Roman Catholic Church on Sunday, saw one more building dedicated to the propagation of the Will of God. Accompanied by the singing and chanting of the resonant Latin; by the odor of burning incense; by the light of candles which mingled with the sunshine of a perfect Alberta winter day, filtering through the stained glass windows; by the harmony of the organ; by the spirit of adoration of the congregation; the solemn ceremony of dedication was carried out before the altar, made beautiful with gold and fine linen, surmounted by the figure of Him, the Saviour of all.

With forms and ceremonies—ages old, honoured and sacred, the participants, His Grace Archbishop O'Leary, Rev. Quirk and the choir, gave dramatic significance to the purpose of the new building.

From Sunday morning, Tofield and district residents of the Roman Catholic faith have a church home. As apart from the great out-doors, there is a sanctuary to which they may retire and commune with Him, the Father of all. Those who have entered any of the large churches or cathedrals of the old lands, or of eastern Canada, will readily understand the significance. The prayers of millions throughout the past centuries, have created there, a permanent atmosphere of prayer that descends upon one when entering.

The days of the Frontier town are past. Everytown, every village, every hamlet has its church. Yes, and in many places, where there is neither town, village or hamlet, there is a building dedicated to the propagation of the Will of God—where the surrounding farmers gather together on Sunday to worship.

Modernist or fundamentalist, Roman Catholic or Protestant, High Church or Low Church, Anglican or Methodist, Mennonite or Lutheran—truly and literally, in this western land of ours, "The Spirit of God moved over the waters."

THE NEW CURLING RINK OPENED

Monday was a red letter day in curling annals at Tofield, for while the new rink had been in use for other purposes, the first actual curling took place on that date. The curling rink is something in the nature of what unbounded enthusiasm and dogged persistence can accomplish. When the building of a new curling rink was first broached not all the curlers by any means, were in favor of the project. As the months passed, and the plans became more definite in shape, those who at first were only luke warm, became enthusiastic, and the splendid completed rink to-day is the result. While no doubt other curlers have worked hard, Mr. J. Chapman has been in the limelight as a rink booster and has worked for it like a Trojan.

The building is a credit to the town and catering to the recreation requirements of the citizens is a real asset.

AMBER CREEK

The Ladies' Aid monthly meeting was held at Mrs. T. Anderson's home on the 16th of this month. Quite a number attended, most of the members and several visitors being present.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Olson last Sunday, when nearly all their neighbors surprised them and gave Mrs. L. H. Olson and Mrs. L. C. Olson a handkerchief shower. A very pleasant time was spent and a dainty lunch was served. They all went home well pleased with the time spent there that afternoon.

Mr. A. Elverstad returned from Grande Prairie, a few days ago. He purchased a 320 acre farm up there and he and the family are leaving soon for their future home.

Elmer Davis has been assisting R. O. Berg with grain hauling the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blackburn and children from Lavoy, are visiting with Mrs. L. H. Olson and at the L. C. Olson home.

A. Erickson purchased a new McLaughlin Buick coach recently.

Mrs. P. O. Molino and Florence visited the city over the week end.

Miss Clara Amerbo is assisting Mrs. McVittie of Ryley with her household duties during the past two weeks, Mrs. McVittie being on the sick list.

Arthur, Henry and Morley Anderson returned from the Peace River country last week where he has been working on the erection of an elevator.

Mr. E. Bahlenhorg who has been helping Mr. Flanzen with the work for the last two weeks left last Monday to work in the Dodds coal mine.

Arthur Anderson have been suffering with blood poison in his right arm since he returned from Peace River. It was very painful for some time, but we are glad to report he is now out of danger.

Ralph Olson and his mother have now moved to their new place at the farm that Ralph bought from P. J. Ane last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershberger and children are leaving for the States this week where they are going to spend most of the winter.

R. O. Berg is driving a new Pontiac car.

Ford
The
NEW CAR

ALL THAT engineers have learned, all that millions of owners have experienced in nearly a quarter of a century, have made possible this car which is today so far ahead of its time as was the famous Model T in 1908.

Sixteen million automobiles, serving their owners in jungle and desert, on mountain and plain, on boulevard and highway, were the test cars that have made this new automobile possible. Its advent marks a new epoch in automotive engineering in point of beauty, quality—niceties of mechanical design, lavish use of the finer metals, precision in delicate machining processes. . . .

Nowhere in its construction has there been slighting of either major essentials or minor details. From its outermost hub-cap to its innermost bearing, the new Ford car epitomizes engineering skill to a degree unrivalled in the annals of motor car manufacture.

This entirely new car surpasses the accepted standards of light car accomplishment; sweeps aside all boundaries of price class; establishes a new standard of acceleration, speed, power and smoothness that heretofore has marked only the expensive cars as fine cars.

Yet Ford precision in large scale production, unparalleled in the history of automotive manufacture, places this car within the reach of every purse.

An advance showing of the New Ford Car will be made Friday, December 2nd, in the following cities

Halifax, Peterboro, Winnipeg, St. John, Toronto, Regina, Quebec, Hamilton, Saskatoon, Sherbrooke, Brantford, Moose Jaw, Montreal, London, Calgary, Ottawa, Windsor, Edmonton, Kitchener, Fort William, Vancouver, Victoria.

As rapidly as increasing production permits these public showings will be extended until all of the 7.36 Ford dealer points have been covered.

If you live in one of the cities listed above, visit the exhibit of this New Car. At other points, see your local dealer next Friday. He will give you complete specifications, prices and an excellent conception of its unusual features.

Is Enormous Distance From Earth, Say German Professors

A new comet invisible to the naked eye, situated in the constellation of Pisces (The Fishes) and with the brightness of a star of the fifteenth magnitude, has been photographed at Hamburg University by Professors Behrermann and Kopff.

The comet appears on a long exposure plate as a luminous formation with a distinct nucleus. Its distance is not known, but how very much greater than it is can scarcely be imagined.

THE TOFIELD MERCURY

Vol. IX., No. 44. Wednesday, December 7th, 1927 $1.50 Per Year. To U.S. $2.00

W.I. NOTES

Only one more week to get that little Christmas gift ready. It must not exceed 50c. to make, but you can price it as high as you please, when you give it as a gift. Three competent outside judges will be on hand to judge the articles and a prize given for the best. The date is Tuesday, December 13th at three o'clock.

Some time ago the meeting decided to make the annual fee instead of 25c. as in the past. This was decided on account of the provincial fee being 50c. a member for each Institute, thus enabling us to pay this amount from the dues paid in, without drawing on our reserve fund. Members are asked to please bear in mind, that the annual fee is due at the December meeting, at which time the new officers will also be elected.

Sunday, December 11th, 1927

Thank how many Christmas treats you, as children, have accepted from the church! Think, you women, of the freedom and right to self expression you enjoy, through Christ! Think, you men, how the Standard of Life is a real challenge.

Isn't he a bounder, who is indifferent to Christ, and isn't she an ingrate who accepts without acknowledgment, her freedom!

Spiritual dumbness has a curse-bearing power. What is your conception of Christ and his work? Is you not need a fresh interpretation of the immanency and mind of Christ? Your need can be supplied in the presence of the Lord.

CRUELTY TO HORSES

(From the Hay Lakes Times)

There is a matter which must needs come to our attention every winter at about this period of the year. We are not making any attempt to rub it in, but if the shoe happens to fit any of our readers, it is our desire that it be worn.

It is that of leaving horses tied outside in the cold weather for unreasonable lengths of time. There are those who do this unwittingly, and, WORSE THAN ALL, those who do it deliberately, in order to transact some pleasure or other in town. While the intentions of some are perhaps, slightly better in some cases, the results, from the horses' viewpoint are the same.

In weather like that of the early part of this week, a sensible horse should not be left outside unblanketed for five minutes, and no horse that is not used to outside for more than a couple of hours, even with heavy blankets. The man who breaks these rules is despicably perpetrating cruelty upon dumb animals. We do not intend to soften that statement by saying that there are extenuating circumstances, as for example, at some meeting of community interest, when so many teams are congregated that there is no stable room. We realize that upon such occasions there is some excuse, but these occasions are few and far between.

The principal offenders are those who come to town with loads, confidently hoary that the horses won't up a snort on the road, and then, leave the team tied outside, sometimes even unblanketed, for hours at a time for no excusable reason. These are the ones against whom this editorial is directed, and we do not wish to understand otherwise.

There is an organization which looks after the prevention of cruelty to animals, which, we feel sure, would deal with the offenders in the up-to-date manner. There is, however, one drawback to the work which it does. In order to function, it must know about the offence, and very few people want to be "tattlers". Therefore, it is seldom indeed that a case is turned over to the organization.

We wonder if those who perpetrate this cruelty to animals, realize the greatness of their crime. We should like them to consider how it would feel to be stripped of their clothing, tied to a post, perhaps with a light blanket sufficiently large to cover their shoulders thrown over them, and allowed to stand there for four, five, six or more hours on a day like Tuesday of this week, when the mercury rare so low, we can't find it. If they were to go through such an experience, we wonder if they would think about the horses that had been on account of their carelessness.

We are not suggesting just what steps should be taken to put a stop to this cruel practice of allowing horses to stand out in severe weather for many hours, but we are here to INSIST that something must be done to STOP it. If there is no other way, it is time that the residents of the hamlet organize to prevent this cruelty from going on.

CRUELTY AND LOVE MINGLE IS MOVIE

"Put him to torture!"

Such a command conjures up in the minds of the present generation a picture of the early ages that is at once romantic and awe inspiring, a reminder that justice was not always administered as it is in the present, highly civilized era. The practice of torture which fit black pages in the history of the world, provides many thrilling moments in "The Beloved Rogue," John Barrymore's initial United Artists Picture, which will be shown at the Variety on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Barrymore appears in this picture as the lovable, impulsive Francois Villon, brilliant versifier and equally talented housebreaker of the fifteenth century Paris. Deeply in love with Charlotte de Vauxcelles, ward of Louis XI, he incurs the wrath of Charles, Duke of Burgundy, who through the marriage of Charlotte to one of his aides, seeks to obtain a stranglehold on the crown.

The plot and story progresses through two hours of screen version which will immensely please all those who attend. "The Beloved Rogue is raised as an outstanding production and is brought to Tofield at considerable extra expense.

ADVICE FROM A RED CROSS NURSE

Winter Colds and How to Cure Them

A cold is not a recognized cause of death, yet it is in danger of soaring to the highest place among causes of death, carried thither by the recognized dangerous diseases. Colds are usually very contagious; the infection being spread by drops of mucus sprayed into the air through coughing, sneezing or speaking. Contact with persons who have had colds must be avoided and when the child can cough and sneeze and have running noses then mother must keep them at home until cured. Inflamed tonsils, adenoids and nasal growths are all predisposing factors as colds as they act as centres of infection it is desirable to have them attended to at once.

Do not over heat your home. Keep it around 65 degree Fahrenheit That is a good temperature. Here in the west we often err in overheating our houses, and add to that sin the evil of a bad system of ventilation. It is no wonder in such an atmosphere that colds spread through a family from the family to the school or all over the town.

The treatment for a cold is simple enough. "Go to bed at once and stay there till better", is the advice of a well known doctor. Drink lots of water and such drinks as hot lemonade, black currant juice are all excellent Drugs should only be taken under the doctors advice. Hot foot baths, take-off 1869's are effective followed at once by bed. Do not try to "check a cough" rather try to expectorate as this relieves the congestion Rub the chest with warm camphorated oil. Avoid all quack remedies and so called catarrh cures.

If there is high fever, call your doctor at once, you will lessen the danger of complications, the symptoms of which cannot be always recognized by the patients friends.

To "coddle a cold" may cost you the loss of a few days work or a moment; to neglect it may cost someone his life, for the chain of infection is never ending.

Valuable health literature on the subject of colds is obtainable free of charge from the Red Cross head office, 409, Civic Building, Edmonton, Alta.

The Editor:
Tofield Mercury.
Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith is a copy of the winning essay, which you have kindly consented to publish in your valued issue.

I am sure we must all appreciate Mrs. Baptist's very masterly hand line of this subject, which I trust will be read by all your subscribers as it contains much food for thought and should be well digested by all. I have much pleasure in advising Mrs. Baptist through your column that she is the winner of the theatre radio set which I offered as first prize

Yours truly,

Winter Milking

Old Bessie is one farm asset that does not lay down on the job when the winter's snow lay on the ground. Fed and cared for properly—June or December—it's the same to her. With a brief yearly rest period, she goes right on filling the daily pail and increasing the family fortune. As soon as you can—the sooner the better—fix up so that the cows will be warm, dry and comfortable during the winter months. A little trouble taken now will pay big dividends later. Get the habit of winter milking—it pays!

A Complete Electric Service

KOHLER of KOHLER, specialists in private electric plants, now have for immediate delivery electric plants ranging in power from 800 to 10,000 watts. These new large plants are the outcome of the wonderful success and reception of their 500, 1500 and 2000 watt plants, which are now known all over the world, on land and sea, as being a first class and high grade electric plant in every particular. For some time we have been endeavouring to interest Alberta farmers in the plant and feel sure that the purchaser will be pleased with the plant and after using it, if he could not procure another, would not part with it for much more than he paid for it.

Model D, 1500 watt capacity, which we recommend for most installations, costs $825.00 f.o.b. Alberta point.

A Kohler Electric Plant gives you "city" service at an economical running cost. Write for booklet or call and let us explain this plant to you.

HOW AND WHY THE POOLING SYSTEM HAS AND MUST CONTINUE TO IMPROVE THE FARMERS' FINANCIAL POSITION

First among the logical reasons for the permanent success of the Pooling System must stand the fact that it was born of Desperation.

In the aftermath of the great war, the farming industry, alone, was unsupported by protective organizations. They, alone, could not support the selling price of their products to the cost of production.

This, because they had no voice in setting that selling price.

They were brutally responding to the nation's slogan, produce, produce and marketing the equally important part of their business, the efficient marketing of that product.

Hence, in the year 1920, on investigations by the Federal Government, it was found that the farmer was receiving 63 cents for a bushel of wheat which had actually cost him $1.39 to produce—all other products in like proportions.

The man who filled the nation's bread basket was starving to death.

Then the brains of the farming industry set to work to crystalize the dream of years and evolved the system of Co-operative selling. It was a system of the farmer simply minding his own business. By co-operating the producers were protecting themselves against certain organized groups which hitherto depended on them for their profits.

The Pools are no longer a dream. They are an accomplished and substantial fact. Already the wheat pool comprises 60 per cent of all wheat producers. In view of this state of things, rumours of grain trade mergers, etc., lose their sting. The pool system spells security for the farmer because it is a farmer owned and controlled co-operative association. Every farmer has a voice in the selling of his crop, and other produce.

The Board of directors who control the business of marketing are elected from the delegates sent by each district.

This Board employs only experts to handle and sell grain, and the sole aim of these salesmen is to get the true value of produce for members.

The Pool guarantees to return every cent paid by the consumers minus only the minimum costs of marketing.

Because of large volume, its unexhaustive of current crop, the three pools have handled 230,000,000 bushels of wheat in the costs of operation are low. The annual expense of operating the pool was less than one-half cent per bushel. Expense of Central Selling Agency one fifth of a cent per bushel.

Farmers are insured against losses and uncertainty caused by speculators gambling with the products of his toil.

The salesmen are familiar with world market conditions. Wheat is stored and sold only as the demand arises, thus avoiding flooding of the market and consequent slump, as under the old system.

By the deduction of two cents per bushel, a fund for the purchase of elevators, was created, with the result that farmers in Alberta alone, now own 187 elevators.

Also they receive yearly interest on the amount invested in the Elevator Reserve Fund.

The Alberta Wheat Pool has leased large terminal elevators, one at Prince Rupert (capacity 1,250,000 bushels) and the other at Vancouver (capacity 1,000,000 bushels) to facilitate the shipping by Western routes.

It also co-operates with Manitoba and Saskatchewan in operating the lake terminals.

By the system of "deferred payments" adopted by the pools, the saving only the disloyalty of the members ran overthrow its usefulness as a financial assistant to the farmers.

The eyes of the world have been on Canada's experiment, (skeptical and curious, perhaps at first, but from leading men of all countries now come testimonies of confidence and admiration unstinted.

Premier Bakheia advises the distressed agriculturalist of the old land to study the co-operative movement of the prairies.

Sir John Aird, president of the Bank of Commerce, says, "The change in the method of handling the Western wheat crop makes for more orderly marketing on the farmers' part, and is in this respect, beneficial."

Premier Gardiner, of Saskatchewan says: "This method differs from the old in this essential feature, that wherever the profits of the grain trade went into the pockets of private individuals, formerly, the wheat pool makes use of the facilities in fits members.

In short, nothing has been left undone to establish this pooling system on a sane, sound, business footing, and nothing in the world, save only the disloyalty of the members ran overthrow its usefulness as a financial assistant to the farmers.

The NEW CAR

INTRODUCING A FINE CAR IN THE LIGHT CAR FIELD

THIS entirely new car surpasses the accepted standards of light car accomplishment; sweeps aside all boundaries of price class; establishes a new standard of acceleration, speed, power and smoothness. Moreover the following characteristics have been combined only in expensive cars.

Speed—better than a mile a minute.

Acceleration—3 to 35 miles per hour in high gear in 8½ seconds.

Endurance—this car will travel all day at 50 miles per hour without strain on motor or chassis.

Riding comfort—Semi-elliptic springs and four hydraul'c shock absorbers permit comfortable travel at high speed over the roughest road.

Roadability—this car's low center of gravity holds it snugly to the road on an unbanked turn even at high speed.

Power—in deep, loose sand with the front wheels cramped and from a dead stop, the car will turn in a tight circle, forward or reverse, without effort.

Effective braking—the largest expanse of mechanical, four-wheel brakes with dual control ensures positive braking for any emergency.

Positive steering control—A relayed hand on the steering wheel will hold the car steady in loose sand and over bumpy roads. Turning radius 17 ft.

Economy—30 miles per gallon of gasoline, plus the well known economics of Ford car maintenance.

Appearance—coach work of pleasing proportions, tastefully finished in an extensive range of color combinations of durable satin lacquer.

Quietness—Vibration in the engine is practically negligible. New final drive is exceptionally quiet. Double-dry and-squash tape, asphaltum crossed fabric and hardwood blocks between body and frame minimize body noises.

MAN WHO HOMESTEADED MACDONALD HOTEL SITE IS CALLED BY DEATH

David McDougall, 82, Died in Calgary Tuesday Afternoon

One time owner of homestead land that is now in the city of Edmonton and included the present Macdonald hotel site, another Alberta pioneer, hunter and trader, David McDougall passed away in Calgary on Tuesday afternoon, aged 82 years.

The late Mr. McDougall was well known to the old-timers in the Edmonton district, having spent his early days in this part of the country. He came to western Canada in 1862 with his father who became the wife of the late Peter Hardisty, to join his father, Rev. George McDougall, who had established a mission at what was called Victoria but which is now Pigeon Lake, a few miles east of Edmonton.

Mr. McDougall was probably one of the first "free-traders" in what is now known as Alberta and spent nearly 25 years in trading furs with the Indians. In the winter he ranged over his property, an area of 200 miles radius from Victoria and in the spring the furs were freighted on Red River carts to Fort Garry. At one time he had as many as 65 carts in his train.

With the coming of the mounted police in 1874, David McDougall did a great deal of freighting for them. It was at this time that he purchased 160 acres of his father's homestead at Edmonton. In 1871 he was married to Annie McKenzie of Okeefeyle, and their five children were among the first white children born on the western prairies.

During the last 16 years, Mr. McDougall had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ross, in Calgary. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Patterson Young, and Mrs. Leslie Wood of Edmonton, and Mrs. Hardisty who is living in Bermuda, four daughters and one son.

MAN HAS DREAM IN STATION—JUMPS THROUGH WINDOW

"Soft lies the head that wears no crown" may be true enough, but it depends just how soft. Anyway a stranger, who drifted into the local station waiting room on Tuesday night, wore no crown. Dozing or sleeping, but certainly dreaming, he was rudely awakened by the noise and clatter of the train pulling into the station. He gave one jump and went clean through the window out on to the outer sidewalk.

The sudden change in temperature thoroughly woke him up and he hot-footed back and told the station officials that he was dreaming that he was in a burning building and to save himself he had to jump.

His hands were cut considerably and Mr. McCarthy and Mr Hammond rendered first aid.

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. Pawett spent the week end in Edmonton, and attended the opera "Patience" on Friday night, in which Mrs. Cuthburn, who sang here some time ago, was in the title role, and gave an exquisite performance. Mrs. Pawett also saw the new opera film "Bohemian Girl" on Monday night which carried wonderful singers, and the symphony on Sunday night, with the English prima dona, who was really superb—quite a musical treat.

Mrs. Borden went to Edmonton on Monday of this week, where she will undergo treatment for her health.

Mrs. T. Herndon, Mrs. W. Herndon and Miss Grace Wood, visited the city last week.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a beloved mother, Mrs. Amanda Bickner, who passed away on December 9th, 1926. We watched her suffer day by day
It gave us bitter grief.
To see you slowly pass away
And could give no relief.
'Twas hard to lose you, mother, dear,
But God, who knoweth best
Held wide his loving arms and said,
"Come unto me and rest".
Ever remembered by her loving daughters.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Burton wishes to express their sincere and grateful thanks to the neighbors and friends of Tofield, for their generous assistance upon the occasion of their home being lost by fire.

W.I. NOTES

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

(By our Lindbrook Correspondent)

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Burton was burnt to the ground last Thursday, December 8th. The fire started whilst Mr. and Mrs. Burton were outside attending to the stock. The first notice of it was when some school children called to see the Burton's telephone and Mrs. Burton going in with them saw that practically all the upstairs was alight. Very little was saved, everything upstairs went and only the radio, heater and cream separator (which was pulled up underneath by Mr. Burton) was saved, also a few odds and ends, mainly due to the plucky little school boys who did what they could, their names were the Herbert boys and Louie Lepine. It is exceptionally sad for the house was only built last year and was a good a house as any in the district. All the clothes and considerable money went also. Mr. and Mrs. Pashine kindly put their home at the Burton's disposal, and now a bee of the neighbors are building them a new cottage and a stone foundation. Work starts Tuesday December 13, so if you feel like being a ray of sunshine on your own folks, well you know what to do, don't you.

It is the spirit of the West, not fire, nor hail, nor frost shall daunt etc.

Mrs. Marra, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Snell, left for her home at Duhamel, on Saturday last.

TOWN COUNCIL

The Tofield town council held the last meeting of the year at the town hall on Monday night of this week.

There was no new business and very little unfinished business to attend to and practically the entire evening was given over to the passing of a number of accounts.

THE LAND BEYOND THE LAW

Cattle barons of New Mexico had all things their own way. So long as the land was unoccupied by dwellers or other ranchers, their livestock could graze freely over the unfenced ranges. To the more dishonest of them, it also meant clear opportunities for rustling cattle.

Henry, when Jerry Steele was appointed special deputy by the governor of the estate to bring law and order in the territory which had ruined it, one of the trouble in furnishing the men in the service, which he assigned a man's stand job. He had to draw with two particular factions—an avowed band of rustlers headed by "Hanzup" Harry and the other, seemingly a respectable bunch of rich men in the employ of Bob Dunn. This seeming respectability, however, was merely a cloak for the cattle stealing, squatter-killing and other criminal doings of Dunn through his men as ranchers.

Steele probably would have had no Cree decided to take advantage of "Ginger" O'Hara, a young girl entrusted to his care. It was the fact that Jerry met "Ginger" and after one look into her eyes, decided that they were meant for each other, that he went after Cree and the others in double quick time.

CHRISTMAS TREES

(Dominion Forestry Note)

THERE IS no real reason why every family should not have a Christmas tree. Last year in North America six million trees were used or about one tree to ten people.

The question arises. Where do our Christmas trees come from? How long does it take them to grow? Are we devastating our forests by brightening up the home and making millions of youngsters happy at Christmas time?

Such eminent authorities as Dr. C. D. Howe, Dean of Faculty of Forestry, University of Toronto, and others say "No". Dean Howe says "an area of 20,000 acres—just thirty square miles—if set aside and managed for Christmas tree production, would supply the present demand for each year for all time." The average size of trees sold in New York last year was six feet. From Frank Hayman, Forester in charge of the nursery station at St. Williams we learn that Christmas trees (white spruce) of this size can be grown inside of ten years. We find further according to Frank Sharpe, Ontario Forestry Branch, and Mr. Kishbaugh of the Abitibi Power and Paper Company, that spruce of average Christmas tree size in the forest are about fifteen years old, or twenty years for trees of eight to ten feet in height.

From this it would appear that the Christmas tree industry is not going to impoverish the country, but is a legitimate trade. However, in taking out Christmas trees, certain rules of conduct should be observed. For example to cut the top of a perfectly good tree and leave the body to rot in the bush is a criminal waste and unworthy of a self respecting citizen. But to go into the bush and make selection, cutting where the trees are too dense will do no harm. Further, by using balsam or cedar as Christmas trees you would be utilizing the "weed trees" which have little or no value and is such a prolific reproducer that ones taken would soon be replaced.

It has come to our attention that vandalism in taking Christmas trees from other people's property, even to poaching on private plantations, is prevalent. This is a question of public morals which should not be tolerated by any community.

A little thought and care in the selection of Christmas trees will offset any possible harm, and may introduce much happiness at the Yuletide gatherings.

NOW THAT we are on the subject of Christmas trees. It is not untimely to mention once again the danger of lighted candles on Christmas trees decorated for community gathering purposes. We do not like rehashing old thoughts and ideas, but this one, we consider so important, that harsily a Christmas passes but what we make some reference to it. We consider that lighted candles on Christmas trees, decorated with flimsy, though pretty decorations, is almost inviting trouble, and when trouble does occur from this source, it is of such a nature to make one shudder. History is replete with disasters of this kind, and the prevention is such a simple matter. Even if they do look nice, keep lighted candles off of community Christmas trees.

Lighted candles on trees in the home are not quite so dangerous, though even there it is not by any means wise to put them on.

CHECK UP ON YOUR FIRE RISKS

IN THIS small office we have this week to record three fires of major proportions. One in the Tofield district and two elsewhere. The daily papers each day announce one or more homes burned in different parts of the country. It is a very wise plan for householders to check up on their fire risks. Sound your stovepipes, inspect pipes where they pass through partitions, inspect the chimney entrance, in fact during the winter months occasionally go over the entire heating and cooking system and see that all are in good order. Safety from fire is only obtained at the price of eternal vigilance.

CHRISTMAS MAILING AND CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

WHEN IT is realized that crowded into the space of about one week enough shopping and mailing is done that in normal times would be spread over several weeks, it is easy to understand the cry of the shoppers and mailmen for early shopping and early mailing.

Admitting that it is nice to put off buying until the last minute and to have the Christmas gifts to your friends arrive on the morning of the 25th, this can only be done at the expense of undue hardship to the store clerks and mailmen. On rural routes and in cities especially, where mail is delivered for days prior to Christmas, mailmen have no easy task. If possible get your parcels away early, even though they are not to be opened until Christmas.

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

By N. D. McInnes,

'Tis only a few short weeks till Christmas. To that season all Christian nations and homes look forward with joy; for not only does it suggest a most happy fellowship of goodwill and cheer among men, but does it not also convey memories of that which entered the world at the birth of Jesus—a message of life and of joy fulfilled?

Many a year, many a Christmas since that time, has come and gone, been forgotten or the memories of them dearly cherished. Whether the memories have faded or whether they have glowed more radiantly each time they have come to us is largely a result dependent upon the joy within ourselves. Do we not look back upon occasions when the joy of Jesus failed to respond within us, with memories most unhappy? But whenever, as followers of the Master, we were enabled to spread happiness about us, our recollections are tinged, yes, permeated even, with exultant pleasure. Well do I remember hearing an address one Christmas season to which the speaker was certain that for him no greater joy could be obtained than when directed by some Joy-filled soldier of the Salvation Army, and laden with parcels of good things, he might go forth bringing cheer and love to homes less fortunate.

Jesus born in a rude shelter and to all whether they be lonely or be friended by many, the message of "Peace on Earth, Goodwill Towards Men"—a message of cheer, of assurance and of light—suggests great joy even to the far off cabins of the North West

Pray let us one be as the Innkeeper who made no room for Jesus to be born and lamented when he realized his mistake.

"Alas! Alas! To miss a chance like that!

This inn that might be chief among them all,

The birthplace of Messiah—had I known!"

May we all know the tragedy of preserving no room for Jesus, for Love and for Joy in our hearts; and then we shall not be lamenting but rejoicing indeed!

BARRHEAD HAS SERIOUS FIRES

The cold weather which has necessitated heavy firing has likely been responsible for several heavy losses recently in the Barrhead district.

Mr. Crysdale, Chief Engineer of the Pembina Valley Railway, who was here the day after the depot fire, reminded us the past week's issue, wishes to extend his thanks and that of the management for the prompt action and united efforts of the town people in quenching the fire and thus saving the station.

On Saturday night, the 3rd instant, the barn of Nick Grey, who lives six miles west of town, was burned to the ground. It carried small insurance and was a total loss.

On Wednesday, the 7th instant, the home of Mr. T. Hodge was destroyed by fire, practically a total loss as very little was saved. No insurance, as far as can be learned, has carried in this case.

BARRHEAD AND WESTLOCK MEN ENGAGE IN LAW SUIT

On Thursday the 8th instant, before Judge Tweedie in the Supreme Court at Edmonton were determined the matters in issue between John S. Finch, of Barrhead, and Steele and Corlett, of Westlock, arising out of the sale of the former's farm at Lawton to Messrs Brothers.

Mr. Finch claimed that the defendants were not employed by him to sell his farm and that he had made a sale of the same himself. The defendants claimed that they were entitled to a commission on the sale and to be a lien on a chattel mortgage on their persons given by Bateman Bros. to Mr. Finch to secure the balance of the purchase price. The Judge decided on the evidence that the defendants had no lien on the chattel mortgage, but also held that they were entitled to $250.00, which they were allowed with District Court costs.

Edward Brew was counsel for the plaintiff and F. C. Jamieson, K.C. for the defendant

The Financial Times, of London, has issued a Canadian Re-construction number which is a rather important piece, of 144 wide and nearly two feet high. The front and back cover pages are devoted to advertisements of the two great Canadian railroads, while other large corporations of the Dominion have taken inside full pages. The issue is well illustrated and should be beneficial in placing before the residents of the Old Country the industrial possibilities of our country.

"A Bird In The Hand Is Worth Two In The Bush"

Quite an old proverb but true enough. The Mercury's "bush" is the Tofield district and our "birds" are re-newal subscriptions that at this time of the year are caught with a little coaxing. The time honored method of putting salt on tails have been dispensed with, rather, we try to use pleasant words—sweet sounding.

One dollar and fifty cents is not so very much by itself—but twice that amount is three dollars and multiply this a few hundred times and you have a tidy sum that in a large measure represents the editor's harvest.

The next time you are in town, drop in and say hello, and if you wish to pay your subscription, nothing would please us better.

In The Year of the Excellent Crop

Many farmers are now receiving returns from their 1927 crop, conceded to be one of the best in the history of the West. Naturally many improvements will be made and quite a number of farmers throughout Alberta will install electric light and power plants. A really good electric light and power plant will give you years and years of comfort as regards lighting as well as laying the foundation for many other modern home and farm conveniences.

Perhaps in no other line is it as true that "the best is the cheapest" as it is in respect to electric light plants. The KOHLER automatic electric light and power plant gives you the nearest approach to "city" service of any plant made, and after considerable reading on the subject, we recommend this plant to you as being something worthy of your consideration and purchase.

Far carrying 110 volt current; no storage batteries; four cylinder radiator cooled engine; patented automatic switch; economical running cost (a matter of much importance); and many other features makes the KOHLER an outstanding private electric light and power plant. The man considering the purchase of a plant cannot do better for himself than investigate the record of the KOHLER.

The 800 watt size (two cylinder air cooled engine) at $715.00 at Alberta points.

The prices of 2000, 5000, and 10,000 watt size plants can be obtained from us. These large plants are suitable for hospitals, mines, village lighting, in fact, anywhere where a fairly large amount of current is required.

Years after the installation, purchasers will point with pride at their sturdy little KOHLER and say to their enquiring neighbors, "Yes, I got that in the year of the good crop."

Old Fashioned Christmas

Merry Christmas to All, Merry As Ever Ring Its Spirit In As True and Earnest

Good old fashioned Christmas that's to be lonely mourned for in days to modern days, is a myth. The new fashioned Christmas is far better, declares the Woman's Home Companion in its November number. Many of the old and traditional customs have been outdated by new ones.

"Shrigley is dead," said Mrs. Gummidge, when the first Christmas after the death of her husband came round. "I'm a lone widder woman, and I'm a-going to keep myself quiet."

WORLD'S RECORD

Radio Developed Twenty Years Ago

First Broadcast Was Made On Christmas Eve 1920

Radio almost reached its present degree of perfection in less than twenty years, according to the Canadian Geographical Journal.

"Christmas Eve, 1920, will be remembered as the night when the human voice was first broadcast by radio," said Dr. A. S. Eve, F.R.S., Macdonald Professor of Physics at McGill University, Montreal, in describing the first broadcasting of speech and music.

"Then a few months later, in March, 1921, the Marconi Company established a station at Chelmsford, England, and began broadcasting regularly. Soon after, broadcasting was started in the United States, and in a few years it had become a world-wide service.

"The first broadcasting was done entirely by means of the spark system of wireless telegraphy, but in 1915 the Marconi Company began to develop the system of wireless telephony which is now used for broadcasting. The first broadcasting was done from Marconi House, Strand, London, and was picked up by the Marconi station at Chelmsford, 30 miles away. Soon after, the Marconi Company established a station at Writtle, Essex, which broadcasted regularly every week.

"The first broadcasting station in the United States was established at Pittsburgh, Pa., by the Westinghouse Company, and the first broadcasting station in Canada was established at Montreal by the Canadian Marconi Company.

Manitoba To Have Powerful Radio Plant

Will Be the Largest and Most Up-to-Date Plant in Canada

Manitoba is to have the most powerful and up-to-date radio station in Canada, according to an announcement made to the legislature by Premier Bracken. The new equipment will be installed on the grounds of the Agricultural College, and it is expected it will be in operation within six months. The present station will be remodelled and placed at Brandon as an auxiliary to the new equipment.

Following is the specification under which:

The aerial to be supported by steel towers four hundred and fifty feet high, to be insulated at their bases and at the guy wire attachments at their mid-point and at their tops. The towers to be spaced at a distance of 1,000 feet apart.

The aerial to be of the inverted "L" type, consisting of four wires, each No. 12 B. & S. gauge, spaced 18 inches apart, and to be supported at the top by a cable of seven strands of No. 12 B. & S. gauge steel wire.

The counterpoise to be of the same type as the aerial, and to be supported at the top by a cable of seven strands of No. 12 B. & S. gauge steel wire.

The lead-in to be of the same type as the aerial, and to be supported at the top by a cable of seven strands of No. 12 B. & S. gauge steel wire.

The lead-in to be insulated from the aerial by means of a pyrex glass insulator.

TO-DAY'S HEADLINERS

In the recent presidential race in Mexico, there were four candidates for the leadership of the country. Now there is only one. Naturally he will be the leader of Mexico. The others have gone by way of the flying sound on account of their political ambitions. Well! after all is said and done, it is considerably like all of the supposed to-be-civilized countries too. The opposition candidates are plastered by the opposing parties in politics in no very questionable way. Even our great lesser lights like MacDonald and Laurier—died rest their ashes are looked upon by certain peoples of our fair domain as tyrannical monsters, worthy of the gallows. While the Mexican method of elimination may be more unpleasant—

Mr. Rupert Hughes, the celebrated American author, has a habit of putting down in black and white his every art sentiments in the various matters of which he writes. This habit has brought him in for considerable criticism by the American public lately. Evidently he has clashed with the American idea of their great men over there in his history of the U.S.A. In addition to setting down the great things that the father of the country did, it points out that George Washington was no more saint than any average American, by revealing the other side of the great man's career. Of course, no one wants to have a hero taken from the reading public's minds, but a good toe hold to boot him both ways and hard some. That is human nature. The Americans cannot be blamed for their viewpoint. Nevertheless, we're with you Rupe from the hoists to the sad die hosts. Tell us the truth.

A strange political situation seems to have arisen in England. The male population there is outnumbered to the tune of a very considerable degree by the female. When the franchise was extended to women in '28, or whenever it was, only women over the age of highly (thirty) years were allowed to vote. That condition of affairs still exists, but there is a great deal of agitation at the present time that all British considered undesirable and unfit subjects over the age of twenty-one them irresepective of any duty.

ABUNDANCE OF POULTRY SOLD DURING PAST WEEK

During the past week a very creditable amount of poultry, including turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens, passed through the hands of the various buyers who were bidding for this produce in the last few days.

The bulk of the sale has been that of turkeys of which approximately twenty-thousand pounds have been bought.

The prices ranged from 30c for the best, on Thursday of last week, to 20c on Tuesday, on account of the lowering prices elsewhere, they have steadily declined here.

But until no great an amount of poultry is collected in one place does one realize the importance of the poultry-raising industry in this district.

CHRISTMAS

ONCE AGAIN we have the privilege and pleasure of wishing each and everyone "A Merry Christmas" and if possible, to say something so that those who read may not fail to understand the "Spirit of Christmas."

That, in this enlightened age, when newspapers, magazines, radios, and other mediums of communication, are loudly proclaiming the Spirit of Christmas, makes a further contribution to its charm and glory difficult, is not sufficient excuse for saying nothing. For its origin and celebration has made this one day and this one season, greater than us all.

Life for the human race, under the best of circumstances is a complex arrangement of passions and desires. Love, hate, envy, greed, charity, slothfulness and energy all, for 364 days periodically assume control of human hearts and are as rapidly dethroned. But for one day in the year we place "Peace and Goodwill" upon its throne and keep it there. We are commanded to "Love Thy Neighbour as Thyself" at all times, but at Christmas time do we not frequently love our neighbours better than ourselves, else why do we give up time, energy and money for gifts, for others, that we would not think of giving up for ourselves.

As befitting the celebration of the birth of a baby, the day has come down to us as essentially a children's day. Santa Claus is REAL, if not of flesh and blood—yes he is of flesh and blood. Enshrined in the hearts of millions of children he is the spirit of benevolent maturity towards childhood. Could there be a power so powerful as to put a ban upon Santa Claus, immediately millions of men and women in the full glory of their strength of mind and body would arise and bring that power to dust. Santa Claus is real, even as you and I are real, for you and I are Santa Claus. Where there are children's hearts to fill with joy upon this day, let us fill them.

For a thousand years and more our ancestors have kindled the flame of love into a glowing heat at Christmas; for a thousand years and more, "Peace and Goodwill" have held full sway at Christmas; for a thousand years and more, the angels' songs and the shepherds gift offerings have been copied by all Christendom. Is it any wonder that to-day, the Christmas spirit is stronger, truer, and has a tighter grip upon the hearts of men than ever before?

A QUEER DREAM

(By Dorothy Klumph, Freeborn)

The evening was fast advancing, and as Jack Moore, a newspaper reporter, glanced at the large round clock, which occupied its position on the mantle piece he yawned as he said, "Well if I think I'm going to stay up all night for him, he is mighty mistaken. I'll wait just thirty minutes more." So saying he sat down in his favorite chair to smoke his pipe.

His brother, however, a month before, had started his vacation trip to Canada, and he, Jack Moore was keeping their small apartment in London, until his brother's return.

The day that his brother had left had been a fine one. The usual fog had completely lifted, and a gentle breeze was blowing from the ocean. His brother took his departure on board the steamer for Halifax harbour in good spirits. He was quite entitled to have a two month vacation, which he planned to spend with Marmaduke Carrington, and old college friend who resided at Calgary, Canada.

He landed at Halifax in due time and boarded the train for Winnipeg. He had taken this route for the most part to avoid as much delay as possible for he had written his friend that he could be expected about the thirteenth of December; and it was already the eighteenth.

He arrived at Winnipeg only stopping long enough to say "Hello", and "Good-bye" to some old friends there. He arrived at Calgary the twenty-second which was sooner than he expected and consequently there was no one at the train to meet him.

The day he arrived was certainly a fine example of "Sunny Alberta." The sky was cloudless and far off in the distance could be seen the outline of the snow tipped Rockies.

After tipping the porter he took his suit cases and walked rapidly up the street and hailed a taxi. When he had ridden three or four blocks, he stopped at a hotel. As he started to enter the hotel, a stranger stepping up, extended his hand and touched Fred Moore lightly on the shoulder. He turned around in deliberate surprise.

The stranger was tall, with broad drooping shoulders. He had large full lips, a broad nose and steel grey eyes. He was in every respect well dressed. His tailored suit was of the finest material. While Fred noticed that his boots, gloves, hat and overcoat were far from inexpensive.

They conversed for some moments in low tones while at different times Moore would exclaim quite loudly.

"That's fine, that's a go, I'll take your word for it, five o'clock to-morrow morning." After some minutes the stranger, with a nod and a wave of the hand, vanished among the busy-busy of the busy street, while Moore entered the hotel.

There at'dack the following afternoon found Fred Moore and the stranger man who had accosted him the day before with jack-horses. Each led a pack horse behind the horse he rode. By this scene it was quite evident that Fred Moore had prolonged, or perhaps even postponed his visit to his friend. However, the stranger and Moore appeared to be in the best of spirits, for at intervals they would throw back their heads and laugh heartily.

The scene lay on the ground in deep white sheets, covering the many trees and thick bushes.

The horses looked very tired as they trudged along, sometimes plunging into the deep snow up to the bellies. Their nostrils and branchy breasts were greyed with frost, while their labored breathing came in great smoky clouds as they plunged and floundered, carrying their heavy burdens.

The two pack horses each carried a large roll of blankets, a pair of snow shoes and numerous other articles which are needed to help make a camp.

The two men were dressed warmly in fur coats and caps, which they pulled closely about their faces, the their feet they wore large shoe-packs, and thick wooden socks, which reached about to the knee far from the city attire of silk stockings, patent leather Oxfords and spats.

The reader will be led to believe, that by the manner in which they travelled and the condition of the country, that it was perhaps none other than the Rocky Mountains of Alberta; that they were on a trapping expedition or perhaps hunting large game.

About night fall they made their appearance at a deserted log hut. After taking care of the horses, the two men entered the hut.

It was in a very tumbled-down condition. The low roof sagged, the building was minus a floor, and the dilapidated wall barely hung, some of the rotted weather beaten logs leaned dispiritedly on their more fortunate neighbors. The whole interior was of the roughest furnishings. An old rusty stove stood in the centre, and two benches stood in a far corner of the shack.

Quickly unpacking the camp utensils, a portion of pork, beans, bread canned fish and cheese were laid out. A fire was built in the old stove, and soon the food was warming over a crackling fire. During this operation no conversation was carried on. Through the latter part of the day the men had spoken but little. There was an excuse for this, for it had been a long, tiresome ride.

Moore and the stranger, sat upon the benches close to the fire; and the only light, which distinguished the two men from the surrounding darkness, was the light of the fire in the stove, which flickered in uncertainty. They had taken off their heavy garments, and sat enjoying the heat while the food was cooking.

After a few moments, supper was declared ready and they sat down to eat their scanty meal.

"Quite sure of that", rejoined the other, in his deep bass voice, which contained a note of sarcasm.

The meal was finished after a few minutes and the victuals cleared away. Again the two men returned to their benches and filled their pipes to enjoy a good smoke. The conversation was meagre, each seeming to be engaged in his own thoughts. The stranger's eyes wandered, for a moment resting on the features of Moore. His steel grey eyes seemed to pierce his countenance as if to search for something which they could not find. His thick lips would occasionally curl into a smile—was it a sneer? It could hardly be determined. In the rambling deposant eyes were neither hatred, nor friendship as they occasionally rested on the face of the man, who sat silently smoking opposite him.

It could clearly be seen that Moore was neither restless, disturbed nor perplexed as his kindly blue eyes would rest for a moment in the depth of the steel grey ones of his companion. Thus, they sat for some time almost motionless smoking; smoking the pipe of peace...or . . . was it the pipe of trouble?

After some minutes, Moore arose, saying as he stretched his arms and yawned, "Well, I'm pretty well fagged out, guess I'll turn in."

He laid back his blankets, and after pulling off his boots he crawled between the warm sacks, dressed as he was, and after a short while the stranger did likewise. Almost immediately Moore was asleep, but the stranger, contrary to this was far from it. In the firelight shadows his countenance changed to a leery sneer. His thick full lips, parted, showing brown stained teeth. His large hands wandered beneath his blankets near his head and brought forth an object which glittered in the pale light. Then—as quietly as a panther, about to covet his booty, he crept over to the sleeping man and pulled the trigger.

Hi! Hi! said a well recognized voice near him, and the newspaper reporter slowly regained consciousness to find—what but his brother standing beside him and also to find that it was not night—but morning. He had slept all night in his chair, a thing he had never done in his life before.

After numerous hurried questions which Fred asked him and Jack answered as best he could, Moore explained that his friend Marmaduke Carrington, had telegraphed him from Halifax, that he had to attend to some very urgent business, and that he was very sorry but he could not receive him.

Fred, while at Halifax, however, had spent almost two weeks with their sister Doris, or consequently, he would have been back immediately.

The two brothers were in good spirits, and as they ate their breakfast, they planned their Christmas holidays together.

"To-morrow is Christmas", exclaimed Jack, "and to-night is Christmas Eve."

After breakfast as they sat enjoying their smoke, Jack told his brother of his queer dream, at which Fred laughed heartily as he said,

"Guess you must have eaten too much of your favorite corned beef and cabbage," to which Jack replied gravely.

"Well, I am glad it was only a dream, dear brother."

"A Bird In The Hand Is Worth Two In The Bush"

Quite an old proverb but true enough. The Mercury's "bush" is the Tofield district and our "birds" are re-newal subscriptions that at this time of the year are caught with a little coaxing. The time honored method of putting salt on tails have been dispensed with, rather, we try to use pleasant words—sweet sounding.

One dollar and fifty cents is not so very much by itself—but twice that amount is three dollars and multiply this a few hundred times and you have a tidy sum that in a large measure represents the editor's harvest.

The next time you are in town, drop in and say hello, and if you wish to pay your subscription, nothing would please us better.

In The Year of the Excellent Crop

Many farmers are now receiving returns from their 1927 crop, conceded to be one of the best in the history of the West. Naturally many improvements will be made and quite a number of farmers throughout Alberta will install electric light and power plants. A really good electric light and power plant will give you years and years of comfort as regards lighting as well as laying the foundation for many other modern home and farm conveniences.

Perhaps in no other line is it as true that "the best is the cheapest" as it is in respect to electric light plants. The KOHLER automatic electric light and power plant gives you the nearest approach to "city" service of any plant made, and after considerable reading on the subject, we recommend this plant to you as being something worthy of your consideration and purchase.

Far carrying 110 volt current; no storage batteries; four cylinder radiator cooled engine; patented automatic switch; economical running cost (a matter of much importance); and many other features makes the KOHLER an outstanding private electric light and power plant. The man considering the purchase of a plant cannot do better for himself than investigate the record of the KOHLER.

The 800 watt size (two cylinder air cooled engine) at $715.00 at Alberta points.

The prices of 2000, 5000, and 10,000 watt size plants can be obtained from us. These large plants are suitable for hospitals, mines, village lighting, in fact, anywhere where a fairly large amount of current is required.

Years after the installation, purchasers will point with pride at their sturdy little KOHLER and say to their enquiring neighbors, "Yes, I got that in the year of the good crop."

Canada, the Land of Opportunity

As the year of Canada's Diamond Jubilee draws to a close it is gratifying and appropriate to recall the widespread interest which exceptional advertising in Canada has aroused throughout the world and more particularly in the Empire and the United States. Never before in its history did the Dominion receive more or better publicity than it has enjoyed this year and the results in all lines are beginning to give a true conception of Canada and its great possibilities. And probably nothing is better calculated to spread such knowledge in influential circles than the decision of the Financial Times' London, Eng. the large commercial, financial and industrial journal in the world to issue its Annual Empire Number on an unprecedented scale and thereby secure the most extensive circulation in an influential publication in the first of these supplements, the Financial Times in outlining the Editorial Statement: "The most outstanding event of the century of the United States, the twentieth century will be Canada's century, for more than any country in the world, its growth has proved it liable." Unquestionably the nineteenth century was the century of the United States, for America's growth in population, resources and wealth was without prior parallel in the world's history. But the century of Canada's progress, on the twentieth century, will be opposite in any continental period of America's nineteenth century expansion for the fact that besides Canada's expansion in all material respects has been go lightning" remarkable that statement, the managing editor in a signed article, makes the following bold but truthful statement of fact: "In the first half year of the present century Canada will become the premier agricultural country of the British Empire, and the granary of the world."

In the first forty years (1868 1926) there was a 50 per cent increase per population, which is now estimated at 9,200,000. At the rate of pre-war increase Canada's population in 1931 would be 10,000,000 but the war has greatly stimulated immigration and it may be safely estimated that by 1931 Canada will have a population of 12,000,000 people.

The trade of Canada's Railroads is remarkable. In 1913 the total trade of Canada was $1,217,241,000. Mainly owing to the war, this increased to $2,430,000,000 in 1920, but fell off to $1,579,000,000 in 1921. Since then the trade has increased enormously, and in the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1926, it reached the huge total of $2,500,000,000. The trade of Canada's railroads has increased in a similar manner. In 1913 the total gross earnings were $222,000,000. In 1920 they had increased to $480,000,000, but fell off to $400,000,000 in 1921. Since then the increase has been enormous, and in the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1926, the gross earnings were $600,000,000.

The value of the mineral output showed a 500 per cent increase, and the total value of production rose from $92,000,000 in 1913 to $460,000,000 in 1920, declined to $423,000,000 in 1921, and in the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1926, amounted to $1,211,000,000.

The value of the agricultural output showed a 150 per cent increase, and the total value of production rose from $1,057,000,000 in 1913 to $2,643,000,000 in 1920, declined to $1,579,000,000 in 1921, and in the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1926, amounted to $2,211,000,000.

The value of the manufactures showed a 300 per cent increase, and the total value of production rose from $1,165,000,000 in 1913 to $4,660,000,000 in 1920, declined to $3,731,000,000 in 1921, and in the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1926, amounted to $5,211,000,000.

ADVICE OF A RED CROSS NURSE

Commonable Diseases and How To Avoid Them

Commonicable diseases are what most people call "catching" diseases. Formerly they were called "contagious or infectious", but these terms are going out of use. The home nurse who knows how commonicable diseases are spread will be able to care for a patient in such a way as to lessen the danger of the disease to the other members of the family and the community. To prevent the spread of communicable diseases is part as important a duty of the home nurse as is the care and comfort of the patient.

Each kind of communicable disease is caused by its own kind of germ. Crude Farming In Spain

Crop Of 10,950,000 Acres Mostly Sown and Reaped By Hand

If the old Roman plow is not now banished from Castile there will be danger of a grave confusion often in Spain. The average value of the Spanish wheat crop is about $100,000,000 for an area or maximum acres, mostly sown and reaped by hand. Thousands of stalwart reapers, crouching low as they toil with sickles through vast fields, betoken the backward conditions and the low wages. As a result of these primitive methods Christian wheat cannot compete in the world markets, though its quality is esteemed through the ages. Wheat threshed thousands of miles away in American or Argentina can be sold in Spanish ports at less than the cost price of the domestically grown seed. The government has had to restrict wheat imports, creating an unsound export trade situation. The situation can only be saved by the extensive use of tractors, deeper tilling and increased fertilization.

Flin Flon Power Site

May Change Site From White Mud Falls To Island Falls

Intimations from the Winnipeg of New York, have been received at the capital indicating that a change in the power site of the Flin Flon mine may be made from White Mud Falls to Island Falls.

Island Falls are on the Churchill River, considerably closer to the mining property than are the White Mud Falls, on the Sturgeon river, to the west, the Whitefish and the Grassy Narrows lake route, and the Island Falls route, respectively, certainly, are believed to be the most feasible for the development of the necessary power site for the smelter plant.

The necessity of the immediate development of the power site is apparent, as it was known that the White Mud Falls route never definitely decided upon, and after the investigations made it is clear that certain restrictions would be imposed if the White Mud were developed, thus making the Island Falls route the more desirable. Island Falls is within the province of Saskatchewan, which would look after the mining development. White Mud is in Manitoba. Island Falls is about 25,000 horsepower, and there would be a fair economic opportunity for the railway's construction work at Pas Kahwa.

Water As a Lubricant

Better Than Oil For Rubber Bearings, Is Claim

A discovery has been made which has caused wide interest in the engineering world. It is claimed that water, her bearings lubricated with plain water, will do all that oil or grease can do, and that in addition the danger of trouble associated with rubber bearings have been completed on heavy machine running at 6,000 revolutions per minute, a speed of grit simply rolls across the rubber until it is removed by the water, which runs through a fine groove in the bearing. Lubrication oil is used in the machinery in thousands of tons, and cheap qualities of it are very expensive. The new process is simple and perfected by two English engineers, may lead to all kinds of changes in high-speed machinery. Water, as a ship's turbines, and so on, bringing about big changes in the running costs.

Sugar From Waste Wood

Sawdust Treated With Acid Makes Substance Suitable For Food

Sugar from waste wood is foreseen by a report made recently by O. H. Ormandy to the Society of Chemical Industry, in England. Dried sawdust is treated in a carefully-designed chemical plant with hydrochloric acid. This treatment converts the cellulose of the wood into a mixture of sugars, one of which is ordinary glucose, or corn sugar. The process is perfectly suitable for human food. Not all of the sugar produced by the process is pure enough for food use, although most of it is. The by-product of sucrose might be fermented into alcohol, which will be used for motor fuel.

Fall Evil Spirits

Japanese Vessel Is Burned For Just That Purpose

To fall the devils which Japanese pre-daring men were continued at have brought bad luck in the ill-fated fishing smack, Kyo Yei Maru, which drifted on the broad Pacific 11 months while her crew of 12 Japanese fishermen died, starved and died, the vessel has been completed to the future.

The Kyo Yei, which was valued at about $12,000, was recently towed to an isolated beach on Puget Sound, her hold filled with waste and soaked with oil, set afire and reduced to a mass of smouldering ashes and twisted metal.

It had been planned to ship the Kyo Yei back to Japan and arrangements were made to place the old boat on the after deck of an American boat for the return voyage. But the plans were cancelled when it was learned the families of the unfortunate fishermen did not want her returned.

The father wife of Minaki, Japan, whose home ship was built, were convinced evil spirits had taken possession of the ship and that the Japanese might bring other calamities to pass if the ill-fated vessel was brought back. Friends urged that she be burned.

The Yei was sighted off the Washington coast last October 21, 311 days after she left Japan. Of the 12 men who sailed on the fishing trip from Japan December 4, 1926, The last survivors died on board the vessel recorded.

Colony Of Doukhobors

Steps Are Taken Towards Extension Of Colony In Saskatchewan

Peter Verigin, Jr., leader of the Doukhobors in Canada, has announced a plan of expansion, embracing at a cost of $1,000,000, which every family will have a population of from 200 to 30,000 Doukhobors. The announcement, coming after a long study in Canada, indicates that the Doukhobors propose to remain and not be allowed, but that the colony at Verigin will be for immigrants from Russia only.

Radical changes are involved in the establishment of the colony, one of the outstanding results expected is that the Doukhobors will become expert participants in the agriculture of Canada, and will not be the passive people they have been since coming to the country.

The first step towards apparent a big colonizing in Canada by the Doukhobors was the announcement of Verigin. He had elected and purchased for occupation, others will soon, and eventually a colony of 50,000 people will form the community.

Prince Arthur of Connaught tells an amusing story of a Scotsman when serving as Governor-General of South Africa. He had made a journey up the Zambesi to some of the paramount chiefs. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JOHN THE BAPTIST AND JESUS

Golden Text: "He must increase but I must decrease." John 3:30.

Lesson Text: Isaiah 40:3-11.

Explanations and Comments

I. The Title Of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Our word gospel is the English of the Latin evangelium, words God, meaning good, and spel, meaning news. The Greek word in the New Testament refers to the message of good tidings and to one's life first four books, in which it was not applied before the second century. It is the good tidings concerning Jesus Christ, the Son of God, which Mark begins here to recount. This first verse is Mark's confession of faith.

"Every time Christ is born in a man's heart, the gospel has a new beginning. And every other beginning of the gospel—its beginning in the eternal purpose of God choice, its beginning at Bethlehem, Matthew and Luke, its beginning at Nazareth, as Christ's—is for us, as for me, concerned, unless it has another beginning in you and me."—J. D. Jones.

II. The Title Of the Forerunner Of Christ, verses 2-8.—Verse 2, 3 and 4 are all one sentence, and must be read together. The boys who were seven years of age in 1914, are now twenty, able to carry a rifle, capable of being trained into the tricks or carnage. That means to be sufficient for the profession of who keep the war put bulkag. No doubt the makers of armaments are eager for the harvest.

In well-organized, sensible communities the prospects of dangerous doctrines are run out of town. That would appear to be the appropriate treatment of these next-war prophets.

Immense Crane Built

For London Railway

An immense crane being erected in connection with the Metropolitan Railway's new $3,750,000 outlying is to be used to lift the steel work and differs entirely from the three-legged type now familiar in London.

It comprises a single "leg" nearly 150 feet in height, and is surmounted by a steel lattice-work jib 100 feet long, while protruding from and running down the centre of the "leg" is a great steel spout which enables the crane to receive in a complete circle without difficulty.

A feature of particular interest in connection with the crane is the fact that it is constructed that when left at night unattended it will automatically set, late, in the manner of a weather vane and so adjust itself to any adverse wind that may blow.

The area covered by the crane is more than 10,000 square yards, and its English construction throughout and is electrically operated by one man.

Consumption Of Alcohol

The per capita consumption of alcoholic spirits in Canada for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1927, was 1.44 per cent., below that of the year for the past fifty-eight years, which has been kept by the department of national revenue show. The figures disclose that in the past half century the average consumption for each person in Canada is 1.86 per cent. of one gallon of spirits, but for the latest year 1926-27 this consumption was only .22 per cent. of a gallon.

A Most Dangerous Practice

Some Freshmists Perish In Talking About Next War

The talk about an inevitable European war is dangerous. A French publication says that the showdown will come in 1935. He makes the interesting suggestion that in another war in Europe, the United States will not be on the same side as Great Britain, the inference being that naval competition has driven a wedge between the affections of those nations.

It would seem that there is a regiment or two of European pessimists, who are bound to drum up another war. They persist in talking it day and night. That is most dangerous practice. If, instead, their time was occupied so industriously in decrying war, by reminding the people of the last world catastrophe, of the sacrifices and sufferings of the population, of the millions wounded and mutilated human beings, there would be some excuse for them, but another war would not come. But if those peddlers of calamity continue to preach their gospel of destruction it is pretty sure to happen. There is a new crop of children ready for the harvest. The boys who were seven years of age in 1914, are now twenty, able to carry a rifle, capable of being trained into the tricks or carnage. That means to be sufficient for the profession of who keep the war put bulkag. No doubt the makers of armaments are eager for the harvest.

In well-organized, sensible communities the prospects of dangerous doctrines are run out of town. That would appear to be the appropriate treatment of these next-war prophets.

Helmi was awakened next morning by the first beam of the March sun. It came around the corner of the factory cotton blind, and played over her pillow with a tremulous motion. It was a jolly little morning that seemed to have a story to tell if there was anyone to listen. But Helmi's heart was too full of its own happiness to listen to any other story. The spread out of bed and met the new day with a gay, a strange song, that came bubbling out of her tired childhood. Helmi had not thought of it since she came to Canada, and did not know that she knew it, but today it came unbidden. Six months ago or less Helmi would have slowly frowned on the old Finnish song with its old world ethics and curtness. She would have been as resentful of it as she was of her sister's marriage and her placid acceptance of a life of toiling family. But now Helmi had a deeper understanding, so she sang the old chant, the "Kalevala" of her own country.—

"Now the time has come for parting
For
From my father's golden threshold
From my mother's welcome
hearthstone,
From my mother's happy dwelling!"

Weird and solemn and dirged, mixed with years and the heart-throbs of another generation, the song had its effect on place in this new world of action and realities.

But Helmi sang on as she got dressed, in a non-lyrical, tuneless voice, heard in the other rooms, where she had heard sing it years ago—long ago it seemed to her now. A strange spell, she was glad she remembered it. It would make Jack Doran laugh when she told him that she loved so well. He would say again, "You are a funny little Finn."

"Do not harm the bride of heaven
Do not injure her that is true
Chastest wife the forest knows
To the young wife gave fairest trees."

Helmi rolled up the cotton blind and tied the red cord in a bow-knot. The warm March sun was filling the coarse with a ruddy glow, even brightening the weather-beaten little shanties on the other side of the street. Stars have one diverse in every 7s and Antelope Flores for other constellations are quoted as follows: Canada, one in 161; Great Britain, one in 34; Ireland, one in 32; Japan, one in 20; Germany, one in 21; New Zealand, one in 21; Switzerland, one in 18; Japan, one in eight. Divorces in the United States it is added, has advanced in the last 60 years from 9,937 marriages from one in 73 in 1867 and 1916 from one in 7.5. Canada divorces in that country.

I will not sign it. Do you think I am going to keep 22 weeks for my holiday when for keeping Ten Commandments God will give me a measure to the skies?"

To Put It Briefly

Prince Arthur of Connaught tells an amusing story of a Scotsman when serving as Governor-General of South Africa. He had made a journey up the Zambesi to some of the paramount chiefs. One of them made a speech of welcome which took three-quarters of an hour to deliver. When he had finished, a native, appointed to see Seward to explain the oration. Pointing to the chief, the interpreter discharged his task with a single sentence: "How are you, delighted to see you?"

In addition to paying more than two million dollars for the privilege in Germany, the applicant must pass an extremely rigid mental and physical examination.

Great Britain now claims all the speed records for aeroplane, submarine, steamship, railway, automobile and motorcycle.

Hawaii now boasts one automobile for every 10 persons, while the proportion in the United States is only one to every six.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JANUARY 1

JOHN THE BAPTIST AND JESUS

Golden Text: "He must increase but I must decrease." John 3:30.

Lesson Text: Isaiah 40:3-11.

Explanations and Comments

I. The Title Of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Our word gospel is the English of the Latin evangelium, words God, meaning good, and spel, meaning news. The Greek word in the New Testament refers to the message of good tidings and to one's life first four books, in which it was not applied before the second century. It is the good tidings concerning Jesus Christ, the Son of God, which Mark begins here to recount. This first verse is Mark's confession of faith.

"Every time Christ is born in a man's heart, the gospel has a new beginning. And every other beginning of the gospel—its beginning in the eternal purpose of God choice, its beginning at Bethlehem, Matthew and Luke, its beginning at Nazareth, as Christ's—is for us, as for me, concerned, unless it has another beginning in you and me."—J. D. Jones.

II. The Title Of the Forerunner Of Christ, verses 2-8.—Verse 2, 3 and 4 are all one sentence, and must be read together. The boys who were seven years of age in 1914, are now twenty, able to carry a rifle, capable of being trained into the tricks or carnage. That means to be sufficient for the profession of who keep the war put bulkag. No doubt the makers of armaments are eager for the harvest.

In well-organized, sensible communities the prospects of dangerous doctrines are run out of town. That would appear to be the appropriate treatment of these next-war prophets.

LESSON No. 15

Question: Why is emulsified cod-liver oil so important as an added ration with milk in the diet of children?

Answer: Because when it is mixed with milk it makes milk a more efficient rich-in-preventing food and builder of strong bones. Children like it best in the form of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Violence Needed To Keep Undesirables Out

Many Ways Tried To Smuggle Them Into England

The British barrel detective department is kept ever busy and ever vigilant, to prevent smuggling. Many ingenious devices have been tried by the Canadian Air Force. During the photographic flights Dominion Land Surveyors acted as navigational officers. This map may been obtained from the office of the Topographical Survey at Ottawa for the nominal price of twenty-five cents each or fifty cents in folder form or printed on linen.

The area shown on this map lies north of The Pas, Manitoba and extends just over the border of Manitoba into Saskatchewan. It includes Athapapuskow Lake, File Lake, Schist Lake, Sile Lake and Moose Lake. The names of the lakes are translated from The Pas by the courier de bois Joseph Tassier, by a voyage road in the Athapapuskow Lake from which canoe routes lead in numerous directions. The Mandy Mine produced some very rich ore which was transported by sleighs across and rail to the smelter in British Columbia. Important developments are now taking place at several other points including the immense deposits of the Flin Flon property. This map will be of considerable assistance to those interested in developments now or in further prospects in.

Women In Work At Geneva

Play Important Part In Discussions and Negotiations Of League

Women are taking a silent, but important part in the discussions and negotiations under the auspices of the League of Nations.

Mme. Marion Binstead, the pretty and charming wife of the chief of the Press Bureau, is an English girl, and is busy on the delegation's official list as an Interpreter. Mme. Binstead, was translator the documents of the Moscow the from Russian into English, was then Mr. Lord, of London, the daughter of Sir Sidney Beer, Secretary of the Treasury circles at the time of a number of months.

Mme. Jeanne Lamarkarge, the wife of the Swedish delegate, is the private Minister of Public Instruction. Under the Swedish system, she appears on the Moscow stage as Reginal. M. Lamarkarge has written a number of books with her husband and is a distinguished. The Anschauls especially are, in the estimate of the chairman-ship.

Another well-known stage this the picture when it comes to Count von Bernstorff, head of the German delegation. The Countess was Miss Jeanne Lichtmayer, of New York, she is now the wife of the German Minister to Canada and its excellence has earned for her the good will of many. It were double the price it would be a thing finished.

Agricultural Research

Canada Ahead Of Other Parts Of Empire In Delving Into Farm Problems

A widespread development in agricultural research is looked for in the near future by Dr. J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, who was a Canadian delegate at the International Agricultural Research Conference held in London, England, recently. During the conference, Dr. Grisdale declared, it was pointed that Canada did more research in farming problems than any other section of the Empire, and that in some respects, notably in grain rust research and in the control of tender fruit trees pests, the Dominion was well ahead of the world.

One of the most important results of the attendance of the Canadian delegates was the acceptance of an invitation to visit this country on the part of Dr. Arthur Hill Grove Aberdeen, one of the greatest research workers in the cattle industry of the world, in the fall season in Canada next winter. Dr. Grisdale said.

One Cup Pays For Farm

An extraordinary example of the capacity of paying the full cost on the farm on which it was grown, is reported from the Peace River district of Settlement Board. The farmer concerned was H. H. Fraser, of Manning, Alta., and his experience seems to be a record one for the district. The total amount harvested in spring and other wheat this season reached eight bushels on the land, a yield above for both varieties of 50½ bushels per acre.

Finds Another Microbe

A new and deadly microbe has been discovered by Dr. Villert, head of the Pasteur Institute at Kindia, French Guinea. It is a microbe which has covered on chimpanzees and produces a contagious disease similar to yellow fever. Dr. Villert contracted the disease, but recovered.

A Real Wooden Wedding

Bride, Groom and Minister All Wear Spruce Veneer

Dressed in spruce veneer garments, the bride, groom and minister of Bowland were married by a minister similarly attired. The bride and groom are employees of a mill at Hogalam, Wash., and the ceremony was performed on a log boom in the mill pond.

The wooden garments were clipped over the bride and groom with holes cut for their arms, that hands might be joined and sportsmen were made for eyes and lips.

The guests threw wooden limited of rice as the bridal party left the mill on a raft of logs floating down Grays River.

Radio Finger Prints

The radio photo has been successfully used as a means of transmitting finger-prints of criminals. A man held at London was suspected of being wanted in Chicago, so Scotland Yard police sent his fingerprints by radio and learned that they had the right man.

Little Helps For This Week

"Morning, the Lord with all humility." Acts xx. 19.

The kind that saves an highway wing Humble on the ground her lowly nest,
And the that doth most sweetly sing Sings in the shade when all things rest:
In lark and nightingale we see
What honor hath humility.
—James Montgomery.

The Saviour bids us learn of Him, and learn humility, and that meekness is a grace which we may possess in self, that from God alone help may be derived. Fenelon.

THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS USE NO OTHER MEDICINE

Baby's Own Tablets Are the Ideal Family Free Tablets and Young Children

Canadian mothers are noted for the care they take of their children, and the health of the baby is most jealously guarded. The mother is always on the lookout for a remedy which will relieve baby's ills without drugging the system. Thousands of mother's have found in Baby's Own Tablets the very help they need and many of them use nothing else for the ailments of their little ones. Here is what Mrs. Howard King, of Troy, N.B., has to say:—"I can strongly recommend Baby's Own Tablets to mothers of children. I have used many of nothing to equal them for little ones."

Canadian Bacon Market

Farmers Should Not Slacken Hog Production In The Present Time

An optimistic note with regard to the market for Canadian bacon was struck by A. J. Mills, representative of the British Ministry of Food in conference with agents at Toronto. He expressed the conviction that Canadian farmers would be very poorly advised to slacken in hog production at the present time, stating that on account of the low foreign market was in sight, with many of the countries which formerly bought Canada and its excellence has earned double the price it would be a thing finished.

Time Has Tested It.

Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been on the market for over 60 years, and that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. Is it not high time that every Canadian and its excellence has earned for it the good will of many. It were double the price it would be a thing finished.

According to the latest Bulletin of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, Canada ranks next to British India as to tobacco produced in the British Empire. "Stimulated by the preferences granted Empire-grown tobacco in the British market since September 1, 1919," says the report, "the production of tobacco in Canada has increased from 14,232,000 pounds in 1918 to 28,884,000 in 1926. Ontario furnishing about 75 per cent. of the product and Quebec most of the remainder."

Gasoline has done all the damage possible to the horse industry in Canada, according to W. J. McCallum, horse importer of Brampton and Regina, who arrived in Canada recently on board the C. P. liner "Metagama." Mr. McCallum brought with him over 100 champion stallions which he purchased throughout the British Isles. France and Belgium during the summer months. He has taken a valuable shipment west this winter to be distributed among them throughout the prairie provinces. Mr. McCallum is optimistic regarding the future of the horse industry in Canada and states that more pure-bred animals are needed on this side of the water.

Close on 400 miles of branch line extension in Saskatchewan and Alberta have been virtually completed up to December 1st by the Canadian Pacific Railway, according to a report from headquarters. Of the 262 miles of this construction grain from the current year's harvest is being taken out, and while work is closed down at this date an most of them, there are still some on which bridge and other construction work is being proceeded with.

New Opportunity To Enter The Automobile Business

One of the world's largest and oldest automobile manufacturers is establishing dealers to sell a new six-cylinder closed car which will list at

$995 f.o.b. Canadian factory

Other models of this same manufacturer range in price up to $2125. They will all be available to the dealers who handle this new popular priced car. There is in addition a complete line of commercial cars.

In communities of small size, however, you need contract only for the fast selling low-priced model.

Only Moderate capital needed to Start Business

A contract has been worked out to enable dealers to get started representing this new car with only a small investment.

No such favorable franchise has ever before been offered by any manufacturer

If you believe that you have the ability to sell in your community an automobile that is destined to be the sensation of 1928 —a closed car that will offer for $995 a beautiful exterior, largeness in the latest fashionable models, an interior luxuriously upholstered, arm rests, ash receiver, gasoline gauge on the dash, coincidental lock to steering and ignition, steering wheel control of twin-beam headlights, rear vision mirror, automatic windshield cleaner, and similar refinements—proved power to maintain high speed indefinitely—quality construction throughout —if you are able to sell such a car in your community, send in the attached coupon at once.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

TAKING A fresh grip on anything is an important event in any person's life. Taking a fresh grip on life itself, is vitally important. This week sees the close of 1927 and the commencement of 1928 which in effect is a new grip on life to many millions of people. Nature is intricate, very much so, and there are many things about her works that are hard to understand. But the dividing of the life of a planet, and incidentally the lives of all creatures living thereon, into definite periods of time, is easy of understanding. To have no definite breaks of time in our lives would make existence on this planet exceedingly monotonous. To have each day follow the other in a dreary procession having no beginning end or middle, would create a feeling of uselessness in the mind of us all. To have no New Year would be a dreary outlook.

The rites and ceremonies of many ancient peoples are associated with the turning point of the year. When it was evident that while the winter was not past, there were unmistakable signs that the turning point in the cycle of time had passed and that from then on the days would become lighter, brighter and consequently happier to these primitive peoples, feasting and dancing was indulged in.

The pen of no one but a genius could adequately describe the unlimited opportunities afforded the human race by having one day in the year in which a fresh start may be made. We joke unceasingly about new year resolutions, and no doubt many are made only to be broken, yet, taking the world over, there are millions of new year resolutions that are made and kept, and the world is better for it.

Not so many years ago, a newspaper publisher offered a prize for a statement of what the contestants considered the best invention. One of the prizes was awarded to the individual who sent in the simple statement "a wheel." He explained that practically all the mechanical inventions were dependent upon the wheel for their success and before the wheel was invented, there were no mechanical inventions of importance. This is true enough. But it is also true that a good many of our lives are shaped like a wheel, and day in and day out run round and round in a well worn grove. The new year gives us an opportunity of expansion and sets us thinking along original lines which no other season of the year ever does.

The Mercury's wish for its readers is that the coming year may be one of unbounded prosperity and true happiness, and that those who take the opportunity of the new lease of time to commence something new, may meet with success.

Looking back over the past year, on the whole it was a very prosperous one for this district. In spite of dire predictions as to crop failures, the year actually turned out to be a very successful one for the agriculturalist in Alberta, and the Edmonton Journal's original phrase, "Alberta Sitting on top of the World," was not mere idle boasting. The Tofield district, in common with the rest of the province shared in this prosperity. The town of Tofield showed rather healthy growth this year than for several years. Besides minor improvements which most merchants made to their businesses and premises, there was erected a new church, a new curling rink, a new residence. Carver & Hannan enlarged their main street premises to include a large warehouse, and also erected an elevator, while the Home Grain Company also erected an elevator. The fall business, upon which so much depends, is generally conceded to be quite satisfactory. In this regard, even the weather co-operated. It will be remembered that while the weather was extremely cold early in the winter, eight or ten days immediately preceding Christmas was nice winter weather.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS

THE SCRIBE of this column is the greatest little weather predicter known. If he writes it is going to be warm, the papers are hardly off the press before a cold wave hits them. If he writes it is going to be cold, an early warm wave can be counted upon. It is the same with wet and dry weather in the growing season. Some years ago when the type on country weeklies was mostly set by hand, he had hardly got the type set, when rain began to fall. It was during an extreme dry spell and was a prediction that it would continue dry. The farmers needed rain, so the prediction went to press. The farmers got the rain. Now what do we all want? We have had some very cold weather so far this winter, it is real snappy right now. The long distance scientific weather forecasters say that old man Winter has worse medicine to give us before spring. Well, we'll have to side with these greats, so be prepared for three months more of the kind of weather we are getting as this is written, about 20 below zero with a nice keen westerly wind blowing.

Here and There

The "Never-Rot" potato, a variety planted in Yarmouth and Digby counties, Nova Scotia, this year, is reported as showing up to its name, coming through flood damage practically unharmed.

United States farmers receive about 11 cents a bushel less for their wheat than Canadian farmers, because of higher railway rates, according to Senator Brookhart of Iowa, speaking at Washington recently.

The Lord River district in the extreme north of British Columbia can produce excellent crops of grain and vegetables, it is stated by the Department of Agriculture of British Columbia, following experiments carried out in conjunction with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Specimens of grain have been received here.

Ocean tonnage to carry 36,000,000 bushels of Western Canadian wheat via the Pacific to the United Kingdom and Europe has been booked for November, December and January. During November alone tonnage for 20,000,000 bushels has been fixed and shipping men believe that a hundred vessels will be required for this.

"Indian Golf" will be a novel form of the Royal and Ancient game to be introduced this winter at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, for the enjoyment of the winter sports patrons. The game will be played on skis and snowshoes, and over a course laid out in the snow. Targets will replace holes and bows and arrows will take the place of golf clubs and balls.

The Poultry Department of the University of British Columbia announces the sale of a white Leghorn hen for $500. She is named Famous Hen No. 6, and P. 312 and was exhibited at Ottawa last summer. Last year she laid 355 eggs in 365 days; and as she weighs just four pounds her purchase price was $125 per lb. F. A. Sansome, of Greenwich, Conn., was the purchaser.

The Government's final crop estimate is now: Wheat, 411,000,000 bushels, as compared with an estimate of 420,000,000 in September and last year's actual yield of 405,000,000; oats 452,000,000 bushels as against September's estimate of 460,000,000 and last year's actual yield of 393,000,000; barley is put at 99,000,000 bushels as against 104,000,000 last year and rye 16,000,000 bushels against 12,000,000 last year.

The fourth of the five new freighters being built for the Canadian Pacific Steamships was launched recently at the yards of Barclay, Curle & Co., Glasgow. The S.S. Beaverhill will make her maiden voyage from Glasgow to Saint John on March 16, 1928. With her four sister ships the Beaverhill will be on a weekly service between Canadian ports and London, Hamburg, Havre and Antwerp. She will be an oil burning vessel, with a speed of 14 knots and is built to the highest class of Lloyd's special requirements.

His Excellency Lord Willingdon, while attending the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto recently, noticed in the entry list a stallion under the name "Lord Willingdon." His Excellency expressed a desire to inspect the animal, which was paraded by its owner, W. J. McCallum, of Edmonton and Regina. The two-year-old Clydesdale was purchased by Mr. owner in Scotland and imported and placed out on the Canadian prairie "unbeknownst" to him. The animal purchased for $10,000 as it was intended as a present to some local pure-bred breeder.

"A Bird In The Hand Is Worth Two In The Bush"

Quite an old proverb but true enough. The Mercury's "bush" is the Tofield district and our "birds" are re-newal subscriptions that at this time of the year are caught with a little coaxing. The time honored method of putting salt on tails have been dispensed with, rather, we try to use pleasant words—sweet sounding.

One dollar and fifty cents is not so very much by itself—but twice that amount is three dollars and multiply this a few hundred times and you have a tidy sum that in a large measure represents the editor's harvest.

The next time you are in town, drop in and say hello, and if you wish to pay your subscription, nothing would please us better.

In The Year of the Excellent Crop

Many farmers are now receiving returns from their 1927 crop, conceded to be one of the best in the history of the West. Naturally many improvements will be made and quite a number of farmers throughout Alberta will install electric light and power plants. A really good electric light and power plant will give you years and years of comfort as regards lighting as well as laying the foundation for many other modern home and farm conveniences.

Perhaps in no other line is it as true that "the best is the cheapest," as it is in respect to electric light plants. The KOHLER automatic electric light and power plant gives you the nearest approach to "city" service of any plant made, and after considerable reading on the subject, we recommend this plant to you as being something worthy of your consideration and purchase.

Far carrying 110 volt current; no storage batteries; four cylinder radiator cooled engine; patented automatic switch; economical running cost (a matter of much importance); and many other features makes the KOHLER an outstanding private electric light and power plant. The man considering the purchase of a plant cannot do better for himself than investigate the record of the KOHLER.

The 800 watt size (two cylinder air cooled engine) at $715.00 at Alberta points.

The prices of 2000, 5000, and 10,000 watt size plants can be obtained from us. These large plants are suitable for hospitals, mines, village lighting, in fact, anywhere where a fairly large amount of current is required.

Years after the installation, purchasers will point with pride at their sturdy little KOHLER and say to their enquiring neighbors, "Yes, I got that in the year of the good crop."

Take Necessary Precautions

Canadians have no reason to apologize for the climate of their country, even in periods of extreme winter cold; on the contrary they are proud of the fact that, in so many respects, the Canadian winter is a very real asset to the dominion. There is nothing enervating about the climate of Canada. In it is also the high quality of the grain produced. It is largely responsible for the kind that Canadians are a hardy, robust, healthy people, full of initiative and energy. It is not a climate in which idlers and slackers can exist, consequently it develops a progressive, industrious people.

But just as in the tropics people must exercise certain precautions during seasons of intense heat, so must Canadians take precautions during periods of intense cold, or stormy seasons. To neglect commonsense precautions at such times is to invite disaster.

During a blizzard which recently raged across a portion of Western Canada and the Western United States, a little list of seven cases was allowed to leave its home for the rural school by attending a non-student young. He lost his way, became utterly exhausted, and his death resulted. Such a tragedy is the result of not taking the very natural precaution of keeping a young child home at such a time. It was foolhardy in the extreme to allow the child to venture out.

The Saskatchewan Department of Education has issued a timely warning to parents and teachers to exercise care in permitting children to proceed to and from school in very severe cold weather, when strong winds prevail during severe cold or a blizzard threatens. The Department's warning points out that "it is better to keep a child home than to risk a tragedy, or, if adverse weather changes occur during school hours, to detain the children in the school house until they can be safely conveyed home."

The advice is given that "at such times parents may use telephone and the teacher stating whether their children are on the road en route to school, while in the latter, telephone parents that their children are being detained at the school until next hour, or that they will be sent home under escort.

As compared with conditions only a comparatively few years ago, when rural telephones were few and far between, the province of Canada is now now criss-crossed with rural telephone lines. Nearly every rural school has a telephone installed, and its instrument is to be found in the home of practically all of farm homes. Good use should be made of them in the manner suggested by the Saskatchewan Department of Education.

Commenting on the above official warning, one Saskatchewan paper correctly says that it is mainly when parents do not know what the outcome is doing and the teacher does not know what the parents think that the most regrettable accidents so did happen in the recent storm scene.

In severe cold weather the number of tragedies that are also largely increased. Roaring fires are built before the family retires for the night, or before leaving the home for an evening in order that it may be warm on their return. Fuires soon all too frequently result, calamities happen, sometimes the door is checked too tightly and while the family sleeps the house falls with gas.

All of which only serves to emphasize the need of taking every possible precaution while coping with the problems which severe cold weather brings for a few weeks during the height of the Canadian winter.

Urges Visits To Dominion

Must To Be Learned At First Hand Says Premier Baldwin

Premier Baldwin paid a high tribute to the educative and edifying influences of the Empire Parliamentary Association at the fourteenth annual meeting of the United Kingdom branch of the association in Westminster Hall.

He advocated frequent visits of the members of the home branch of the association to the Dominions and of the members of the branches in the Dominions to Great Britain, and to each other, and said this connection he referred to his own experience in Canada last summer. Such visits, he said, tended to remove misunderstandings and to crystallize in the public mind then of definite Empire policy.

The Premier referred to the proposed visit of a delegation from the United Kingdom branch of the Empire Parliamentary Association to Canada next September. He expressed the hope that the number of the House of Commons would head that body which he said, should be thoroughly representative of all parties and should be composed of men who did not regard those periodical visits overseas as simply pleasure jaunts.

Expert Will Conduct Research

Cancer Theory May Be Tested On Isle Of Rum

As soon as the assertion of the Ministry of Health is obtained, the Isle of Rum will become the centre of concentrated cancer research to be carried out by Dr. Leslie Bashford, one of the world's leading cancer experts.

He plans to make a minute examination of the flora and fauna of the island and to leave no stone unturned in the hope of finding a cure for the disease. Dr. Bashford, who is working under the direction of the Research Board of Tropical Medicine, has intimated that he already has a theory regarding the origin of cancer, and hopes by this means to find support for his theory.

With the aid of street cases and medical registers he plans to make thorough checking up all the cases in districts of persons who died from cancer in the last fifty years and all cancer victims now living.

"If any previous experience counts for anything," he said, "I will discover that cancer clusters in well-defined areas where the people living there are liable to be attacked."

"My colleagues and I will then conduct a minute examination of the terrain in each district, especially rats, mice, cockroaches, collar beetles and various kinds of insects. We have already established a theory and we want to see how it is supported."

Dr. Louis Sambon, an authority on tropical diseases, who almost 30 years ago reported the causes of pellagra and later investigated the cause of malaria when he lived in the open, quite unlimited Roman Campagna, has in recent years devoted his attention to cancer.

Considered Undignified

The bishop has abolished one ancient custom of the ancient past by forbidding fathers to embalm their "young" about toons and cities on shrubbery." The ecclesiastic in a button and his rules does not look dignified outside a donkey, the administration holds. The priests also are restrained from playing cards in coffee houses from now on.

Proposed Medal For Lindbergh

Highest Award In the World From the Heads Of Airmen

The "Grand Gold Medal" of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale, world governing body for aircraft performances, was proposed for Charles A. Lindbergh by Porter Adams, president of the National Aeronautics Association.

Such has to be called as the highest award in the world from the hands of airmen, and it is planned to have it awarded to the flier at a meeting of the Federation in Paris, soon. Mr. Adams' recommendation was made in a letter to Paul Tissandier, secretary-general of the Federation.

Conference On Wireless

Imperial Government To Invite Representatives Of Dominion

The Government of the United Dominions and India have been invited to send representatives to attend a conference in London with regard to questions relating to cable and wireless communications, according to a statement by Postmaster-General the Williams Mitchell Thompson, in the House of Commons today. The conference is to be held at an early date.

The Dominion spokesman indicated that the Government had no intention of selling the Canadian Government Telegraphs.

THE BEST MEDICINE SHE EVER USED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Helped Lady In Many Ways

Mrs. David Leggin, Thetford Mines Que., says, after a protracted praise to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills: "I was in a very bad state of health. My family doctor said I have heart trouble, and my husband thought I was going into consumption, as cousins required, and has always been a user of patent medicine. My husband, who was a sufferer from malaria fever, and was in a very weak condition. He also used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gained health and strength. My husband thought his case was hopeless, and was forced to discontinue work. After using Dr. Williams' Pills were restored to and she was soon restored to perfect health. Then my daughter had an operation performed for adenoids, which left her in a very run-down condition. Once more Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were tried, and by now soon in excellent health. So I can say that I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the best results obtained by the use of this medicine. The pills have also been of great benefit to my home that hundreds of dollars would be saved if I expended annually."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make digestion, regulate the bowels, build up the blood, and the nerves. Get the genuine that are the results of fair, honest dealing.

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Advisory Weather Service For Aviators

Weather Bulletin Plan Under Review At Meteorological Head-quarters

A scheme for the development of an advisory weather service for aviators is under way, it was learned last night at the headquarters of the Meteorological Service of Canada in the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

The project will, it is expected, eventually result in a network of meteorological stations from Vancouver to Newfoundland by British Columbia and Nova Scotia, with a central meeting designed primarily for air mail service by way of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, which is now carried out in the interests of navigation, but which, it is thought, could be extended to a transatlantic service at Montreal next summer.

Weather, however, warranted, was found to be a factor in accidents, but they set up disturbances detrimental to the health of the air. There was no comfort for the little ones until the fateful Saturday. Kids from 6 to 12 piled. An excellent preparation for children of all ages. It had to Worm Powders. They will immediately destroy the worms and set up the conditions that were favorable to their existence.

Big Mustard Farm

It is stated that eastern manufacturers of mustard have purchased the entire crop of mustard seed grown in the Lake Alma district, and that the amount of cash involved in the deal has not been disclosed, it is said that the deciding alone will cost $10,000.

A Self-Contained Empire

British In Better Position Than Any Other Country In World

Sir Alfred Mond, whose knowledge of world trade and finance is probably unequalled, has been speaking about the British Empire, and reiterating his views concerning it, which he brought forward some time ago. Those readers who have not yet read the article in the world, over the United Kingdom his opinion regarding the state of affairs in the States may not particularly please the Americans, as he says that their country, as compared with the British Empire, is in "trifling comparatively small wants regarding." He wishes to see the Empire trade within itself, and with a tariff by which Britain would trade with South Africa, Canada, New Zealand and Australia, creating a free commercial development within the Empire, not merely in buying and selling, but in general development and in increased population.

Japan's Richest Man

Baron Iwasaki Has An Income Of $2,134,000 Yearly

The richest man in Japan, according to the 1927 income tax returns, is Baron Hisaya Iwasaki, head of the Mitsubishi combine, with an income of $2,134,000 in gold paying a tax of $521,980.

Iwasaki succeeded Baron Mitsui, head of the Mitsui Company, with an income of $1,661,000 and tax of $465,-000.

The ten richest men in Japan include three Mitsuis, seven Mitsubishis and Baron Okura, who comes in with an income of $347,000 and tax of $119,000.

The wealthiest company president is M. Iwasaki of the Mitsubishi and Cook Company, with an income of $67,000. The wealthiest director is the Marquis Inokuma, with $230,000; the wealthiest employee is Dr. Ian, managing director of Mitsubishi, with $201,000.

In Osaka and Yokohama Tax persons report personal incomes exceeding $25,000.

Another Illusion Destroyed

English Professor Of Chemistry Says Toast Is Fattening

The legend that toast helps to preserve slim figures by eating toast instead of bread were shattered by Professor Jocelyn Thorpe, Professor of Chemistry in the University of London, in a lecture at Chelsea Polytechnic on "Recent Errors in Diet" at the New Health Society's meeting at 52 Grosvenor Street, Mayfair, on June 8, 11.

"Toast," he said, "is worse than bread for fattening. The mere fact that not one steam arising from the toasting of bread is being wasted proves to us that the resultant toast is actually concentrated bread. People are apt to eat two slices of bread in the crisper, more concentrated form, and so get more than they need. From this point of view than if they only had one slice of ordinary bread.

Resignation Closes Office

History Of Moodyville Post Office Started and Finished With One Man

The history of the Moodyville Railway postoffice began and ends with the tenure of E. M. Moody as postmaster.

After serving in that capacity for forty-eight years in this Pottawatamie County village, which he founded, Moody, now eighty-eight years old, has resigned to conserve his eyesight. The office equipment of old age. He was the first postmaster of the town and now that he is retiring the government has decided to discontinue the office with his departure from it.

Dragged Down By Asthma.

The man or woman who is continually subject to asthma is robbed for his or her life's work. Research depots and hospitals are taking every effort to lessen a chronic sufferer. And yet this is needless. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has brought a great change to an army of sufferers. It relieves the restricted air tubes and gradually against future trouble. Try it.

French Savings Restricted

When Bank Accounts Exceeds Limit Depositor Must Withdraw Excess

Although the French people are noted for their thrift there are a number of savings bank regulations that will strike the American savings depositor as peculiar.

Individual deposits are limited to 15,000 francs while for mutual charity societies or trade unions they are limited to 50,000 francs. When an account exceeds this legal limit, the bank informs the depositor to withdraw the excess.

A depositor can have but one pass book within the territory of the French Republic. The penalty for infringement on this rule is loss of interest, the forfeited interest being credited to the savings bank where the depositor had his money.

A married woman who makes no income is subjected to various restrictions in the amounts she may deposit, but if she has an income of her own she is no more restricted than her husband.

A minor may deposit money, but he cannot withdraw it until he reaches the age of sixteen, without the authorization of his legal representative.

Unclaimed accounts to be paid at a majority, at the time of marriage or after the estate dated date may be opened, but the same carried are included in the amount allowed each depositor.
